HEDLEY, DONLEY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, AUG. 9, 1946

NO. 39

Baseball

The Hedley boys will play the Dalhart Jr. American Legion team here Sunday at 2:30 p. m. The Dalhart boys have been winning a lot of games up in their territory and are coming a long way to play us. Let's show them a good time and then beat them.

Last Sunday the Hedley boys defeated Parker and Co. from Memphis by the score of 15 to 11. It looked bad for Hedley for awhile, but they finally got to clicking and came out on the long end of the score. Hill and Messer pitched for Hedley and Hancock and Parker for Memphis. The boys are feeling pretty good since it was the first time they had defeated Memphis this year.

We want to thank each and every one for the kind and comforting words that were spoken during the loss of our precious one, also the beautiful floral offering. May God's richest blessing be bestowed upon each and every one in our earnest prayer.

Lions Club News

At last week's directors meeting the directors set the place for the annual family picnic as the Finch Ranch and the time as 6 p. m. This will be Thursday August 29th. Another item discussed was pavement. The directors will ask the membership to give its full support to the mayor and city council on this good project.

R. E. Drennan, Dean of Clarendon Junior College, and also the coach of the college will be at this week's meeting. We are mighty fortunate in having a good junior college in fifteen miles of us and should give it all the support we can.

Tacky Party

The Methodist Junior and Intermediate Youth-Fellowship entertained the Baptist Junior and Intermediate Training Union with a Tacky Party, Tuesday, August 6, in the back yard of Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Gaede's home.

There were several games played which were directed by Miss Alma Hall and sang several songs which were directed by Mrs. W. F. Gaede.

There was a prize given for the tackiest boy and girl. The boy was Billy Dean Harris who made a very pretty girl, and Jane Mosley made a very good model of about the year of 1910.

Refreshments of popsicle and fudge were served about 50 youngsters and adults and all reported a nice time.

Recent visitors in the K. Autry home were Mr. and Mrs. Bob DeFee, Annetee and Bobby of Amarillo, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack O. Hoggard and sons of Pantex.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hoggard of Amarillo spent the past week end at home.

Miss Nina Jo Foster of Childress was home over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Glass went to Lelia Lake Friday afternoon to a picnic. They report lots of good things to eat.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Jones of Memphis were visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baker Sunday.

Rev. Ed Cline of Lelia Lake is holding a revival here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Caradine and children were visiting in Childress Saturday and Sunday.

Charlie Foster was a recent visitor in Clarendon.

Mrs. Victoria Wylie

Funeral services for Mrs. Victoria Wylie, who passed away Monday, were held Wednesday from the Methodist Church here by Rev. W. F. Gaede. Burial was in Rowe cemetery.

Pallbearers were Vernie Wade, Joe Thomas, Roy Blanks, O. C. Sargent, Joe Wood and Walter Pierce.

Mrs. Wylie was born Feb. 3, 1861, at Victoria, Texas. She was married on Aug. 22, 1881, to W. A. Wylie, who preceded her in death almost 30 years.

To this union were born eight children, three of whom passed away, two in infancy. The surviving children are W. J. Wylie and Miss Clara Wylie of Hedley, R. R. Wylie of Teague, Mrs. J. C. Yeats of Phoenix, Ariz., and Mrs. Mayme Jenkins of Childress.

Also surviving are eight grandchildren, one great-grandson and one half-sister, Mrs. Dettie Warnecke of Lodi, Calif.

Mrs. Wylie came with her husband and family to Donley County in 1903 and lived here for a time; then moved away and again returned in 1913, making her home here since that time.

She was converted and joined the Methodist Church in 1903.

B. T. U. Picnic

The Baptist young people's union met at the church Tuesday night to go to the Memphis park for a picnic supper. Nineteen were present for their picnic lunch consisting of chicken, dressing, sliced tomatoes, potato salad, stuffed eggs and hot rolls with butter.

Many games were played and two short dramatics given for good laughs.

Later in the evening we were joined by two more young couples bringing the total of those present to twenty-three. We all had a lot of fun, even if the road cops did stop us and give us the once over and a big scare. However, it wasn't our Baptist young people the cops were checking for, so we went (very cautiously I might say) on our way.

We hope every one of you will be in our Union Sunday night at 7:30 p. m. and enjoy our lesson and singing together; also be with us on our good time picnics and parties. We invite you to be with us if you are not enlisted in another church. We do not wish to exclude young people from other churches in town where they are needed, but to build up every church in town and fill them with our young people, enlisting them in classes or unions, carrying on God's work and striving to learn to do His work better and more efficiently each day of our lives. Come on young people, let's fill every church in town. Let's go every Sunday and then for prayer meeting during the week. We'll have 5 other nights to go other places. What say?

Nobles-Cope

Reba Dell Cope and Floyd G. Nobles were united in marriage last Friday, Aug. 3, at Clarendon by County Judge R. Y. King. The ceremony was witnessed by the bride's mother, Mrs. J. L. Chesser.

The bride was reared in Dalhart and attended Dalhart high school until moving to Hedley several months ago.

The groom's parents live in Waco. He is employed with Fred Hall and Sons Construction Co., who are constructing the new highway here.

The couple will make their home in Hedley for the present.

Performance Reports

August 15 is a general closing date for most of the farm practices to be carried out this year. Producers were issued Prior Approvals for the practices they mean to carry out under this year's program and those Prior Approvals are also the Performance Reports. All Forms "30" that show August 15 as a date for reporting to the County Office should be brought or mailed in on or before that date. Contour farming, strip cropping, summer fallow and other practices should be reported.

Old Settlers Picnic

The Donley county old settlers will hold their annual picnic at Tate Grove on Friday, Aug. 16. The program will begin at 10:30 with the welcome address by Frank Kendall. J. A. Estlack will act as master of ceremonies. A feature of the day will be an old fiddlers contest, with only Donley County fiddlers eligible to enter. The contest will be in charge of Walter Johnson of Hedley, Will Walling of Lelia Lake and Joe David of Clarendon.

Committee chairmen are: Program, Newt Waldman; Water, M. C. DeBord; Preparing ground, Claude Nash; Coffee, Frank Jones and Tom Bain.

If some local person wishes to run the cold drink stand, see one of the officers. M. W. Mosley is president, R. E. Mannice president and Mrs. J. B. Masterson secretary of the organization.

Congressman Eugene Worley is expected to be present at the picnic. There will be singers from all over the county and elsewhere.

Most of the soldier boys are now back at home, and they have a special invitation to attend.

Last but not least, don't forget to bring a well filled basket.

American Legion

At next Tuesday night's meeting the local American Legion Post will elect officers for 1947. The new officers will be installed at the September meeting. All ex-service members of both wars whether members of the Legion or not are urged to attend this meeting.

Quite a few things are to come up at this meeting, such as filling out papers for terminal leave, permanent firing squad and color guard, continuation of the work on the Legion Hall, delegates to state convention, new members and other matters.

W. C. Snelson suffered a broken leg Tuesday when a scaffold collapsed in the building where a theatre is being built by Horace Duvall. Several other workmen were fortunate in escaping with minor cuts and bruises.

Paving

It looks like it is about time we began to think about paving main street and the street to the churches and school, if not more. Let's talk it up. It will cost a little money, but it will be the best and cheapest thing we can do in the long run. See the mayor and city council, tell them we are behind them.

The work on the highway east is going according to schedule. There were 34 bridges and culverts in this 7 1/2 mile gap. The bridge crew has been steadily on the job and are making good progress. The dirt crew is expected in the next few days and it isn't going to be too long until the highway is completed. While they have the machinery here will be the time to get our little job of paving done the cheapest. So let's all get together and get some pavement for Hedley.

Charles Neal Johnson visited in Snoder, Okla. over the week end.

Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Ratcliff are moving to Claude this week.

Scattered Shots

By the Editor

Part of this column was crowded out last week, likewise a few other items.

The political pot is still boiling more or less, with two races in the county unsettled. R. O. Kelley and J. A. Tollett are in the runoff for Precinct 3 commissioner, and Miss Jessie Cook and Mrs. Tom Crabtree are still in the race for County Treasurer.

Guy Wright was re-elected Sheriff and Leonard King won the race for District Attorney. Unopposed candidates included Clyde Slavin for County Judge, A. T. Cole for County Attorney and Helen Wiedman for County and District Clerk.

How did you like the regional section in last week's Informer? We expect to have this section every week, beginning in September, and would like to have your opinion on it.

We finally visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hoggard last week, only two years after it was built. It is a mighty pretty rock veneer with plenty of room and lots of closet space. One of the many good features is the basement under the kitchen, with enough good home canned food to ward off starvation for a long time. Another thing that appeals to us is that every bedroom has five windows. We also visited the young orchard and sampled the figs and carried off a nice basket of peaches. We liked the entire place fine, except that there appeared to be an awful lot of cows to milk.

Some good news to everybody is that the City Council has reduced the tax rate from $1.25 to $1.00. The council is doing the best they can with what they have and this should encourage everybody to pay their taxes and stand behind the council in every way possible.

The postoffice is sporting a new hole in the floor from a fire in the trash basket early Wednesday morning. Fortunately the fire was noticed before it had time to spread.

S. S. Class Picnic

Mrs. Leon Reeves and Mrs. Moore entertained their Sunday School classes Friday, August 2, by taking them to Lake Creek on a picnic. We were served potatoes, eggs, pickles, bread, cookies, and fruit juices.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Moore, J. W. Noel, Joan Ray Moreman, Dolores Gunn, Martha Alexander, Carolyn Reeves, Wanda Joyce Hall, Janice Lamberson, Letha Marie Bowlin, Wanda Lee Shaw, Tommy Gahn, Jack Moreman, Aubrey Lee Cherry, Loy Taylor, Edward Todd, Leon Banister, Don, Bill and Bud Reeves, and Adrian Youngblood. Everyone had a very nice time.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS Second Bikini Bomb Wreaks Heavy Damage; OPA Renews Power to Keep Prices in Line

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

Indian coolies unload cargo of precious grain at Bombay. Borne by the first of a fleet of twelve U. S. food ships, the grain will partly ease India's severe food shortage.

CROSSROADS: Heavy Damage

Although accompanied by none of the fanfare of the first surface test, the underwater explosion of the atomic bomb in Bikini lagoon produced equally startling results, with the one A-charge sinking no less than ten ships and heavily damaging six others.

Back in the U. S. after a 49,000-mile trip around the world as President Truman's reparations commissioner, Pauley said that the U. S. was pondering the permanent suspension of shipments of surplus industrial plants from the western zone of Germany to Russia to offset deliveries of Japanese equipment to looted Manchuria.

Tons of water shoot skyward as atomic bomb is set off beneath surface in Bikini lagoon.

within five minutes of the blast, and the 33,000-ton aircraft carrier Saratoga also went down. The battleship New York, the Jap dreadnaught Nagato and the destroyer Hughes and transport Fallon were severely crippled by the charge.

ATOMIC CONTROL: Russ Rejection

Even as Bikini reverberated with the explosion of the second atomic bomb test in the Pacific, Russia turned thumbs down on the U. S. proposal for international control of the atomic energy.

REPARATIONS: Pauley Reports

Further friction between the U. S. and Russia loomed after Edwin W. Pauley's revelation that the U. S. was considering measures for reinforcing the Manchurian economy at the Soviets' expense following their wholesale stripping of industrial equipment in that country.

POLIO: On Rise

Despite the rising incidence of infantile paralysis, the U. S. public health service stated that it expects no major epidemic to occur this year because cases are more widely distributed among a larger number of states.

Urban Transit Heavy

Passenger traffic on urban transit lines in the United States is continuing at its wartime peak despite the lifting of restrictions on private automobiles.

FOREST FIRES: Waste Resources

Merchantable timber, young growth not yet merchantable and acres of seedlings valued in all at more than $5,800,000, were among timber resource losses that went up in smoke during the year 1945.

Urban Transit Heavy

The number of diphtheria deaths in 93 large U. S. cities has increased by 108 over the low 213 figure of 1941, according to the Journal of the American Medical Association.

FREIGHT: Raps Farm Rates

Interstate commerce commission representatives conducting hearings on the railroads' petition for a permanent 25 per cent increase in freight rates heard H. A. Scandrett, president of The Milwaukee road, aver that livestock and agricultural products should no longer be favored by lower tariffs.

Pointing out the importance of these commodities to the carriers, Scandrett said the present low rates have been based on the Hoch-Smith resolution adopted in the late 1920s during the existing depression in agriculture.

Citing increased labor and material costs since 1940 and an anticipated slackening in the record wartime volume, the carriers' request for a permanent 25 per cent rate boost would supplant the temporary raise of 6 per cent on most commodities, and 3 per cent on agricultural products.

PALESTINE: Hit Terrorism

Hitting at the use of violence designed to alter Britain's position in the ticklish problem of setting up a Jewish homeland in Arab-dominated Holy Land, the Labor government released a white paper in London purporting to show that prominent leaders of the Jewish agency for Palestine had unified underground organizations for a reign of terror.

Basing its contentions on intercepted messages between high agency officials in London and Jerusalem, the government said that the first co-ordinated outbreak of violence closely followed a communication revealing that the three main underground groups had been linked together for joint action.

Meanwhile, Jewish leaders in Palestine met to devise means of controlling the extremist elements responsible for the wave of violence, culminated by the bombing of the King David hotel in Jerusalem with a loss of more than 100 lives.

RIVER PROJECTS: Huge Backlog

When President Truman signed into law two bills authorizing flood control, navigation, hydro-electric and other river improvements at a cost of two billion dollars, he estimated that along with other such work previously approved it would take 35 years to complete the projects at the 1947 appropriation rate.

While opponents of the bills described them as political pork enabling congressmen to return to their constituents with claims of improvements and expenditures for their areas, President Truman announced that he would not request any funds for the projects during the fiscal year.

Estimated to cost $300,000,000, the Missouri river basin project was the largest authorized in the bills. Others include work in the Ohio valley at a cost of $125,000,000; Tennessee-Tombigbee waterway, $116,000,000; lower Mississippi, $100,000,000; Red-Ouchita basin, $77,000,000.

RUSSIA: Political Shakeup

Reports of Marshal Georgi Zhukov's dismissal as chief of the great Red army and his transfer to a garrison command in Odessa were interpreted as evidence of the Communist party's efforts to strengthen its postwar position in Russia and to strip the powerful military wing of political influence.

Precedent for the demotion of Russia's No. 1 soldier lay in the subordination of Marshal Michail Tukhachevsky from top leadership of the strong Red army he had built to an insignificant provincial command before his execution.

It also was said that Zhukov had lost Stalin's favor because of the breakdown of Red army discipline after victory had been won. As a result of the Soviet troops' manhandling of conquered people and the looting of their possessions, Russia has suffered a huge loss of prestige in eastern Europe.

DIPHTHERIA: Shows Increase

The number of diphtheria deaths in 93 large U. S. cities has increased by 108 over the low 213 figure of 1941, according to the Journal of the American Medical Association.

In a three-year report, covering 1943, 1944 and 1945, the Journal stated that for the 88 cities for which data are available since 1923 there occurred 311 deaths from diphtheria in 1945, more than for any single year since 1939.

Politics Makes Strange, Etc.

Peculiar deals involving congressional war profiteering revive similar shenanigans by legislators in the past. About a century ago a group of business men borrowed $200,000 and incorporated the Central Pacific railroad. Then they used the 200Gs to bribe congressmen to steal railroad franchises.

The swindlers became rich and powerful railroad owners without investing a penny of their own money!

The Tweed Ring was the most corrupt gang that ever afflicted New York. Boss Tweed filched millions via bribery and legalistic hocus-pocus—until he was finally put behind bars. But Tweed beat the rap many times. After one grand jury failed to dig up enough evidence to indict Tweed, an editorialist wrote that it reminded him of the man who had been discovered dead and the jury was puzzled as to what caused his death.

The jury finally issued this report: "It was an act of God under very suspicious circumstances."

Capitol Hill now is burdened with too many demagogues. But the current batch aren't gifted with Huey Long's evil talent. He was a wily rat. . . . A reporter once saw a page from a Huey Long address. Various instructions were penciled in the margins. Such as "pause here," and "use angry fist gesture," etc.

At the end of one long paragraph, the following was scribbled in capital letters: "Argument weak here. Yell like hell!"

One machine in the East doesn't make a vote-getting trick. The boss sends toys to children of voters. He uses expensive chauffeured cars to bring voters to the polls. And on Election day he sends nurses to take care of tots while mothers vote.

No one ever has estimated how much money grafting officials have filched. But the sum reaches astronomical figures. One fact will give you a faint idea of the rooking that the public has taken—and still is taking. When Tammany was riding high its take during one year was $75,000,000.

The influence of corrupt political bosses on national affairs cannot be overestimated. Many lawmakers are merely errand boys for local ward heelers. A reporter recently snapped: "This is truly a mechanical age. Even public officials are frequently machine made."

All is fair in love, war and politics. Sen. George Norris' political opponents once persuaded a grocer named George Norris to enter the primary against the U. S. senator. The Big Idea was to confuse voters by having similar names on the ballots. But the scheme was called off when it was spotlighted by the press.

Mark Twain used his pungent pen to attack the shady schemes of Tammany. The death of a Tammany leader inspired one of Twain's famed quips: "I refused to attend his funeral. But I wrote a very nice letter explaining that I approved of it!"

New York Side-Show: He started working for a Wall Streeter nearly a year ago. . . . Under the impression his employer was wealthy. . . . He practiced forging the boss' signature. . . . After 10 months or so—he tried passing a check "signed" with the employer's name—to see if it worked. . . . He wrote it out for only $50. . . . It came back marked "Insufficient Funds!"

Mussolini's daughter, Edda, who has been "amnestied" by Italy, has applied for entry into Argentina because there's no spot in Italy where she would be welcome. But the passport hasn't been okayed yet. . . . Belgian monarchists are perturbed over the 16-year-old crown prince of Belgium, who would prefer entering a monastery to assuming the throne, if the king (as expected) abdicates. . . . The most quoted gag (in the foreign bars in Shanghai) goes this way: "The Russians will probably obtain the atomic bomb in the Shanghai market." . . . Los Angeles, they say, is being flooded with phony ten spots.

Mrs. M. Falkenburg (Jinx's mother) will follow in her daughter's footsteps and become a Conover model. . . . Irving Berlin has two songs on the Hit Parade at once! . . . Doris Duke shoves off for Honolulu shortly, accompanied by a boogie-woogie teacher. She will spurn the offer of a fashion mag post in Paree. . . . A famed photo mag is dropping 20 p. c. of its roster, as is a big N. Y. agency paper. . . . A mobster, who tells the underworld the mayor "crossed him," threatens to erase him when he gets out.

Entertainment for a Penny

What's the cost of the electricity used by your radio for one evening? Well, for a single penny you can keep your many tube radio playing for three whole hours. That's a lot of entertainment for a penny.

And that's just one example of the bargain you get when you pay your electric bill. Yes, you're really getting twice as much electricity for your money as you did fifteen years ago, despite the fact that most other commodities cost much more than they used to. Business-managed, tax-paying electric companies are continually striving to keep on supplying the dependable electric service you now enjoy at such a low cost.

Uncle Sam Says

You are still at war one year after V-J Day. That's putting it bluntly, but I know from experience that you like straight-from-the-shoulder talk. Inflation at home has yet to surrender. United States Savings Bonds are still "War Bonds" in the battle for America's economic stability. You can combat rising prices by taking surplus dollars out of the market place. Your government has provided a safe, profitable vehicle for saving these extra dollars—United States Savings Bonds. By investing in Savings Bonds regularly you are building a better America and a better life for you personally. U. S. Treasury Department

When Your Back Hurts -

And Your Strength and Energy Is Below Par

It may be caused by disorder of kidney function that permits poisonous waste to accumulate. For truly many people feel tired, weak and miserable when the kidneys fail to remove excess acids and other waste matter from the blood. You may suffer sagging backache, rheumatic pains, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling. Sometimes frequent and scanty urination with smarting and burning is another sign that something is wrong with the kidneys or bladder. There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won countrywide approval than on something less favorably known. Doan's have been tried and tested many years. Are at all drug stores. Get Doan's today.

THE Atomic bomb's awesome demonstration promises the release of new and useful energy for the benefit of all mankind.

Studying the molecular structure of matter and the mighty forces of attraction existing between liquids and solids, Conoco scientists are able to bring motorists new and better oils. In fact, the force of molecular attraction (basic force that holds things together), will bond a special ingredient of Conoco Nth motor oil to your engine's working surfaces. Thus they'll be OIL-PLATED!

And because molecular attraction holds Conoco OIL-PLATING up where it belongs... prevents it from all draining down to the crankcase, even overnight... you'll get these benefits:

GI'S DEMONSTRATED MAN'S LOVE FOR DOG

Licked Military Red Tape to Bring Pets to Homes in America

Dog's love for man is proverbial, but only now we are beginning to appreciate anew that man's love for the dog is no less great, according to the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City.

For this lesson we are indebted to the GI's of World War II. Our boys no sooner got "over there" than they made friends with the nameless dogs they found huddled on the beaches and in the foxholes. They took these dogs everywhere they went—on patrol duty, on flying missions, on fur-rough or shore leave. No wartime regulations, no military red tape, no hardships or discomforts or threats of punishment could keep these buddies apart for long.

The end of the war found so many enduring attachments that a way simply had to be found for the GI's who wanted to bring their canine pets with them to their American homes. Soldiers and sailors and officers, too, were resorting to all sorts of measures for "sneaking" their pets into this country. They were hiding them in their own and their friends' luggage and stowing them away on departing ships and planes. Some high-point servicemen even elected to remain abroad rather than leave their beloved pets behind. Ultimately a practical plan was worked out whereby any serviceman, for a fixed fee, could have his dog shipped home with a reasonable expectation of having him arrive safely.

The plan involves the use of special War Shipping Administration boats and the facilities of the Railway Express Co. The serviceman delivers his dog to one of the designated pet collection points. The approximate $75 fee he pays covers the dog's passage, inoculation, food in transit, shipping crate, leash and muzzle, etc. Aboard ship the dog's needs of food, water, exercise, and the like, are looked after by enlisted men who volunteer for this sort of work by way of facilitating their own departure for home. On arrival at the U. S. port, these "dog" ships are met by representatives of the express company, who look after the care and delivery of the animals to their final destination. Already thousands of servicemen's dogs of every known and many unknown breeds have made the journey "to the States." In many cases the shipments are arranged by companions still overseas after the masters of the pets have returned home. The docking of such dog ships usually finds a number of the owners on hand to greet the pets in person, and the atmosphere is not unlike that surrounding the arrival of the much-publicized "bride ships."

Outlook for Canning Jars and Supplies Bright This Year

Styles change usually for no good reason except that we women get tired of things, often for no good reason. Our grandmothers were different. When they liked some thing, they used it until it wore out and they had some things which didn't wear out. That is why so many of you can boast of owning Mason Fruit Jars which your great-grandmother took with her in the covered wagon when Granddad accepted the advice, "Go West, young man." You, of course, treasure those old jars even though they have no special cash value, and you have found their streamlined descendants dependable, but you may have decided that you would like to see how a different style jar and cap becomes the food you plan to put up this season.

Supplies Plentiful

Supplies of jars and caps should be plentiful for the first time in four years. Nobody is offering revolutionary designs but Gladys Kimbrough, Home Service Director for Ball Brothers Company, which made Mason Jars for your grandmother, has been telling us about a two-piece metal Vacu-Seal cap with dome-shaped white enamel-lined lid. It seems that the domed lids "tell you" when they are sealed. (They click when vacuum pulls them down.) However, before deciding to adopt this style cap, you should check your jars because all brands of two-piece metal caps seal on the top of the jar and won't work unless the finish of that top is perfect. The flexibility of the metal lid and the pliancy of the sealing compound permit two-piece metal caps to be self-venting. This is why the bands are tightened before the jars are put into a canner for processing and should not be tightened again. The bands are taken off the jars the next day after the canning is done and left off. Bands are not bought every time new lids are needed as lids are sold in packages of one dozen. The same is true of complete caps (lid and band).

The Glass Top Seal (glass lid, metal band, and rubber ring "war baby") is still with us but not in huge quantities. When using Glass Top Seals, care must be taken to leave the metal bands loose during processing, otherwise too much pressure may build up in the jars and cause breakage or even explosion.

Nothing seems so much in vogue at the present as the time-tested one-piece zinc cap with white liner. This trend may be a style revival but we think it more likely due to the fact that zinc caps could not be made during the war and that "the water wasn't missed until the well ran dry."

Wide-Mouth Jars Back

Wide-mouth Mason jars are back on the market. Here the choice of caps is between one-piece zinc and two-piece metal Vacu-Seal.

The usual quantity of all-glass lightning type jars—the ones with glass lid held in place with wires—will be available. These jars, always high-fashion in the Eastern states, come in both standard and wide mouth.

All jars with standard opening are being made in half-pint, pint, quart, and half-gallon sizes. Wide-mouth jars are in the same sizes except there are no half-pints—never were.

When buying new jars, Miss Kimbrough advises that, when possible, one select the style preferred but buy pints for corn, peas, lima beans and meats, quarts for other vegetables and fruits, half-pints for marmalades, jams, etc. and for baby foods. Half-gallons are nice for pickles; large families may need them for fruits too, but it is far better to use smaller jars when preserving vegetables and meats, because they are easier to process enough to prevent spoilage.

Tell Your Dealer

Although all jars of standard style and size are being made, it may not be possible to find each style and size in every market. This is because dealers have learned what sells best in their trade territories. Transportation charges are so high on less than carload shipments of glass that even if manufacturers were organized to sell direct to the consumer, the cost of a few dozen jars would necessarily be dear, but any enterprising woman can usually persuade her dealer to arrange with a wholesale house to include what she wants when he places an order for a car of jars. Naturally this cannot be last minute business, so if you want an "exclusive style," the retailer should be told about it weeks, in fact months, in advance. It pays to buy home canning supplies when the dealer first puts them out, as it is a time-wasting nuisance to have to stop in the midst of canning to go to the store for jars, caps, or rubbers.

The rubber story is about the same as it was last year. The best ones are red and all are synthetic, but don't let that worry you because synthetic rings seal as well as those in which natural rubber is used.

All in all, the jar and cap outlook is bright. All styles are good. If you buy a nationally known brand and use it according to the manufacturer's instructions, you can put up your quota of fruits, vegetables, and meats, with the assurance of sealing satisfaction.

HOOVER, TOO, STRUGGLED WITH SELF-WILLED CONGRESS
UNFORTUNATE IS THE President who, in times of emergency, must deal with what he considers an obstreperous congress. President Truman was by no means the first chief executive to have such an experience. One of the comparatively recent occurrences of the same kind fell to the lot of President Hoover. At the congressional elections in the middle of his term, the Democratic party captured control of the house of representatives. When the banking emergency arose and became especially acute during the last three months of the Hoover administration, the President was entirely dependent on a Democratic house for any legislation needed to meet that emergency.

During the months between the presidential election and the inauguration of Mr. Roosevelt the banks were failing by the dozens every day. Congress was in session in December, and would continue in session until the day of the inauguration, March 4. Mr. Hoover did not need congressional action to close the banks but he did need action before they could be opened. Not to reopen them quickly would mean financial chaos for the nation. President Hoover called the Democratic leaders of the house to a conference. He explained his difficulty; showed them the proclamation he wished to issue closing the banks, and the bill embodying legislation needed to make a reopening possible. He asked their co-operation in passing that legislation.

Those leaders told Mr. Hoover the house would pass the desired legislation only at the request of the president-elect, Mr. Roosevelt. Mr. Hoover sent the whole story to Hyde Park, including the statement of the Democratic house leaders regarding the passage of the legislation if Mr. Roosevelt requested such action and assuring him of full credit for such action. There was no reply. A second appeal, in January was made, that time sent by special messenger. The reply to that was that Mr. Roosevelt would be going to Warm Springs in February, and would stop in Washington for a few hours to talk it over.

In the latter part of February Mr. Roosevelt called at the White House but declined to make any request to the Democratic majority in the house saying it was not his problem until after March 4, and he would act at that time.

On March 5 the new president closed the banks by issuing the proclamation prepared by Hoover, but with the Roosevelt signature. He called a special session of congress for the purpose of passing the identical bill prepared by the Hoover administration that would make it possible to reopen the banks.

Between the time when the outgoing administration had asked for co-operative help and the March 5 date hundreds of dollars had failed, millions of dollars had been lost by depositors, but the incoming administration was credited with constructive action. Such is the way the game of politics is played. Blue chips are not wasted even in times of emergency, President Truman's demands on congress may be wrong or they may be right but wrong or right the game of politics must be played according to political rules.

THE RECORDS, as compiled by FBI, show the percentage of crime in proportion to population has migrated from Chicago, New York and the East to the Rocky Mountain and West coast states, and to the South, especially Florida and Kentucky. The difference is the newspapers of these sections do not boast of their crime supremacy, as did those of Chicago.

HOW SATISFYING it will be to us consumers when we can have a buyers' market; when we can walk into a store with a reasonable assurance of finding what we want whether it be a loaf of bread, a package of sugar, a slice of ham, a shirt, a suit of clothes, a washing machine, or an automobile. We will welcome the days when the merchant can keep what he has on the shelf rather than under the counter. Those will be the happy days for which we have so long been wishing. The complete realization should not be far distant.

THOUSANDS, many thousands, of Mexicans were specially imported to harvest the grain crops of the West. At the same time thousands, many thousands, of American citizens were being paid unemployment benefits. The greatest thing wrong with us is too many people expecting to be provided for without effort on their part.

CAPABLE OR OTHERWISE, and no matter what they say, most people enjoy the sensation of being picked for leadership in any group.

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS

Here's Meat for Your Table
(See Recipes Below)

Choice Ways with Meat

The large amounts of cattle butchered recently mean more meat on your table, and for many of us, it will mean rounding up those delectable, mouth-watering recipes that make meat so good to eat. There's no meat to waste, but you'll be able to find a variety of cuts with which you'll give the best. Cook it carefully so as not to shrink it or dry it out. Season it well and you'll give the family something to cheer about.

First we'll start off with some very flavorful beef recipes. One uses sour cream which will make rich, delicious gravy along with the meat, and the other uses good seasonings which will do the most for the cut of meat.

Swiss Steak in Sour Cream. (Serves 6 to 8)
3 pounds round steak (2 inches thick)
Flour, salt, pepper, fat
2 onions, sliced
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup sour cream
2 tablespoons grated cheese
1/2 teaspoon paprika

Dredge steak with flour and season with salt and pepper. Brown on both sides in hot fat. Add remaining ingredients, cover pan closely and simmer slowly until meat is tender, about 2 1/2 hours.

Beef a La Mode. (Serves 10)
5 pounds beef rump roast
1/4 pound fat salt pork
Pepper
1 clove garlic, chopped
Salt, cayenne, flour
2 onions, sliced
4 tablespoons bacon drippings
1 bay leaf
1 sprig parsley
3 carrots sliced
1 turnip, sliced
1/4 cup boiling water.

Cut deep gashes in beef. Slice salt pork very thin, rub with pepper and place in gashes of meat. Rub meat with garlic, salt and cayenne and dredge with flour. Brown onions in bacon drippings, remove onions and place meat in kettle. Place onions, bay leaf and parsley over the meat. Cover and cook slowly until well browned on one side. Turn and brown on other sides. Add vegetables and cook until well browned. Add boiling water, cover closely and simmer for 3 hours or longer, adding more water if necessary. Serve meat with vegetables and gravy.

You should be able to find plenty of pork on the market, and there's no more tempting way of preparing pork chops than with apple stuffing. Here's how it's done:

LYNN SAYS:

Pan-Broiling Meat: If you don't have a broiler and want to broil meats, use a heavy, pre-heated frying pan. Do not use any fat in the pan, except when broiling ground meat. Brown meat in the hot pan on both sides. Season only after it is browned, otherwise the salt will draw out the rich juices.

Never add water or cover the pan for pan broiling. The idea is to make it as close to oven broiling as possible.

When meat is browned, turn down the heat to finish cooking. Turn occasionally to cook evenly, and keep pouring off the fat as it accumulates so that the meat will broil rather than fry.

Lamb chops, small steaks, chops and meat patties are excellent when prepared by this method.
