Lions Club News

This week is regular Lions Club meeting. The time is 7:30 p. m. The Lions were busy last week with the Giant-Midget basketball game and helping at the school carnivals.

The Lions are planning on some entertainment for the town soon. One of the events will be a Donkey Basketball game on Saturday night Dec. 4th between the Lions and the American Legion teams. Another is Zeke Williams Rambling Cowboys who will be here about Dec. 1st, and Miss Myrtle Reeves will put on a home talent review on Dec. 10th.

Basketball News

Last Wednesday night the school basketball gave the Lions a good scrap before the Lions defeated them 46 to 26, in the first game of the evening.

The second game between the Giants and Midgets was a close affair most of the way with the Midgets coming out on the big end of a 22 to 16 score. None of the Giants or Midgets have signed contracts with any college or professional teams so far, probably on account of the lack of scouts attending the game.

Proceeds of the game were divided between the school and Lion Club team to help us have more and better basketball in Hedley.

American Legion

Tuesday night was regular American Legion meeting night. Several local Legionnaires plan to attend the 18th District American Legion convention at Dalhart next Saturday and Sunday. The Post now has 60 members for 1949 on their quota of 75. The Legion is doing some mighty good work and all ex-service men should join Commander Deahl hopes to be able to report the quota reached at the convention.

Rhea Stotts spent Sunday in Amarillo.

Christmas cards, 39¢, 59¢, 79¢ and 97¢ per box at Moffitt Hardware Co.

FHA-FFA Social

Those attending the F. H. A. and F. F. A. Social Nov. 1 were Iva Mae Adams, Kaye Goode, Anita Bain, Joan Moreman, Dolores Gunn, Mary Hunsucker, Mary Bailey, Mary Greer, Dolores Read, Earline Fortenberry, Theresa Kelley, Dorothy Ellis, Virginia Milton, Winnie Tipton, Doris Edwards, Patricia Usrey, Mattie McKey, Jimmy Owens, Douglas Story, Corky Hunsucker, Keith Wynn, Kenneth Crawford, Don Hansard, Leon Banister, Bobby Baker, Hershel Ellis, Jerrell Peters.

The chapter mothers and fathers attending were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Usrey, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Greer, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baker, Mrs. Edna Lee Brown, L. E. Groves.

Games and refreshments consisting of sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, cakes, cookies, and punch were enjoyed by all who were present.

School Attendance

Supt. A. L. Davis states that the High School average daily attendance is alarming. The State Department of Education has a ruling we must have an average daily attendance of 65 per cent to operate a high school. Your cooperation in keeping your child in school as much as possible will be appreciated by all the faculty members.

Resolution of Respect

Whereas: Death has again come into our midst and removed to the realms above our brother, Joe Devine,

Whereas: He was dearly beloved and highly regarded as a Charter member of this Chapter, and

Whereas: We shall miss his wise council and brotherly interest;

Therefore Be It Resolved:
That we express our sympathy to the family and friends by spreading a copy of these resolutions on the minutes of the Chapter, publishing a copy in one issue of the Hedley Informer, and sending a copy to each of the three sisters.

Signed: Mrs. Rubye Glass

Halloween Carnival

The Hedley School Carnival was held Friday, Nov. 5th and was a fine success. A splendid crowd helped make it profitable as well as enjoyable to all.

Prizes awarded were a turkey, a country store, dishes and a lamp. Eight booths added to the carnival.

The High School Queen Coronation was impressive even though at the last minute, the elective queen Kay Goode, was stricken ill.

Betty Baker was crowned Princess of the Carnival with her attendants representatives of the grades.

Thanks are extended to all who helped with donations, etc. for the betterment of our school.

The School would like to thank the Lions Club for sponsoring the Halloween Carnival. The Lions selected a committee, Sam Owens, J. W. Noel, Carroll Deahl, and Clifford Johnson, to count the money and deposit it in the bank. The Carnival gross was $747.19, with an expense of $57.74 and $211.19 was distributed to the twelve grades to buy supplies or other necessary materials for their rooms. This leaves a balance of $456.87 which goes to the Hedley School Board of Education.

Russ Reject U. N. Berlin Proposal; Stalin Hits Three Western Powers As Attempting to Start a New War

REJECTION: U. N. Proposal

Russia wouldn't play ball with the United Nations on the settlement of the Berlin dispute. A six-power "face-saving" resolution for solving the crisis was presented to the U. N. security council...

IN REALITY, this point of difference upon which the latest deadlock centered was a minor one, but it served to illustrate the vast gap that must be closed between the East and West can be achieved.

STALIN TALKS: 'Horrors'
In what is probably the most amazing outburst he has made since the war, Soviet Premier Josef Stalin told the world that the U. S., Great Britain and France are seeking a new war through a "policy of aggression."

STALIN called Winston Churchill as "the main instigator of a new war" and predicted that Churchill's "pupils of aggression" would be rejected by the people just as Churchill has been.

ALTHOUGH he did not label President Truman or any other leader as a "pupil in aggression," the implication was too clear to be mistaken, particularly since the Moscow radio had broadcast a prediction that Mr. Truman would be defeated on November 2.

WHAT would the Russians do if an armed convoy did plow through the blockade? "Not much, if anything," was Arnold's laconic estimate.

"I would be a grave and basic error to let the Communists bluff us out in the present deadlock in Germany."

"TIME plays with the Russians. We have the superior power now. They may have it later. Meantime, it would be folly to let them bridge the gap by bluff alone."

To Dunk or Not To Dunk?

Dunking doughnuts is Sober Hopkins' favorite morning pastime . . . and for a long time Ma Hopkins has been trying to break him of the habit. Feels it sets a bad example for the children.

So one morning she puts a heavy frosting of chocolate on the doughnuts . . . figuring that will stop him. Sober thinks it over for a while and then: Dunk! Taste? Smile!! And Sober compliments the missus on the lovely mocha flavor!

I guess there'll always be two schools of thought: to dunk or not to dunk. But from where I sit, it's a matter of personal choice and taste . . . like some folks prefer beer to cider, ale to beer. And the less we criticize those differences of taste, the better.

In fact, Ma Hopkins got so curious about the flavor of chocolate-covered doughnuts dunked in coffee, that she tried it herself. Now—you've guessed it—she's a daily dunker, too!

Single Dish Suppers
Please Family Tastes;
Most Prepare Quickly

EVERY HOMEMAKER needs several special dishes on which she can draw for Sunday night suppers and other occasions when company appears and needs hot and hearty refreshment. There are covered dish suppers at the church which are so popular, and then, too, the youngsters coming home from school games and events may want something to warm them as well as to satisfy their appetites. Plan to serve either a salad or dessert or both as one of the main dishes, depending upon the appetites, and, of course on the type of supper you are serving. All of the recipes I'm giving you today are bound to be special favorites.

Baked Beans
1 quart dried navy beans
1 teaspoon soda
1 medium onion
1/2 cup molasses
1/2 cup brown sugar
1 teaspoon dry mustard
2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 pound salt pork
1 1/2 cups tomato juice
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Soak beans in cold water (to cover) overnight. Drain, cover with cold water and add baking soda. Bring to a boil and boil 15 minutes. Drain, cover with fresh water and bring to a boil again. Drain.

Baked beans make an outstanding good supper for Sunday night or for entertaining informally for men folk or youngsters who like their food hearty, but good to eat.

Place the onion at the bottom of the pot and add beans, molasses, brown sugar, seasonings and juice. Cut pork into small pieces and press into the beans. Add enough water to cover the beans. Bake, covered, in a slow (325-degree) oven for five hours, adding more water when necessary to keep the beans from drying. Remove cover, bring pork to the surface and bake for one hour longer.

BAKED BEANS ARE good when served with the following dessert and salad:

Cabbage-Fruit Salad (Serves 6)
2 cups finely shredded cabbage
1 cup diced pineapple
2 red apples, cored and diced
Mayonnaise
Toss all ingredients together with enough mayonnaise to make creamy.

Orange Sponge Pudding (Serves 8)
2 cups bread crumbs
2 pint milk
2 tablespoons butter
1/2 orange
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup sugar
2 beaten egg whites
Place bread crumbs in top of double boiler with milk and cook until soft. Then add remaining ingredients. Pour mixture into a buttered baking dish and bake in a slow (325-degree) oven until firm. Serve with the following sauce: Beat two egg yolks until thick; add one-fourth cup of powdered sugar and the juice and grated rind of one-half orange. Just before serving fold in one cup of cream, whipped. The pudding may be baked as the beans finish since the oven temperature is the same.

After a heavy dinner on Sunday, the family will enjoy the light savoriness of Shrimp Wiggle for the evening supper. Serve with a salad or just a dessert depending upon how sharp the appetites are.

ONE OF THE following fish dishes makes a delicious supper when the gang gathers at your home or for Sunday night supper as a delightful change from regular dinner:

Shrimp Wiggle (Serves 4)
2 onions, sliced
2 tablespoons butter
2 cups stewed tomatoes
2 tablespoons flour
3/4 cup water
2 cups cleaned shrimp, cooked or canned
Salt, pepper
Toast rounds
Sauté onions in butter until golden brown. Add tomatoes. Simmer for a few minutes. Stir water into flour to make a smooth paste and add tomato mixture. Cook, stirring as mixture thickens. Add whole shrimp. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Serve with toast rounds and garnish with stuffed olives.

Macaroni-Salmon Scallop (Serves 6)
1 cup macaroni
1 1-pound can flaked salmon
1 tablespoon chopped onion
1 tablespoon chopped green pepper
Salt
1 1/2 cups thin white sauce
Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender. Drain and rinse. Alternate layers of macaroni and salmon in a casserole sprinkling each layer with onion, green pepper, and salt. Pour white sauce over all and sprinkle top with buttered bread crumbs. Bake in a moderate (350-degree) oven. This dish may also be made with tuna fish, ham or chicken.

SOMETIMES WE MERELY want hot sandwiches to satisfy our appetites for Sunday night or after a football or basketball game. But, make these hot and substantial, and serve with a hot beverage and dessert if you want to make a grand meal of them.

Open-Faced Cheese Sandwiches (Makes 6 Sandwiches)
6 slices lean bacon
1/2 pound American cheese
2 slices onion
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
6 slices bread
Grind together the cheese, bacon and onion. Add mustard and mix thoroughly. Toast bread on one side and spread a thick layer of cheese on the untoasted side. Brown under broiler or in oven. Serve hot.

Hamburger-Cheese Buns (Serves 5)
1 pound ground beef
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
5 round buns
5 slices snappy cheese
India relish or piccalilli
Combine beef with salt and pepper and form five round, flat cakes. Fry on both sides until well browned. Split buns, toast and butter them. Cover the lower half of each bun with cheese, slice and let melt under broiler flame. Cover with hot hamburger, spread with relish and serve hot.

Season mashed sardines with catchup and Worcestershire sauce and stir in grated cheese. Spread the mixture on slices of toast and broil until cheese partially melts. Salami may also be ground and mixed with cream cheese and enough cream of celery soup to moisten. This may be spread on buns or toast for tasty snacks.

Tuna fish salad spread in toasted buns makes a delicious hot sandwich. You place over the tuna fish sippy cheese and broil until the melts.

Honey During the Ages
Interesting are the stories of symbolic ceremonies associated with weddings among peoples of Asia, Africa, and Europe. Not the least of these tells of the part played by honey. Honey was respected as an important commodity, as a symbol of sweetness in family relations and of protection against evil spirits, and as a god. History records that in the marriage contracts of ancient Egypt the bridegroom has to promise his bride a definite amount of honey each year. Among the Hindus and certain Central European people honey was used to bless the home or anoint the bride couple. In Rome and among the Slavs honey or a honey beverage was served to the bride and the bridegroom as a special part of the ceremony. In a few countries some of these and similar customs still persist.
