Sugar Is Back

For the first time since April 28, 1942, Americans, and especially housewives, could go shopping without ration coupons as the government called a halt to the rationing of sugar for households, restaurants

Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson announced the move, explaining that it was made possible by the appearance of larger supplies of sugar than previously had been thought available.

Price controls on sugar, as well as rationing of the product for industrial use will continue, however. All sugar controls are scheduled to expire October 31 unless congress dictates otherwise.

Three reasons which acted to bring about an end to sugar rationing were:

1. Allotment by the International Emergency food council to the United States of 350,000 tons of sugar from Cuba in addition to that which was allotted earlier in the year.

2. Presence of still more surplus sugar in Cuba, which will help cut down demands from other parts of the world.

3. About 200,000 tons of Javanese sugar now will be offered to world users.

Secretary Anderson said that he "did not dare" end rationing until he learned of the extra sugar in

Note to Russia

Implicit, but not specifically stated, in the note was a warning that the United States will call for a United Nations investigation of the circumstances under which Hungary's democratic regime was overthrown and Communist rule in-

Main proposal embodied in the protest was that the United States, Great Britain and Russia make a joint investigation of the political situation in Hungary. Russia previously rejected two earlier American requests for such a probe.

The U. S. position is that Hungarian Premier Nagy was forced into exile and was compelled to resign in order to make way for the Communist seizure of power. Hungarian Communists were fully supported by the Soviets in this move, the American note claimed.

PUSHBUTTON:

JOBLESS:

More in West

Since the end of the war, the national unemployment picture has undergone a remarkable geographic shift which finds the highest per-centage of jobless workers in the western states, a recent survey has disclosed.

Although the problem of unem-ployed workers is not as serious in the West as it was before the war, their numbers are gradually increasing, according to a depart-ment of labor analysis of conditions. In 1940 the heaviest unemployment in relation to the labor force was in the North. Now it is in the West. The South is in the same relative position as before the war.

Increasing unemployment in the West is attributed mainly to the tremendous migration of war workers to Pacific coast factories and shippards. Most of the migrants stayed after V-J Day layoffs began, and subsequent expansion of peacetime industry has not been rapid enough to absorb all those who were laid off, together with the returning veterans.

SUPPORT:

From Canada

In a speech before the Canadian parliament in Ottawa, President Truman called for Canadian support of the "Truman doctrine" and received, in a thunderous ovation, the promise that the nation would go along with American foreign

The President's address appeared to be another effort on his part to weld the nations of North America into a hemispheric fortress of good neighborliness and cooperation.

Pledging continued American efforts to protect weaker nations from outside force, Mr. Truman prom-ised that the United States also would continue to assist in world recovery.

"We count Canada in the forefront of those who share these objectives and ideals," he asserted. Indorsing that idea, Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King said that Canada and the United States would continue their wartime cooperation in the interests of maintaining world peace.

Advocates Training

Dr. Karl T. Compton, chairman of commission on universal military training, told congress that plan for UMT was "conceived as a means of safeguarding liberty and not as a means of preparing for war."

MONGOLIANS:

Russia Blamed

Russia had another black mark scored against her when the Chinese government formally blamed the Soviet union for the invasion of Sinkiang province by Outer Mongolian troops.

By the time the forces from Outer Mongolia, which is under Russian domination, had captured the city of Peitaishan 200 miles inside the Chinese border, China's foreign office had decided that the conflict was more than an ordinary frontier incident.

Foreign office sources said the invasion had political rather than military implications, aimed at giving a pro-Russian special commissioner in Sinkiang complete control of the province.

Protesting to Moscow, China demanded immediate evacuation of Mongolian troops from the province and a guarantee against similar incidents in the future.

DEMONSTRATION BY BLIND MAN'S DOG

Simple Obedience Training Basis of Ken's Proficiency, Owner States

Of the many services the dog performs for man, noblest is that of acting as eyes for those who have had the misfortune to lose their sight, states the Gaines Dog Research Center. New York City.

ter. New York City.

One of the most amazing demonstrations of the work of dogs that lead the blind was given in New York City during the recent National Dog Week by Nicholas B. Eckerlin, blind grocer of New Rochelle, N. Y., and his dog Ken. While an enormous audience in Rockefeller Plaza watched admiringly Ken escorted his blind owner up and down flights of steps, warned him of obstacles, retrieved articles dropped by Mr. Eckerlin, and even protected his master against a make-believe hold-up man.

The people who witnessed this against a make-believe hold-up man.

The people who witnessed this touching evidence of canine intelligence and devotion marveled at the training methods which produce such competent and dependable guides as Ken. Few of those present realized that the groundwork of Ken's schooling was simple, basic obedience training similar to that practiced by thousands of dog-owners throughout the country. the country.

All dogs that lead the blind, gun dogs, shepherd dogs, and dogs that serve with the military forces, have obedience training as the basis of their schooling, states the Center. It is possible for any dog-owner with a bit of patience and persistence to a bit of patience and persistence to have an equally well-trained dog— one that will be a better pet and companion and a real source of pride.

their hands and exclaim, "Oh, but I wouldn't have the patience to train a dog!" Patience is necessary, but not the great degree of patience that most people imagine. Fifteen minutes a day of persistence and gentle schooling will show definite results in a comparatively short time, There is no magic formula involved. The great factor which works in favor of the trainer is the dog's anxiety to be the trainer is the dog's anxiety to be petted and praised. This is the practically universal canine characteristic which professional dog folk speak of as "the will to please." Therefore, they praise and reward the dog when they praise and reward the dog when he does the right thing, and scold or ignore him when he disobeys. It is this "will to please" trait which makes the dog the easiest animal in the world to teach and makes it pos-sible for anyone so minded to make of his dog a canine "lady or gentle-man"

One of those "Breakfast in the morning" radio shows came to Capitol City last week, and Sarrah Carey won first prize for wearing the craziest hat in the audience. It was a full-sized refrigerator! (The prize,

Summer Fruits and Berries Tell Us That It's Jam Time

To make jams or jellies, select ripe berries and pick them over carefully so you will have no sour or bitter taste in the jam. the berries thoroughly before working with them.

Although it's the fruit or vegetable that keeps us going on the job from day to day with its vitamins and minerals, it's the luscious fruit jams, butters or conserves that lift meals from the humdrum to the So, homemakers, plan elegant. to add delight to next winter's meals. If you need a further excuse to make them, you may consider them from an economy standpoint, for jam on the bread or roll will not take nearly as much of the expensive spreads. Fruits and berries, this season, are among the best, and are really very reasonable in price compared to what they have been previously. When you make jam, jelly, butter or conserve, make a small batch. This takes less time and allows for less failure. Cooking in small quantity also saves the color of the fruit, and appearance is as important in jam as is its eating quality. If you want some good spreads for next winter make fruit and berry butter, as these do not take

1/2 bottle fruit pectin To prepare fruit, slip skins from 11/2 pounds fully ripe grapes. Bring pulp to a boil and simmer, covered, for 5 minutes. Remove seeds by putting through a sieve. LYNN SAYS: Keep on Your Toes When Making Jelly

Combine fruits.

How do you know when jelly meets specifications? It is clear, tender and sparkling. It has retained its fresh fruit or berry flavor; it holds its shape when turned from the glass, but is soft enough to be spread with a knife. For jelly it's preferable to use containers that have a wide enough ing the jelly so that the mouth from which to slip the jelly cool quickly and per

Blackberry Jam. 41/2 cups prepared fruit 61/2 cups sugar

1 box powdered fruit pectin To prepare the fruit: Crush com-pletely, one layer at a time, about 2 quarts of fully ripe blackberries. If desired, sieve half of pulp to remove some of the seeds. Measure berries into large saucepan.

True marmalades are really soft fruit jellies, and are wonderful to use for spreads when lunch box problems come up during fall and winter. Have a few choice jars on hand to take care of the situation.

Cherry-Raspberry Conserve. 3 cups pitted cherries 1 cup chopped pineapple 1 cup raspberry pulp 4 cups sugar

Run cherries and pineapple through food chopper. Add rasp-berries which have been thoroughly crushed, and sugar. Heat slowly until sugar dissolves, then boil rapidly until thick. Pour into hot, sterilized jars and seal at once. When you make jam or jelly,

THEN Jack Berch turns to "heart-to-heart hookup" time on his NBC show, weekday mornings, it means something special to a child, a family, a community. For instance, Dennie Horan, a young boy in Dayton, Ohio, was very ill; this mother wrote Jack, who responded with a song and a plea to his listeners to comfort the lad-and more than 2,000 letters, along with many games and toys, went to the lad. The Ladies Sew-

When Judy Garland learned that "The Pirate" script called for her to pause in a crowd scene and pat the head of a beautiful baby she asked that the infant's role be played by Miss Liza Minelli—14 months old daughter of the picture's director, Vincent Minelli, and the star, Miss Garland. Liza joined the Screen Actors Guild and accepted the part. Gene Kelly co-stars with her mother.

Though film production trimmed at many studios, Columbia Pictures has all its sound stages occupied. At Metro they're talking about making two pictures in 1948 starring Lauritz Melchior, who'll do "Luxury Liner" this summer with Jane Powell.

Jimmy Durante's received a new contract from Metro, and will head the cast of "You're Beautiful," in which, for the first time in his career, he'll win the girl. Before making that one, and after finishing "On an Island With You," he's planning to visit England and tour the British vaudeville circuits-but will the English public be able to understand him?

Celebrities crowd the Hollywood CBS Studio A backstage each Sunday at the Tony Martin show, and autograph hunters follow. Recently Tony entertained "Brown Bomb er" Joe Louis, George Burns and Gracie Allen and their two youngsters. Tony's set to start making "Casbah" in August, at Universal-International; it will be a sort of musical "Pepe Le Moko."

They've had to screen one sound man on "This Is Hollywood" from the studio audience, because they found him too interesting. Recently, when the script called for a crash and the sound of a falling body Berne Surrey executed the crash and took the fall for the stars of the show, and the audience whooped with laughter. So Producer Frank Woodruff walled him in.

As soon as Ingrid Bergman opened in "Joan of Lorraine" on the New York stage last season the movie companies began a battle to snare Sam Wanamaker, who played opposite her. Producer Milton Sperling got him with a sevenyear contract. His first screen as-signment will be in a co-starring role opposite Lilli Palmer in United States Pictures' "Ever the Begin-

The Cass County Boys, featured on Gene Autrey's radio show, have been cast for acting and singing roles as Smiley Burnette's barbershop pals in Columbia's "Buckaroo From Powder River," which stars Burnette and Charles Starrett.

Claude ("Yearling") Jarman Jr. has been borrowed from MGM by RKO for a leading role in "Rough-shod." Now 12 years old, he'll play a boy of 16 who's illiterate but accomplished in woodlore and trapping.

Fully ripe fruits make the tastiest jellies, but most of these have insufficient pectin to make jelly. It is best to use one-half ripe berries and one-half not-so-ripe ones.
