PRICE CONTROL: To Stick Despite the impending relaxation

THE HEDLEY INFORMER

of price control over minor items, firm regulation will be maintained over principal products and services until supply balances demand so as to avert postwar inflation, OPAdministrator Chester Bowles declared.

In loosening up on price control on minor items, OPA will take action when the commodity or service is not essential; continued regulation involves difficulties out of proportion to the importance of the product, and no materials, facilities or manpower will be diverted from more necessary industries.

Because various manufacturers will be in the market for vast quantities of raw materials to fill orders, and civilian demand for essential goods, food and many services will far exceed supply, maintenance of price control in the immediate postwar period will be required for curbing runaway prices, Bowles said,

WAR CONTRACTS: Keep Cutting

With war production down 9 per cent from the peak level of March, the impact on the economy will grow as more reductions are made on actual work rather than on paper commitments. By the end of the year, munitions output is expected to drop 32 per cent below the March figure.

Whereas cancellations of paper commitments comprised 31 per cent of the cutbacks in April and 14 per cent in May, such reductions made up only 5 per cent of the total in June.

Reflecting cutbacks, aircraft production was down 10 per cent in June under May; ships, including maintenance and repair, down 5 per cent; guns and fire control, down 13 per cent; ammunition and bombs, down 16 per cent; combat and motor vehicles, down 8 per cent; communications and electronic equipment, down 5 per cent, and other material and supplies up 1 per cent.

FRANCE:

As the dramatic trial of Marshal Henri Petain moved smoothly following a stormy outburst on the opening day over a barb by Prosecutor Andre Mornet that there were too many German-minded spectators present, none of the principal witnesses against the old soldier openly accused him of betraying his country. They charged he failed in his duties as a Frenchman.

Nevertheless, former Premier Paul Reynaud and Eduard Daladier and ex-President Albert Lebrun rapped Petain unmercifully for negotiating an armistice with the Germans while an effort was made to keep up the fight; assuming supreme power and virtually ruling by de-cree, and acceding to Nazi requests for manpower and material.

In testifying for the state, Dala-dier declared that France was not as weak materially at the time of her defeat as generally suspected, but fell because of errors in conception on the part of the general staff. Declaring the Germans were amazed to find huge quantities of equipment on hand, he said France possessed 3,600 tanks at the time of the invasion of Holland and Belgium to the enemy's 3,200.

Hendrickson revealed that trucks constituted the No. 1 priority for relief shipments to facilitate the movement of European crops. Under UNRRA regulations, uninvaded nations are supposed to contribute both toward the relief and administrative expenses of the project, with the invaded countries chip ping in only for running the organization. Of the $1,862,788,348 of authorized contributions of participating nations, it was revealed the S. share amounts to $1,350,000. 000

SUEZ TOLLS: U.S. Balks

With U. S. troops pouring through the Suez canal en route to the Pacific, and with toll payments already mounting to over $11,000,000, the government again pressed the British to absorb such charges under reverse lend-lease.

In pressing the British, American authorities pointed out that the U. S. defrays the cost of British ships passing through the Panama canal, with such payments already past the $9,000,000 mark.

Because the lend-lease act provides that a country can supply aid from purchases with its own money the British say they are not obliged to pay the canal tolls, since they must be made in Egyptian currency. As it is, the British declare, they already owe Egypt large sums for wartime purchases

TROOP TRAINING:

"An intensive training program faces veterans returning to the United States from Europe before they are sent to the Pacific theater. The ground forces redeployment training program includes 44 hours of training a week, with lectures, group discussions, orientation courses and movies furnishing background for the course.

Training subjects include Japatactics and technique and nese identification of Japanese weapons, uniform, insignia.

Fifteen million yards of staple cotton fabrics, commonly used for home sewing, have been made available for distribution to civilains in stores serving small town and rural areas, WPB announced. These fabrics include gingham, seersucker, lawn, bleached or unbleached class "C" sheeting, print cloths (percale), plisse (crinkled crepe), and outing flannel.

More leather shoes for civilians will be produced during the last three months of this year than in any previous quarter of 1945, because of scheduled military cutbacks WPB and OPA announced. A production rise of civilian shoes containg leather in the uppers or soles to approximately 26,000,000 pairs per month during the fourth quarter of 1945 is expected.

Prohibition of the use of the leather soles in production of footwear with moccasin-type or mudguard vamps, saddle-type footwear, and certain other types of shoes was removed by WPB.

Newspaperman Stuff: Add Things I Never Knew Till Now: In 1812 a newspaperman named Nathanial Raunsavelt was taken into custody for refusing to divulge the source of his information about the secret activities of some politicos. . . He was threatened and cajoled but stood firm. . . . Thus was established the principle of the reporter's duty to protect his news source. . . . The first American newspaper was discontinued by authori-ties because it published some gos-

King of France.

Heywood Broun was a skilled exponent of the rapier retort. He directed some of his most devastating arguments against Huey Long. . He once accused Huey of "murder-ing the truth." Long promptly shrieked for a retraction... Broun replied: "Huey says that he never murdered the truth. That's because he never gets near enough to do it any bodily harm."

Along similar lines there's the classic about the small town gazette which conducted a vigorous campaign against the town council. . . . One of their yarns was headlined: "Half the Town Council Are Crooks." . . . The outraged politicos demanded an apology, and the editor promised to run one. . . . Next day the daily carried this headline: "Half the Town Council Are Not Crooks."

About a century ago the press was in its Mother Hubbard stage. . . . Namby-pambyism was rampant. Editors took a lorgnette view of the news. This sidelight illustrates their ultra fuddy-duddy attitude: One ga-zette front-paged an apology to its subscribers because a reporter had used the word "trousers" in a yarn when he should have used the word "unmentionables"!

One Dessert-Many Variations (See Recipes Below)

Variations on a Theme

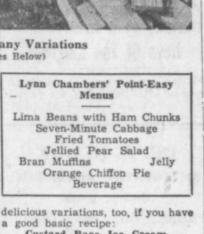

I have often thought that most of us would be better cooks if we learned to make a few dishes well instead of gathering hundreds of recipes without ever learning how to do any one of them well enough to set in front of company. Then, if these few dishes get monotonous, there are always good variations to use to make them seem entirely dif-ferent than the basic recipe.

One woman whom I know frankly admits that the only dessert which she can be certain of turning out "right and proper" is a bavarian , cream. But is it monotonous to have bavarian cream whenever we go to have dinner with her? No, indeed. Some-to be maple flavored, garnished with pecan nutmeats. Another time she will cleverly flavor it with chocolate and coffee, a most intriguing combination. Then during the fruit season, she has a spree by adding delicious combinations like pine-

Keep the Battle Rolling With War Bonds and Scrap

Joseph Pulitzer's N. Y. World set journalistic standards few newspapers have equalled. Yet Pulitzer arrived in America a poor, friendless, semi-illiterate immigrant. He spent all his spare time educating himself. . . . His enlightened opinions on the subject of newspapers are always worth absorbing. . . . Frix-ample: "What is everybody's business is nobody's business-except the journalist's. It is his by adoption. But for his care every reform would be stillborn. He holds officials to their duties. He exposes secret schemes of plunder. He promotes every hopeful plan of prog-ress. Without him public opinion ress. would be shapeless and dumb. Our Republic and its press will rise or fall together. An able, disinterested, public-spirited press, with trained intelligence to know the right and courage to do it, can preserve that public virtue without which popular government is a sham and mockery.

Hollywood has depicted foreign correspondents as overgrown Rover Boys. . . . It has created the impression that these newsboys have a glamorous occupation. Actually they have a difficult, perilous task with few rewards. . . . O. D. Gallagher, a British correspondent, dodged mbs and bullets, and traveled 100,-000 miles in three years for his news stories, which readers forget five minutes after reading.

This is the wisest counsel for colyumists we have come across: "Get around town-find out what people are talking about. Give your readers a little daily jolt on something they are gabbing about at home, perhaps, and can gab about some more. Controversial stuff—so they can argue. The big idea is this: Make half of them happy and half of them sore.'

Reporters aren't as hardboiled as the legends would have you believe. . . . When Presi-dent Wilson made his gruelling cross-country tour (in an effort to gain the support of Americans for his world peace plans) he was broken in body but not in spirit. . . . Reporters who ac-companied him were aware that was sacrificing his life for he his ideals. . . As Wilson made his final stirring plea for world peace, newsmen listening to his eloquent address openly wept.

Soften gelatin in cold water. Scald milk in top part of double boiler, then gradually add the combined egg yolks, sugar and salt. Return to the double boiler and cook until custard-like in consistence. Remove from heat, add gelatin and stir until dissolved. Add vanilla and cream. Chill, and when mixture begins to thicken, beat until fluffy with rotary egg beater. Fold in stiffly beaten whites. Pour into mold or molds that have been rinsed in cold water. Chill until firm. When ready to serve, unmold and garnish as desired.

Bavarian Cream Variations.

Maple Bavarian: Make above recipe using shaved maple sugar in place of white sugar. One dozen cut marshmallows may be added or ½ cup chopped pecans or walnuts. Butterscotch: Omit white sugar. Cook ¾ cup brown sugar with 2 tablespoons butter and add this to hot custard.

Chocolate Rice: Beat 3 tablespoons cocoa into 1 cup cooked rice and fold into bavarian mixture. Fruit Bavarian: Fold 1 cup diced fruit into bavarian cream after it starts to thicken. Chocolate Bavarian: Add squares melted, unsweetened chocolate or 6 tablespoons cocoa to scalded milk. Continue as directed. If a slight flavor of coffee is desired with the chocolate, substitute 1 tablespoon cold, boiled coffee for 1 tablespoon of the milk.

Coffee Bavarian: Substitute 1/2 cup cold, boiled coffee for 1/2 cup milk and add 1 tablespoon lemon juice. Ice cream comes in for many

Lynn Says

How to make good pastry: The proper proportion for pastry is cup flour, salt to taste and 1/2 cup shortening or substitute.

The important points are: have ingredients as cold as possible; never over-mix shortening and flour. The mixture should be "lumpy," about the size of giant peas.

When the shortening is not thoroughly mixed with the flour, it "streaks" and makes for flakier crust.

Too much water makes the pastry a "toughie." Use just enough to make the dough stick together. On damp days, less water is required, on sunny days, more.

starch with the milk and salt and add the caramel plus 1 tablespoon of sugar. Proceed as directed above.

Chocolate: Melt 11/2 to 2 tablespoons of chocolate over hot water adding to custard while hot. Coffee: Scald 1/2 cup finely ground offee in the milk, then strain through three thicknesses of cheese cloth. Proceed as above, adding 1/2 teaspoon almond flavoring.

Mint: Add 1/8 teaspoon mint extract for vanilla. Tint the ice cream a delicate green. Or, if mint extract is not available, melt 1 cup crushed or ground mints in milk. Tint pink or green, as desired.

Peach: Add 1 cup crushed peaches, ½ cup sugar and ¼ teaspoon almond extract. Omit va-
