Basketball News

Local basketball fans will see some of the best players of the Panhandle perform when the second annual Independent Basketball Tournament is held here Jan. 6, 7 and 8. Teams that have already entered are the Groom All Stars, the Quail Independents, the Wellington Modern Market, Wheeler, the Claude Merchants and of course the Hedley Lions.

Teams from Pampa, Clarendon, Carey, Turkey, Lakeview and other points have also been invited. This early response insures eight good teams in the tournament.

No games are scheduled this week on account of the Christmas holidays. Last Thursday night the locals made a clean sweep of the three games here. The High School girls defeated the Wellington girls in the first game, then the Oaks defeated the Wellington Struckets, and the Lions defeated the Groom All Stars.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS
New Spy Ring Data Revives Probe; Tax Hike Bugaboo Frightens Some; Berlin Red Vote Tightens Issue

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.

WITCH HUNT: Pumpkin, Too

Like a delayed Halloween episode, with macabre rather than humorous undertones, was the revival of the spy hunt in Washington. All the ingredients were there—the cornfield, the pumpkin, and the specter of Stalin hovering over the unsavory whole.

But there was nothing funny in the situation to the house un-American activities committee or to a federal grand jury seeking to rush indictments against suspected traitors and espionage agents.

THE PROBE committee declared it had "definite proof of one of the most extensive espionage rings in the history of the United States."

PLACED on the witness stand, Chambers said he had not had possession of the film during the years after 1937, until recently, and declined to name the persons in whose hands the film rested before being turned up in a pumpkin on Chambers' farm.

Chambers, an admitted member of a Communist spy ring which operated here a decade ago, was slated for further witness stand appearances, as was Hiss, who maintains he was never a Russian agent.

HIGHER TAXES: Some business men and industrialists, who feared a Truman victory might result in a new "soak-the-rich" tax program, shivered anew as they read a statement by one of the leading proponents of President Truman's twice-rejected plea to impose a modified form of the wartime excess profits tax.

THE SPEAKER was Wyoming's Senator O'Mahoney, Democrat, who cited the 1929 financial crisis as an argument for boosting taxes on business profits.

He pointed out that corporate earnings now are piling up at the same rate as in 1929, although the companies are bigger. Savings are greater than ever before.

HOWEVER, industrialists and labor leaders are not so sure. They are questioning to give their view on the matter, if anything, congress should do.

O'Mahoney proposed that "if the business," or small, independent corporations be given special exemptions under any excess profits tax plan.

GOLDEN FLEECE: Page Jason

The "golden fleece," subject of one of mythology's most romantic, colorful stories, crashed the world press by proxy as a result of a row over custody of its namesake.

The fleece, symbol of one of the world's most exclusive orders of nobility—not even the king of England is a knight—may be "kidnaped" by the city of Dijon.

THE GOLDEN fleece—of which small replicas were awarded the knights—was kept in Dijon, France, after the order was founded by Philip the Good, Duke of Burgundy, in 1429, for several generations until Mary of Burgundy took it with her to Austria when she married Maximilian the Fair.

The fleece remained in Vienna until the French army recaptured the city during the last war and returned the fleece to Dijon. Now, Austria is asking for it back.

But the good Burgundians of Dijon have petitioned the city council to urge the French government to refuse the Austrian bid and to retain the fleece in Dijon.

POOR RICHARD'S ALMANAC Anniversary Highlights Book's Effect

Poor Richard's anniversary, January 17, 1949, highlights the influence of the almanac on American life. Poor Richard was the nom de plume of Benjamin Franklin, whose Poor Richard's Almanac began the popularity of this type of publication.

In hundreds of thousands of homes, the almanac is especially popular.

EMPLOYMENT OF MALE WORLD WAR II VETERANS SEPTEMBER 1948

Three years after the war most veterans, by and large, are firmly established in civilian employment, according to statistics compiled by the Research Council for Economic Security, Chicago. Eighty-nine of the estimated 14.9 million living veterans of World War II were employed as of last September. Of these, about 900,000 were on farms and another 900,000 in school. About 450,000 were unemployed, while an additional 300,000 were "resting" or unable to work.

DEAD END: Reds Block Way

The struggle for a Berlin peace dragged wearily on, extended by Russian establishment of a Communist "government" in the Reich capital.

Demanding elections be held on a "city-wide basis," the United States, Britain and France told the Soviet union that there could be no solution to the Berlin impasse until the Russians disown the newly-installed Berlin government. The terms were clearly expressed in a note accompanying a list of Soviet violations of the Berlin constitution that the three powers had submitted for guidance.

ALTHOUGH, FORMALLY addressed to a United Nations committee, the note obviously was meant as a strongly worded warning to Moscow. It indicated that if what it termed the "illegal body" in the Soviet sector were not disbanded, the western powers would take a series of measures required by the fact, in their opinion, that the "legal, unified administration" of Berlin had ceased to exist.

The western powers placed no time limit for the Soviet union to make a decision on whether to continue collaboration. However, the tone of the note, as informed sources stressed, indicated that unless the normal administrative conditions were reestablished "pretty soon," a new policy would be adopted.

FROM BEGINNING to end the note gave the western powers regard as detailed proof that the Soviets have pursued in Berlin a policy of systematic violation of all quadripartite agreements.

POTATOES: No More Doubt

There was no longer any doubt. Farmers, at last, had a full-blown portrait of the American housewife's ideal potato. The U. S. department of agriculture even suggested that farmers tack it up in the barn for quick reference.

The department found, after a survey among 3,300 housewives, that farmers and shippers would see to it that potatoes prepared for market are:

CLEAN, of medium size, marked by few "eyes," light in color, undamaged—and of such quality that they will cook up soft, mealy and evenly throughout, without falling apart.

Housewives like medium sized potatoes because they rate them easiest to peel and handle, and best for judging individual portions—the all-purpose potato, they say.

The survey showed more than a fourth of the householders disturbed by "mechanical and handling injuries" to potatoes. Said the department:

"IT IS PRETTY good evidence that too many potatoes are being dug and handled with improper machinery and tools, and that the potatoes are not properly culled before being sent to market."

Immediate question to arise: Will potato growers and shippers do anything about it?

Shinjon Digest
Baukhage Finds Old Dates Of Interest in Year 1948

By BAUKHAGE
News Analyst and Commentator.

WASHINGTON.—New Year's day, according to an encyclopedia which I once remember consulting, is celebrated in the western world by merrymaking and, theoretically at least, in the meeting of old friends.

I remember when we took the idea of New Year's "calls" seriously. That was back in western New York. I also remember later, when I was a student in Europe, three of us living in the same "pension" (a word which Americans abroad prefer to "boarding house"). We made our calls consecutively so that the one pair of gloves and one silk hat, which we possessed collectively, could serve for all. In that day and place both were essential.

Today I have been meeting some old "dates of 1948."

The first I have to record is January 6... "Baukhage talking..." from the radio gallery of the house of representatives after having watched the opening of the second session of the historic 80th congress. Note the word "historic." No one guessed then that other adjectives applied to that legislative body were to help cause one of the great "upset" election victories of American history.

On January 7 (my birthday) there was "a bright sun shining down on the Capitol but," I broadcast, "the shadows beneath it are deep and dark."

On that day the President delivered his message and the next day the Associated Press said: "Most of President Truman's 1948 legislative proposals, particularly his tax reduction and anti-inflation plans appeared headed today for a congressional waste basket."

How true that was and how it helped re-elect him. In his annual message he is to present most of them again, more hopefully.

January 12 was a cold day in New York which had just emerged from a blizzard. I was there covering the assembly of the United Nations and that day the Palestine commission was preparing its program of partition which was to be completed with bayonets and handgrenades.

JANUARY 23. At 11:30 a. m. a message came over the news ticker, and such a sigh of relief went up from the White House and from both Republican and Democratic headquarters that the trees on Connecticut avenue bent nearly double. "I am not available for and could not accept nomination to high political office." Signed—General Dwight D. Eisenhower.

JANUARY 30. Gandhi is dead. The priest and prophet of Indian independence was shot to death at his prayer meeting on the lawn of the estate where he lived.

MARCH 3. Truman announces his candidacy; MacArthur renounces his.

MARCH 10. Jan Masaryk is dead. Much died with that name.

From the house radio gallery again on March 17 I report the re-annunciation by the President of what was then called the "Truman Doctrine."

MARCH 19. Wallace attacks the President's foreign policy.

It was no April Fool's day joke when the Russians stopped the trains in Berlin.

The next day, April 2, our counter move: Congress passes the European recovery program.

The gaygreen of leaf and lawn on this 12th day of April are not enough to dispel Washington's concern over the revolution in Bogota. (Remember? A Communist-directed affair. Secretary of State Marshall was there.)

At 10:30 in the morning of April 19, Justice T. Allen Goldsborough ruled John Lewis guilty of criminal contempt.

On April 27 come the rumors of war from Palestine.

The Moscow newspapers of May 11 are bought out—Ambassador Bedell Smith is conferring with Molotov.

The birthday of a state, May 14—Israel is born.

Dewey wins the primary in Oregon on May 24. Later he won the state.

A veteran steps down. Prime Minister Smuts of South Africa is defeated on May 23.

Oregon in the news again, tragically. The little town of "Anport is inundated. May 23.

Tragedy for a neighbor state on June 10. Secretary of Labor Schweikert of Washington state dies at the age of 53.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up at night, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

EVEN A Pig
GUARDS YOUR GAS SERVICE

Some call it a "go-devil"...others call it a "pig." It's a cleaning device that roots its way through a new pipe line to take out dust and debris gathered in construction. There's never a foot of United Gas transmission line that fails to get this internal cleaning, for foreign materials in the line could result in interruption of service. The "pig" is often used, too, to clear obstructions in existing lines. This is one of the many functions of the United Gas organization...all of which have the ultimate purpose of assuring a more dependable supply of natural gas to our customers.

After the "pig" is inserted in the end of a long section of pipe line, gas is used to force it through the line, scraping and brushing as it goes.

It comes out the other end followed by a cloud of dust and other foreign materials removed by its passage through the line.

When the line blows free of dirt, it is ready to become part of United's 4,000-mile integrated pipe line system.

Dutch Miller's Back In Uniform

After ten days in the city, Dutch back in uniform. I don't mean any khaki or Navy blue—but a different uniform, that's every bit as patriotic and American. Blue jeans and a denim shirt, work around the yards and farms; stout boots for tramping through the fields; and a straw hat when the sun gets high—a form you see from Maine to Texas, Iowa to Alabama.

The uniform of an army—the great army of American farmers—who, by their productivity, are helping to keep this nation strong—bolstering the forces of democracy that guard our freedom.

And in their way of life, too, they are champions of freedom. Temperate folk who enjoy a moderate glass of beer—but never quarrel with those who prefer cider. Tolerant people who fight to the bitter end against oppression and intolerance. From where I sit, a credit to America!

Merry Christmas to one and all

One man — one of many — created a character who in child-like faith and all-embracing love will live through the centuries as the symbol of Christmas.

The man was Charles Dickens; his character was Tiny Tim. And in the words of Tiny Tim, oft-repeated, we'd like to say:

WOMAN'S WORLD

Lingerie, Lounging Apparel Seem Prettier Than Ever

By Ertta Haley

AS ALL women are well aware, dresses during the last year have taken on pretty as well as more feminine airs. Now lingerie and lounging apparel, not to be left behind, are showing much of the same trend.

Nylon slips are not exactly new. They were available some time ago, but never were they so pretty as now. Nightgowns, too, made of nylon as well as other fabrics are almost as beautiful as the smartest evening gowns because they have so much detailing to make them exquisite.

As dresses go, so must the slips you wear underneath them. No longer can you feel comfortable in a slip that is several inches shorter than the dress you're wearing. Short or tall, you can find longer slips proportioned to your figure as well as to your outer apparel.

If the dress has a long, pencil-slim skirt, then you'll want a slip that clings gently to you and is not bulky under the dress.

When your skirt is full and billowing, your best choice may well be one of the lovely half slips whose own fullness will give the proper background for the wide flaring skirt.

Trimmings are daintier than ever. Much more trimming on the hem of the slip is evident than before. That which is used, too, is of wider and better quality than has been seen for some time.

Add a founce to a slip . . .

If your choice is nylon or nylon jersey, you'll have lightweight lingerie, easy to wash out, quick to dry.

How to Remodel Old Slips

Even though slips do not have hems like dresses, it's possible to do a minor remodeling job on them so they will give use, now that dresses are longer.

Wide hems of lace and net are very popular and you might investigate the possibility of getting the material by the yard for slips that need lengthening. If you can obtain the same type lace or net in a narrower width than that used for the hem, use this to trim the top of the slip. If the slip is in good repair, you can see the possibilities of making an almost new slip out of it.

Refit your robes.

There are many edgings made which will help lengthen slips. Eyelet has been on the market for some time now, both in wide and narrow widths. Gather a wide width, or use several gathered rows

Be Smart!

Petit point, that perfect example of the ultimate in exquisite handwork, is one of the truly beautiful revivals of the season. One of the favorites is the box type bag sketched, but the envelope style that grandmother treasured has all the romance of the past. Also new and possessing a pleasing youthfulness is the heading and a bead fringe on satin for evening. The soft drawing is a favorite.

Wardrobe Stretcher

This corduroy surprise in a coordinated costume is a practical addition to the school or business girl's wardrobe. The jacket, quilted in an all-over swirl pattern, is worn over a one-piece jumper to make this attractive suit. The rust-colored corduroy suit is combined with a new type beret-hat.

of the narrow width to make a founce.

Some of the taffeta slips are easily lengthened with a single wide founce of the same material. This may also be purchased ready-to-use.

If the straps on a slip are frayed, do these over when you're lengthening the slip. You may use lace or eyelet if you are trimming the hem of the slip in that, or you might buy the inexpensive straps for them in matching colors. These straps have the shortening feature in them and are just as adjustable as the straps in a new slip.

Tips Given on Sewing Slips at Home

Many of us do not often think of making lingerie at home, but there's a lot of satisfaction in doing so because of the wealth of materials and trimmings now available. Patterns for lingerie, too, have come into their own recently, and it's possible to create dream-world underthings at home.

Just as in choosing a dress pattern, you must choose a slip, gown or robe pattern with care. Be certain that the one you're getting is of the proper size. Take measurements and compare yours with those of the pattern.

If you do not find that pattern measurements correspond directly with yours, remember that it's always easier to make a large pattern smaller than vice versa. It's simple to make small tucks around the bust of the larger pattern before cutting. The same holds true of the skirt, if that is where you have to take in measurements.

Unless you are using a sanforized fabric which has about 1 per cent shrinkage, you may wash the fabric before cutting and sewing it. If you do not shrink the fabric first, be sure to allow for shrinkage when making it.

Most lingerie fabrics have a tendency to ravel so the finished seams should be pinked or sewed with an overhand stitch to prevent fraying. The little effort this takes is well worth the time.

New Styles Are Seen in Lounging Apparel

Most women will be fascinated with the lounging wear now coming into the market. The styles follow closely the innovations made in dress wear, but many of the classic styles with minor changes are still popular.

Teen-agers will particularly like the pajama and brunch coat sets, especially in calico. Either may be worn separately and the colors are such that they show little of the soil. Many of the brunch coats are quilted so there's the warmth feature that makes them so practical.

Gleaming and dramatically lovely full length robes are still with us. Choose the sophisticated rayon jersey, zippered type for a practical, lovely robe around the house; or, select one of the quilted rayon types which come in wine, royal or lovely green. Some of these are lined in contrasting colors and also have the narrow piping which makes them especially attractive.

Soft as down, but durable, nylon gown and robe sets with beautiful founces or lace trimmings will be popular with the season's new brides. Their easy washability as well as the lack of ironing are excellent features.

Brunch coats for homemakers are coming out in lovely styles and in good quality percales. These are excellent to wear while getting the family off to work and school, and are attractive enough to wear when you have to answer the door. Many have wide, swirling skirts like current dresses.

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS... by Lynn Chambers

A New Year's buffet supper can be done simply if you serve sliced turkey with assorted breads, and bowls of fresh cranberry relish, salted nuts, popcorn, and if you desire, a molded salad and dessert.

Welcome New Year With Luxurious Spread Or Simple Buffets

IF YOU'RE planning a gay New Year's Eve party, then be prepared for the call for refreshments at about the stroke of midnight when the revelers start feeling hunger pangs.

However, if you're the hostess and want to enjoy your own party, plan foods that you can whip out to the table in a minimum of time. In other words, do the cooking to completion before the party begins.

A buffet supper is best handled with a buffet table, with all the preparation done ahead of time. If properly planned, you can get the food on the table in a quarter of an hour. A small party can have a cozy waffle supper, and the menu can be very simple but still satisfying.

Buffet Supper
Sliced Roast Turkey
Ham or Roast Beef
*Hawaiian Cranberry Relish
*Dark Nut Bread
*Molded Cider Salad
*Peppermint Stick Cake
Popcorn
Salted Nuts
Beverage

BAKE THE TURKEY, roast beef or ham during the day; or, use slices from the meat you've had for dinner. This may be served cold. If you don't have enough meat, have sliced assorted cheese on the platter. All the other items can be made beforehand.

*Hawaiian Cranberry Relish (Makes 1 quart)
4 cups fresh cranberries
2 cups sugar
1 cup canned pineapple

Put cranberries and pineapple through food chopper. Add sugar and mix well. Chill before serving. This relish will keep well for several weeks if refrigerated.

*Dark Nut Bread (Makes 1 loaf)
2 eggs, well beaten
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup melted shortening
1/2 cup light molasses
1 cup sour milk
1 1/2 cups white flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
1 1/2 cups wheat or graham flour
1 cup seedless raisins
1 1/2 cups broken nut meats

Beat eggs and sugar until thick. Add shortening and molasses. Add sour milk. Add white flour sifted with soda and salt, then wheat flour. Fold in raisins and nuts. Bake in wax paper-lined pan in a moderate oven (350-degree) for about an hour.

*Molded Cider Salad (Serves 10)
1 package orange-flavored gelatin
1 cup boiling water
1 cup cider
1 1/2 cup diced red apples
3/4 cup seeded Tokay grapes, halved
3/4 cup chopped nuts, if desired

Dissolve gelatin in hot water and cool. Add cider and allow to thicken. Fold in other ingredients. Pour into molds which have been rinsed in cold water or oiled and allow to chill until firm. Serve on lettuce.

The dessert for your gala New Year's buffet is a refrigerator cake which one and all will welcome for its light fluffiness and refreshing flavor. Make this ahead of time so it will have time to chill thoroughly and slice nicely.

LYNN SAYS: Good Ideas Make Entertaining Fun

A cabbage head makes a lovely salad bowl for buffet entertaining. Take out the inside of the cabbage, shred it fine and mix with chopped apples, sliced stuffed olives, shredded Swiss cheese and salad dressing. Pile mixture into cabbage shell on a large platter.

Add hard-cooked eggs in leftover turkey or chicken.

NEW YEAR'S DINNER

Shrimp-Grapefruit Cocktail
Rib Roast of Beef Natural Gravy
Yorkshire Pudding Creamed Peas
Tossed Vegetable Salad Hot Rolls
*Peppermint Stick Cake
Beverage
*Recipe Given

*Peppermint Stick Cake (Serves 10-12)

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
2 cups milk, scalded
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 pound marshmallows, diced
3/4 pound peppermint stick candy, coarsely broken
2 cups heavy cream, whipped
1/2 cup maraschino cherries, quartered

Angel Food Cake

Soften gelatin in cold water. Dissolve in hot milk. Add salt and chill until partially set. Fold marshmallows and candy into whipped cream. Beat gelatin mixture until light and fluffy. Add cherries and whipped cream mixture. Line bottom and sides of an angel cake pan or a spring form (oiled) with strips one-half inch thick and one inch wide of angel food cake, from which the crusts have been removed. Fill with gelatin mixture and chill until set.

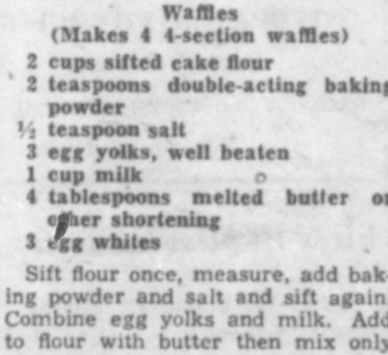

FOR A SIMPLE supper on New Year's you may set the table for the number you are serving or serve buffet style, making waffles at the table. A simple fruit centerpiece will be appropriate, as the guests may want some after you have served the waffles.

Plain waffles with syrup are an excellent choice, but if you want something more, serve creamed chicken or creamed ham and mushrooms on the waffles. If you serve caffeine-free coffee, everyone can drink all they wish without any qualms about staying awake after they get home to retire. Use the regular grind for percolator and the drip grind for glass coffee maker or drip type of pot. The instant type is good if you want quick service.

Waffles

(Makes 4 4-section waffles)
2 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 egg yolks, well beaten
1 cup milk
4 tablespoons melted butter or other shortening
3 egg whites

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt and sift again. Combine egg yolks and milk. Add to flour with butter then mix only untill smooth. Beat egg whites until they hold up in moist peaks. Stir quickly but thoroughly into the batter. Bake in a hot waffle iron.

For those who wish a simple spread at the stroke of midnight to welcome the New Year, crisp waffles with creamed chicken, turkey or ham are welcome. Have a simple, but edible, bowl of fruit for the centerpiece, and top the meal off with cups of steaming decaffeinated coffee.

TO MAKE CREAMED chicken or turkey, use 2 cups of medium white sauce to two and one-half cups of shredded or diced chicken. If you want the mixture to have a richer color, add a little of the white sauce to one beaten egg yolk, mix thoroughly, then add the remainder of the sauce. Heat in the double boiler so the mixture will not burn.

If you don't have leftover chicken to use, get some already cooked, canned, boned chicken that comes ready to use.

Decorate the tree with old-fashioned gingerbread men which are frosted with confectioner's icing, trimmed with raisins and bright candies.

Serve your Christmas breakfast "buffet style" letting everyone wait on himself if you're going to be busy getting a large dinner for early afternoon.

Sponge cake topped with apricot glaze when cool, and then sprinkled generously with white almond nuts m
