Lions Club News

The local Lions Club is on top of the clubs for towns of this size in Lions International with 86 members. But we have to keep working for it is a lot harder to stay on top than it is to get there. Work and good attendance, along with good programs will keep us there. At next week's meeting Chas. H. Dean, District Governor of District 2 T will present the award and keys won in the January contest. We should have a good attendance at this meeting not only to make a good showing for the club, but it will be a good advertisement for the town as well.

At this week's directors meeting the Red Cross Drive will be discussed, also child welfare work, scout work, aid to the school district track meet and other matters. All officers, directors, committee chairmen and others with ideas for the good of the community are urged to be present. The meeting will be at the bank at 7:30 p. m.

Uncle Sam Says

This lad in the coal mines near Wilkes Barre, Pa., buys a Savings Bond every month because he is going to be married. "I've seen plenty of sickness and layoffs in my time," says Joe. "I've $375.50 in War and Victory Bonds now. Ten years from now 25 bucks a month coming in. Imagine what that will mean to Irma and me, and maybe a couple of kids, specially if these diggings should be shut up for a while." U. S. Treasury Department

American Legion

The Hedley Legion Post is fast becoming a World War II Veterans Post. Of the 49 Legionnaires who have paid their 1946 dues 29 of them are veterans of the last war.

All returning service men and women are urged to leave their service records and pay their dues to C. L. Johnson, adjutant, as there is much work for the Legion this year.

No post meeting was held during March on account of the repairs to the hall. However we hope to have the hall in shape for the April 9th meeting. If not, the meeting will be held at the city hall. Delegates to the 18th District Convention at Childress April 13 and 14 will be chosen at this meeting.

In the Legion's child welfare program the local post will again sponsor a Junior Baseball team. That takes in all boys under 17 years of age in this territory, regardless of where they go to school. Hedley had the only team in the 18th District last year, but there will be several teams this year. The post will also probably sponsor some junior baseball games this summer.

Other highlights of the Legion program are National Defense, we don't want to be caught napping next time; Rehabilitation, World War II benefits on par with World War I; Employment, Veterans employment committees in every community; Americanism, that is opposition to all vicious campaigns to disunite us by setting class against class or race against race; Legislation, such as granting accumulated pay leave to enlisted personnel on the same basis as allowed officers and cancellation of liability for income tax for the period 1940-46 on all incomes up to $3,000 a year. The Legion has a big job before it. Give it your support.

Truman Caldwell Elected

The following is taken from last Friday's Mexia Daily News: Teachers from various sections of the county brought to a close Thursday night one of their most successful conventions of the Limestone county unit of the Texas State Teachers Assn., highlighted by an address by Dr. Homer P. Rainey, former president of the University of Texas. Heading the organization next year is President Truman E. Caldwell, Supt. of Schools at Thornton.

We are glad to see Homer Lee Morgan and Don Hickey back in Hedley again.

Harold Longan has been visiting his family here.

Mrs. S. G. Adamson and daughter JoAnn and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Saunders attended the funeral of Clifford Skapple Wednesday at Amarillo. His wife was formerly Eulene Crouch.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Horschler of Meadow visited here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Newman Bartley and children of Tahoka visited in the R. W. Alewine home last week end.

Want house or yard work. Reasonable. See Mrs. W. L. Underwood.

To Lecture Here

The people of Hedley are invited to come to the High School on Tuesday morning, March 26th, at 9 a. m. to hear a lecture by Bill Mills, ex-outlaw. His lectures are being sponsored by a ministerial association and deals with juvenile delinquency and parent carelessness. He comes to us recommended by several state officers and thinkers who know of his work. He can tell anyone why crime does not pay.

He has spent 25 years behind prison bars, convicted at 32 different times, wears his old stripes as he lectures, exhibits the whipping bat or "red heifer." He has seen 16 men die in the electric chair for crimes. He saw Clyde Barrow kill his first man. Everybody is invited. This lecture is to make crime unattractive.

Donley Co. Memorial Committee Meeting

At a meeting in the Legion Hall, Clarendon, Feb. 25, committee members from Gies, Goldston, Martin, Ashtola, Lelia Lake and Clarendon decided to place before the people of Donley County the proposition of honoring ex-service men by placing a walnut panel in the Court House to contain all the names of the veterans of World War II.

The reason for this change of plans is the fact that the increase in prices in materials and in the number of names to be added would necessitate the raising of some three thousand dollars more funds in order to erect the concrete-marble outdoor monument as originally planned.

The following motion was introduced, seconded and passed unanimously: "That after thirty days notice in the two County papers that we go on record as favoring an Honor Roll panel to be purchased and placed in the Donley County Court House, if sufficient funds remain after any persons not satisfied with this proposed change have been given a chance to withdraw their money in this effort to honor veterans of World War II.

Anyone who contributed to this fund and is not satisfied with the above plans may receive a refund of his money called for on or before April 1, 1946. Those wishing their money refunded may call upon Clifford Johnson, Hedley, or Rayburn Smith at Clarendon.

Those attending the meeting were Ruth M. Anderson, Lu McClellan, J. R. Brandon, J. C. Gibbs, John White, G. G. Henson, Roy Jewell, J. W. Noel, E. M. Glass, W. C. Higdon, Rayburn L. Smith, C. B. Household Hints

To keep uncooked meat in a refrigerator, place it in a dry dish with a loose fitting lid; cooked meat should be covered tightly to prevent drying.

The sponge method is ever best for washing linens made of plastics or washable coated fabrics.

The easiest way to season a plain hot vegetable in addition to salt and pepper is to add meat drippings or melted fat. Add just before serving.

If the inside of your aluminum kettle becomes discolored, fill with a mild vinegar solution and boil for a few minutes. Wash afterward with soap and water and rinse well with clear water.

When boiling rice, add a teaspoon of lemon juice to a quart of water. It will make the rice white and the grains will be separated when it is boiled.

Vitamin C may be lost during thawing — so start frozen foods cooking while they're still frozen.

Prepared mustard and finely chopped sour pickles added to highly seasoned mayonnaise makes a perfect spread for frankfurters and hamburgers.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

U. S. Cracks Down on Russia; British Loan Called Trade Aid; Modify Emergency Housing Bill

Released by Western Newspaper Union. (EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

DIPLOMACY: Crack Down

First evidence of a stiffening of U. S. policy toward Russia was contained in the state department's warning that this country could not remain indifferent to the Reds' refusal to withdraw from Iran in accordance with an agreement made in 1942 and reaffirmed at Teheran.

Oil-rich, Iran has been prominent in the news since its northwestern province of Azerbaijan moved for local self-rule and Russian troops prevented efforts of the central government to quell the revolt. During negotiations between Russia and Iran for withdrawal of Red forces from the country, Moscow was said to have pressed for oil concessions, held exclusively by the U. S. and Britain.

While the state department's note to Russia emphasized that this country could not sit idly by while tri-partite agreements affecting another nation's sovereignty were broken, it urged the Reds to retire to promote the confidence necessary for fostering world peace.

Having pressed the Russians on the Iranian situation, the state department followed with another protest to Moscow over the Reds' looting of Japanese industries in Manchuria and their efforts to set up a joint Russian-Sino economic rule over the province to the exclusion of other nations.

BRITISH LOAN: Called Aid

Declaring that the alternative to lending financial assistance to Britain was a postwar economic dogfight, the administration opened its fight for the 3 1/2 billion dollar loan to the United Kingdom with Secretary of the Treasury Vinson and Assistant Secretary of State Clayton endorsing the advance before the senate banking and currency committee.

Vinson and Clayton presented parallel testimony to the solons, asserting that if Britain were unable to obtain dollars with which to buy the purchase of new dwellings; increase the FHA's resources to insure mortgages of ex-G.I.s by one billion dollars, and set ceilings prices on new homes.

BROTHERHOOD: Truman Plea

With former Prime Minister Winston Churchill's plea for a U. S.-British military alliance posing the question of American adoption of the proposal or continued adherence to the United Nations Organization for maintaining world peace, President Truman stood by UNO in an address before the Federal Council of Churches in America at Columbus, Ohio.

Though sponsoring Churchill's speech at Fulton, Mo., Mr. Truman apparently intended to await public reaction to the proposal before taking a position himself. Meanwhile, the President avowed complete support to UNO, declaring that this country expected to defend it and work for its perfection along with the other member nations.

In addressing the 500 delegates, representing 25 million Protestants, Mr. Truman declared that only through the observance of Christian principles could any mechanism for peace be successful. Extending the thought to domestic affairs, he asserted that only through religious fervor could the country develop a social program designed to meet the needs of the mass of people.

In considering the church's position in the postwar world, the council unanimously adopted a resolution condemning any form of racial segregation.

Presenting the resolution, Dr. Henry Sloane Coffin, noted Presbyterian theologian, rapped church organizations themselves for practicing discrimination against Negro and other minority groups. Many church-supported hospitals, schools and theological seminaries were guilty of the offense in varying degrees, he said, and some churches themselves refused to hire people on racial or other grounds.

DENAZIFICATION: Germans Help

To speed the arraignment and trial of between 1,500,000 and 2,000,000 Germans charged with Nazism, U. S. military authorities approved a law promulgated by provincial governments of the American occupation zone providing for prosecution of suspects in local courts.

Applicable to the U. S. zone only, the new procedure is expected to allow rapid disposition of pending cases and removal of much of the uncertainty affecting sectional economy. Germans hope that convicted persons might be substituted for war prisoners presently employed as forced labor by the Allies.

To be tried by anti-Nazi prosecutors and three-man tribunals, defendants will be classified into four broad categories, including major offenders, active promoters of Hitlerism, youthful adherents and nominal party members who joined the movement for business or social convenience. While penalties for major offenders and active promoters include forced labor, confiscation of property and restriction on employment privileges, the other groups would be subject to occupational curbs and fines.

STRIKE: Crisis Brewing

As the CIO-United Automobile Workers strike against General Motors proceeded through its fourth month, pressure grew for settlement of the walkout to avert a crisis resulting from the prolonged idleness of 175,000 production employees.

With the union and management remaining one big cent apart from agreement on wages and both sides indicating no inclination to budge, the city of Detroit appealed to President Truman to personally intervene because the strike was seriously impairing the economic life of the community. To provide funds for growing relief applications, the city authorized an appropriation of $400,000.

Increasing bitterness developed between the UAW and G.M. over the company's refusal to go above its offer of an 18 1/2 cent an hour wage increase or submit the issue of paying 19 1/2 cents to an impartial arbitrator. With the UAW convention scheduled for March 23 to 31, union spokesmen charged that the company hoped to prolong the strike to create dissatisfaction over present officials and open the way for their ouster.

Vinson: Warns of Dog-fight.

goods, she would tighten up her exchange regulations and conserve her resources for careful expenditure within a friendly trading bloc. The result would be a return to high tariffs, sanctions and other restrictions which bogged trade prior to World War II and spurred the development of totalitarian economy.

HOUSING: Emergency Bill

Though balking against imposition of ceilings on old houses and payment of 600 million dollars in subsidies to building material manufacturers to step up the flow of supplies, the house approved an emergency housing bill giving the government broad powers to speed low-cost residential construction.

Pushed through by a coalition of Republicans and southern Democrats, the bill gives Housing Expediter Wilson Wyatt independent authority to channel building materials into home construction through priorities until June, 1947; set prices for such materials to increase output, and halt the export of lumber or other scarce supplies.

Japan Again Provides Foreign Outlet for U. S. Cotton

The U. S. is starting to regain an important foreign outlet for raw cotton by means of government exports to Japan, which took one-fourth of shipments of the staple before the war. Until private trading, now forbidden for security reasons, is again permitted, the only way of regaining the Japanese market is through government channels.

Under the program now getting under way, Commodity Credit Corporation stocks of cotton will be shipped to a Japanese governmental agency designated by the supreme commander of the Allied powers in Japan and enough of the textiles manufactured from the cotton will be accepted to reimburse the U. S. in full. Establishment of the supply line will take 200,000 bales of CCC cotton within a month, the department of agriculture reported.

Housing Bill Suffers Rough Going in Congress

Taft Breaks With Conservatives in Backing Administration Measure; Long-Range Building Policy Asked.

By BAUKHAGE, News Analyst and Commentator.

WNU Service, 1616 Eye street, N.W., Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — It is fully expected that what is left of the plan for settling America's number one problem — the problem of finding a home — will be cut up by congress and pasted together in some new, strange shape by now. If it is still in the works when you read these lines there is a possibility that what finally emerges from the hopper will be more what the patient planners wanted and less like what the various pressure groups wanted. The interesting thing to me about the debate on this measure in the beginning was this: although the administration features of the bill went squarely against the conservative grain of our conservatively ingrained congresses, it had one champion who usually sits as far away as he can possibly edge from anything of even a pale pink hue. I refer to Sen. Robert Taft, Republican of Ohio. What Mr. Taft says never fails to draw ears in the senate even if the ears are doubting ones and sprout from the heads of those cruelly affronted members once referred to as "the sons of wild jackasses." Vox Taft to the conservative is his master's VOX.

The two key features to the administration bill were the subsidy, which would grease the way for quick construction of the lower-priced type of homes, and the price ceiling which would make it cheaper to live in a house than re-sell for profit. That is, the present owner of a house could sell his property for any price he could get without restriction, but owner number two would have to re-sell it for what he paid (plus, of course, reasonable cost for improvements).

These two conditions may have been good or bad. Whether they were or not they were opposed for two main reasons: first, because they were considered "government interference" and therefore radical, and second, because powerful lobbies, the profits of whose principals would have been curtailed, put all the pressure they could on congress.

In spite of the feeling that the spirit of the housing bills was "liberal" or "New Dealish," Senator Taft supported it. He had made a careful study of housing and come to the mature conclusion that the administration idea, as embraced in the bills introduced by Senator Wagner in the senate and Representative Patman in the house, was as nearly the right sort of legislation as could be obtained. The CIO took the same view.

Now when viewpoints as different as these two arrive at agreement, the simple citizen is inclined to think that their joint approval is pretty sound sponsorship.

LABOR WANTS Planned Action

The CIO has printed a very businesslike booklet on the subject in which we are reminded that we have always had a housing shortage because our cities just grew like Topsy, that the shortage is steadily growing and that estimates show that by the end of this year almost three and a half million families will be homeless unless they are taken in by relatives or double up with others—as the President suggested they will have to do meanwhile.

The reason that we always had a housing shortage, according to the CIO, is because we never had a housing policy. We have a public school educational policy; a police protection policy; a war and navy policy. As a result, we have a pretty good school system, our police give us reasonable protection to life and property; we have never lost a war nor suffered invasion. But we can't have roofs over our heads.

That is what the current housing legislation is supposed to provide. One more factor may be injected into this controversy which could affect it materially: the veteran, chief sufferer from homelessness, is as yet unorganized. Once organized, he could out-pressure the other pressure groups.

Since I heard forthright speeches of Senator Vandenberg and Secretary of State Byrnes which sounded a sharp warning to Russia that the

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered
Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risks of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

DOAN'S PILLS

MOTHER'S LITTLE HELPER

Yes, little sister swings an inspired broom! She's Mother's Little Helper—and what a help she is! Mother has a Big Helper, too—a really efficient helper—always at her finger-tips—ready to cook and wash and clean—ready to make life easier for all the family.

This tireless helper, of course, is electric service. It does a lot of jobs at low wages. It never asks for time off.

Maybe Mother and the rest of you take this faithful servant for granted. When you flick a switch you expect the power to be there—instantly—always. And the fact that it is didn't just happen. It comes from the friendly efficiency of the folks in this company.

MOTOR OIL

and remember another big thing:
Don't buy octane—SAY N-TANE!
CONOCO N-TANE GASOLINE

Motorists' Lesson I from World War II is that cars with OIL-PLATED engines don't quit easy. Though some are being traded for style's sake now, you can safely figure that the owners are repeating on OIL-PLATED engines! They make sure to get them—the same as you can do—by using Conoco Nth motor oil, with its added OIL-PLATING ingredient. This acts magnet-like, forcing engine parts to attract and hold a close-bonded surfacing of lubricant.

And that's protective OIL-PLATING—the wear-fighter!

Like a shield over the fine-finished inner surfaces that you want preserved, OIL-PLATING is in position against wear . . . in position to discourage carbon, gum, and sludge—to encourage oil and gasoline economy. You want all that, and it's yours for the asking. Just ask for Conoco Nth oil in any car. In the case of an older car, you certainly need a Spring oil change now, so this is exactly your time to OIL-PLATE. Pay just a bit more for it! Ingrained Tradition

Though soon to be shorn of powers under new Jap constitution, Hirohito retains reverence of these Jap patriots, bowing to the ground upon his entrance to their quarters at Kamoi.

JAPAN: New Sun

Emerging over the horizon of a defeated Japan, a new sun arose. It spread the hope and aspiration embodied in the new constitution drawn up after five months of deliberations between American and Nipponese officials.

Endorsed by General MacArthur, Premier Shidehara and Emperor Hirohito himself, the new constitution strips the mikado of all his sovereign power, provides for the free election of two representative houses and assures freedom of thought, press, religion and speech.

Of particular interest was the constitution's prohibition of an army, navy, air force and other war facilities, and the renunciation of the use of force in settlement of international problems. In declaring that Japan was willing to become the first nation to outlaw armaments, Nipponese spokesmen hoped that the rest of the world would accept the same principle and follow the example.

OPA: Ease Price Control

Though price controls were removed from musical instruments and a wide variety of miscellaneous items ranging from ice bowls to bull rings, OPA threatened to restore regulations if retail charges bounded from reasonable levels.

Included in the items freed from price control were such sporting equipment as fishing, archery, skiing, croquet, bowling, baseball, basketball, football, golf and hockey. Though playing uniforms were exempted, control was maintained over shoes because of their general usefulness.

Among the miscellaneous items affected by the OPA action were low-cost kitchen utensils, cowbells, buckets, coffee servers, unglazed flower pots, safety goggles and industrial clothing designed for protection against hazardous occupations. With supplies adequate, price control was temporarily relinquished over phonograph records, electric lamp bulbs, firearms and ammunition.

STEEL: Kaiser Balked

World War II's outstanding entrepreneur, big, burly Henry Kaiser was forced to exercise all of his ingenuity in procuring sheet steel if he was to go ahead with plans for the production of his postwar autos.

Kaiser's difficulties arose over his inability to obtain sheet steel from major producers, who claimed that supplies were limited and preference was being given to established customers. Only two companies considered shipments, Kaiser interests said, but they conditioned their action upon the consent of other firms to deliver material.

Boiling over, Kaiser and Joseph W. Frazer, his auto-making associate, asked the department of justice to investigate the steel companies' action, charging impairment of competition. They also called upon the economic stabilization board to allocate available supplies to users. Though Kaiser operates a steel plant at Fontana, Calif., he has no sheet rolling facilities and installation of such equipment at the government-owned plant he is thinking of buying in Gary, Ind., would cost 25 million dollars.

UNEMPLOYMENT:

Despite the fact that several hundred thousand veterans were returning monthly during the last months of 1945, the rise in unemployment was in no wise as sharp as expected, according to the Alexander Hamilton Institute. With 830,000 out of work in August, unemployment has shown a steady increase since then due primarily to curtailment of war production following V-J Day. Reconversion has absorbed many of these idle war workers, however.

Fish Mousse that looks as pretty as it tastes good, is made with a seasoning of onion, celery and lemon. When served it is garnished with slices of hard-boiled egg, and wedges of lemon that add tartness.

Piquant Fish Dishes

If you are concentrating on fish these days, try some of the countless and tempting ways that fish may be prepared. The usual ways, fried, baked or broiled, are perfectly acceptable, but, when served that way, an unusual dressing should be added to make the most of the fish.

Any cooked or canned fish may be prepared into a fluffy mousse which has minced onion and lemon to add tartness. A dill sauce gives that nice finishing touch to this tasty dish.

Another unusual but simple way in which to prepare fish is to poach small fish and fish fillets by simmering in a small amount of seasoned liquid. After the fish has finished cooking, the liquid is strained and thickened to make a sauce for the fish.

To avoid unpleasant odors when cooking fish, it is best to dampen two sheets of parchment paper and spread out flat. Brush the paper with oil. Cut fish into serving pieces and place half the pieces on each sheet of paper. Place one teaspoon each of butter and onion on each serving and sprinkle with parsley, lemon juice, salt and pepper. Gather edges of paper and tie securely. Place in boiling water and cook 15 minutes. Remove fish to hot platter, taking care not to lose any of the juices. This method may be used for two pounds of boneless fillets, enough to serve six people.

Fish Mousse With Dill Sauce.

- 2 cups flaked, cooked fish (halibut, tuna, salmon or white fish)
- 3 cups finely cubed, soft bread
- 3 cups milk
- 3 eggs, beaten slightly
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 tablespoon finely minced onion
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1/4 teaspoon paprika

Flake fish fine with fork. Cook soft bread cubes with milk, stirring to a smooth paste. Add salt, minced onion, lemon juice and paprika, stirring to blend. Beat eggs slightly; pour some of the hot mixture into eggs, stirring constantly; add to remaining milk mixture and blend. Pour into a well-greased loaf pan, place in a pan of hot water and bake in a moderate (325-degree) oven for 45 minutes, or until lightly browned. Serve hot with dill sauce. Garnish with tomato wedges, or serve with broiled tomatoes.

LYNN SAYS

Vegetable Variety: Regardless of how you prepare vegetables, taste them critically before serving. Here are ways of pepping up the flavor:

Add melted butter or substitute before serving and season with salt and pepper. Be sure to mix seasonings in thoroughly. Add bits of leftover bacon, ham or sausage and heat with the vegetable. Brown butter, mix with a small amount of bread crumbs, and pour over vegetable just before serving.

Silvered carrots, bits of green pepper and diced celery may be added in small quantity to other vegetables for flavor. Herbs and vinegar are good seasonings when the butter supply is low.

Cheese, lemon and herb sauce are excellent for many vegetables as they bring out the natural flavors. Never over-mix ground meat for hamburger. When packed too closely they become tough.

When you take out bacon from the refrigerator, remove only what you need. Its keeping qualities are lessened if it is allowed to stand at room temperature, then returned to the refrigerator.

Well, Can't a Young Lady Have Dreams?

She was pretty and ambitious and had studied the matrimonial problem to a nicety. "Yes, I suppose I shall marry eventually," she said, "but the only kind of masculine nuisance that will suit me must be tall and dark with classical features. He must be brave, yet gentle. He must be strong—a lion among men, but a knight among women." That evening a bow-legged, lath-framed, chinless youth, wearing flannel bags and smoking a cigarette that smelled worse than a burning boot, rattled on the back door and the girl knocked four tumbler and a cut glass dish off the sideboard in her haste to let him in.
