Swing of SOUTHWEST FARM MARKETS

Southwest farm markets showed generally declining price trends during the past week, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

Wholesale meat prices at New York dropped $1 to $3 a hundred pounds on all classes except veal and mutton during the week ended Monday. Clearing weight saw increased livestock receipts at the principal markets early this week.

All hog classes fell $1 to $1.50 during the week. Top butchers sold Monday at $19.75 at San Antonio, $19.50 at Fort Worth, and $20 at Oklahoma City and Denver. Sows ranged from $15 to $16.50 in Texas and Oklahoma, and pigs $10 to $18.

Cattle and calves sold generally 50 cents to $1.50 or more lower for the week. Steers, yearlings and heifers lost the most, and vealers the least. Fort Worth's market held up better than most terminals, and showed some net gains.

Eggs sold a little higher last week as unfavorable weather cut receipts, but clearing skies brought higher offerings and weaker market. Monday North Texas dealers paid 40 to 43 cents a dozen for fresh receipts. Frysers lost 1 cent for the week. Dallas paid 30 cents a pound, and Fort Worth 30 to 32.

Cotton lost $3.75 to $5 a bale. Not middling 15-16 inch closed Monday at $1.80 cents a pound at Dallas, $1.95 at New Orleans, $2.00 at Galveston and $2.05 at Houston.

I am buying chickens again. See me for the highest market price for all kinds of chickens. I am paying 24¢ for light hens and 28¢ for heavy hens. Call me at any time for dressed poultry.

New Lions added to the club during the membership drive are Leonard Vaughn, Sid Pointer, Nelson Seago, Perry Seago, Oscar Anderson, John Dickson, L. M. Harris, Roy Bevers, Holley Wood, Edward Todd, Robert Bevers, Bobby Everett, D. M. Timmons, Rollie Kelley, R. L. Stone, E. S. Milton, Johnny L. Parker, J. M. Waddell and Frank D. Davis.

The 19 new Lions plus the 63 old members makes a total membership of 82. This is back to pre-war strength and gives the club 8 votes at district meetings and strengthens its claim to being the largest club for a town of its size in Lions International.

Next week there will be a directors meeting at the bank at 7:15 p. m. Some important things are going on and you should be at this meeting.

Farm Meeting

Donley County farmers and ranchers will have a chance to hear the 1949 farm program explained to them next week when county agent H. M. Breedlove will hold community meetings over Donley county. Donley county was allotted more money for 1949 than in 1948 and all farmers and ranchers are urged to attend these meetings in order that they might be more familiar with the practices and payments for conservation work done on their farms and thereby earn the maximum amount of money for carrying out conservation practices. The Hedley meeting will be at the schoolhouse Feb. 14 at 7:30 p. m.

Uncle Sam Says

The smart man knows that the only way to protect his family and himself is with a safe, systematic plan of savings. U. S. Savings Bonds provide the safety and the Payroll Savings Plan or the Bond-a-Month Plan is the systematic way. No one can provide security for the future by free-spending. You can face the future with confidence, however, by investing a part of today's earnings in Savings Bonds. That is the intelligent way. And you have the choice of two convenient plans of purchase, the Payroll Savings Plan where you work or, if self-employed, the Bond-a-Month Plan at your bank.

Boy Scout Week

This week is National Boy Scout week, marking the 39th Anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scouts of America. Our local scout troop is doing some mighty good work and we should get acquainted with them this week and help them all we can in their work.

As customary over the nation the Scouts will have charge of the City next Saturday February 12. Each boy will have a job such as Mayor, Alderman, City Clerk, Fire Marshal, Fire Inspector, Health officer and inspectors, City Marshal, Policemen and other offices.

If you are caught doing something contrary to the City ordinances and are fined by the boys remember it is all in fun. The fine will only be 10¢ and it goes into the boy scouts funds.

Legion Auxiliary

Tuesday night the ladies met at the American Legion Hall and decided to organize a Ladies Auxiliary Unit to the local post. Temporary officers elected were Mrs. Robert Bevers, president; Mrs. Wayne Latimer, vice president; and Mrs. C. W. Foster, secretary-treasurer.

The ladies will contact other ladies eligible to join the auxiliary and plan to hold their next meeting the first Tuesday night in March at which time the District President and other outstanding auxiliary members of the district will be here. Ladies eligible to join are mothers, wives, daughters and sisters of Legionnaires or deceased veterans.

The local Legion Post has been one of the few bachelor posts of the district for sometime and they welcome the ladies auxiliary. They feel that with the auxiliary working with them they may do a lot more good for the veterans and the community.

Basketball News

The Hedley girls added another trophy to their showcase Wednesday night. This one was for the Donley County championship. Playing Lelia Lake for the right to enter the regional tournament at Claude, the girls took both games. The last one here Wednesday night was mighty close, 18 to 16.

The Lions Club team came out on the bad end of a 41 to 40 count in the second half of a twin bill. The opposition, L. C. Daniels of Pampa played a lot of basket ball to win it in the last ten seconds. This was the same team Hedley beat two points in Pampa.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS Landlords Rebel Over Rent Curbs; Russians Set up Anti-ERP Program; Israel, Egypt Sign End to Fighting

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

REBELLION: Among Landlords

Chest out, muscles flexed, truculent of attitude, members of the American Property Owners association in 20 cities threatened wholesale eviction of tenants in protest against rental control bills now in congress.

AN OFFICIAL of the organization, composed chiefly of owners of small property, said in Tulsa, Okla., 600 to 1,000 eviction notices would be mailed to Tulsa tenants advising them to vacate within 60 days. Similar action, he said, was expected in Chicago, Houston, Kansas City, Detroit, St. Louis, Fort Wayne, Grand Rapids, Danville, Ill., and other cities.

The eviction notices affected rent-controlled housing and included houses and apartments. Business units are not under rent control.

SPEAR-HEADING the Tulsa movement was a retired Baptist minister, the Rev. Wallace J. Murphy, executive-secretary of the 200-member Tulsa property owners organization, and an honorary president of the national association.

The Rev. Murphy termed two rent control bills now before congress "intolerable," and said, "we refuse to operate so long as rental controls are on." Owner of considerable property in Tulsa, the retired clergyman asserted, "we don't intend to serve under slavery which would take away the right to control our property. It is not enough that we must rent our property at a loss—now they want to fine us and put us in jail."

Landlords appeared mainly incensed because pending rent curb measures would be giving the federal housing expediter right to control evictions, extend rent control periods, provide triple damages for overcharges on rent, and permit fines up to $5,000 and a year in jail for convicted violators.

OBSERVERS WONDERED if landlords weren't letting their wrath becloud their judgment. For, under existing law, which doesn't expire until late March, landlords are prohibited from doing exactly what the Rev. Murphy and his associates plan to do.

The Tulsa incident was merely fuel to the flame of belief that if rent curbs are not maintained, the question of housing for those who cannot afford to buy homes would become even more difficult than it is at present.

RUSSIANS: Coming to Tax?

Messers Joe Stalin and the politburo, so long and so vocally derisive of everything the western world has or offers, were subconsciously paying that world the sincerest form of flattery—imitation.

The Russians had come forth with their own version of ERP, alphabetical symbol of the Marshall plan for aid to Europe.

AS THE EAST'S answer to the European recovery plan, Russia had organized the economic council of mutual assistance for cooperation with five of her neighbors, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland and Romania.

The purpose, as outlined from Moscow, was "the exchange of experience in the economic field, the rendering of technical assistance to each other, and the rendering of mutual assistance in regard to raw materials, foodstuffs, equipment, etc." Russia, with her vast resources, obviously was to be the key nation in the council.

The Kremlin held the door open to other nations. The announcement said, "other countries of Europe that share the principles of the council and wish to participate in broad economic cooperation with the aforementioned countries," may join.

THAT MOSCOW was considering the Marshall plan when its six-nation council was formed was evident in a Russian charge that the ERP interfered with the sovereignty of nations, and that the U. S., Britain, and "certain other countries of western Europe" were boycotting the six nations in trade.

The Russian action may prove to be the vital error in the Soviets' program of expansion. If the system fails to function, it will serve only to spotlight the efficacy of the Marshall plan and the superiority of the western nations in equipment and ability to keep European commitments.

HURRY-UP MEASURE

Priority Ordered for Rent Curb Bill

Speed was of the essence. Rent controls had to be safeguarded swiftly. So, into the senate hopper fell an administration bill calling for broader and tougher rent controls for another two years.

The bill, authorized by Senator Maybank, (D., S. C.) and, in the house by Representative Spence (D., Ky.) would continue controls through March 31, 1951, and would

New Leader

Li Tsing-Jen, China's nationalist vice-president was holding the reins of organized government following Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's departure from Nanking to clear the way for a Communist-directed peace.

PEACE DOVE: Hovers in East

Hovering wings of the dove of peace were becoming faintly audible in the Holy Land dispute. Israel and Egypt signed a permanent cease-fire order and armistice talks were still going on after recent difficulties.

THERE WERE even more significant developments looking toward final peace in the long controversy stemming from the partition of the Holy Land to make the area available as a place of settlement and nationalization of Jews.

Great Britain had capitulated, and with the British lion on its side, the new nation of Israel had the two most powerful nations in the world committed to its support.

Other nations were falling in line to recognize the Jewish state. Indications were that with the trend apparently fully in motion, Arab opponents to the Israel's state would soon be standing completely alone in their opposition.

SHOULD THAT condition eventuate, Israeli seemingly would have nothing to fear, inasmuch as its armies already have proven a match for Arab forces.

Bible students and others religiously inclined would be quick to see in the developments the beginning of fulfillment of the old prophecy that the Holy Land would one day be returned to the Jews, that they would one day become a nation again, with their own flag, their own land, their own government.

SURPLUSES: Curbs Are Sought

Fearful of large surpluses of wheat and cotton, the government was studying moves to prevent this contingency.

Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan outlined to a senate agriculture committee plans to hold down this year's cotton and wheat crops.

Brannan's plan called for serving notice on wheat and cotton farmers that the 1949 crops they plant will not be considered part of their average production in figuring any future acreage allotments. This means growers could plant fewer acres without being penalized later by proportionate acreage curbs on their crops.

Under present law, if acreage controls are renewed, the average acreage planted by a farmer in the five previous years is the amount he is entitled to plant.

Many officials felt that might induce many farmers to plant as much as they can in order to have the maximum possible acreage when and if controls are clamped on.

Brannan's plan, assuring the farmer of no restrictive penalties through curtailment of acreage, was seen as a possible curb on any excessive planting.

About as large a winter wheat crop as possible already has been planted and a committee member declared cotton farmers are preparing to plant an "extra large crop" to get benefit of present high support prices.

Chairman Elmer Thomas (D., Okla.) of the committee which heard Brannan, said legislation to back up Brannan's proposal would be offered in congress.

Washington Digest Politicians Settling Down To Practical Things Again

By BAUKHAGE
News Analyst and Commentator.

WASHINGTON. — With the mighty fanfare of the Democrats on inauguration day a fading memory and even the brave words of the Republicans on Lincoln Day less than a whisper out of the past, the practical politicians on both sides of the aisles in the house and senate are hard at their practical politicking.

The sudden re-entrance of Governor Dewey on the political scene was something that took many of his fellow Republicans by surprise. Nevertheless, it would seem that many who don't like him because he lost last November and others who didn't like him enough to help him win last November, are willing to change their minds and really work for his election to the senate in 1950. They think he has a chance for the seat which Senator Wagner has held so long.

There is a tendency on the part of Democrats to shrug off this distant possibility with "Dewey can't do that either!"

To take on Senator Wagner in his prime would have been no small venture. But since the aging Senator from New York has been ill for such a long period it is taken for granted that he will not run again in 1950. It is suggested that perhaps his son, an up and coming young man in his own right, might attempt to fill his father's shoes.

That is always good political practice, for more than one candidate with a former hero's name, has been swept into office by voters who either didn't know their idol had departed or else thought a candidate by any other name couldn't smell as sweet. It was often declared that a number of old-timers had a vague feeling that FDR and TR were, if not the same, at least approximately the same person.

Meanwhile the Republicans are rapidly solidifying their forces for a concentrated battle over the repeal of the Taft-Hartley bill, and the way the atmosphere feels at this writing, Republican senators are offering the nearest thing to a filibuster that can be offered without actually being labelled one. Senator Pepper called it that from the start.

April is contract day for a good many unions and the race is to get the Taft-Hartley act off the books before then. If the Republicans can keep on amending and arguing past that date, it will be a distinct, if only temporary, victory for them.

It must have been quite a shock for the labor leaders to learn that the administration didn't think that labor won the election. Labor did a tremendous job for Truman, put in a lot of hard, fast cooperative work, dovetailing their programs with the efforts of the regular party workers.

But one Harry Truman did a lot of work, all by himself. When the A. F. of L. and CIO heads came down to Washington early in January

INAUGURAL COLOR FADES

Back to practical politicking laying their demands on the line they were somewhat annoyed to find a number of top Democrats polite, grateful and gracious, but also just a little coy.

Newsmen outside one office door when an A. F. of L. delegation was waiting for members of Senator Thomas' labor and public welfare committee, heard much desk-pounding and one voice was strong enough to penetrate the thick paneling:

"We went up and down the country ballyhooping for the repeal of the Taft-Hartley act. And that's what we want now."

But the practical politicians in the house and the senate knew they were facing the fight of their lives. They knew they could count on some Republican support, but only if they sent down a bill which had something in it beside straight repeal. That is why the administration ordered a "one-package" measure, one that contained certain positive provisions. The unions were willing to let the old Wagner act come back into force, but the administration knew that was the wrong approach since there was considerable popular sentiment against undoing all that had been done in the way of scotching strikes.

It may be caused by disorder of kidney function that permits poisonous waste to accumulate. For truly many people feel tired, weak and miserable when the kidneys fail to remove excess acids and other waste matter from the blood.

You may suffer sagging backache, rheumatic pain, headaches, dizziness, getting up sick, leg pains, swelling, sometimes frequent and scanty urination with smarting and burning is another sign that something is wrong with the kidneys or bladder.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won countrywide approval than on something less favorably known. Doan's have been tried and tested many years. Are all all drug stores. Get Doan's today.

Informer Rates
 Please remember that the former rate is $1.50 per year in Donley county, and $2.00 per year elsewhere, except that service men get the $1.50 rate.

They said,
 "Rich man's toy!"

THAT'S what "wise guys" of the 1880's called the newfangled electric service. And that's all it might be today... IF...
 IF people hadn't risked their savings to start electric companies such as yours, and to keep them growing,
 IF others, often against expert advice, hadn't poured out their energy and time—to extend the wires farther and farther, make the service better and better, bring rates lower and lower.
 They took the risks—they developed the skills—and everybody benefits. That's the way the American business system works. Rich man's toy? Today, electric service is every man's good right arm!

West Texas Utilities Company

THOMAS A. EDISON, father of the Electric Age, was born February 11, 1847, and died October 18, 1931.
 There is no monument above his grave. It is unmarked to this day. Somehow that seems quite fitting—because, after all, the real monuments to Edison's greatness are found all around us.
 We at the West Texas Utilities Company pay special tribute to his memory, for Edison founded the first business-managed electric service company 67 years ago.

This is a diesel... a modern locomotive that means better service to you.
 Leaders of two unions think it's a feather-bed... a "make work" grab that means less service to you.

Leaders of unions representing railroad engineers and firemen seek to force railroads to add extra, needless men on diesel locomotives. This is sheer waste—a "make-work" program which would mean fewer improvements and higher costs—for YOU!
 Railroads use modern diesel locomotives because they are one of the means of giving faster, better service to you.
 The men compose the crew of a diesel. They occupy a clean, comfortable cab at the front. The engineer handles the throttle. The fireman sits and watches the track ahead. With no coal to shovel, he has practically nothing else to do.
No Benefit To You
 Now the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen want to use the diesel locomotive as a means of forcing a feather-bedding scheme on the railroads. The extra men they propose to add to the diesel crews are not needed. There is no work for them.
 The union leaders are fighting among themselves about which union should furnish these extra, needless men. The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers have even threatened a strike. You may not be interested in this dispute of these two unions, but you would be vitally concerned if these groups succeed in putting through this feather-bedding scheme, because it would mean a slowing up of the improvement program of the railroads—of which the diesel is the outstanding symbol. Diesel crews are among the highest paid railroad employees—real aristocrats of labor! Their pay is high by any standard. Granting of these demands, therefore, would mean that the railroads would be paying out millions in unearned wages to those in the very highest pay brackets.

We'd Like To Spend This Money On You
 You know how much the diesel has meant to you in increased speed, comfort and convenience. The railroads have many more of them on order for even greater improvement in service to you. But needless drains of money, such as this present demand of the unions for needless men on diesel, reduce the ability of the railroads to spend money on better service for you.
 Proud as the railroads are of the diesel, it is only a small part of their improvement program. Since the War, literally billions of dollars have been spent on improvement of tracks and stations, on new passenger and freight cars, as well as on diesel locomotives, and on the many other less conspicuous details of railroading that contribute to improved service.

Feather-Bedding Means Less Service To You
 But brazen feather-bedding schemes like the one now proposed would, if successful, divert large sums of money from our present improvement programs. Even worse, they make improvements like the diesel worthless, by making the cost of their operation prohibitive. These demands are against your interests—as well as those of the railroads. They are schemes to "make work". Neither you nor the railroads should be forced to pay such a penalty for progress.
 That's why the railroads are resisting these "make work" demands to the last ditch—and why they are telling you about them.

SERVE CHERRIES IN DESSERTS THIS MONTH!
(See Recipes Below)

CHERRY FAVORITES

FOR A MONTH which is short, February has more than its quota of holidays. Just in case you're entertaining for even one of these, I've planned a number of popular desserts from which you can take your choice.

Youngsters and oldsters alike will enjoy colorful desserts whether they're for family dinner or a party. You may serve them ice cream, cake or pudding, or pie, if that's your favorite dessert, and it's bound to be a hit.

Here are a number of top-notch cherry dessert recipes which may be used during this month or any other. Starting with a cherry pie filling, you'll find that several other desserts can be made from it. Cilled cup cakes, cherry sundae topping or a cherry frozen pudding, all are made using the same, easy basic cherry sauce that is used for pie filling. The sauce may be stored in the refrigerator for later use or for quick snacks when company drops in to call.

YOU'LL FIND that canned cherries are convenient to use and somewhat lower in price than last year. The following recipes call for water-packed cherries. If you use those packed in syrup, reduce the sugar in the recipe to 1/4 cup.

All-Purpose Cherry Sauce
(Makes 2 1/2 cups)

- 1 No. 2 can red sour pitted cherries
  - 1/2 cup sugar
  - 2 tablespoons cornstarch
  - 1/4 teaspoon salt
  - 2 tablespoons butter
- Heat the drained liquid from the cherries. Combine sugar, cornstarch and salt. Sift into the boiling liquid and cook until thick and clear, stirring constantly. Remove from heat; add butter and cherries.

Cherry Pie

Fill an 8-inch baked pie shell with 2 1/2 cups of the all-purpose cherry sauce. Garnish with 3 tablespoons shredded coconut mixed with 1 tablespoon grated sharp cheese.

Cherry Sundae
(Serves 4)

1 cup all-purpose cherry sauce
1 pint ice cream
Prepare the cherry sauce. Divide the ice cream into 4 servings. Top each with cherry sauce. Serve sauce hot or cold.

Cherry Filled Cup Cakes

2 1/2 cups all-purpose cherry sauce
10 cakes
Prepare the cherry sauce. Cut off tops of cup cakes and scoop out centers. Fill with cherry sauce. Serve with vanilla-flavored whipped cream.

*Frozen Cherry Pudding
(Serves 6)

3/4 pint whipping cream
2 1/2 cups all-purpose cherry sauce
3 drops almond flavoring
Whip cream until stiff; fold in cold cherry sauce and flavoring. Pour into freezing tray of mechanical refrigerator and freeze until firm but not hard.

IF YOU'RE looking for other cherry recipes with which to celebrate any event, you'll like the following selection. The first is a delicious cookie:

Dip each in slightly beaten egg white and roll in chopped nuts. Arrange on greased baking sheet and press a piece of candied cherry in each cookie. Bake in a moderate (350° F.) oven until golden brown, about 12-15 minutes.

Bake in 2 waxed-paper lined 9-inch pans in a moderate (350° F.) oven for 30 minutes. Put layers together and frost with the following frosting and garnish with maraschino cherries.

Twice-Cooked Frosting

- 1/4 cup water
- 1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 egg whites
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Cook sugar, water and cream of tartar to soft ball stage (236° F.) Add salt to egg whites; beat until frothy. Place over hot water and gradually add sugar syrup, beating constantly. Continue beating until mixture forms peaks.

Cherry Pudding
(Serves 6-8)

- 1 quart hot milk
- 2 cups dry bread crumbs
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 4 eggs, slightly beaten
- 1 1/2 cups sugar
- 2 1/2 cups red, sour canned cherries drained

Pour the scalded milk over the bread crumbs and mix with remaining ingredients in the order given. Pour into a greased casserole and bake in a moderate (350° F.) oven for 45 minutes or until set.

If you desire a sauce for the above pudding, use the cherry juice from the canned cherries, sweeten it to taste and thicken with 2 teaspoons of cornstarch mixed with the sugar. Cook until clear and serve warm or cold.

Household
Hints

In ironing cotton sheets and pillowcases, use warm water for sprinkling because it penetrates the fabric more quickly than cold water.

Do not use too hot an iron or use too much pressure when ironing the folds of sheets. This results in weakness at the line of the folds and finally causes cracking of the sheet along these lines.

In removing stains from sheets and pillowcases, special methods should be used for the various types of stains. Lipstick usually comes out when bleached in hot, sudsy water. If it refuses to come out, the stained part should be bleached with hydrogen peroxide or Javelle water. If breakfast-in-bedders have spilled coffee or chocolate, the spots will usually wash out in hot sudsy water. To remove fruit stains, pour boiling water through the stain. If it is stubborn, bleach with hydrogen peroxide or Javelle water. To remove iron rust, apply a solution of oxalic acid and rinse thoroughly.

It is not necessary to iron Turkish towels. Ironing may mat the loops and make the towel less absorbent.

To make fudge squares uniform in size, pour the fudge in ice cube trays which have been greased with margarine. The fudge hardens quickly and each piece is uniform.

New towels should be laundered before use for better absorbency and sanitation.
