HEDLEY, DONLEY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JUNE 20, 1947

Baseball

The Hedley boys finally lost a baseball game. Last Sunday the Pampa Legion team beat them at Pampa by the score of 7 to 6. Quite a few local fans made the trip and they report a good game with Hedley leading until the last ending when it started to rain and the Pampa boys rained base hits. The Hedley boys will play the Childress Legion team here Sunday at 3 o'clock.

Card Of Thanks

We wish to thank the people of Hedley for their kindness, the church and the beautiful flowers at the death of our mother, grandmother and sister.

Siren Signals

To help everyone understand the meaning of the various signals sounded by the fire siren, following is the system used:

One long blast of about 2 minutes for a fire.

Two blasts of about 1/2 minute each means a meeting of the fire boys.

Three blasts of 1 minute each means a case of a storm or bad cloud coming up at night.

Tom McDougal Writes

The Informer received the following letter this week from Tom McDougal, a former Hedleyan. It was mailed from Thermopis, Wyoming.

Dear Ed,
I very seldom see anyone from Hedley or hear from there. Have been working the past month for a circus. I am enclosing picture folder of springs, etc. here. It is the prettiest scenery of anything I have ever seen except Carlsbad, cavern.

Just saw a good fight here, but I didn't them. They fight in the circus sometimes, but are mostly out and blow.

You can print this if you want to. I would like to hear from and will answer anyone that cares to write. We are headed for southwestern, Colorado, then through New Mexico and Texas again, Kansas, Utah and up and down the west coast and winter in Oregon.

Just got this bland at Court House. (The letter was written on the back of an application blank for driver's license.) Have lost my driver's license, but don't tell Albert Johnson.

I was up over 8000 feet above sea level in Wyoming. Address me Texline and I will get it.

Yours very truly,
Tom McDougal

To The Public

Due to the fact that typhoid is in the community, it is very necessary that strict sanitary regulations be enforced.

The disease is transmitted by water, flies, food and direct contacts. All stagnant water, garbage and open toilets are a potential source of typhoid fever unless proper care of same is taken. An epidemic may be avoided if sanitary measures are employed.

Uncle Sam Says

Exactly how much have you saved in the last 12 months?

If you can't write a good big figure in the space above then you'd be smart to adopt a method of savings that millions of Americans have found to be absolutely sure fire. This method is the regular buying of United States Savings Bonds. People buy Savings Bonds now on two convenient plans. If you are on a payroll, through the Payroll Savings Plan. If you are a professional man or woman or self-employed, through the Bond-a-Month Plan at your bank. By signing up on either plan, twelve months from now you will be able to write a nice healthy sum in that space up above.

ANALYSIS

Shifts Policy; Approve Bill To Unify Services; Corn Borer Onslaught Foretold

Released by Western Newspaper Union

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.

SWINGBACK:

Braden Quits

Spruille Braden, longtime advocate of and principal force behind this country's hard-handed attitude toward Fascist-inclined Argentina, has resigned as assistant secretary of state in charge of Latin-American affairs.

To succeed him in that post, President Truman was expected to nominate Norman Armour of New Jersey, top-flight career diplomat.

Armour previously served as American envoy in the Argentine and is well known and liked there. Latin-American reaction to his appointment was expected to be highly favorable.

Armour

Acceptance of Braden's resignation by President Truman was generally regarded as a strong implication that the United States is ready to swing back to a policy of appeasement in Latin America. It was anticipated that the changed attitude would take the form of "just a little appeasement" of Latin-American Fascist dictators, particularly Juan D. Peron, president of Argentina.

Braden, long a foe of Peron and his methods, told Mr. Truman in a letter that personal responsibilities compelled him to return to private business. His resignation is scheduled to become effective June 30.

Departure of Braden from the state department followed closely on the heels of his being overruled by the administration on two basic issues in inter-American relations: Supplying of arms to Latin-American nations and formation of a military alliance with other republics in the western hemisphere. Braden had opposed both of those policies.

NEW DANGER:

Fear Corn Borer

Already impaired by constant rains and cool weather which have harrid the corn belt this spring, the corn crop faces a new danger of infestation of corn borers because of the late season.

This year the damp weather did not permit much corn to go in during the normal May 20 to 25 planting period, so most of the corn was planted later. Wet, cold weather also held back the emergence of the first brood of borers; and as a result, the late planted corn which would ordinarily be safe from attack now will be subject to damage from the pests.

Last year the corn borer caused 37 million dollars crop damage throughout the nation. The borer threat now is so serious that special radio broadcasts have been set up to keep farmers aware of the pest's progress.

STEP DOWN:

Hague Leaves

Frank Hague, hammer-swinging political boss of New Jersey for more than three decades, has resigned as mayor of Jersey City.

One of the last representatives of the era of great American political bosses, Hague made it clear that he will keep his power as city, county and state Democratic chieftain and that he will remain as vice-chairman of the Democratic national committee.

Hague said that his nephew, Frank Hague Eggers, would succeed him in the mayoral spot until the next commission election in 1949.

Rail Crisis Looms

Fears of a minor crisis in railway shipping in mid-July have been expressed by federal transportation experts in view of an apparent slowdown in freight car construction.

Contributing factors are mounting industrial production coupled with increasingly heavy wheat export movements, and officials predict that the "minor crisis" could swiftly develop into a major transportation block unless steps are taken to ease the traffic slowdown or prevent it from occurring.

With fate of the now financially embarrassed Office of Defense Transportation still undecided, the Interstate Commerce commission has been requested to assume full responsibility for continuing orders requiring full loading of boxcars in the event that congress does not extend the life of ODT beyond its June 30 expiration date.

Hungarian minister Aladar Szegedy-Maszak says he will reject Hungary's new pro-Communist government's order calling him home from his duties as envoy to the United States.

ONE HEAD:

Unified Services

Unification of the nation's armed forces advanced a step toward reality when the senate armed services committee approved a measure to put the army, navy and a new separate air force under the "unified direction" of a secretary of national security.

The proposed legislation has been placed on the congressional calendar for senate action this session, and debate on the measure was expected to begin in July.

High-ranking naval officers assailed the bill as "merger legislation" which the navy has consistently opposed. However, the unification bill specifies that there shall be no merger of the military services.

It would establish a "national security organization" under a secretary of national security with cabinet rank. The secretary, a civilian, would fix general policies and exercise general direction of the army, navy and air force. Those three departments would be headed by secretaries without cabinet status.

The measure also provides for a war council made up of the four secretaries and the chiefs of staff of the services, a research and development board and a munitions board.

TRAVAIL:

Labor and 1948

The hotly contested labor bill to impose restraints on strikes and unions, emphatically stamped with top-heavy congressional approval, poses for President Harry S. Truman possibly the most difficult decision he has faced since he took his seat in the White House.

To veto or not to veto—that is the question. And the answer undoubtedly will be reflected in the 1948 presidential election.

Backers of the bill, however, are certain that the measure will become law, regardless of the final presidential decision, because both houses of congress are able to muster enough votes to override a veto.

Some major provisions of the bill on which the fate of the next election may be riding would:

1. Authorize the government to seek injunctions to halt national emergency strikes for 80 days while mediation is carried out.
2. Ban the closed shop and forbid various kinds of lesser strikes and boycotts.
3. Permit tax suits against unions for unfair labor practices.
4. Create a new agency, outside the labor department, to mediate labor disputes.

LUCIFERS:

Not for Free

Things like this cannot be made light of:

Congress has been told by a large match company that the excise tax of two cents on 1,000 matches is "the beginning of the end of about the only thing our people get for nothing."

"The free distribution of 300 billion wooden and paper matches annually, about 60 per cent of total production, is fast fading from the American scene," the company complained.

BROTHER ACT:

Another Nazi

Adolf Hitler's foster brother, Joseph Mayrhofer, is no angel either.

He is going on trial shortly before the people's court at Vienna on charges of carrying on illegal Nazi activities and of profiteering under the Nazi regime in Austria. Mayrhofer will be the third of the late fuhrer's relatives to be prosecuted.

Hitler, when he was still Adolf Stuckelgruber, was a ward of his father's farm.

TO THE SWIFT:

Atomic Race

Directing attention of the United Nations to the fact that the world is galloping down the uranium track to the finish line in an atomic race, the United States has repeated its plea for international ownership and operation of "dangerous atomic activities."

Frederick Osborn, American representative, said that 10, 12 or 15 nations had set up atomic agencies since the U. N. atomic energy commission began its efforts for world controls a year ago.

He said large sums have been appropriated for development of nuclear fuels in such countries as England, Canada and Russia. Osborn further sharply attacked Russian proposals for an international inspection agency of atomic activities, coupled merely with orders from the United Nations to national authorities.

That plan, he said, would bring U. N. "in constant conflict with the national agency of every country." It would "breed antagonisms, distrust and suspicion from the start," Osborn asserted.

PARTITION:

Line Is Drawn

People of India, restless and disturbed under the impact of the proposed British plan to partition the seething country into separate Hindu and Moslem states, have been told by Lord Louis Mountbatten, viceroy of India, that the nation's armed forces would be used to prevent trouble during the transition from British rule to independence.

Mountbatten emphasized that Moslem India and Hindu India would be completely independent.

Ghandi Dissents

Mohandas K. Ghandi stood barefooted on his belief that "partition is bad" for India, but said that he would not oppose the British plan for a Hindu-Moslem division of the country.

under the partition plan and that each would be wholly free to leave the British empire or remain as a dominion.

He said that partition was against his own "better judgment" but added that it was the only way that India could achieve independence speedily.

Some suspicion continued, meanwhile, that Great Britain was splitting India in order to retain influence at least in the Moslem part, but much of the bitterness arising out of that attitude had vanished.

All That Glitters

Maharanee of Baroda packs a fortune in jewels on neck, fingers, wrists and ears, and she can afford it because her husband, an Indian maharajah, is one of world's wealthiest men.

BUSINESS:

Why Failures?

Most important cause of business failures during 1946 was the scarcity of merchandise and materials, says the U. S. department of commerce, which has been investigating business growth and failures since the end of the war.

Nearly 47 per cent of the firms contacted in the department's survey listed shortages as either the major or a contributing factor in their failure. That percentage ran higher for retailers of durable goods and for contract construction concerns.

FEED PRICES:

To Stay Up

Prospects for the 1947 feed crops will be an important influence on feed prices, according to a department of agriculture report.

The very strong foreign demand for grain is expected to continue to support prices through 1947 and into 1948; although if production of feed is as large as in recent years, feed prices probably will decline, at least seasonally, in the last half of 1947.

Corn prices this summer, the report predicted, will average higher than the June, 1946, ceilings, but lower than in the summer of 1946 after price controls lapsed.

The department's survey went on to reveal that reports in early May indicated that approximately 832 million bushels of 1946 corn would be marketed this season. That figure would be 50 per cent greater than the 1933-42 average and 14 per cent above the previous record sales from the 1944 crop. Farm sales of other grains from 1946 are larger.

Feminine Frock

A COOL, delightfully simple afternoon dress to flatter the more mature figure. Soft shirring at the shoulders adds a feminine touch, the gored skirt is as graceful as can be.

On stormy days confusion is greatly diminished when looking for rubbers if mates are attached with snap clothespins which are labeled with the names of the owners.

It is time to change your mind if you're one of those who think all furniture in your best room should match piece for piece. The smartest and most comfortable rooms we've seen were rooms with mixed furniture—mixed with taste. You need not have all "period pieces" or all modern to get a good effect. Blond and dark pieces go together very well and you may, for example, have a practical, functional table next to your old wing chair.

Grind small pieces of toilet soap in a food grinder for use in your dish pan. It makes lots of suds and is easy on your hands too.

If you sew the buttonholes of coat sweaters together before washing, they will not stretch.

After you have washed your sweater, press it when it is almost dry. Lay it smoothly on the ironing board, placing a cloth over it. Use a warm iron and press lightly, then allow sweater to lie flat on a towel to finish drying.

Pattern No. 8019 is for sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50 and 52. Size 38, 4 1/4 yards of 35-inch.

Benefits to Our Readers

THE PUBLIC nature of advertising benefits everyone it touches. It benefits the public by describing exactly the products that are offered. It benefits employees, because the advertiser must be more fair and just than the employer who has no obligation to the public. These benefits of advertising are quite apart from the obvious benefits which advertising confers—the lower prices, the higher quality, the better service that go with advertised goods and firms.

Bert Childers was saying, "It's funny how so many of our wartime habits stick with us."

Bert likes plenty of butter on his bread, but even now he can't get over spreading it like it was scarce as hen's teeth. And as a war-worker, Bert used to stick to a temperate glass of beer on time off and he still holds fast to beer and moderation.

Same way with Bert's wife. She not only has no trouble saving used fats, and waste paper. She's learned from wartime necessity to save every single thing that might possibly be used again.

From where I sit, it's mighty good that so many of these common-sense habits like thrift and moderation have stayed with us. Because they belong in America—along with tolerance, and mutual respect for one another's rights. They're habits that have helped to make this country strong and neighborly and free.

CLOSED SHOP OUTLAWED IN 16 STATES

Houston, Texas.—The shaded states in the above map have either adopted or submitted constitutional amendments or enacted statutes prohibiting the closed shop. Sixteen, or one-third of all the states, have taken such action. They are Arizona, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Iowa, Maine, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia. The Taft-Hartley Bill recently passed by Congress contained a provision outlawing the closed shop.

The Right to Work, regardless of union or non-union affiliation, as a principle of government, originated in this fast growing industrial city. Vance Muse, Secretary-Treasurer of the Christian American, Inc., with national headquarters here, directed the campaign that resulted in its adoption as an amendment to the Constitution of Arkansas and enlisted the support of the Attorney General of Florida in its enactment there. Five hundred labor papers of the nation recently voted Mr. Muse to be "Public Enemy No. 1" of the movement to organize the unorganized; he has been investigated by two State Legislatures and castigated by several others and a bill has been introduced in the Texas Legislature to revoke the charter of the Christian American which was granted in November 1936. The Chairman of the Communist Party in Texas recently filed suit against Mr. Muse for $15,000.00, claiming that her reputation was damaged when Muse printed her picture along with 37 members of the Texas House of Representatives who voted against the Right to Work measure. The suit was withdrawn when Muse's attorney, Bernard A. Golding, announced he was ready to go to trial. Ultimate objective of the Christian American group is an Amendment to the Constitution of the United States guaranteeing every person the right to work regardless of union status. A recent nation-wide survey shows that Texas has the most complete and effective set of labor regulatory measures of any state in the Union. Directory of State Lawmakers.

Career Woman!

MEET the greatest career woman of all! She doesn't manage a business, write novels, paint portraits, or sing over the radio. But her job's big and it's important—she runs a home!

What a job that is! In a year she washes more than 6 tons of dishes, cooks more than 1,000 meals, wades through mountains of laundry, trundles her vacuum cleaner across acres and acres of rugs!

The more Mom depends on electric service, the less work is in her housework. And how little electric service costs! A penny's worth a day will rescue Mom from the drudgery of dishwashing. A few more pennies will cook her meals. Electricity will help her wash and iron for less weekly than the cost of a bar of soap.

And when Mom balances her budget, she's bound to note that electricity is one of its smallest items. Actually, the average family now gets twice as much electricity for its money as it did about 20 years ago. This bargain comes to Mom—and to you, too—through the practical experience of your friends and neighbors in this company, under sound local business management.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste
Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery. Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination. There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nationwide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!
