Airplanes were used to drop food and other essentials to snow-bound villages cut off from railroad and highway communication by the heavy drifts.

Sick Industry

Behind Britain's acute coal crisis which left millions jobless and shivering as industrial and domestic wer services were sharply curtailed lay the story of an antiquated coal mining industry enfeebled by low wages, undesirable working nditions and outmoded machinery

Nationalization of the mines by the Labor government, with the promise of an improvement in the industry, has been too recent to afford substantial relief from the aggravated conditions of two and a half decades.

In 1913, Britain produced 287,000,-000 tons of coal with 1,107,000 miners, but by 1920 output dropped to 230,000,000 tons. Despite a larger working force, the decline was attributed to the advancing age of the miners and lack of adequate equip-

Year by year production conan all-time low of 182,000,000 tons in 1945. But whereas U. S. output continued to climb to over 600,000,000 tons and wages advanced to high levels, both British industry and mine help resisted introduction of new machinery which would have increased volume and allowed more pay.

Because of the unattractive prospects in the mines, the industry has had difficulty recruiting younger men. As a result, it has been forced to stumble along in the face of rising demands, with production just about meeting immediate needs and allowing no stockpiling.

CONGRESS:

Slow on Labor

With industrial spokesmen dividup by the U. S. promulgation of ed among themselves upon correctitrust law in the American octive labor legislation, house and senate labor committees found their tasks complicated with little chance for early action.

With action already delayed by Republican reorganization of the new congress and streamlining of procedure provided for in the La Follette bill last year, it appears that y in their occupation zone, they the lawmakers will not be able to ovided safeguards for socialization agree upon any substantial correcagree upon any substantial correc-tive legislation before expiration of John L. Inflation Hits China

Many a Chinese wondered if it was the beginning of the end.

Chinese dollars were as plentiful as goods were scarce and from Canton in the south to Peiping in the north the price of the national staple rice soared. In Shanghai where workers are guaranteed pay in-in living costs, many business men considered closing shop since mounting costs threatened to ruin them.

Indicative of the inflationary spiral, one American dollar bought 19,-000 Chinese dollars.

With the creeping paralysis in the Chinese economy intensified by the civil strife raging between the Nationalists and Communists, the U.S. decision to abandon its peace-making and pull out of the country was said to have contributed to the financial breakdown.

UAW:

Empty Purse

In battling for maintenance of high take-home pay during the reconversion period, strikes cost the powerful CIO - United Automobile Workers more than $2,000,000, George F. Addes, secretary treasurer of the union, disclosed.

As of last November, Addes revealed, the UAW net worth stood at $134,869 compared with $2,699,000 at the time of V-J Day. Toward the close of 1946, he said, the union had cashed in all of its government bonds save for $10,000 and was compelled to borrow $250,000 from other CIO unions.

From December, 1945, to November, 1946, the UAW had expended $1,826,186 on strikes, Addes said. Because the walkouts at Allis-Chalmers in West Allis, Wis., and the J. I. Case company in Racine, Wis., have been costing $150,000 monthly for the last few months, the UAW strike fund now is in the red.

To build up UAW finances, the union top command has slapped a special $1 per month capita assess-ment on the 800,000 members. Dues were increased from $1 to $1.50 monthly last April.

The oldest symbol representing a word is "&," known as the am-persand. Originally, it was one of the 5,000 signs in the world's first shorthand system which was invented by Marcus Tiro in Rome in 63 B. C. and used for 1,000 years. Not only is "&" the only one of these signs to have survived, but it is used today as the symbol for the word "and" in several hundred languages.

Cleanliness 'Must' in Making Baby's Formula

IMMACULATE cleanliness is necessary when preparing baby's formula, for such care is important in keeping baby healthy, writes Georgia Leffingwell in an article in nationally-circulated Capper's

"For efficiency and cleanliness, the utenci's used in preparing baby's bottle should be kept toshe advises mothers. They should not be used for any other purpose."

Utensils needed are: 8 to 10 eight-ounce bottles with rounded edges; bottle covers that can be sterilized; a dozen nipples; a funnel and a strainer; a bottle brush; teaspoon or forceps for picking up utensils; a sterilizer or kettle large enough to boil bottles, nipples and utensils; a 32-ounce measuring container for measuring formula; 2 wide-mouthed glass jars, one that can be sterilized for storing boiled nipples and covers and one for used nipples.

"Wash hands thoroly before begin ning formula preparation," the article cautions. "The whole 24 hours supply should be made up at one time, poured directly into the sterile bottles and tightly capped."

All bottles, nipples and utensils should be washed inside and out with a clean bottle brush, using hot, soapy water. Place equipment in a sterilizer or large kettle and allow to boil at least 5 minutes. Then let them drain and cool. Fill the bottles, being careful not to touch the top edge. Cover at once with sterilized rubber caps or bottle covers. Allow to cool a few minutes before placing in the refrigerator. Dogs Played an Important P. 1 In Lincoln's Life, History Sho s

To the long list of historical figures who were lovers of dogs, the name of Abraham Lincoln, martyr President, should be added, according to the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City.

Not only was Lincoln very fond and understanding of dogs and owned several during his life, but they in turn seemed to have loved and understood him, it states.

At Fort Wayne, Ind., in front of the Lincoln National Life Insurance Company building, is a huge bronze statue named "Abraham Lincoln—the Hoosier Youth," executed by Paul Manship, world-famed sculptor. This statue shows young Lincoln Paul Manship, world-famed sculptor. This statue shows young Lincoln wearing a homespun shirt, buckskin trousers, and boots, his left hand caressing the head of a hound dog scated at his side. This striking memorial has been praised as the truest as well as the most beautiful, concept of Lincoln as a young man ever given this country. The inclusion of the dog in the statue was intended to symbolize Lincoln's great love for animals and the many occasions upon which he showed kindness toward them.

Lincoln's constant companion as a child was a large hound owned by his father. Thomas Lincoln. The dog went with the boy on fishing and hunting expeditions and on jaunts over the Kentuc': y hills and streams.

Once when playing in the woods young Abe and his boyhood chum. Austin Gollaher, found a dog with a broken leg. Abe made a splint for the injured leg, carried the dog to a nearby cave for shelter and brought food and water to it for several weeks. When the broken leg had healed Lincoln took the dog home and named it Honey. Abe's devotion to the dog was repaid, for Honey once brought aid to his owner when the boy had been trapped in a cave by falling boulders.

When Lincoln was 21 his family moved from Indiana to Macon County, Ill. During the long, tedious journey in March of 1830, the family was accompanied by a small dog. The dog trotted along under the big covered wagon pulled by eight oxen On one

the Labor Problem

You hear a lot about capital and labor nowadays, as if the two could never get together. But look at Bert Childers-who has 320 acres of producing land, a fair-sized herd of cattle, and two farm hands work-

If you called Bert a "capitalist" he wouldn't know what you meant, and neither would Spike and Sandy, the hired sen. Bert works side by side with both of them; and in the evenings they sit around the fire together-sharing a friendly glass of beer or two.

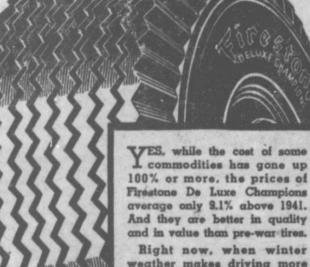

If anybody has a beef-whether it's about wages or hours or equipment-they talk it over at those friendly evening sessions. I don't say all labor problems are as simple as Bert's. But from where I sit, the basic principle applies to any farm or factory or business: A principle of confidence and mutual respect, of daily talks together in a friendly and congenial atmosphere.

Youngsters' Parties

Has your youngster had a party recently? There's nothing quite so excellent for social training for the youngsters as having a party completely their own. Social graces, unselfishness and consideration of others can be taught easily this way. Of course, a child may look upor this purely as fun, but he can't help absorbing some social sense about the affair even if he is young. don't suggest that any parent wield a strong arm over him, but there are little ways of coaching him to see that his small guests are comfortable, and the fact that they have ternately to come to see him in his own home creamed mixture gives the child a certain awareness about his role in the matter.

As a mother, you should be careful in planning the food for the chilof a party, so it's a good idea to have food simple and easy-to-digest.

Since birthdays are good occasions for parties, you might plan a simple supper party for the youngsters. Creamed chicken made with plenty of milk, an easy to get salad of molded fruit, and ice cream and cake is a good starter.

*Creamed Chicken. (Serves 4 to 6)

5 tablespoons butter 5 tablespoons flour 24 cup sliced mushrooms 34 teaspoon salt

1% cups chicken broth 1/2 cup light cream or top milk 11/2 cups cooked, cut up chicken 2 egg yolks, beaten

Melt butter in top part of double boiler, then saute mushrooms in it for 5 minutes. Blend in flour and stir until smooth. Add salt, chicken broth and light cream, stirring constantly until mixture thickens. Add chicken and heat thoroughly. Remove from heat, pour slowly over beaten egg yolks, stirring constantly. Serve over thin wedges of toast.

Molded Salad. (Serves 6)

1 package lemon-flavored gelatin cup boiling water 1 cup cranberry juice or canned, jellied sauce 1 apple 1 orange

1 teaspoon lemon juice Lettuce, mayonnaise

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water and chill until it thickens. Crush the sauce or add the juice to gelatin. Grind apple and orange, leaving skins on and combine with lemon juice and gelatin. Pour into mold and chill until firm. Serve on lettuce with mayonnaise.

If a birthday cake is a must at the party, plan to make a delicate white one yourself, frost it with chocolate icing and put the writing on with a tube. If you're not quite adept at this, practice the lettering on waxed paper. It can be scooped up and used again.

Birthday Cake. (Makes 2 8-inch layers) 1/2 cup shortening 1 cup granulated sugar

2 cups sifted cake flour

For youngsters who are a little older you might like to have a slightly different menu. If the young-stern are able to manage in the kitchen themselves, it might be a good idea to let them dig in and toast hamburgers themselves. Or you might let them fix their own sandwiches from bowls of different kinds of spread. Have milk to drink and serve with ice cream and cake or cookies, and watch them enjoy themselves!

Combine all ingredients excepbuns or bread. Toast bread on one side in brotler and spread with mixture. Return to the broiler and broil for 6 min-utes. If desired, the sandwiches may be cut in halves or strips.

With the sandwiches, serve a salad like cole slaw or one of sliced tomatoes, potato chips or french fried potatoes. If you don't want the children working in the kitchen for the party, plan to make the meat mixture early, refrigerate it and then pop the sandwiches in to broil while you are working in the kitchen your-For children's parties where excitement tends to run high, better plan to have checked cloths and old napkins or a paper set so there's no worry about laundry. The children will feel more at ease, too, if there aren't too many breakables or things that ruin easily while they're having fun. Thin glassware is especially undesirable, as some of it is sure to be broken and it may hurt someone. Released by Western Newspaper Union,
