Baseball

The rain may have been too late to help the crops but it probably came in time to keep Amarillo from getting beat in last Sunday's baseball game. The Hedley boys were leading 4 to 1 in the third inning when the game was called on account of rain.

Bob Henry, Amarillo's star left-hander, started the game for them and Bobbie Hancock of Memphis pitched for the locals. The game with Memphis was called off for the Amarillo game so some of the Memphis boys played with Hedley. This will give the Hedley pitchers a rest before tangling with Clarendon here next Sunday.

Come out and see a good game Sunday. The Hedley boys now have the long end of the score in the last six games, they will try to make it seven in a row Sunday.

Hedley Needs More School Children

This year the Hedley school lacked less than a dozen pupils of having enough for fourteen teachers. The school board has tried hard for the last four years to raise the enrollment and thereby increase the number of teachers. Some are not helping the board as they should.

There is an idea that has gained some prevalence that if Hedley had a smaller school the taxes would be less. The truth is that we could have a school of twenty-five teachers for the same taxes that we now have.

When a State Aid school does not have enough from local taxes to run her school and to give a teacher for each thirty pupils, the State comes to its aid by giving the necessary funds to make it a standard school. Each year the Hedley budget runs over thirty thousand dollars. After we pay interest on our large debt, we actually have about four thousand left for a thirty thousand budget. We could fire all of our teachers but four and it would not cut our taxes one cent. We could have thirty, if we had enough pupils, and it would not raise our taxes one cent.

This year the larger districts are making an effort to pull away pupils from the smaller districts to increase their enrollment and thereby the number of their teachers. In other words they want to build up larger schools at the expense of the smaller ones. Even some Hedley people seem to be falling for this idea.

One Hedley citizen says: "When Hedley is reduced to an eight grade school, all the property I have in the town will be for sale at a reduced price. If this should happen, it would be a disgrace to all of us and ruin for the town. Who wants to move to a town without a high school? We, all of us, should not get peeved at a school or its officials simply because some little thing is not being done that we want done. The school board would do a lot more if they had the money."

Seed Payments

Again there is a desperate need for legume seed. The following special payment will be made to farmers for harvesting and marketing Alfalfa seed: 7¢ per pound. This is a new practice that has just been added to the Texas Handbook for 1946. Payment will be computed on the number of pounds of seed (clean basis) harvested in 1946 and sold into commercial channels before January 1, 1947. Producers must submit satisfactory proof to the county committee of the number pounds of seed (clean basis) sold. No prior approval of the county committee will be necessary.

Old Settlers' Picnic

The Donley County old settlers met last Friday at Tate Grove in their 16th annual reunion. Although the excessive heat kept some away, those present had, as Uncle Bill Rains says, "the old time spirit".

Frank Wendall, who came to this country before there was any Memphis made the opening address, which was responded to by J. C. Estick of Clarendon. A great part of the morning was spent in singing, led by Newt Waldron.

The noon hour was featured by a typical old time picnic spread, with more than enough food for everybody.

A feature of the afternoon was the old fiddlers' contest in which Will Walling won first place, Joe David second and F. L. Behrens third.

In the business session, Milt Mosley was re-elected president, Claud Nash vice president and Mrs. T. J. Cherry secretary.

The president appointed a committee of assistants, including Slat DeBor, Dayton Shelton, Tom Bain, Malcolm Glass, Will Walling and C. L. Jacobs.

Hedley has had a little relief from the excessive heat since the rain Sunday. About half an inch fell in town, some parts of the county reporting as high as an inch and a half.

Malcolm Glass brought in the first bale of cotton for this season Monday. The cotton was left to dry a few days before ginning, and is to be ginned today (Thursday) at the West Texas Gin.

We see Biffle's new lunch room is nearing completion.

Roy Darnell has bought the Hedley Mill from B. D. Knight, and invites the mill's customers to call on him.

Mr. Knight has made no definite plans for the future as yet.

Among the candidates for degrees at Texas Tech's summer graduation August 28 is Byrham Craig Johnson of Hedley, who will receive a B. S. in Ed. degree.

Work is being rushed as rapidly as possible on Hedley's new theatre. The concrete floor has been run and the front of the building stuccoed, and the theatre shows signs of being a very attractive structure when completed.

Pete Chandler has leased the Biffle Laundry and invites the public to call on him. Mrs. Reed will remain as supervisor.

Mrs. Chandler and their two sons plan to move here from Wellington as soon as housing is available.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

House Group Proposes New Farm Program to Aid Agriculture; Drouth Strikes Mid-West States

Released by Western Newspaper Union.
EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.

FARM PROGRAM: New Proposals

A new farm program calling for a combination of sound open market practices and governmental assistance was proposed by the special house committee on postwar economic policy and planning headed by Representative Colmer (Dem., Miss.).

In recommending changes in present farm legislation, the committee urged:

Greater flexibility be allowed in farm prices, especially toward each other.

Supply and demand be given greater opportunity to determine farm prices rather than artificial controls.

Re-examination of the outmoded parity price formula designed to give farmers an income on a par with industrial workers.

Concentration on a long rather than a short range farm program.

For establishing a "floor" under farm prices to prevent a disastrous drop, the committee proposed a support program guaranteeing producers "60, 70 or 80 per cent of parity"; a supplemental payment during hard times to assure a certain percentage of predepression income and limits on the rate of decline for a specific commodity in a year.

PARIS: Parley Gets Going

Settlement of the highly controversial rules procedures enabled the 21-nation Paris peace conference to get underway for consideration of vital issues concerning treaty drafts for Italy, Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria.

Agreement to place all conference recommendations passed by a majority vote before the Big Four foreign ministers for their study in drawing up the final treaties represented a major victory for the Anglo-American bloc. Russia had held out for a two-thirds vote on the grounds that decisions should be as unanimous as possible and was supported by the Slav bloc including Poland, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, the Ukraine and Byelorussia.

While the Anglo-American and Russian blocs were at issue on the voting procedure they readily joined in a decision to open both committee and general assembly meetings to representatives of the defeated nations to place their views before the delegates. There also was agreement on excluding any of the Big Four from the chairmanship of any of the committees to preclude the imposition of their policies and to limit each country to one chairmanship.

DROUTH: Strikes in Mid-West

Because of an atmospheric quirk, parts of Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana and almost all of Michigan have suffered from severe drouth, with heavy rainfall needed to prevent major corn, pasture and truck crop failures.

As explained by the weather bureau, a low pressure trough exists in a north-south direction the Great Plains states. Normally, moist air from the Gulf of Mexico would pass into this channel, to be distributed to the eastward. During the last six weeks, however, a strong northerly wind has been blowing in to block the moist air.

Outside of this area, there has been heavy rainfall, especially in the East, the Great Plains states and parts of Iowa and Illinois. To the east and west of the affected air trough, southerly winds are bearing moisture from the gulf.

Corn in the drouth area already has suffered a 10 to 20 per cent loss; seeding of clover and alfalfa in stubble has been retarded, and tomato blossoms are blasting and falling off vines.

CIO:

To Fight Prices

Remaining militant in its postwar program to aid the interests of more than five million members, the CIO announced an all-out drive on rising prices to prevent further depreciation of the workers' dollar.

Revealing that it had given up plans for another big wage drive to win further increases to offset rising living costs, the union stated that demands for more money probably would result in still higher prices.

In forecasting additional price rises of 15 to 20 per cent during the next few months, the CIO said that the corresponding reduction in purchasing power of the consumer's dollar would represent a wage cut of 17 per cent. A successful consumer strike against higher prices would terminate current inflation within the next 18 months at the worst and three to six months at the best, it said.

UNRRA: U. S. to Quit

Following close upon the blast of Senators Butler (Rep., Neb.) and Ellender (Dem., La.) against use of United Nations relief and rehabilitation funds abroad, Assistant Secretary of State William L. Clayton told the fifth UNRRA council meeting in Geneva, Switzerland, that the U. S. would not contribute additional funds to the agency.

While the senators had charged that UNRRA supplies were being used to bolster foreign governments, Clayton stated that the U. S. was withdrawing future assistance to the agency because the period of immediate postwar impoverishment was passing and the U. S. and other countries had supplied sufficient credit mediums for financing recovery.

No less than 30 billion dollars have been made available for loaning through such agencies as the international bank and monetary funds set up at Bretton Woods, Clayton said. Furthermore, prospective borrowers now can approach wealthier nations for advances if necessary, he added.

In all, the U. S. provided no less than 2 1/2 billion dollars of aid to UNRRA, sufficient for supplies to fill 2,000 cargo ships.

RURAL AREAS:

Efforts to cure the "ghetto town blight" caused by migration to the city of rural talent and enterprise are being intensified in Montana by recently increased expenditures for rural redevelopment research according to the council of state governments.

World War II accelerated this rural depopulation trend in Montana, where almost 20 per cent of the population has moved elsewhere since Pearl Harbor, the Montana study was set up in 1944.

Recent increases by the state in Montana study funds enabled new additions to the project's staff and expansion of activities. Key objectives of the Montana study are (1) to help bring adult education facilities to rural areas, (2) to help small towns stabilize their economic life through local volunteer effort, and (3) to keep more able young people in their home towns by raising cultural as well as economic standards of living.

OPA:

More Price Boosts

Reflecting the termination of subsidy payments amounting to $39,200,000 yearly, OPA boosted the price of No. 2 sized cans of peas and tomatoes two cents and corn and tomato paste one cent. The price of a 14-ounce bottle of catsup was upped one cent along with six-ounce cans of tomato paste.

At the same time, OPA followed its removal of price control from snap beans packed after March 1 by freeing frozen and canned snap beans processed before that date.

While congress had slashed the administration request for two billion dollars for subsidies by half in renewing OPA, the agency had decided to discontinue vegetable payments in July, it was reported. With the lapse of the old price control act in June, subsidies ended on the 1946 pack and later were stopped on the 1945 supply.

Study Meat Control

As the new super price control board undertook to determine whether meat should continue free of price control, packer bids on cattle and hogs dipped in the leading markets upon heavy receipts of low-cost beef and consumer resistance to rising pork prices.

Taking cognizance of department of agriculture charges that whole carloads of meat were spoiling on railroad sidings in the East because of a buyer's strike in protest against high prices, packers stated that present prices including former subsidies actually are lower than under OPA regulation. Because of the large volume of tonnage available, some shipments may be arriving faster than distributors can handle them, it was said.

National Income Near Peak

With disbursements of private industry rising to an all-time high in June, income payments to individuals for the month were at a near record annual rate of $100,600,000, the department of commerce reported.

Included in income payments to individuals are wages and salaries, net return of unincorporated businesses, dividends and interest and net rents received by landlords.

Indicative of whirling postwar industrial activity, wage and salary payments for June were estimated at $8,701,000,000 and dividend and interest disbursements were put at $2,263,000,000.

HIGH SEA: Seek Prize

A British steamship company stood to gain three million dollars and the Latvian captain and crew of one of its tugs another million if their claim to the abandoned 15,000-ton American Farmer cargo vessel is upheld. Boarding the deserted ship 600 miles off of England, the British crew later was forced to give it up to U. S. seamen.

Considered as a prize to anyone picking her up under maritime law, the American Farmer was spotted by RAF planes as she drifted aimlessly after being abandoned by her U. S. crew following a collision with the U. S. William Riddle. Valued at almost two million dollars herself, the American Farmer bore cargo estimated at an additional two and one-half million dollars.

The British tug located the American Farmer after several U. S. vessels had passed the ship up. Shortly after the tug captain had put a crew aboard and started to tow the huge ringer in, the U. S. Ranger drew alongside and sent seamen to take possession of the craft.

HIDES: Hit Hoarding

Led by Reconstruction Director Steelman, the government moved to spur the lagging sale of hides and leather which was said to threaten an imminent shutdown in shoe production.

Declaring that the government would use every means for striking at hoarders who held back shipments in the hope of raising prices, Steelman revealed that the justice department would investigate rumors that distributors were withholding supplies to gain greater profits and OPA would check inventories so that it could order release of excess stocks.

ARMY:

In a move to assist in alleviating acute housing shortages in congested communities and at the same time provide greatly needed family living quarters for men now in military service, the war department is carrying on a program of converting existing barracks and other buildings into family units.

Contracts already have been let for converting army buildings into 5,746 family units located at 62 military installations.

Washington Digest
GOP Leaders Intrigue Press With Election Prospects

By BAUKHAGE
News Analyst and Commentator.

WNU Service, 1616 Eye Street, N.W., Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — This weather—in Washington and elsewhere—develops more heat than light. That's a trite phrase, I know, but it's apropos because heat, rather than light, is always the keyword at this season, politically speaking. Congress accomplished its faded-out rather gracefully, I thought, even if they must have prayed for forgiveness for "the things we have left undone" as fervently as for the things they did which didn't sit too well with their consciences.

And now the voice of the voter-getter is heard in the land.

Radio and newspaper correspondents are being courted by both political parties. For example, recently, a crowd of radio folk was given a luncheon-table look at the vote-getting machinery behind the Republican lines. Our hosts were Republican Chairman Carroll B. Reece at one end of the table, and Republican Campaign Manager Clarence Brown at the other. (A similar jaunt into Democratic territory will be reported in a future column.)

Reece Quiet, Popular Chief

Reece is a slight, greying, quiet-voiced man whose Tennessee accent reminds one occasionally of Claude Pepper in one of Claude's unrotational moments if you can catch him in one. (Personal confession: I like Pepper and Reece both and so do a lot of people who would be the first to say, "the views of these notables do not NECESSARILY agree with those of the undersigned.")

It is a little presumptuous of me to refer to Reece as "greying" because the year 1889 had to stretch itself from January to December to fill the time-gap between my birthday and his. He has taught in almost as many academic institutions as I have casually attended. He was a battalion commander in World War I whereas I never rose above the exalted station of shavetail, and among his five decorations are the Distinguished Service Cross, the Distinguished Service Medal and the Purple Heart. He was cited for bravery by a marshal, three generals and a colonel.

Perhaps the same qualities which won Reece his decorations qualified him for his present job. He certainly doesn't lack assurance even if he doesn't rattle sabers in expressing it.

But we are not talking about Reece. We are talking about his job. He is out on the hustings, although his trip, which will take him as far west as Seattle and as far south as Georgia, is mildly camouflaged as a vacation. Anyhow Mrs. and Miss Reece are going along, and a part of the time will be spent at a resort in the Rockies.

Backstopping Reece here in the capital where nobody votes, but where a lot of writers and talkers remain, will be Clarence Brown, representative from the seventh district of Ohio, a state which might be called a latter-day mother of presidents and which right now is looking hopefully over the patterns of maternity gowns.

Brown and Reece complement each other very well. Reece is slight, dignified, soft-spoken. Brown is large, loud enough to be heard in the back row without using the PA system, and half-fellow-well-met. As "campaign manager" he is going to sweat it out (that is literal) with the rest of the Washingtonians who don't vacate in the summer.

I have a fellow feeling for Representative Brown, tinged perhaps with the natural deference a reporter always has for a publisher. Brown publishes several country newspapers (that's the way he put it himself in the congressional directory) whereas I merely write for "several" besides this one. Also he has three more children than I have. He and I once met on the debating platform, and while I would naturally never admit that I didn't present the best argument, I will concede somewhat grudgingly that Brown's resounding oratory won him the most applause. We were debating selective service, and I hasten to explain that former Senator (now Supreme court justice) Burton and I had the unpopular side. Anyhow, Brown (may-the-best-man-win) won.

Reece and Brown didn't talk on-the-record at the luncheon but I have a good idea of how things looked to the Republicans at that congenial gathering of radio folk. If the elections were held as of that moment, they claimed, the Republicans would win a majority of seats in the house of representatives and would make very heavy inroads on the Democratic majority in the senate. Since then many of the primary battles have been fought and I'll report the reactions later.

Gallup Poll Heartens GOP

In the first place I understand that the Republicans took considerable satisfaction in the Gallup poll which showed that, excluding the one-party Democratic states, 46 per cent of the persons interviewed showed a Democratic preference and 54 per cent a Republican preference.

The GOP leaders believed they had a good, fighting chance to win 15 to 17 senatorial seats from their opponents. In New York, they say Governor Dewey's good record and the campaign he is planning ought to pull in a Republican senator (they won't say whom). They believe Democratic Senator Mead will have to run or the governorship.

They felt they had a chance in Delaware and West Virginia and that if the ballots were cast at that moment they would win in Missouri (I'm still talking about the senatorial race). They called Montana and Washington probabilities rather than mere possibilities. 'O'Mahoney knows he has a fight, they say, and they believe the Republican candidate, John Henderson, has a chance against the popular gentleman from Wyoming.

Carroll B. Reece and Rep. Brown

I heard a lot of talk, too, about the interesting possibility in Connecticut where Repr. Clare Luce was expected to oppose former OPA Administrator Chester Bowles, which would be a colorful affair with all the technical skill of her publisher husband, and all the skill of an advertising man, Mr. Bowles, pitted against each other.

OF Kentuck

Bloody Battleground Kentucky was catalogued as still a dark and bloody battleground. At the time of the luncheon, Representative May's followers seemed to feel, according to press reports, that he was a martyr. If something should come out to change their minds on that score, he might go down to defeat. And we are reminded that, as one Republican put it: "every 20 years or so Kentucky changes its mind."

Other debatable districts were listed in Pennsylvania, Indiana, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia and New York.

What the Republicans seem to count on most is the natural reaction, the "throw the rascals out" theory which Americans always have reverted to after so long a period of any party's incumbency. In addition, say the GOP'ndits, there are the usual mistakes of the party in power which result in the well known attitude of one of Clarence Brown's constituents who told him:

"I don't know who I'm FUR, but I know darned well who I'm AGIN."

The Republicans think they have discovered a trend away from centralized government which may turn the voters against the administration and into Republican pastures.

FLUSH KIDNEY URINE

Benefit wonderfully from famous doctor's discovery that relieves backache, run-down feeling due to excess acidity in the urine

People everywhere are finding amazing relief from painful symptoms of bladder irritation caused by excess acidity in the urine. DR. KILMER'S SWAMI ROOT acts fast on the kidneys to ease discomfort by promoting the flow of urine. This pure herbal medicine is especially welcome where bladder irritation due to excess acidity is responsible for "getting up at night". A carefully blended combination of 18 herbs, roots, vegetables, balsams; Dr. Kilmer's contains nothing harsh, is absolutely non-habit forming. Just good ingredients that many say have a marvelous effect. All druggists sell Swamp Root.

Try This Dressing On Garden Salads

With ever-welcome "garden sass" at hand to enliven meals, the homemaker's job is to sell the family, especially younger members on fresh garden salads. Mrs. R. G. Kyger writes in nationally-circulated Capper's Farmer.

Various combinations of vegetables can and should be used. Since dressing is the lifeblood of the salad. Mrs. Kyger suggests the following:

TOMATO SOUP FRENCH DRESSING

1 can condensed tomato soup 1/2 tsp. salt
 1/2 cup fresh sprig of fresh tarragon 1 clove garlic
 1 lemon juice

Press cut clove of garlic into the salt to flavor it. Mix the salt with tomato soup. Add one sprig of fresh tarragon, if available, and any other preferred seasonings. Thin mixture to desired consistency for dressing with lemon juice—about 1/2 cup.

Nature's forces Hold the Rings Around Saturn...

and OIL-PLATE Your Engine!

NO one knows just why Saturn is the only planet to have rings around it. We do know, however, that mighty forces of gravitational attraction hold them there. Through extensive research into the forces of attraction between molecules of liquids and solids, Conoco scientists are able to bring America's motorists the benefits of new and better oils.

Using the force of molecular attraction (basic force that holds things together), a special ingredient in Conoco Nth motor oil is attracted to working surfaces of your engine. In fact, so strong is this attraction that cylinder walls are OIL-PLATED.

And because molecular attraction holds Conoco OIL-PLATING up where it belongs... prevents it from all draining down to the crankcase, even overnight... you get these benefits:

- added protection during the vital periods when you first start your engine
- added protection from corrosive action when your engine is not in use
- added protection from wear that leads to fouling sludge and carbon
- added smooth, silent miles

That's why you'd be safer to OIL-PLATE your engine now... at Your Conoco Mileage Merchant's. Look for the red triangle. Continental Oil Company

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its busy and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

Changing Character Of Outmoded Rocker

IN TODAY'S cramped living quarters there is little space for a rocker that neither harmonizes with antiques nor modern furniture. Yet, with the slight alterations shown here, such a chair may be made to seem at home with either type of furniture.

After the rockers have been removed, it may be made to change character to suit the material used for cushion and back covers.

This idea is from Home-Making Booklet No. 5 which contains more than 20 pages of illustrated directions for other things to make from things on hand and inexpensive new materials. Readers may get a copy of Book 5 postpaid for 15 cents by writing to:

Kidneys Must Work Well—
For You To Feel Well
24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood.
If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly.
Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backaches, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling.
Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulates the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.

Evaluating 'Morale'

We have been looking into army and navy "E" awards. . . . Even if all the thousands of them were meritorious—which is an absurd hypothesis—this system adds up to a $100,000,000 scandal. Based on a theory that such hokey boosted the workers' morale, it cost probably 50,000,000 man hours in war-plants, 25,000 lost days for officers, diversion of transportation facilities and waste of gas, plus some of the highest-powered hangovers ever experienced by men in uniform.

Army-navy urged these plants to throw celebrations. Some turned into week-long drunks, with whiskey and champagne suppers, imported entertainers and party girls, arriving in private cars and chartered planes. All this was legally deductible for income tax purposes, chargeable against production costs and valid accounting in contract renegotiation.

Officers were assigned, often traveling hundreds and thousands of miles, taking several weeks on a job, all on government pay and travel and subsistence expenses. One public relations officer was always sent on ahead, to whip up the show. Higher ones came on later, to make stuffy speeches, ride in parades and souse up with the happy executives and their ladies.

There was usually a shutdown. All hands were guests at shows and blowouts, in hotels, country clubs, local theatres taken over. Besides, there were more exclusive to-dos for officers and corporation officials, "guardian angels" and other politicians, with costly souvenirs handed out—everything charged as legitimate expense.

PROs were briefed by higher officers to encourage as much hoopla as the plants could swing. Some of them did practically no other work. The signal corps, with only about a half-dozen HQ posts in the country, traveled its advance agents countless miles. Often the plants paid these men's expenses and those of higher officers, although the army did, too, doubling the cost to the taxpayer.

It was one of the sweetest rackets of the conflict to exterminate the enemy by good old Yankee horse-sense and can-do. A triumph of E-bombs!

The Hollywood gin rummy swindle was turned up by a cub reporter (Los Angeles Examiner) on his first assignment. The paper had a tip that Michael MacDougall, the sleuth who specializes in such things, was in town. . . . Baker Conrad was sent on this thin tip. . . . He ran into some members of a club he thought might be involved. They were talking out loud—spilling names and all—on the story the youngster wasn't even sure was cooking. . . . He got an earful and ran to a phone. . . . The first newsbreak said only that three sharpers had taken Hollywood big boys—no names mentioned. . . . An hour after the edition hit the street, three heavy winners had engaged a high-priced lawyer to "protect their interests."

The prisoner in the dark Gestapo dungeon in Berlin was tall, gaunt Rudolf Diels, founder of the Gestapo in the first turbulent days of the Nazi regime. Diels had said "no" to Adolf when the fuhrer ordered him to liquidate an old pal who had outlived his usefulness to the swastika-gang. Now, Rudolf sat in his cell, awaiting the hangman—by order of Hitler, who did not like people who dared to say "no."
Standing before Diels was medical-dripping Hermann Goering. "I order you to divorce my sister," growled Goering. "Get out of her life. We cannot have a man in our family hung!"

Diels, a cool character, shrugged his shoulders, told Goering where to go.

Circumstances—too long and involved to relate here—saved Diels from the hangman. Today, sitting in a villa in Nuernberg, he supplies the prosecution with valuable information against the major war criminals. Among his frequent visitors was Capt. Harry N. Sperber, chief German interpreter at the trials.

"Strange," mused Diels to Harry, a sardonic smile on his sallow, sabre-slashed face. "It looks as if—after all—dear Hermann will have a man in the family hung! . . . Himself!"

"Dark of the Moon" has gone home, to the Smoky mountains, where it was written, about its own people, by Howard Richardson and William Barney. . . . It was staged at the Community theatre, in Asheville, N. C. . . . That is 15 miles from where the authors found the ballad of Barbara Allen, theme of their play. . . . Viscount Lascelles, nephew of King George VI of England, has a play he wrote making the Broadway office rounds.

Bread Makes the Pudding!

(See Recipes Below)

Don't Waste Bread!

Most of us don't think it matters one way or the other whether we throw away a stale slice of bread, but, if each family were to save a slice of bread every day, the amount would feed many millions of hungry families who are less fortunate.

Small families, particularly find that the average loaf of bread dries rather quickly, and there are several slices within the week that are regarded as unfit for sandwiches. But there are literally thousands of uses for such bread.

Why not start on a personal campaign of your own just to see how much you can save by using every scrap of bread well? Spread the word to your friends and neighbors, and let's see if we can't really save food, which is the equivalent of putting dollars and cents in your pocketbook?

Here are ways to use those leftover pieces of bread with meats and vegetables. They stretch these other foods as well as make the dish more savory, which will be of interest to the palate as well as the purse.

Tangy Cheese Dish.
(Serves 8)
5 cups toasted 1/4-inch bread cubes
1/2 pound American cheese, grated
3 eggs, beaten
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
2 1/2 cups milk

Alternate layers of cheese and toast cubes in a greased 1 1/2 quart casserole. Combine beaten eggs, salt, paprika, mustard and milk. Pour liquid mixture over bread and cheese in casserole. Bake in a moderate (350 degree) oven for 35 minutes.

Meat Souffle.
(Serves 6)
2 cups ground cooked meat
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
4 egg yolks, beaten
2 tablespoons shortening
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 1/2 cups milk, scalded
3 cups bread cubes
4 egg whites, stiffly beaten

Combine meat, salt, pepper and beaten egg yolks. Melt shortening in a small skillet. Add onion and cook five minutes. Pour scalded milk over bread cubes. Combine meat mixture with bread and milk. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Four into a greased 1 1/2 quart casserole and set in a pan of hot water. Bake in a moderate oven for one hour.

Baked Tomato Surprise.
(Serves 8)
2 3-ounce packages of cream cheese
2 tablespoons milk

LYNN SAYS:

The Know-How of Bed Care:
Beds should be cleaned on the day that you give a thorough cleaning to the bedroom. Remove all blankets, sheets and pillows to a chair. Draw the mattress off the bed so that the frame may be dusted thoroughly.

Box springs may be cleaned with a vacuum cleaner, and dust may also be gathered from wire springs with the vacuum. Wire springs may also be wiped with a clean, lintless cloth that has a few drops of lemon oil sprinkled on it.

The mattress should be gone over thoroughly with a vacuum cleaner on both sides. This, of course, may be done on the bed or chair.

Change the mattress pad frequently, and fit the sheets carefully at the corners, tucking them well underneath the mattress when you make the bed.

Cream
*Recipe given.

1 teaspoon garlic salt, if desired
2 teaspoons celery salt
4 teaspoons salt
4 eggs, beaten slightly
2 cups dry bread crumbs
8 medium tomatoes

Combine cream cheese, milk and seasoning. Add salt to slightly beaten eggs. Place dry bread crumbs on pie plate. Slice each tomato crosswise into fourths. Place one tablespoon of the cheese mixture on half of the slices. Top each with the other tomato slices. Place toothpick into middle of each "sandwich" to hold tomato slices together. Roll the tomato slices in the bread crumbs, dip in beaten egg and roll again in bread crumbs. Bake on a well-greased cookie sheet in a hot (400 degree) oven for 20 minutes.

Bread Griddle Cakes.
(Makes 14 cakes)
2 cups dry bread crumbs
2 cups milk
1 1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
2 eggs, beaten
1 cup finely grated apple

Soak dry bread crumbs in milk to soften. Add salt, cinnamon and soda to bread crumb mixture. Blend thoroughly. Add beaten eggs and apple; mix well. Drop by tablespoon onto a hot greased griddle. Turn over and brown on both sides. Serve with syrup, honey or apple sauce.

Now that so many fresh fruits are in season, you'll certainly want to make good use of them. Fruits combined well with bread crumbs and give a nourishing finale to the lighter meals we are accustomed to eating in warmer weather. Here's a lovely dessert dressed up to fit a queen's table:

Baked Fresh Peach Macaroon.
(Makes 6)
6 medium fresh peaches
1 egg white, stiffly beaten
1/4 cup white corn syrup
1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
2 cups coarse dry bread crumbs

Dip peaches in hot water to remove skin. Slowly combine beaten egg white and corn syrup, beating until blended. Add sifted brown sugar and bread crumbs. Cover peach with macaroon mixture. Place on a greased cookie sheet and bake in a moderate (350 degree) oven for 27 minutes.

Danish Apple Cake.
(Serves 8)
1 quart applesauce
2 cups toasted bread crumbs
3 egg yolks, beaten
1/2 cup melted butter or substitute
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 cup sugar

3 egg whites
6 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

Combine applesauce, toasted bread crumbs, beaten egg yolks, butter, cinnamon and sugar. Bake in a greased two quart casserole in a moderate oven for 45 minutes. Remove from oven. Beat egg whites until stiff, add sugar gradually continuing to beat until mixture stands in peaks. Add vanilla. Top apple cake with meringue and return to oven for 15 minutes or until meringue browns.

It's a duty to see that no fat goes to waste. Here are quick tips:

Every bit of fat left from cooking may be saved and used again unless it has scorched or is too strong in flavor. Keep any fat from scorching and smoking. For once a fat reaches the smoking point, it gets rancid and it doesn't taste good.

Household Hints

Before repainting the wood with a coat of paint so that the oil in the putty will not be absorbed. Putty, if used over plain wood, may become dry and fall off.

Rub tin and iron utensils with unsalted fat and they're rust-proof for even a long period of rest.

Way to locate a dry leak in a roof is go into the attic on a bright sunny day. Then no matter how small the hole, the light will show through.

A pair of tweezers is useful for plucking threads that have been caught in sewing-machine stitching.

Don't overcrowd the dishpan. Wash one pan at a time and you'll spare knobs and handles from useless dents and breakage.

Before dyeing a garment, it is best to remove all buttons, buckles, or other trimmings and rip out hems, pleats and linings so the dye can penetrate the fabric more evenly.

A child's sprinkling can is very convenient for watering house plants.

HEDLEY MILLING CO.

I have sold the Hedley Mill to Roy Darnell, and wish to thank every one of my customers for the business they have given me. I hope that you will give Mr. Darnell the same consideration you have given me.

I have enjoyed my stay in Hedley very much. BEST WISHES FOR CONTINUED SUCCESS TO ALL OF YOU.
