Lions Club News

This week's meeting of the Lions Club will be at 8:30, as the meeting time for the winter months has been set at that time. W. H. Moffitt and Leon Reeves, captains in the attendance contest, are about even, Lion Moffitt's side having 20 with perfect attendance and Leon Reeves 18 with perfect attendance. When the contest is over next April the losing side will have to feed the winning side.

Twenty-six Lions and guests went to Lakeview last Thursday night and put on the program for the newly organized Lakeview Club, which is sponsored by the Clarendon and Hedley Clubs. They reported a good time, a good time, a good feed and a very enjoyable program. Many thanks should be given to those appearing on the program and the program committee for this was one of the best programs of the year.

Don't forget, on or about Oct. 6th the Lions plan an entertainment at the school for all. It will be in the form of an Amateur Contest with lots of music and stunts of all kinds.

News Of The Rationing Board

Because there is a critical shortage of popular brand cigarettes, some dealers and street vendors throughout the district have been reported to have increased their selling prices. This is a direct violation of OPA regulations, for the ceiling price has not been raised. Many of those selling at excessive prices do not have state licenses to retail cigarettes. Some localities report that they believe hoarding is to blame for the shortage and that if consumers will buy in moderation when cigarettes are available the situation will ease up. If you are "approached" with the opportunity to buy cigarettes at more than the ceiling price, please report it to your local Price Panel.

BASKETBALL

Wartime Washington

By Congressman Eugene Worley

Congress, in cooperation with the War Department, has made provision for an American flag to be presented to the family or any member of the Armed Forces who has lost his life in the service of his country. If the boy died in this country and his body was returned to his home for burial it is presumed that the flag which accompanied the body was retained by the family.

Those boys, however, who died overseas were buried near the place where they died. In such cases memorial American flags, measuring 5 ft. x 9 ft. 6 in. are available to their families.

All of us know and are proud of the high and noble service record made by the boys of the Texas Panhandle. Many of them have made the supreme sacrifice. The families of these brave boys are entitled to receive this memorial flag and I will be glad to help them do so.

If those families who have experienced the sad loss of a loved one will write to me I shall be very glad to see that their request is immediately cared for. In order to establish eligibility for a flag, it is necessary for the family to forward the notice which they received from the War Department. If, however, such notice has been lost or misplaced and if you will provide me with necessary details I shall be glad to contact the War Department for you.

The G. I. Bill of Rights seems to be getting off to a good start. For example, a former Marine, blinded by an accident and honorably discharged from the service a year ago, investigated the G. I. Bill of Rights, especially the part about education, and soon was taking a postgraduate course in prosthetics. He now has his own laboratory. Another Veteran who was discharged from the service with a crushed chest and blindness is now an honor student in Law School, with many of his expenses paid by the Government. They both said, "It gives you a different outlook and a comfortable feeling to know that your Government is looking out for you."

I have available additional copies of my remarks concerning the benefits provided servicemen and their dependents and will be glad to mail these to anyone interested.

For Sale—battery radio in good condition. Mrs. Lela Hemelstrand

Delbert Kinsey and family and Lake Dishman of Hereford, Mr. Hensley of Amarillo and John Kinsey of Vega attended the funeral of Mrs. C. L. Kinsey Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Buford Hinds and daughter Marjorie Ann of Tye visited in the Frank Kendall home over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson visited her parents at Scranton last week.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS Allied Columns Thrust Toward Industrial Belt in Rhineland; U. S. Carries War to Philippines

Released by Western Newspaper Union (EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

Belgian pedestrians stand by as U. S. medical corps men dress wounds of German soldiers caught in withering machine gun fire.

EUROPE: Sight Rhineland

Quickly catching their breath after their drive across France and Belgium, the valiant U. S. First and Third armies renewed their offensive against a reorganized enemy in a supreme effort to knock the Germans out of the war this year. While the Nazis regrouped behind their vaunted Siegfried line...

CROPS: Huge Harvest

With August rains checking the serious deterioration of the crop in the drought area east of the Mississippi, the U. S. department of agriculture predicted a bumper corn harvest of 3,101,319,000 bushels for 1944, second largest on record.

Markets Dip

With the USDA reporting excellent crop prospects, prices on leading grain markets dipped, with only wheat bearing up under purchases of the Commodity Credit corporation and information that the agency was interested in deferred shipments.

PACIFIC: Homecoming

Two and one-half years after the Japanese over-ran the Philippines, U.S. naval forces under Admiral Chester Nimitz's command have come back to subject enemy installations on the islands to withering aerial and artillery fire.

Adm. Nimitz

Do or Die

As the reinforced U. S. Fifth and British Eighth armies threw their full strength at Germany's Gothic line in northern Italy, guarding the rich agricultural and industrial valley of the Po, Nazi Field Marshal Albert Kesselring went all out in an effort to hold his ground.

Utilize Manpower

With manpower always Russia's strategic military trump, the Reds were making full use of it on the eastern front, where four major actions were in progress against the Germans' shortened, but strained, defense lines.

MISCELLANY

EMPLOYMENT: Of the 53,170,000 persons employed in the U. S., 19,440,000 are women, the bureau of census reported. Although 3,000,000 women were added to payrolls during the 12-month period ending in August, 1943, there was an appreciable increase in the number of women as a whole, the figure for August, 1944, decreased 1,000.

AIR TRAVEL: Postwar Preparation

Taking full advantage of the war time stimulus given aviation both in the development of equipment and transportation service, three major airlines planning for postwar traffic placed orders for 93 super sky ships with the Douglas Aircraft company at a cost of more than $50,000,000.

NO STRIKES: UAW Keeps Pledge

Miners Meet

While the biggest union in the world - the union John L. Lewis helped to build - was meeting in Grand Rapids, the United Mine Workers were holding their biennial convention in Cincinnati, Ohio.

TELEFACT

Grand Rapids, the United Mine Workers were holding their biennial convention in Cincinnati, Ohio. Here, in all of his glory, shaggy, portly John L., who seemed to have ridden out a rebellious movement for one of his ex-lieutenants for district self-rule in the union, railed against the record of mine disaster victims as "butchery" and a "crying national shame."

BIG TWO: Meet in Quebec

Although selection of a supreme commander for the Pacific and master overall plans for dealing a death-blow to the Japanese chiefly occupied the attention of President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill at their second historic Quebec conference, postwar European problems also loomed importantly in the discussions.

ARMISTICE: Pattern Set

Armistice terms under which Romania agreed to pay Russia $300,000,000 in goods, industrial equipment and foodstuffs in six years was considered to constitute a model for other dealings with enemy countries.

PAYROLL

Declaring that about 5 per cent of the working population in the U. S. is now employed by the federal government, Sen. Harry Byrd (Va.) revealed that there were 3,112,965 persons on the payroll July 31, exclusive of 252,973 war department employees engaged outside of the country.

Hidden Resources

Although present U. S. oil reserves are estimated at 20 billion barrels, our known oil in the ground actually is nearer 100 billion barrels, much of which could be recovered by some new method or if higher prices were established, this is the opinion of experts.

Mail G.I. Christmas Gifts Early, Home Folks To'd

CHRISTMAS comes early this year for families who will be packing gifts for folks in service overseas, points out Marjorie Griffin, Home Editor of nationally circulated Capper's Farmer. Those whose service kin are still stationed in this country will, of course, have greater leeway in getting their gifts mailed.

For yuletide packages going overseas, a mailing deadline of October 15 was set. Only one parcel could be sent per week from any person to any one individual in the "armed forces overseas" between September 15 and October 15.

Among "What to send" items, Miss Griffin lists: fruitcake, cookies, hard candy, nuts, caramels or chocolate bars. Individually wrapped and packed in tin or wood, these travel well. Cigars, cigarettes and toilet articles in sealed packages may likewise be enclosed. Sharp-pointed instruments such as razors and knives must be well-wrapped and protected to prevent their cutting through a box. Small game kits and pocket-size books of jokes or good stories are popular, as are many items of apparel.

"Wrap each gift, no matter how small, in a different Christmas paper," urges Miss Griffin. "Even individual packages of hard mints and gum which can be slipped into tiny openings should each be wrapped gaily. If holiday wrappings are different to find this season, use plain colored paper. Glue on Christmas trees, snowmen and similar typical shapes fashioned from contrasting colors. "Tuck in a miniature Christmas tree or Santa Claus. "Pack the gifts in a box of wood, solid fiberboard or double-faced corrugated fiberboard. Print or type the address carefully. Take care to get the A.P.O. and serial number correct. Put the address on a slip of paper and tuck it inside the package. Also put the address on the box and on the wrapper. Label each plainly on the outside, "Christmas parcel."

Save for War Bonds

The what-to-wear problem is easily answered with a well-fitting dressmaker suit in your wardrobe. The one shown here has this season's rounded lapels and gracefully curved tucks that widen the shoulders. A skirt with more fullness than last spring's silhouette completes the picture. This suit in your favorite fall color can be tailored to perfection at home from a pattern obtainable at your local store. The savings on the suit you make means more War Bonds for you.

Kidneys Must Work Well—

For You To Feel Well

24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood.

If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer sagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling.

Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence at all drug stores.

It's Simple Furniture With Frills, Ruffles

IF YOU have been wondering if quaintness, frills and ruffles were going into the decorating ash can after the war, the answer is—NO!

Period themes and quaintness will be stepped up to have a dramatic quality. Modern ideas will creep in and add to this effect. Simple furniture will be built in and fabrics will be cut and sewn especially to fit the spaces they are to fill. The bed curtains for the slanting wall in the sketch are an example—and the triangular shaped window curtains to give extra fullness. Frills will be even fuller than those of our dreams, and many a homemaker who never before used her sewing machine attachments will be learning the mysteries of the ruffler and hemmer.

NOTE—Why not start your dream room now with a skirted blanket chest like the one in this sketch? It is handy to have extra covers handy on chilly nights and the padded top makes a comfortable seat. Pattern 259 gives complete and fully illustrated directions with detailed list of materials needed for making the chest, full skirt and top cushion. SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

Consumption of reclaimed rubber in the United States increased more than 50 per cent from 1940 to 1943. Reclaimed rubber may frequently be used in the manufacture of the same articles from which it was reclaimed. In 1943 gasoline and motor vehicle tax revenues combined accounted for nearly 30 per cent of the total state revenues. Next year will mark the thirtieth anniversary of the use of motor vehicles in the rural free delivery mail service. Rubber-tired mail cars had a bearing on the federal old highway law in 1916.

Hungry Paris Rejoices At Liberation From Nazis
Last Three Weeks of Occupation Prove Decided Hardship on City

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Although Ernie Pyle is now in England and headed home for a much-needed rest after two and one-half years on the fighting fronts, this column was written before he left France.)

By Ernie Pyle

PARIS.—Eating has been skimpy in Paris through the four years of German occupation, but reports that people were on the verge of starvation apparently were untrue. The country people of Normandy all seemed so healthy and well fed that we said all along: "Well, country people always fare best, but just wait till we get to Paris. We'll see real suffering there."

Of course the people of Paris have suffered during these four years of darkness. But I don't believe they have suffered as much physically as we had thought.

Certainly they don't look bedraggled and gaunt and pitiful, as the people of Italy did. In fact they look to me just the way you would expect them to look in normal times.

However, the last three weeks before the liberation really were rough. For the Germans, sensing that their withdrawal was inevitable, began taking everything for themselves.

There is very little food in Paris right now. The restaurants either are closed or serve only the barest meals—coffee and sandwiches. And the "national coffee," as they call it, is made from barley and is about the vilest stuff you ever tasted. France has had nothing else for four years.

If you were to take a poll on what the average Parisian most wants in the way of little things, you would probably find that he wants real coffee, soap, gasoline and cigarets.

Eating is the biggest problem right now for us correspondents. The army hasn't yet set up a mess. We can't even get our rations cooked in our hotel kitchens, on account of the gas shortage.

So we just eat cold K-rations and 10-in-1 rations in our rooms. For two days most of us were so busy we didn't eat at all, and on the morning after the liberation of Paris some of the correspondents were actually so weak from not eating that they could hardly navigate. But the food situation should be relieved within a few days. The army is bringing in 3,000 tons of food right away for the Parisian: That is only about two pounds per person, but it will help.

In little towns only 10 miles from Paris you can get eggs and wonderful dinners of meat and noodles. Food does exist, and now that transportation is open again Paris should be eating soon.

Autos were almost nonexistent on the streets of Paris when we arrived. That first day we met an English girl who had been here throughout the war, and we drove her for some distance in our jeep. She was as excited as a child, and said that was her first ride in a motorcar in four years. We told her that it wasn't a motorcar, that it was a jeep, but she said it was a motorcar to her.

Outside of war vehicles, a few French civilian cars were running when we arrived but they were all in official use in the fighting. All of these had "FFI" (French Forces of the Interior) painted in rough white letters on the fenders, tops and sides.

Although it appears that the Germans did conduct themselves fairly properly up until the last few weeks, the French really detest them. One woman told me that for the first three weeks of the occupation the Germans were fine but that then they turned arrogant. The people of Paris simply tolerated them and nothing more.

The Germans did perpetrate medieval barbarities against leaders of the resistance movement as their plight became more and more desperate. But what I'm driving at is that the bulk of the population of Paris—the average guy who just gets along no matter who is here—didn't really fare too badly from day to day. It was just the things they heard about and the fact of being under a bullheaded and arrogant thumb, that created the smoldering hatred for the Germans in the average Parisian's heart.

You can get an idea how they feel from a little incident that occurred the first night we were here.

We put up at a little family sort of hotel in Montparnasse. The landlady took us up to show us our rooms. A cute little French maid came along with her.

As we were looking around the room the landlady opened a wardrobe door, and there on a shelf lay a German soldier's cap that he had forgotten to take.

The landlady picked it up with the tips of her fingers, held it out at arm's length, made a face, and dropped it on a chair.

Whereupon the little maid reached up with her pretty foot and gave it a huge kick that sent it sailing across the room.

In Paris we had slept in beds and walked on carpeted floors for the first time in three months.

It was a beautiful experience, and yet for some perverse reason a great inner feeling of calm and relief came over us when we once again set up our cots in a tent, with apple trees for our draperies and only the green grass for a rug.

Hank Gorrell of the United Press was with me, and he said:

"This is ironic, that we should have to go back with the armies to get some peace."

The gaiety and charm and big-cityness of Paris somehow had got a little on our nerves after so much of the opposite. I guess it indicates that all of us will have to make our return to normal life gradually and in small doses.

Paris unquestionably is a lovely city. It seems to me to have been but little hurt by the war. You can still buy almost anything imaginable if you have money. Everybody is well-dressed. But prices are terrific, and already they have started zooming higher.

Those of us who expect to be coming home before long have made shopping tours and stocked up with gifts. And with the exception of perfume, which is dirt cheap, we pay about three times what we would at home for the same thing.

I'm sorry the restaurants couldn't open before we left. For although I'm not much of a gourmet I do value the sense of taste, and we've eaten enough meals in private homes and small-town restaurants over here to realize that it's all true about the French culinary genius. They simply have a knack for making any old thing taste wonderful, just as the British have a knack for making everything taste horrible.

We thought there were a lot of people on the streets those first two days. But you should have seen Paris a few days later, when the whole populace began to come out. By mid-afternoon it is almost impossible to drive in the streets because of the bicycles. They take up the entire street, as far as you can see. The sidewalks are packed. It's like Christmas shopping time at home.

Within three days Paris was transformed from a city crackling and roaring with brief warfare into a city entirely at peace. Within three days Paris was open for business as usual, and its attitude toward the war reminded me of Cairo after its threat of danger had gone.

As usual, those Americans most deserving of seeing Paris will be the last ones to see it, if they ever do. By that I mean the fighting soldiers. Only one infantry regiment and one reconnaissance outfit of Americans actually came into Paris, and they passed on through the city quickly and went on with their war.

The first ones in the city to stay were such nonfighters as the psychological-warfare and civil-affairs people, public-relations men and correspondents.

Front-Line Medics Deserve Pay Hike

The last time I was with the front-line medics—a battalion detachment in the Fourth division—they showed me a piece in the Stars and Stripes about congress passing the new $10-a-month pay increase for soldiers holding the combat infantrymen's badge.

This combat infantryman is a proud thing, a mark of distinction, a sign on to show that he has been through the mill. The medical aidmen were feeling badly because the piece said they were not eligible for the badge.

Their captain asked me what I thought, and so did some of the enlisted aidmen. And I could tell them truthfully that my feelings agreed with theirs. They should have

"All officers and men will advance to kill or be killed"

THIS IS NO DREAMED-UP HEADLINE—no "tone poem" conceived on an inspired typewriter. It's the way the army explains the command "Fix bayonets—charge!" Only the Infantry has it put to them in these words. As one doughboy said:

"I'll remember those eleven words the rest of my life."
Remember? How can he forget them? They describe the climax of the Infantryman's assault—they describe the most cold-blooded action on a battlefield. Yet Infantry officers and men have advanced, countless times, to kill or be killed... at Saratoga... at New Orleans... the Argonne... New Guinea... Salerno. There's no rescinding of this order—no retreating—no nothing but plain killing.

Right now, the men of the Infantry are closing in for the final kill. They're advancing every day—advancing to the order of "kill or be killed." Remember this the next time you see a doughboy on furlough. Remember this the next time you almost forget to write that letter. Remember it till your dying day. You can't pay the doughboy back—but at least you can be forever mindful of his role in this fight for freedom.

"Keep moving... THE DOUGHBOY DOES IT!"
