VOL. 35

HEDLEY, DONLEY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JUNE 22, 1945

NO. 32

Baseball

Last Sunday in an extra inning baseball game the Hedley American Legion sponsored team defeated the Amarillo DeMolays by the score of 8 to 7. The DeMolays play 18 year old boys and under and the Legion 17 and under, so Hedley was allowed to use three older players to even up the ages.

Each side used two pitchers, Amarillo a right hander and a left hander, Hedley used Owens for 6 innings and Ricerson 5 innings. Darnell caught all the game for Hedley. It was anybody's ball game until two were out in the last half of the 11th inning and Huff ran scored Messer and Wynon as a slow roller down third base line.

The Hedley boys showed improvement in their hitting, fielding and throwing. In fact about the only thing Amarillo had on the local boys was their new suits they doesn't someone start a run today the Hedley boys as? would not only make them look and play better, but it would be good ads for the town.

Sunday School Class Party

And Mrs. M. W. Moser took the Moser Junior boys Sunday School class on a fishing and swimming party at Johnson Lake Monday. A picnic lunch was spread at noon. They reported a swell time fishing, boating and swimming, even though they returned with blistered backs. Twelve boys attended the picnic.

News Of The Rationing Board

The home canning sugar situation is serious. Sugar supplies have become increasingly tight. World developments in sugar have forced the War Food Administration to further cut the allocation of sugar for U. S. civilians, on May 1, by about 400,000 tons. Severe drought in Cuba, labor troubles in Puerto Rico, increased needs for relief feeding of liberated Europe and increased military demands have reduced sugar supplies to less than had been anticipated at the start of this year. The total civilian allocation for the year is down to about 5,000,000 tons.

With the reduced allocation it was necessary along with other cuts to reduce the amount of sugar available for home canning from 700,000 tons to 600,000 tons, even though the need for home canning is more vital this year than last.

The 600,000 tons allocated for home canning is enough to do the necessary home canning, if every pound is used only for home canning. In order that we may stay within the season's quota the local board will issue 5 pounds per person at the present time and if sugar is available at a later date a second issuance will be made. We must see that issuance is spread over the season so that we do not reach the later fruit crop season with no more sugar to give the people with real needs.

All applicants will be required to report the quantity that they have received. This is to be done as soon as canning is done, or at the end of the season.

Lions Club News

Over 100 Lions, ladies and their guests enjoyed the Ladies Night meeting of the local Lions Club last Thursday night. W. H. Patrick of Clarendon and Cecil Hunter (Stuttering Sam) of Amarillo were the principal speakers.

This week the directors will meet and try to put a little interest in the finish of the Seventh War Loan drive. Is Hedley asleep? The Hedley boys in service are not.

Next week's meeting is one we should all attend. An expert on soil conservation will be on the program. This is something we all should be interested in. Bring your farmer friends.

7th War Loan Drive

The Seventh War Loan drive is drawing to a close slow but surely and Hedley is raising its quota slow but not so surely. There is only one more week of the drive and the local bank and post office have sold only $15,077.50 in E bonds and $13,814.50 in all other bonds. Hedley's quota is $48,000. Noticeably lacking in this drive is the small E bonds sales. Let's all try to get us a bond or two before the drive closes.

Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. John Dickson honored their little grandson, Johnie M. Dickson Jr., Saturday June 16, with a party celebrating his second birthday.

The children played several games during the afternoon under the direction of Mrs. Jewell Quisenberry. Then the honoree unwrapped the many presents.

The crowning event of the evening was when the children were called into the dining room where the beautifully decorated birthday cake was centered on a round reflector banked with flowers on a lace covered table and flanked by two tall white candles. After making wishes, blowing out candles and singing "Happy Birthday" to Johnie, refreshments carrying out the color scheme of pink and green were served.

Those present were Winfred Gene McCracken, Carolyn Sue and Kathleen McPherson, Jon Lloyd Leggett, Glenda and Wanita Anderson, Janet, Barbara and Genda Kay Hansard, David and Joan Ray Moreman, Jimmy Adcock, Rita Kay and Neal Latimer, David Edward Boliver and Charles and Francis Johnson from Childress, the honoree, Johnie M. Dickson Jr. and several mothers.

To the People of this Community

Even if the war ended this very moment you still would be doing the best thing for yourself and your family by investing the biggest amount in War Bonds today you have ever saved for future spending. From a strictly self-interest viewpoint you cannot afford to fritter away war wages in a market of scarce goods. New autos, new homes, new appliances, new radios, will not be coming off production lines instantly the last shot is fired by one of your tired relatives or friends. War Bonds will make wonderful peace-time ammunition when they mature $4 for every $3 you store away now.

P. S. Just to bring you out of that postwar dream, take another look at the headlines. There's still a war on. You and your money are needed to beat the Japs. The bonds you buy today are WAR BONDS. There'll be time 10 years hence for you to think of them as PEACE BONDS.

Larger Acre Yields Receive Weather Aid

Major Role Played In Control of Pests

During the war years good weather has consistently pushed yields of crops beyond what would be expected with ordinary conditions and improved farming practices. Additional credit for high acre yields during the war years is attributed by Agricultural Adjustment agency reports to the widespread increase of land conservation practices, which aid in producing bigger crops from the same planted acreage.

The problem for farmers lies in the fact that it is not easy to guess which pests will increase and which crops will be attacked, since weather conditions are very likely to encourage some pests while reducing others. Last fall, for instance, unusually large populations of several serious crop pests went into hibernation. As a result, observations now show that many, such as chinch bugs, the boll weevil, the codling moth, and the cattle pests, the screwworm, began the season with the largest over-wintering population in many years.

Although entomologists do not predict that increased insect damage is inevitable this year, they urge farmers to be more watchful than usual throughout the season, and to take definite steps to save crops and animals. Ordering insecticides and equipment now, before pests have attacked crops, is vital to proper handling of the situation.

Wasteful Branding Cuts Stockmen's Profit

The stock raisers of America are losing more than $10,000,000 a year by faulty branding. Considered necessary on the ranges to identify ownership, and required by law in some sections, it is possible to brand cattle without material damage to the hide.

The value of the hide represents 50 per cent of the by-products, and the purchase price of all cattle is determined by value of by-products as well as meat. This makes it essential that when branding is desirable, that the brands be as small as possible, and placed on jaws, neck—or that acid branding be used.

In the past, due to direct market value of hides, producers have paid little attention to the condition of the hide. Ticks, grubs and brands, which had ruined hide, were not considered seriously. The attitude has been, "when we get paid a good price for hides, we will turn out a quality hide." Despite the justice in this attitude, the farmer not only is losing 10 million dollars annually, but the men in service are out 3 million pair of shoes—and rationing of civilian shoes must continue.

Hog Cholera Serum

The loss among hogs from hog cholera has been reduced 80 per cent since the discovery and use of the preventive serum-virus treatment. While sanitation is essential, it is not always possible to protect hogs by sanitation alone.

The most dependable preventive is to keep the entire swine herd immunized by the serum-virus method. Since dosage is governed by weight, it is more economical to treat pigs while still young.

Captured on Luzon island in the Philippines, these Jap war prisoners relish can of U. S. army C rations.

PACIFIC: No Halt

Though fighting on Okinawa was as tough as that on Iwo Jima, results have been the same, with the gradual U. S. conquest of the island pressing home the immediate danger to Japan proper, 325 miles to the north.

With Japan already hard hit by air, the enemy looked for an imminent invasion of the homeland, with propagandists seeking to assure the people of the strength of well-provisioned underground fortifications, long in the making to thwart any landings.

Having fought through the maze of interlocking Jap caves on Iwo Jima and Okinawa, American soldiers viewed any underground fortifications in the enemy homeland as an elaboration of the defensive systems on these outlying islands. Though heavily battered after terrific aerial and artillery bombardment, they were only cleared by steady, concentrated U. S. fire from close-up, plus the gradual exhaustion of supplies.

Even as U. S. ground troops reduced Okinawa with its valuable air fields for raids upon the enemy homeland, U. S. fliers were busy hammering at Jap industrial centers and supply lines to China.

With the American fleet dominant in Pacific waters, U. S. aircraft took off from carriers to plaster enemy shipping plying between Japan and Korea, thus forcing the Japanese to use a more round-about route farther north to get into China or else try to break the blockade at night or in rough weather.

Harassment of this route came on top of the U. S. sea and air threat to the Japanese overwater supply line from their conquered South Pacific possessions, and the Chinese pressure against the enemy's overland corridor running the length of the east coast of China.

Meanwhile, Superfort bombardments of Jap industrial centers continued apace, with the B-29s extending the devastation of already heavily battered homeland cities.

EUROPE: Allied Snag

Reworking of the occupational zones in the face of Russian demands for greater territory, and the Red's insistence that U. S. and British forces withdraw from fringes of their proposed holdings, slowed up organization of machinery for coordinated Allied administration of the beaten country.

The snag in plans followed the U. S., British, Russian and French declaration stripping Germany of all Hitlerian conquests and restoring its 1937 borders, and placing all of the material and human resources of the country at the disposal of the Big Four. Severe as the declaration was, it left the door open for further alteration of the German frontier, and imposition of additional regulations for governing the people.

As the U. S. and British representatives at the Big Four meeting in Berlin, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Field Marshal Montgomery visited the battered German capital for the first time since its fall, leaving shortly after the signing of the declaration because of the inability of the Russian delegate to proceed on joint control agreement until settlement of the latest claims of Moscow.

Recognition of Russian demands for additional occupational territory would give the Reds control of half of Germany and include the cities of Leipzig, Gotha and Erfurt and the whole province of Thuringia presently held by the U. S.

SAN FRANCISCO: Break Log-Jam

With Russia's agreement to permit the discussion of disputes by the security council of the United Nations' postwar peace organization, the log-jam holding up the conclusion of the San Francisco conference was broken.

In insisting that any of the five major powers have the right to veto the discussion of a dispute, Russia almost stood alone through three weeks of prolonged hickering, finally giving in after consultations between U. S. Envoys Hopkins and Harriman with Stalin in Moscow. Though the agreement permits discussion of a dispute without danger of veto, any of the Big Five can vote down proposals for formally investigating the trouble or calling for peaceful settlement.

One of the outstanding issues of the conference, the veto question ranked in importance with the subjects of international trusteeships and regional pacts, also resolved after lengthy deliberations. In the matter of the trusteeships, the U. S. was granted unqualified possession of Pacific islands wrested from the Japanese and needed for American defense until congress should decide to turn them over to the peace organization. Under the agreement on regional pacts, groups of nations banded into cooperative units can try to work out their own problems before submitting them to the security council of the postwar peace organization, or resort to self defense if attacked without waiting for league action.

MEAT: Peg Supply

In addition to steering more cattle to federally inspected packers to permit greater distribution of meat across state lines and cutting out all lend-lease or relief meat shipments through July-August-September, the government also reduced military allocations to allow a proportionate increase in supplies to civilians.

Even so, the severe meat pinch will endure through the summer months, with prospects for improvement in the fall when increased marketings should not only permit greater supplies for civilians but also resumption of limited shipments overseas.

Though the government chopped military allocations down to 1,213,000,000 pounds for July-August-September, and pegged civilian allotments around present levels of 3,740,000,000 pounds, the amount available for home consumption will remain dependent upon supplies in the quarter. During April - May-June, supplies fell below government goals.

NEW FIRE BOMB

A new incendiary bomb which sprouts pyrotechnic gel has figured prominently in U. S. fire raids on Jap industrial centers.

Known as the M74, this 10-pound tubular bomb spills a blend of violently inflammable chemicals over the target like natural lava erupting from a volcano. One of the ingredients is "goop"—magnesium powder coated with asphalt mass.

Sharp Characters Act At Ease With Others

Why is a sharp character sharp and why is a sad sack sad? Why do some guys and girls seem at ease with others? Why do others with just as many assets seem to be betting their brains out trying to decide what to do with their hands? It's all a matter of learning to control your outward actions, no matter how awkward you feel, says Holly Miller, whose column in nationally circulated "Boys and Girls" is a popular feature among teen age boys and girls as well as their elders. "The smoother you act, the smoother you feel," she counsels. "To be well-groomed may cost you an effort, but don't let it show. Mend your clothes by midnight oil, get up at dawn to press your suit, spend half an hour before your mirror getting your make-up right—if you must. Then forget your appearance. "Boys, that means no fussing with ties and trying to make a crease where there should be one. Girls, that means no peeking in mirrors, no patting your hair, no pulling of clothes and straightening of stocking seams." Among Miss Miller's suggestions for cultivating poise and ease are: Stand up straight; Look 'em straight in the eye; Avoid mannerisms; Don't talk with your hands. "Beat your gums—but not so loud," she advises. "A shrill, loud voice is curdling to the spirit. On that same subject, resounding giggles and horselaughs are strictly for the birds."

"HOW'D THE UMP GET IN THE GAME?"

WHETHER it's baseball or business, Americans expect fair play all the way.

In baseball, the umpire sees to it that the game is played according to the rules. But he is not a player.

In business, government should be the umpire who enforces fair rules.

But when government goes into business and competes with its own citizens, the American tradition of fair play is set aside. The umpire then becomes a player, and he enjoys advantages that are denied to all the other players.

For example, government and municipal power-plants are not required to pay federal taxes; often get money from the U. S. Treasury at little or no interest; make up losses out of the pockets of the taxpayers.

Maybe you run a store or service station or beauty shop. Would you like to have a next-door competitor who has little or no rent, or taxes, or interest to pay, and who is kept in business partly by your tax money?

Fortunately for America today, over 80% of the tremendous electric power in this country is produced by tax-paying, self-supporting electric light and power companies, owned and operated by several million folks like you.

These business-managed companies are a big reason why there is enough electricity to meet even the gigantic demands of war—and why, when most things cost more, electricity is still delivered at low pre-war prices.

IOWA'S FIRST CAPITOL

Among the important shrines that American youths are learning to protect is the Administration Building of the University of Iowa, Iowa City, constructed in 1849 as the first State Capitol. In 1857 the government moved to Des Moines and the building was turned over to the University. People on the home front buy War Bonds to equip service men who are guarding such institutions as this one in Iowa, which began with 75 students and now numbers 19,000.

TAR AND SHIRTS

Great industrial plants at Pittsburgh and elsewhere in Pennsylvania produce articles needed by other industries throughout the world. This state also leads the nation in its output of coal, tar, pig iron, sandstone, slate and petroleum. It produces shirts, stockings, felt hats, rayon yarn and lace goods in huge quantities. All this output adds to the financial strength of the nation, which stands solidly behind your War Bonds.

More Flowers in the '45 Victory Garden

Grow bouquets as well as beans this coming season! Flowers can add plenty of pleasure and zest to the plainer duties of vegetable gardening. More beauty in gardens can definitely be classed as part of the "better gardens" program our government recommends for 1945.

Where space is limited, the simplest way is to devote a few rows to easy-to-grow flowers that can be used for cutting material. Or, a border of flowers can surround the entire garden or part of the garden to make the vegetable plot an attractive part of the home grounds. Surprisingly enough, when the vegetable rows are well laid out and cared for, they are as pleasing to look at as the flowers themselves.

Annual flowers grown in rows in the garden can be cared for in the same way as vegetables. Anters are suitable. Be sure to get seed of the wilt resistant type. Bachelor buttons are always lovely for cutting. So are calendula and calliopsis and gillardia. Both nasturtium and salpiglossis are at their best in bowls or vases and are better adapted to growing in rows than in a flower border. African and French marigolds, Giant and Lilliput zinnias can be cultivated with a hoe the same as carrots or corn.

Medium and low growing flowers are usually best for bordering the vegetable plot. Petunias in rose, blue, and white are colorful and neat. Lilliput zinnias in a blend of bright hues will furnish a band of brilliance between garden and lawn. Harmony marigolds or one of the newer dwarf varieties with a

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

FRED: "Is it true, Judge, that a war can't be won without the use of war-alcohol... the kind the beverage distillers have been producing for the government for over two years?"

OLD JUDGE: "That's right, Fred. It is a basic ingredient in the smokeless powder used in virtually every firearm from a pistol to a 16-inch gun. And, in addition, it plays a more human role. The medical supplies which our military doctors use to alleviate pain, combat infection, save lives are prepared with war-alcohol."

FRED: "No wonder, then, more and more people are recognizing the great contribution our beverage distillers have made to the winning of the war with their double-duty product."

Objective: Tokyo Ruling Classes of Japan Hold Support of Hirohito

Air Power and Emperor Worship To Play Big Role in Jap Defeat

By Walter A. Shead WNU Staff Correspondent.

Editor's Note: This is the second of three articles dealing with the all-out war effort against Japan, and of the various problems this nation must face.

How long Japan will hold out against the power of American might in the Pacific, depends largely upon our attitude toward Emperor Hirohito, the Son of Heaven.

Shall the emperor be eliminated, or shall we continue to hold him sacrosanct, undisturbed in Kyojo castle with its broad acres and moated walls close to the center of Tokyo?

Incendiary bombs from our B-29s have burned out thousands of the homes of his humble subjects within sight of his castle. . . a few bombs even struck the stables in the emperor's grounds. But the policy of our state department and the military up to this point, at least, has been to spare Hirohito. Our propaganda heaps no villainous names upon Hirohito such as we did upon Hitler and Mussolini.

And yet the Japanese militarists make no move without the sanction of their emperor. Indeed, Hirohito is depicted as a tool in the hands of the militarists, but every official deed of the Jap government must have the sanction of the emperor. Jap citizens are taught that the most noble act of their lives is to fight and die for their emperor.

To the Japanese people their emperor is divine, although his divinity has only been in existence during the last 70 years, a ready-made divinity sold to the people by propaganda of the ruling classes. This state worship, which is a religion, in Japan is a mixture of Shintoism, nature worship, some Confucianism and remnants of ancestral worship from China. It was born of a political need following the revolution of 1868 when the leaders of the revolution restored the emperors to power and needed some binding influence to bring together the fighting clans and tribes of the country. So they invented the religion in which the emperor emerged as divine, a supreme being.

Ruling Class Beat Hitler in State Worship

As a matter of fact the ruling classes of Japan who are comparable to the junkers in Germany, beat Hitler to the punch by a half century on this question of state worship.

And so it has been the policy of our government to go slow on the matter of the emperor . . . whether propaganda or military attacks on him would take on the nature of a religious war and increase the fanaticism and resistance of the Japanese people . . . to just "wait and see."

But at any rate, this worship of the emperor as God by the Japanese people plays an important role in how soon the struggle in the Far East will end . . . with the word of Hirohito as the final authority, the Japs will fight on to the last man until that word for unconditional surrender comes from his lips.

Military leaders here believe that air power will play even a more important role in the Japanese war than it did in Germany for two reasons: (1) because Japanese war industries are largely centered in three main districts around Tokyo, Kobe and Osaka and on the southern island of Kyushu. Japan has not had time to decentralize her industries and to turn from one industrial area to another as Germany did. Much of the Jap war industry is subcontracted by thousands of small plants each employing only a few workers and one source declares there are 45,000 of these tiny home

What will Britain do with Singapore and Hong Kong, British Malaya, Burma and India? What will the Dutch do with her rich empire in the Netherlands East Indies. Star Dust STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO Released by Western Newspaper Union.

By VIRGINIA VALE 'FOOLISH NOTION,' by Philip Barry, is a play that's right up Hollywood's alley, partly because it would make a delightful picture, partly also because of its cast. Talullah Bankhead returned to Broadway in it after she had "Lifeboat" and "A Royal Scandal" to add to her screen career; Donald Cook is known to movie goers, as is Aubrey Mather. And Maria Manton makes her stage debut—she's the daughter of Marlene Dietrich. She's a big girl, prettier than her mother was when she arrived in this country, with a peaches-and-cream voice and an obvious talent for seductive roles. "Foolish Notion" could step onto the screen with its Broadway cast, successfully.

Of course we're used to those nicknames—"The Look," "The Beard," and all the rest of them. But Paramount certainly didn't look ahead when insuring Olivia de Havilland's chin for $100,000 because Ray Milland was to hit her on it in "The Well Groomed Bride." Because quick as a flash up came a name for Olivia—"The Jaw." Sounds more like something belonging to a prize fighter than a pretty girl!

In Hollywood, it's a nice gesture—Betty Hutton, between pictures, lent her stand-in, Barbara Cain, to Joan Caulfield, the young Broadway actress. Barbara, star of Broadway's "Kiss and Tell," was beginning her film career, in Paramount's "Miss Susie Slagle."

It looked as if Penny Singleton was doomed to play "Blondie" forever until Hunt Stromberg gave her a chance to escape in "Young Widow." She was a victim of typing, till he put her into this picture, in which Jane Russell and Louis Hayward are co-starred. Jean Hersholt ran into the same difficulty after he did "The Country Doctor"; Van Johnson escaped the fate of the "Dr. Kildare" series, thanks to the bobby soxers. Basil Rathbone has to fight to avoid eternally playing Sherlock Holmes. Typing can make a Hollywood star, and ruin him.

Virginia Bruce goes brunette for her dual role in Republic's "Love, Honor and Goodbye." She's blonde for half the film, then dons a disguise as a brunette French maid to test her husband's fidelity. In private life Virginia's best tint is honey blonde.

Three years ago, after abandoning his job as vocalist for Harry James' band to get a start in films, Dick Haymes was broke and hungry. He got a job chauffeuring Chick Chandler to work at 20th Century-Fox. Now Chandler plays a columnist in "Kitten on the Keys" starring Dick Haymes and Maureen O'Hara, nearly breaks up their romance—and Haymes is slated to give his former employer a punch in the jaw!

That's a swell idea of Bob Burns'—in his home town of Canoga Park, where he's mayor, he's planting memorial trees for all residents killed while serving in the armed forces, with a plaque bearing the war hero's name attached to each tree.

That's a swell new radio show, "Detect and Collect," launched on CBS June 13 as summer replacement for "Which Is Which." In case you haven't heard it, Wendy Barrie and Fred Uttal give each contestant five clues to identify his surprise gift, and $25 if he guesses it the first time. Prizes decrease to $5, but the contestant gets the prize even if he never guesses what it is.

ODDS AND ENDS—The Andrews Sisters have been voted the most popular harmony group by the soldiers stationed in Ireland. . . . Now that John Garfield won't be drafted, Producer Carey Wilson is ready to start production on "The Postman Always Rings Twice," starring John and Lana Turner. . . . This time Paul Whiteman has scheduled a group of Gershwin tributes instead of just a one-time shot; he's chosen Joan Edwards as soloist for the series. . . . Jimmy Carroll was vocal pincher for five top singers before he landed his own commercial CBS series, "Jimmy Carroll Sings." . . . Van Johnson gets a leading role in the picture based on Guy Lombardo's career.
