Swing of SOUTHWEST FARM MARKETS

Southwest farm markets paid firm to higher prices for livestock, eggs and poultry last week, according to the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture. Cotton and grains dropped; while other products showed mixed trends.

Easter demand for eggs and poultry kept prices firm. Eggs sold around 37 to 39 cents per dozen at most points; heavy hens 26 to 28 cents per pound; fryers 30 to 32.

Cotton declined around $3.25 to $4.50 per bale last week. Spot markets remained rather quiet but more active than in recent weeks. All sources bought mainly to take care of immediate needs only.

Grain markets described a steady downward trend last week, as demand slowed, and offerings became more plentiful. Wheat closed Thursday at around $2.73 per bushel for No. 1 hard at Fort Worth and Galveston; white corn $1.98; yellow corn $1.94; barley $1.54 and oats $1.01 to $1.03. Yellow milo closed $3.06 to $3.09 per hundred.

Cattle commanded generally steady to higher prices last week. Medium and good cows brought $12.50 to $16.25 at San Antonio; and $13 to $15 at Fort Worth. Good cows moved at $14.50 to $15.50 at Houston. Medium to good yearlings cashed at $18 to $19 at Houston; and $17.50 to $21.65 at San Antonio. Medium to good steers and yearlings cleared at $18 to $23 at Fort Worth.

Hogs ruled steady to 50 cents higher at Texas points, and 50 cents to $1.25 up at other southwest terminals. Closing bulk of good and choice butcher hogs cleared at $25 to $25.50 at Fort Worth. San Antonio's top for the week was $24.

Mister X

Well kids, we have had a little excitement this week—but very little.

La Verne, who did I see you with Friday night? From Clarendon I believe. Tall, dark and grew some.

Linnie, it seems as if Plainview is here again? How about it, Jack?

Mary Sue, if you just have your heart broken once, it is pretty easy to put it back together and try again.

Dorothy Johnson, I thought he was mad. He seemed pretty determined to buy your box Thursday night.

Elsie, remember the old saying: "Tis better to break one's heart than to do nothing about it."

Flash: We are all waiting for the announcement of Gib and Kotty's wedding, which in our opinion isn't very far off.

Bobbie Lee, I wish you and Lola Faye luck Saturday when you go to Amarillo because you will certainly need it.

Betty Jo, who came after you Saturday night? Oh, Raymond! Lola Faye, since when did you start going to church on Saturday night? I am really proud of you.

Juarita, what is this I hear about R. L. and you?

By the way, Brick, just who were you and Lowell walking home Thursday night? It could have been Joyce and Mildred—right?

Sue, you should have left off that call Sunday. If I were you I wouldn't care, just think of the good looking boy you were with Saturday night.

Dolores, what about the show Friday night and just what were you telling Jerry the next day?

Linnie, you seem to get around a lot when a certain boy from Wayland College is home.

Faye, are things finally going to be okay for you and a certain someone? Hope so!

Say, you Spear sisters, where have you been keeping yourselves lately. We don't see you so much.

Wanda, did I see you last Saturday night? I think so, with a red headed boy home from college.

"All Out For Christ"

April—showers, showers of blessings—

the season of revivals have month we really desire of Christians of our Methodist Brother, Rev. delivered a great sermon with truths concerning desires. Is it the wish of that our people fill every the church? Now that is a ent word than wish. If we just wish and don't do thing about it. I believe what you and I are doing.

If we desire every pew church filled it can be done.

But it takes prayer, faith to do it. God says sires, if in accordance with will shall be accomplished. we find that if the Christian Hedley desire to go all out. Christ it shall be done. We remember that the sin of omission is as great as the sin of commission. If we omit doing God's will during these revivals our churches not be filled. The society of town shall not be changed.

We will not have gone "a for Christ" and the condition of our town is what we as CP make it. We are responsible, the lost of our town. Is it the sires of Christians to see lost so saved? It is not the seats in churches being full that counts much as the names that must put on God's record book as who have followed Him. If less our churches are filled, are the lost going to hear God's word and know all about it so they will understand the requirements of being a child of God.

Now I'm not Methodist, but there's a great revival being conducted in that church and if are workers for God, we will be interested in a good revival in any of our churches, then they will be interested in revivals in our churches. It's the souls of people that must be saved. Let us every one pray and work for great showers of blessings during the revival and make it the desire of us to do God's will.

U. N.:
Celebrate With Veto

Andrei A. Gromyko, Russian delegate to the United Nations security council, celebrated the first anniversary of the U. N. with a veto—the 10th the Reds have employed since the international organization came into being to block action against themselves or Soviet-sponsored puppets.

With the Polish delegate siding with him, per custom, Gromyko wielded the veto on a resolution that would have charged Albania, a Soviet satellite, with part guilt for the sinking of a British vessel by a mine in Corfu channel last fall. Effect of the charge would have increased Albania's liability for damages being sought by the British for the mishap.

As it was, the U. S., France, China, Australia, Brazil, Colombia and Belgium, which voted for the resolution, watered down the original British charge that Albania was guilty of either laying the mine or conniving in planting it. Instead, they accused Albania of possessing knowledge of the presence of the mine and failure to clear the channel.

REFUGEES:
U. S. Aid

Having already generously provided relief and financial assistance to war-stricken areas abroad, congress moved to help the 1,037,000 displaced persons and refugees in Europe by joining the United Nations International Refugee organization.

Under the proposal first approved by the senate and then sent to the house, the U. S. would furnish 75 million dollars the first year, representing 45 per cent of the total operational costs.

Before agreeing to passage of the measure, the senate insisted on insertion of an amendment which would protect U. S. control of its immigration policies. Senator Revercomb (Rep., W. Va.) asserted that the Roosevelt and Truman administrations have permitted the entrance of 750,000 aliens on temporary visas, and Senator Hawkes (Rep., N. J.) charged 2,000,000 aliens have entered the country illegally within the last few years.

SHIPPING:
U. S. Future

The U. S. should develop a clear-cut maritime policy now to assure continued mastery of the American merchant marine, Pres. Harry Lundeberg of the AFL Seafarers International union, declared at its third biennial convention in Chicago.

Declaring that the U. S. merchant marine has dwindled to 30 million tons from its wartime peak of 50 million, Lundeberg attributed the decline to transfers of American ships to Panamanian registry, sales to foreign governments and removal of vessels from service. If necessary, the union is prepared to boycott ships transferred to Panamanian registry for operation under lower wage and working standards, he said.

Lundeberg also assailed continued British and Russian use of American ships obtained under lend-lease. Built with U. S. money and employing cheap foreign labor, these ships are directly competing with American vessels, he declared.

BUILDING:
Bladders completed 59,300 new permanent dwellings in January, 1947, more than three times as many as were completed in January of last year, according to estimates of the department of labor.

These figures do not include such structures as converted dwellings, trailers and temporary re-use accommodations, regularly included by the national housing agency in its reports on the progress of the business with a view toward influencing the thoughts of millions of theater-goers.

TOM CONTROL.
Plan

AS congressional conservatives continued their fight against appointment of David E. Lilienthal as chairman of the national atomic energy commission, bills were introduced for the creation of a new board to be headed by Secretary of State Marshall.

Under the plan introduced in the senate by Senator Malone (Rep., Nev.) and five colleagues and in the house by Representative Jenkins (Rep., O.), other members of the new board would include the secretaries of war and navy and two persons named by President Truman.

Conservatives seized upon the critical international situation to attempt to sidetrack Lilienthal, former TVA chairman who has been accused of countenancing the presence of Communists in the power agency. In proposing establishment of the new board to govern all phases of domestic atomic production, Republicans, joined by southern Democrats, declared that the Greek-Turkish crisis indicated the need for close political and military control over nuclear energy for national security.

GOP:
New Tax Plan

Heading the demands of some Republican congressmen for more substantial tax cuts for the lower income groups, the house passed a modified version of the Knutson proposal for a straight 20 per cent reduction.

Under the new bill, present rates would be cut 30 per cent on taxable income up to $1,000; from 30 to 20 per cent on income between $1,001 and $1,395; 20 per cent on income up to $302,395, and 10 per cent on all earnings above the latter figure. Over 24 million persons in the lower brackets would benefit from the increased reduction.

Speaker Martin threw his full support behind the new modified measure. Said he: "These tax cuts are entirely practicable while at the same time payments are made on the national debt. . . . People in the lower income brackets must have relief from crushing taxation and unbearably high prices. . . . Venture capital must have a chance for a reasonable return as an incentive to invest in order to make more jobs at good wages, increase production, improve quality and bring down prices for all. . . ."

Business on Big Scale

The year 1946 proved a banner one for big business, with heavy demand, increasing supplies of materials and settled periods of production after earlier labor disputes resulting in peak operations.

SEARS ROEBUCK: Continuing its progressive advance under Chairman Robert E. Wood, the big mail order and retail organization enjoyed sales of $1,612,596,050 and profits of $100,098,516. Sales were almost 60 per cent greater than in 1945. More than $225,000,000 was returned to catalogue customers, but with the increasing supply of goods most orders should be filled this year.

U. S. STEEL: The giant of the industry, U. S. Steel corporation showed sales topping $1,400,000,000 and profits $88,822,475. Because of rising costs of labor, material and equipment, profit was reduced to 6 per cent of the sales dollar, leaving a smaller percentage than ordinary for reinvestment, corporation officials declared.

CONSOLIDATION COAL: Reporting sales of $145,438,656, Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal company showed profits of $5,594,692. As a result of the use of new and better tools and the increasing skill of the workers, miners produced more coal per day in 1946 than in the preceding year.

MOSCOW:
Future Reich

At odds on most phases of post-war politics, the U. S. and Russia came to grips again in Moscow on the future pattern of the German government.

Boiled down, the differences amounted to U. S. proposals for a system of strong state governments working through an adequate central authority and Russian recommendations for a strong central government with the states subordinate.

The U. S. proposals advanced by Secretary of State Marshall are designed to give the German people a closer check on their government through the state level and diminish the possibility of a strong central authority like the Nazi regime assuming full, controlling power. In this respect, the U. S. plans embodied American principles of states rights and state representation in congress through the senate.

MINERALS:

The enormous drain on United States ore sources during the war period has left the country short of 22 of the 33 essential materials for waging war, experts warn. Seven of the 22 scarce minerals can be supplied in part by Canada and Mexico.

Among seven minerals that must be imported, if we are to have adequate stock-piles, are copper, mercury, cadmium, bauxite, quartz crystals, fluorapatite and flake graphite.

AROUND THE HOUSE

If your aluminum pans are discolored, try this easy method to bring the luster back to them. Boil a cream of tartar solution in the discolored pan. Use one teaspoon of cream of tartar to each quart of water for best results. This simple method keeps your pans gleaming.

Plastic covered coat hooks in color fixed on that empty wall space make a fine support for showing off your pretty trays.

You know what a soiled clothesline will do to hours of careful laundry work. The best way to prevent this is to see the line is strictly clean. Before hanging up the wash to dry, take the line down, wrap it firmly around the wash board, and scrub it thoroughly with hot water and soap.

Knives and other kitchen gadgets with painted handles should not be allowed to stand in water. The wood under the enamel will absorb water and cause the paint to chip off.

To get ready for spring house-cleaning and to obtain more storage space, it is a good idea to start now to weed out kitchen utensils and other odds and ends which are no longer useful.

To prevent rust marks on bathroom or kitchen fixtures where scouring powder can rest, dip the bottom of the can in hot paraffin.

Monks Make Up Fifth Of Population of Tibet

There are so many monks in Tibet principally because it is so hard to make a living and raise a family there. Monks make up one-fifth of the population of Tibet. Every year thousands of young men enter monasteries instead of marrying, for it often takes as many as six husbands to make enough money to support one wife, and most women have at least three husbands at one time.

A wife may dismiss a husband whenever she feels like it, and this brands him as a social outcast.

I guess all of us secretly hanker from time to time, for the good old days and the good old-fashioned pleasures. Leastways, Buddy Richards done a thriving business reviving the old-time hay-ride.

With a team of horses, and a stout straw-bedded rack, Buddy can take as many as thirty adults - at fifty cents a head!

Two or three times a week they start from Town Hall, and go out along the river; stop for a friendly glass of beer at Shoreside Tavern; and come home by way of Pound Ridge . . . nine miles in all.

Not very exciting, you might say. But from where I sit it's not excitement that we need these days—but those simple country pleasures that are part and parcel of America—the old-fashioned hayride, with its song and jollity; the horseshoe games; the friendly glass of beer; and the good companionship that they engender.

Sing A Song

*Sing a song of service,
Of cheap electric power—
Ready at your finger-tip
To lighten every hour!*

MOTHER'S in the kitchen, dreaming up a meal. Grandma's in the laundry, busy washing clothes. Dad plugs in his razor, and whisks off his whiskers. Lights shine, the radio plays merrily, and Sister skims the cleaner across the bedroom rug.

This is a house with dozens of servants—dependable, willing electric servants—ready day and night to make work easier and life more comfortable. This is living the modern way—the electric way!

Yet how little it costs! Grandma can spin the dirt on six heaping tubs of wash—for only a penny! A few more pennies get Mother through her meal. Father through his beard, too. Sister can clean up before her cent's worth is used up.

Low values for penny prices—that's the story. Turn on every electric switch in your home. That's the song of service!

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not set as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be aching backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's has been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

DOAN'S PILLS

Midnight Memo:

Man About Town: The biog of former Police Commissioner Valentine (by a newspaper man) will have several bitter attacks on former Police Commissioner Enright and Jimmy Walker. . . . Liquor insiders fear that Indiana will be voted dry. . . . Medicos now warn you about taking benzedrine for reducing or for any other reason. They say you can injure yourself permanently. . . . Transcripts on the recent wiretapping (of the principals) in the Alvin Paris gambling fix case confused some of the newspaper men at first. All the scripts ended with the exclamation, "By Jove." It wasn't until the trial that they learned the reason for the sign-off. The lad who did the listening in for the gendarmes (and brought in the evidence) is a cop named Joe Jove.

The United Nations at Lake Success has had to cut personnel, for lack of money. . . . The irony of it! A mere fraction of any major nation's military budget would be more than sufficient. . . . In short, the world is pinching pennies for peace at the same time it is straining every financial sinew in preparation for war.

The epitaph for the 20th century may well read: Billions for War and Hate—Not One Cent for Trust and Hope.

Washington Ticker: Touch of irony in Washington: The pins and passes used to identify the secret service (in the senate gallery) are red! . . . Have our intelligence services checked the report that the French representative on MacArthur's council, General Pechkoff, is really the son of the great Russian writer, Maxim Gorki? . . . The four peace treaties before the senate are obsolete before they are even ratified. . . . The great, big, beautiful investigation of the U. S. Maritime commission is ripening into full and odorous bloom. . . . Poor Henry Cassidy (one of our favorite commentators) made the fluff of the day on the News of the World menu. He acekely said: "Foreign Monster Bevin."

A Touch of Irony: The struggle over Greece might result in another global war—yet Greece's population is less than New York City's—and the whole country is as large as North Carolina.

Signs of the Times: Bargains are coming back. The houseboat sitting on the corner of 52nd and 6th now is marked down to only $5,900. . . . Sixty-cent haircut signs are showing up again in many barber shops. . . . Cabbies report their biz is off 40 per cent. Then howcum you still can't get a keb, hardly almost? . . . Irving Berlin, the poor songwriter, netted only $650,000 (after taxes) in 1946. . . . "The Anniversary Waltz" (from the Jolson flicker) is the first waltz to make the Hit Parade, they say, in many years. . . . Howie's now gives you flavored toothpicks. Such airs. . . . Some employment agencies are sending wealthy widows and dowagers on assignments as baby-sitters. Breaks the loneliness, etc. . . . Sudden thaw: They're reviv'ing evrything on Broadway—except Broadway.

Some locals were wondering why so many returning vets are bitter. . . . "Maybe," said one, "it's because the war has changed things." "Most likely," said an ex-G.I., "it's because the war hasn't."

The Norwegian ambassador stated that the Norwegian government has no objection to Kirsten Flagstad, the opera singer now in the U. S., becoming an American citizen. . . . To the men and women of the United States armed forces: Please do something about this woman, who before and during the war was not on our team. . . . Kirsten Flagstad entertained the Quislings after they invaded her native land. . . . A voice which could lift itself in song amid the screams of torture of its own country—certainly can't mean much when it swears allegiance to the American flag. . . . Of course the Norwegian government has no objection to her becoming an American citizen! . . . Norway doesn't want her, which is one very good reason for the United States not to take her.

Headline: "Four Hundred Million Acres of U. S. Land Vacant." And four million vets and their families need a place to live.

Sounds in the Night: At Leon & Eddie's: "Roses are red. V'llets are blue. There's one April Fool's Day—but so many of you." . . . At the Embassy: "Everyone can become a success, but it doesn't become everyone." . . . At Gilmore's: "One thing you can depend on in the envious—the higher you get, the lower they hit." . . . At Yank Sing: "He never worries about money, especially if he owes it." . . . At the Glass Hat: "Since I met her I stopped drinking—and started taking dope."

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS... by Lynn Chambers

Let Vegetable Chowder Be Your Spring Tonic! (See recipe below.)

Vegetable Tonics

Instead of dousing yourselves with sulphur and molasses or whatever preparation is your favorite spring tonic, why not make a complete change in the menu and concentrate on vegetable dinners for spring?

The vitamin and mineral riches of these dinners will do much for your morale and their gay and lovely colors will perk up wilted appetites. Vegetable dinners can be substituted if planned around a hearty main dish. You also can substitute them with a good protein food like eggs or add delicately broiled bacon to complete them if you want a taste of meat.

Fried Tomatoes in Cream Gravy. (Serves 6)

- 6 large, ripe tomatoes
  - 4 tablespoons flour
  - 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
  - 1/4 teaspoon pepper
  - 4 tablespoons butter or substitute
  - 1 1/2 cups milk
  - 1 1/2 teaspoons granulated sugar
  - 3/4 teaspoon meat sauce
  - 1 1/2 teaspoons prepared mustard
- Cut tomatoes in half, crosswise. Sprinkle with 1 tablespoon of the flour, 1/4 teaspoon of the salt and pepper combined. Sauté in butter until golden brown and tender on both sides. Arrange all but two slices on a hot platter. Stir remaining 3 tablespoons of flour into the butter and tomatoes left in skillet. Add remaining salt and other ingredients. Cook until creamy. Pour over tomatoes and serve at once.

Stuffed Onions. (Serves 6 to 8)

- 8 onions
- 1 cup bread crumbs
- 2 tablespoons tomato pulp
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 teaspoons parsley, chopped
- 2 tablespoons pimiento, chopped
- 2 egg yolks
- 1/2 cup cooked celery
- 1 teaspoon salt

Wash and peel onions. Cook until slightly soft in boiling water. Rinse in cold water to make firm, then push out centers. Place onions in a well-greased baking dish. Mix remaining ingredients together and fill each onion cavity with the mixture. Bake in a hot (400-degree) oven for 20 minutes.

Baked Carrot Loaf. (Serves 6)

- 1 1/2 cups diced, cooked carrots
- 1 1/2 cups cooked or canned peas
- 1/2 cup finely chopped onion
- 1 1/2 tablespoons melted shortening
- 3 eggs, well beaten
- 1 1/2 cups soft bread crumbs
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper

Combine all ingredients in order given. Pour into a well-greased loaf pan or square dish and set in a pan of water. Bake 50 to 60 minutes in a moderate (350-degree) oven or until knife in center comes out clean. To serve, cut in squares. This may be served with cheese, white or egg sauce.

LYNN SAYS: Use Hints to Make Housework Easier

To brighten gilt frames, take enough flower of sulphur to give a golden tinge and add 1 1/2 pints of water. In this boil 4 or 5 onions for a short time, then let cool. Strain off liquid and, using a soft brush, scrub gilding which needs restoring. Do not push together shower curtains immediately after bathing. Let them spread until dry or the middle.

Atomic Energy Subject of English Stage Play '29

Although knowledge of atomic energy was chiefly theoretical until 1938, a stage play on the subject was produced in London in 1929, says Collier's. In this drama, Wings Over Europe, a man who discovered how to control his energy offers the secret to the British cabinet. As they consider him a crack, he threatens to blow up the earth and is murdered.

A group of scientists then announce that they too have the secret but will keep it to rule the world, if necessary, for the good of mankind.
