Swing of SOUTHWEST FARM MARKETS

Southwest farm markets paid mostly steady to higher prices last week, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration report.

Cotton prices advanced sharply and net gains averaged $6 to $7 a bale. Sales increased too, as farmers offered freely in most areas. Rains halted picking.

Calves and vealers advanced mostly 50 cents to $1 for the week, while most of the cattle classes sold strong to 50 cents higher. Relatively few slaughter steers, heifers and yearlings came to market, as cows, calves and stockers made up the bulk. Common and medium calves brought $12.50 to $18 at Houston, $13 to $18.50 at San Antonio, and $13.50 to $17.50 at Fort Worth.

Southwest hog markets regained part of recent losses during the week in gains of mostly 25 to 50 cents. Butcher hogs advanced $1 at San Antonio, where good and choice medium weights closed at $23.75, while Fort Worth and Denver paid $26.

Southwest markets paid steady to slightly stronger prices for eggs and poultry the past week. Current receipt eggs brought 43 to 45 cents per dozen at Denver and 45 to 50 at Fort Worth. Canned fresh eggs sold around 50 cents at Dallas and New Orleans. Thanksgiving turkeys moved to market largely at or near support prices.

Church Of Christ

The Psalmist says, "The entrance of the words giveth light." Christ says, "The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit and they are life." Paul wrote, "So belief cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ." (Rom. 10:17)

Come and worship where we are "holding forth the word of life." (Phil. 2:16) Come where we do Bible things in Bible ways and call Bible things by Bible names; where we follow the safe course by speaking where the Bible speaks and being silent where it is silent.

Martha Jo, seems as though Leap Year is coming early for you this year, Sunday evening for instance. What about this, Jack?

Brick, seems like you have hit some stormy weather. Maybe you will have some help recovering, eh, Jerry?

What five girls were seen roving about the shelterbelt last Saturday night unescorted?

Pete, you are really doing ok, two girls in one night! Me thinks the same thing happened last winter, only two different girls.

I think Leonard and Redtop were interrupted Saturday night. Frances and Jonnie did not seem to mind.

Dorothy, will you never make up your mind? One night one guy and then the next night another.

Roberta, what happened to your little trip to Amarillo Sunday evening?

Bobby, why did you seem so happy Sunday night. Something special? Boy, I'll say!

A bunch of ex service men are keeping everybody guessing. Names aren't necessary.

David, what has happened to your Clarendon girl friend.

Christmas Lights

Let's light up for Christmas. Believe it or not, and whether we are ready for it or not. Christmas is less than a month away. Main street is paved and the highway east is completed. There is going to be a lot of people through here the next thirty days. Attractive show windows, Christmas lights down town and in the homes will make them take notice.

We don't have enough jobs here to keep all the boys and girls at home but we can decorate a bit so when they come home this year they can be proud of their home town. It would be a mighty nice project for some club to sponsor a contest for the best decorated home or show window this Christmas. War restrictions are over, material is available, so let's fix up for Christmas. It is mighty pretty and is good business.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Marshall Fixes Deadline for Aid; 1947 Corn Crop Down 25 Per Cent; Britain Decides on Labor Draft

Released by WNU Features.

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.

THEIR DECISION... With these four men rests, in a large measure, the fate of Europe in 1947. They are: Rep. Charles Eaton (Rep., N. J.), chairman of the house foreign affairs committee; Secretary of State Marshall; Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg (Rep., Mich.), chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, and Sen. Tom Connally (Dem., Tex.), an influential Democratic voice in foreign affairs.

DEADLINE: December 1

Apparently feeling that congressional approval of his request for 597 million dollars in stop-gap aid for France, Italy and Austria was assured, U. S. Secretary of State George Marshall sounded a new keynote—speed.

He suggested to the house foreign affairs committee that a deadline of December 1 be established for emergency relief to the three hard-pressed nations, and looked ahead to an early March deadline for his four-year, 20-billion-dollar plan for eventual European recovery.

State department witnesses backed up Marshall's plea for speed. They testified present funds would carry France and Italy only through December, beyond which looms the brink of chaos and confusion—political, moral and economic—unless additional help is rushed across the sea.

Also testifying before the house foreign group, Lewis Douglas, U. S. ambassador to England, offered a brief, pointed summary of the whole issue of immediate foreign aid: There can be no guarantee that the aid program will succeed, but it would be more risky to deny Europe financial help and watch despair and pandemonium spread across the continent.

Finally, it was the opinion of Secretary of Commerce Averell Harriman that emergency European relief "can be substantially met," despite supply problems in this country.

China, Too

Virtually forgotten under the press of urgent affairs in Europe is the problem of China—ravaged, still contorted in war, constantly backsliding into greater political and economic corruption.

As a modicum of aid and comfort to that Eastern nation, Secretary Marshall has proposed a 300-million-dollar aid program to be administered in conjunction with the European phase of the Marshall plan.

At the same time, Marshall held to his stand that the suppressed report of Lt. Gen. Albert Wedemeyer on conditions in China would not be made public. He intimated that it drew such a dismal picture that to release the report would be harmful both to the U. S. and China.

CORN DOWN: Semi-Finals

There was a smattering of bad news in the agriculture department's semi-final crop report of the year. It had to do with corn and winter wheat.

The 1947 U. S. corn crop now stands at an estimated 2,447,422,000 bushels, a decrease of 11,252,000 bushels from a forecast made a month ago. That is slightly below the 10-year (1936-45) average of 2,639,102,000, and far under last year's record yield of more than 3.2 billion bushels.

Hopes for another bumper wheat crop next year received a thorough dampening with the department's announcement that about 25 per cent of the intended winter wheat acreage in the important great plains area had not been seeded by November 1 because of dry weather.

Simultaneously it appeared that meat production had started a downward trend, impelled by the reduced corn crop and higher feed prices.

Department of agriculture spokesmen estimated that there will be a cattle population of only 77 million on January 1, 1948—3.6 million below the all-time high of 85.6 million on January 1, 1945.

As a result, consumers will be eating less beef, pork and poultry next year—there just won't be as much to go around.

Armistice Days

Now that the U. S. has passed through two world wars, what should be done about the nation's two armistice days, marking the ends of the conflicts?

In a recent survey, Dr. George Gallup said that a majority of Americans favor celebration of two Armistice Days—one on August 14 and other on November 11. This is the day that the armistice was signed.

Hungarian Fugitive

Zoltan Pfeiffer, leader of Hungary's anti-Communist Independent party, thought it likely that he would be arrested by the Communist-dominated Hungarian government. So, taking a leaf from the book of Poland's Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, he disappeared. He fled into Austria a few hours before a parliamentary committee was due to decide whether he should be brought to trial for allegedly sheltering Nazi SS members.

LABOR DRAFT: Everybody Works

Great Britain's nationalization program, geared to extremities, has risen to the drastic level of a sweeping labor draft in the nation's desperate struggle for economic survival.

The battle of production, upon which Britain is depending for her life, had reached a crisis which demanded the efforts of every able-bodied worker in the land, the British Labor government decided.

So the "spivs," "drones," idle peers, hatcheck girls and others whose occupations come under the head of trivia in the nationalization regime will be rounded up and drafted for industrial labor by government decree starting December 8.

Men between the ages of 18 and 51 and women from 18 to 41 will be caught up in the conscription, with a possibility of a $2,000 fine and two years' imprisonment for those who refuse to register.

Conscripts have a choice, however. They will be given the alternative of going into the coal mines, agriculture, textile production or any other of the essential industries whose production must be boosted to stave off economic failure.

If a labor draftee refuses to take a proffered job he may be ordered into it.

RED ACTION: Riots, Terror

Communist-borne trouble and terror was on the increase in France and Italy.

Spreading paralysis gripped the French port city of Marseille as workers responded to a general strike call by Communist labor leaders after a day of rioting in which one person was fatally wounded and six others seriously hurt.

In Milan, Italy, Communists sacked an anti-Red newspaper plant and attacked a police station in the course of rioting which gripped the city in a state of near terror. They demanded the immediate suppression of newspapers "which incite people to hate and vengeance," the suppression of "organizations of Fascist character" and the arrest at once of "all persons suspected for their activity against the republic."

In both Marseille and Milan, the Communists seized upon relatively unimportant incidents and managed to magnify them to a point where they could incite the more impressionable citizens of the cities to rioting and violence.

NO WAR: Unless

In a snapping, snarling world, Henry A. Wallace continues to retain his unabating confidence in the possibilities of peace. His latest assertion, made in Cleveland, was that there will be no war between the U. S. and Russia "unless the United States sends troops to Greece."

Then, he said, war would come whether or not American troops accidentally landed in Greece.

GOOD TRICK: Tax Money

Neatest trick of the week was turned by the Committee for Economic Development when it announced that taxes could be cut six billion dollars in 1948 and still leave a three-billion-dollar surplus to be applied toward reducing the national debt.

"The American economy needs a tax reduction in the near future," the group commented, adding that the present system is "a threat to a free economy and a free society" because "it discourages new and independent business and arrests the growth of established business."

The pruning of revenues advocated by the CED would be half again as great as that provided for in the income tax bills vetoed by President Truman last spring. But there still would be four billion dollars left over for foreign aid.

CED, an economic planning organization of business men, proposed that the government adopt a "stabilizing budget policy" by fixing tax rates to produce an annual surplus of three billion dollars under conditions of 96 per cent employment.

Rates would remain set "unless there is some major change in national policy or of national life," the CED report said.

The recommended "tax reform" charts a cut in individual income taxes to a starting rate of 11.5 per cent, instead of 19 per cent; reduces the standard corporation tax rate from 38 to 30 per cent, and eliminates all excise taxes except those on gasoline, tobacco and alcoholic beverages. That program would be carried out step by step, culminating in the 1950s.

Gown of the Year

This is an artist's conception (front elevation) of the wedding gown worn by Princess Elisabeth on November 29 for her marriage to Lt. Phillip Mountbatten. On the right is one of the bridesmaids' dresses. The wedding gown, upon which such adjectives as glorious, exquisite and ethereal have been lavished, was of ivory duchess satin, strategically embellished with seed pearls, crystal and hand-embroidered designs based on paintings by Botticelli. The train of transparent ivory silk tulle was 15 feet long.

EARLY MAN: In Nebraska

What is now the state of Nebraska was once the site of man's earliest existence in the western hemisphere, archeologists have concluded.

Dr. C. Bertrand Schultz, director of University of Nebraska state museum, said three campsites of semi-nomadic hunters, estimated at between 20,000 and 35,000 years old, have been uncovered in southwest Nebraska. The discoveries were made at a point where heavy spring rains and floods washed deep gullies into the earth.

No skeletal remains of human beings have been located, but there is evidence of ancient man's occupations at the sites, Dr. Schultz said.

Among the artifacts found were stone and bone tools and weapons. Intermingled with the articles were the bones of 20 types of mammals, birds and reptiles, many of which seem different from types now existent in the area.

The pre-historic campsites were discovered at the base of a high cliff located in the state.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its busy and irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—the risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Ma Hoskins Sneezed at Cats!

Ma Hoskins couldn't understand why she had a fit of sneezing every time Harpo, the cat, came in the house. Finally figured she'd have to get rid of Harpo altogether. Then Doc Hollister explained to her that Harpo had an "allergy." Cat's fur made her sneeze like strawberries give Harpo a rash. He gave her an inoculation so she and Harpo could live peacefully together. I guess a lot of us have "allergies" in the social sense. Some folks just can't stand movies, or radio comedians. Other folks don't go for beer. Myself, I enjoy a moderate glass of beer or two with friends ... but it's up to them what beverage they choose. From where I sit, the important thing is not to let our social allergies result in antisocial taboos. Let's not criticize the fellow who likes beer if we like cider. A little inoculation of tolerance can help us live-and-let-live happily together.

"What do men know about washers!"

Dear lady, we'll have to admit that actual users of Maytags can tell us a few things. And they do! They even give sales talks to us about how marvelous their Maytags are... and they'll be mighty glad to tell you, too.

Why not ask some of them about Maytag, before you get a new washer? You must have relatives, friends or neighbors among the millions of enthusiastic Maytag owners (over 4 1/2 million Maytags sold—for more than any other washer). If you don't know any owners, we'll be glad to give you the names of some who live near you. Talk to them, personally or by phone, and find out exactly what you want to know—first-hand.

Plan on Baking Holiday Sweets Well in Advance

Peanut bars are easy to make and easy to serve. They are ideal for snack fare for the youngsters, as well as family get-togethers during the holidays.

It won't be long now before the holidays are with us, and that means the children will be home with their constant demands on the cookie jar. It means, too, there will be plenty of entertaining, perhaps not of the elaborate variety, but evenings in front of the cozy warmth of the fireplace, when there should be a simple cookie or cake to serve.

Wise cooks will plan to do a lot of their holiday baking early. Some of the cookies and confections can be made early, and they will taste so much the better for it. Then, too, most women like to make such things as pudding and fruit cake before the holidays so as to relieve the strain on the kitchen later on.

If you're making fruit cake or pudding, chop the fruits the day before and prepare your molds. Then the making of the recipe will be easy and there is less chance for error.

English Plum Pudding.
 1/2 pound butter
 1 pound light brown sugar
 5 eggs
 1 pint milk
 1 pound fine bread crumbs
 1 glass grape juice
 1 1/2 pounds raisins, floured
 2 pounds currants
 1/2 pound citron
 1 ground nutmeg

Cream the butter and sugar, add beaten eggs, milk, bread crumbs, grape juice, raisins, currants, finely sliced citron and spice. Steam in a buttered mold for five hours.

Have you ever made your fruit cake in little fluted paper cases for individual servings? It's really very easy and saves on baking time.

Small Fruit Cakes (Dark).
 1 1/2 cups butter
 2 cups dark brown sugar
 8 eggs, beaten light
 3 1/2 cups flour
 1 teaspoon each of cloves, allspice and cinnamon
 1 1/2 pounds raisins
 1 1/2 pounds currants
 1/2 pound citron, sliced thin
 1/2 cup melted grape or currant jelly

Cream butter, add sugar and cream until light. Beat the eggs until frothy and add to the butter and sugar. Sift the flour and spices over the cut-up raisins, currants and citron and mix well. Beat into the other mixture; add the melted jelly. Fill small paper cases and bake in a slow oven for about 30 minutes.

Small Fruit Cakes (Light).
 3/4 pound butter
 1 pound sugar
 12 eggs
 1 scant pound flour
 1 to 1 1/2 pounds grated coconut
 1 pound citron, sliced fine
 1 pound blanched, sliced almonds
 1 pound raisins, cut fine
 1 pound candied pineapple, sliced fine
 1/2 pound candied cherries, sliced fine
 1/2 cup orange juice
 1/2 teaspoon mace

Proceed as in recipe above. Both children and adults like peanuts, and there's nothing better or easier than to include them in a bar type of cookie made delicious with brown sugar.

LYNN SAYS:
 Flavor Tricks Improve Simple Dishes

Scrambled eggs with some tomato soup from a can. It's different and very delicious.

When you make that chocolate pudding, the children will like it even more if you pour a little of the pudding in the cup, add a layer of crushed peppermint candy, a layer of pudding, a candy, and then more pudding.

Peanut Bars.
 (Makes 21 bars)
 1/2 cup shortening
 1 cup brown sugar
 2 eggs
 1 1/2 cups sifted flour
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon baking powder
 1/2 cup light cream
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 1 cup peanuts
 2 teaspoons confectioners' sugar

Cream shortening until fluffy. Gradually add brown sugar. Thoroughly beat in eggs. Sift flour, salt and baking powder together and add to shortening mixture alternately with cream. Stir in vanilla and peanuts. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) in a square glass cake dish for 30 minutes. Remove from the oven and sprinkle the top with confectioners' sugar.

Crumb Cake.
 2 cups flour
 1 1/2 cups sugar
 2 teaspoons baking powder
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cup butter or margarine
 2 eggs, well beaten
 1/2 cup milk
 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/2 cup nuts, chopped

Sift dry ingredients together. Cut in butter. Reserve one cup of mixture. To remaining mixture add combined eggs and milk. Beat well. Pour into greased pan about 7 by 11 inches. Cover top with reserved mixture. Sprinkle with cinnamon and nuts. Bake in a moderate oven, 375 degrees, for 35 minutes.

Brazil Nut and Fruit Sweets.
 (Makes 36 balls)
 3/4 cup brazil nuts
 1/2 cup raisins
 1/2 cup apricots
 1/2 cup pitted dates
 1/4 cup coconut

Put enough of the brazil nuts through food chopper to measure 3/4 cup; reserve to roll mixture in. Put remaining nuts through chopper with raisins, apricots, dates and coconut. Mix until well blended. Form into one inch balls. Roll in remaining 1/4 cup of nuts.

Do your holiday baking early by planning to make plum pudding now. Steam it in a mold and then store it in a tightly covered tin until ready to use.

Almond Crisps.
 1/2 cup butter
 1 cup light brown sugar
 1 well-beaten egg
 1 cup flour
 1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar
 1/2 cup blanched, coarsely chopped almonds

Cream the butter and sugar until light. Add egg. Sift together the dry ingredients. Into this mix the nuts. Beat all together. Drop from the end of a spoon onto a greased baking sheet and bake in a slow oven (325 degrees) to a light brown.

Vanilla Wafers.
 1/2 cup butter
 3/4 cup sugar
 Yolks of 2 eggs
 1 cup flour
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 1/2 teaspoon salt

Cream butter and sugar together. Add egg yolks and cream again. Gradually stir in the sifted flour, vanilla and salt. Drop from the end of a spoon onto a greased pan in small rounds, about an inch apart, and bake in a moderate (350 degree) oven until delicately browned.

Frestone
 CHAMPION GROUND GRIPS
 CHOICE of CHAMPIONS
 IN ALL THREE 1947 NATIONAL PLOWING MATCHES

CHAMPION Plowmen know that the performance of their tractor tires can "make" or "break" them in a plowing match. They must have tires that take hold and pull—on soft ground—on hard ground—on sod—on stubble. They must have tires that take a full, clean bite, a center bite—tires that plow right through under all conditions.

That's why winners in the three big national matches this fall (Big Rock, Wheatland, Illinois and Webster City, Iowa), plowed on Frestone Tires. They, like most other contestants in these big events, could not afford to gamble with a "broken center" tire that might let them down by clogging up with trash, slipping and spinning.

Frestone Champion Ground Grips will perform for you on every job just like they perform for champion plowmen. They will always take you through. And they will take you through faster, without slipping. That means time and money saved.

Specify Frestone Champions when you order a new tractor or when you buy replacements for your present tractor. See your nearest Frestone Dealer or Store today.

When the tread on your tire begins wearing smooth, just consider this:

The last 3 or 4 thousand miles in that tire can be awfully expensive miles. Suppose the tire is bruised and damaged—or suppose it just gets worn so thin it cannot be recapped. Then it is only junk and brings you only a junk price.
