Baseball News

The Lions will play Memphis Friday night, game time 8:55. The team hopes to be at full strength and expect to take the Memphis boys. Let's go down and see how our team performs under lights.

Last week the boys lost two to Turkey there. The first one pitched by Bobby Everett lasted 10 innings with the Turks winning 11 to 10. In the second game Hedley started off with a bang making 10 runs in the first inning featured by Billy Hill's home run with the bases loaded. However Junior Hill pitching for Hedley tired and had to be replaced in the 7th inning. No other pitchers being available the players took turns on the mound and Turkey scored 16 runs and the ball game before the local boys could get them out. Final score, Turkey 30, Hedley 10.

Mrs. J. A. Moreman

Last rites for Mrs. Alice E. Moreman, 75 years old, were conducted Wednesday afternoon in the Clarendon home of her daughter, Mrs. R. S. Brumley, by Rev. John English, Methodist pastor there. Burial was in the Clarendon cemetery.

Mrs. Moreman, a Clarendon resident for the past 7 years, died Tuesday at the home of her other daughter, Mrs. Bill Ray. She had been in ill health for several years. Before moving to Clarendon Mrs. Moreman lived in Hedley 43 years. Her husband, J. A. Moreman, who died Nov. 10, 1940, was a hardware and furniture dealer in Hedley.

Besides her daughters, she is survived by two grandchildren, Carroll and Shirley Brumley of Clarendon, and three sisters, Mrs. W. W. Lindsey and Mrs. Fred Bales of Fort Worth and Mrs. J. A. Brockman of San Antonio.

Farm Bureau Queen

The Donley County Farm Bureau Queen contest went off in big style Friday night, August 26. The contest was to be held at the Lelia Lake school house but the lights failed and the entire group and all present moved to Clarendon and opened up the court house and the contest went off on schedule. H. Wood, president of the Donley County Farm Bureau, was in charge of the contest. Judges of the contestants were Mason King and David Rascoe, both of the Amarillo Globe-News. Uncle Zeb served as the person to interview each contestant to give the judges a chance to judge them.

The winner of the queen contest for Donley county was Naoma Mooring of the Midway community, second was Elba Jean Bahlew of the Sunny View community, and third was Sara Rains of Hedley. Other contestants were Eva June Broel, Margie Crofford, Catherine Usrey, Marjorie Brock and Betty Jean Poole. The winner of the contest in Donley county will go to Wellington on September 10 to compete in the district contest. Carl Cooper, district director for the Farm Bureau was also present and made a good talk on the importance of organization among farmers and legislation that would be needed in the future for a sound farm program.

Following the rehearsal for the wedding, the dinner was attended only by members of the wedding party.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chamberlain of Four Way spent the weekend in the homes of Mrs. W. M. Tipton, Mrs. C. H. Moss and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hill. They and Mrs. Tipton and her daughters Ila Faye and Winnie visited friends in Wellington and Quail and Mr. Chamberlain's grandparents in Mobeetie Thursday.

Owens-Hall Wedding

In a candlelight ceremony performed Saturday evening, August 27th, at 7 p. m., Miss Bobbie Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hall, became the bride of Sam Owens Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Owens.

Vows were exchanged before an arch decorated with wedding bells and urns filled with white gladioli against ferns and a silvery blue backdrop served as a background for the wedding ceremony.

Bro. C. W. Lisenbee, pastor of the First Baptist Church, read the double ring ceremony before the immediate families and a few friends.

Miss Joan Moreman accompanied Mrs. Hershel Swinney who sang "If I Could Tell You" by Idabelle Firestone. The "Bridal March" by Lohengrin was played. The candle lighters were Misses Willie Emma and Virginia Owens, sisters of the groom.

Mrs. Warren Baker, sister of the bride and matron of honor, wore a beige and brown suit with matching accessories. She carried an arm bouquet of Picardy gladioli. Joe Usrey of Dumas was best man.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a blue satin dress styled with a fitted bodice and flared skirt and black accessories. She carried an arm bouquet of Pink Delight roses. Her only jewelry was a necklace, a gift from the groom.

Mrs. Hall chose for her daughter's wedding a blue crepe dress with black accessories. Mrs. Owens, mother of the groom, wore a black crepe dress. Their corsages were gladioli.

Following the wedding an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. In the dining room, the cut work cloth covered the refreshment table which was centered with whitetapers in crystal candelabras. The tiered wedding cake was topped with a belfry and love birds, surrounded by white glad-florets and greenery. Mrs. Ross Adamson from Ropesville presided at the cake after the bride and groom cut the first slice. Miss Wanda Shaw presided at the punch bowl which was also surrounded by white glad-florets and greenery. Signatures of the guests were secured for the guest book by Mrs. T. E. Naylor.

The reception preceded the departure of the bride and groom for parts unknown. For travel the bride chose a navy blue wool suit with burgundy accessories and a corsage of roses.

Mrs. Owens is a graduate of Hedley High School and is attending West Texas State College at Canyon. Mr. Owens is a graduate of Hedley High School and Clarendon Junior College. He attended Texas Tech and West Texas State. After August 30th they will be at home in Canyon where both are attending school.

CRAZY WATER CRYSTALS

Deep Freeze Gifts 'Chill' Demos; Senate Kills Welfare Setup Plan; Taft Is Target of AFL Vote Drive

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.

DEEP FREEZE: Capitol 'Chilled'

To paraphrase an old tune, it was "January in June" in Washington as the story of the gifts of the home freezer units unfolded and expanded. Finally, the sordid angles of the "5 per centers" operations reached to the White House.

WITNESSES before a group probing the extent and results of "influence" obtainable by the "5 per centers" testified that of several deep freeze units given away by the manufacturers, one went to Mrs. Harry Truman, wife of the President of the United States. Others who apparently received a similar gift were Chief Justice Vinson of the U.S. supreme court, James K. Vardaman, Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan, Mr. Truman's military aide. In fact, General Vaughan got two, so the witness said.

In connection with that development, there was a question which it seemed should have been answered long ago by the man most concerned. The man was President Truman. The question was: Why hasn't the President declared that White House influence and prestige are not for sale, cannot be wheedled by favorite hangers-on, and cannot be swayed by anything except the best interests of the people of the United States? ANY FAIR-MINDED citizen will concede that there is no reason to think the acceptance of the gifts mentioned involved any law violation. Even though the company which paid the bills for the home freezers is linked with the ubiquitous John Maragon and the inquiry into the activities of "5 per centers" the mere fact of receiving personal gifts does not constitute legal offense.

In any sense of the word, it seems to be an offense against propriety. It is further evidence of a downward trend in political morals, a not too new development in these changing times. On the evidence at hand thus far, the deep freeze affair is not important—it is merely symptomatic.

ELECTIONS: Taft Is Target

The American Federation of Labor, looking to the 1950 congressional elections, set plans for raising a million dollar war chest with which to knock off candidates obnoxious to the organization. THE MILLION DOLLAR figure was the "minimum" officials said, with a voluntary contribution of $2 a head to be asked of the federation's members for work in the 1950 campaign.

It was no secret that Ohio's Senator Taft was the main target of AFL efforts, with the second target being Senator Donnell (R., Mo.) who was described by AFL's William Green as "more like Taft than anyone in the senate."

The per capita contribution. Double that of the organization for the 1948 elections, will be split evenly with the state federations whose share is to be used in working at the precinct level. AFL's election activity will have an important bearing on the future of the Republican party in the nation. For instance, if Taft should be knocked off in his race for reelection to the senate, it would mean that Dewey would remain as a top figure in the GOP hierarchy. On the other hand, if Taft should win and Dewey were defeated in a bid for his third term as New York's governor, the party would be all Taft's.

SYRIA: New Cabinet

The fighting, the blood-letting were over. Peace of a sort reigned in Syria after a lightning like army coup that overthrew and executed President Hossni Zayim. The army committee which took things into its own hands was replaced by a new coalition cabinet which was organized by Col. Sami Hennawi who headed the revolution.

IT APPEARED that civilian rule would predominate, inasmuch as the new cabinet was composed mostly of civilians. The new government represented three political parties and various independent groups that opposed both Zayim and the constitutional regime which fell last March.

The premier is Hashim El Atasy, head of the national bloc and a former president of Syria.

TOO MUCH WHEAT? Problem of Farm Price Support Mounting

It might be an unpleasant task, but an inescapable one—the demand for wheat was falling off. That was the conclusion of the National Industrial Conference Board. This organization reported that total domestic consumption for the year beginning July was expected to be lower than at any time since 1941.

Slim Pickings

It will be slim pickings for holdup men who go after Frank B. Tippins' store in Miami. Twice within one month hold-up men came and got a total of $513. Smartened up now, Tippins will no longer be a lure for robbers.

WELFARE: No Cabinet Status

The senate was having none of President Truman's proposal for creation of a federal department of welfare with cabinet status. A coalition of Republicans and southern Democrats dealt the project a pulverizing blow by a vote of 60 to 32.

WITH a constitutional majority in either house able to veto any such plan, the senate action meant complete and final defeat of the plan to transform the federal security agency, which handles the nation's education, health, and social security functions, into a department of welfare.

This proposal stemmed from the recommendations of the Hoover commission which spent two years seeking ways and means to make government more efficient and economical.

OHIO'S Republican Senator Taft, denying the Republicans were repudiating Hoover in opposing a plan they believed ran counter to the Hoover commission recommendations, declared:

"I believe very strongly that Mr. Hoover was misled." This led Senator Lucas, Illinois, Democratic floor leader, to state that he was both "shocked and surprised that the good Republican from Ohio would deal with Mr. Hoover in this manner."

'THOUGHT' LAW: Held Too Broad

The fallacy of attempting to deal with ideologies through laws has been highlighted by a Maryland circuit judge. The judge, Joseph Sherbow of Baltimore, ruled that the state cannot punish a person for what that person thinks.

The opinion was given in a case involving a state law against people who join or work with subversive organizations. It was the first courts test of the new law that required loyalty oaths by public employees and candidates for office.

"The supreme court," Judge Sherbow said in his opinion, "has made it clear that laws may punish acts and conduct which clearly, seriously and imminently threaten substantive evils.

"They (the laws) may not intrude into the realm of ideas, religious and political beliefs, and opinions. The law deals with overt acts, not thoughts. It may punish for acting, but not for thinking."

The law which Judge Sherbow tossed out did not specifically ban the Communist party. Its preamble said communism is a dangerous, world-wide conspiracy that fits the definition of subversive activity. Anything that aims at the overthrow of this government by force was deemed subversive.

Justice Sherbow said the law was too general. Declaring it violated the first, fifth and 14th amendments to the constitution, and Maryland's declaration of rights, he added:

"As stated by Justice Jackson (in a West Virginia case before the supreme court): 'If there is any fixed star in our constitutional constellation, it is that no official, high or petty, can prescribe what shall be orthodox in politics, nationalism, religion or other matters of opinion, or force citizens to confess by word or act their faith therein.'"

BARKLEY: "Much Ado . . ."

Although he had declared it was "much ado about nothing," the nation wasn't dismissing Vice-President Barkley's seeming romance with a pretty 37-year old widow so lightly.

RECEIVING almost as much publicity as the Rita Hayworth-Aly Khan love story, Barkley's attentions to Mrs. Carlton S. Hadley, St. Louis, was second only to the "5 per center" probe as a topic of national speculation.

The "Veep"—as Barkley likes to be called—didn't seem too distressed by all the furore. He was smilingly posing with the widow for pictures; he had taken her to "meet the folks" in his home town of Paducah, Ky., and he had squired her to some baseball games and social affairs.

WOULD HE and the widow get married? Most folks seemed to think so. And, if that were current opinion, it was touched off by the "Veep" himself. Newspaper readers would remember that, crowning a beauty queen at Culpepper, Virginia, Barkley had declared that one day he would crown a "queen" of his own. The fact that later, at Paducah, he referred to his granddaughter as being the "queen" to whom he referred, few people believed him.

MacARTHUR: Problem for Truman

No matter how the Truman administration plays it, Gen. Douglas MacArthur is a tremendous public relations problem.

THE GENERAL has twice declined the invitation to appear before senate committees, the second refusal being in connection with a bid to come home and tell a probe group what he thinks about the Chinese situation. The general replied that he thought he could do better staying in Japan.

Of course, President Truman could order the general home, but if he did so, and MacArthur accepted the order, both the White House and the state department would be in a constant case of jitters over what the 60-year-old prima donna might say in speeches throughout the country.

If the President chooses not to order the general home, then his critics will have fuel for added clamor that MacArthur is being isolated and persecuted.

APPARENTLY, no one seems to know the procedure in the event MacArthur refused to come home if ordered. There seems to be a prevalent conviction that MacArthur can stay in Japan forever, if he so chooses.

There are those who say for the general to make that decision would be a typical MacArthur gesture and that it would fit superbly with his fine sense of the dramatic.

STALIN: Very "Courteous"

The delayed report on how U. S. Ambassador Alan Kirk made out with Russia's Joe Stalin in a talk in Moscow held nothing more important than Kirk's report that the Soviet ruler was very "courteous and pleasant." However, anyone who might have expected anything else was indulging in wishful thinking.

SOME EXCITEMENT was stimulated by Kirk's refusal to comment immediately upon his interview with Stalin. He told reporters following the conference that he'd have something to say later.

The ambassador, a retired admiral and former envoy to Belgium, held the first meeting with Stalin that any American official had had in nearly a year. He described his visit to Stalin as a "courtesy call."

In for Year

Seeking to win a bet of $1,000 against $25,000, Don Haynes, Ashland, Ore., is to spend a year in this deluxe car. He made the bet with rancher D. M. Mauldin, a neighbor. The year will be up next February. Haynes holds a girl's picture he found in the road and she was to be given a new car if she identifies herself.

SAILORS: Pockets, Mac!

The navy has relented at last. Harkening to a complaint stemming from 1797, the seagoing branch of Uncle Sam's forces has promised sailors they'll have pockets in their pants—but not until June, 1952. But, having waited this long, sailors could wait two more years. And that wasn't all. Promised was elimination of the front on sailors' trousers and "with a zipper."

Benzedrine Banned

THE HALT of America's new dope craze when manufacturers withdrew benzedrine inhalers from the market was the culmination of a long publicity campaign by Drew Pearson.

Working with Congressman George Grant of Montgomery, Ala., Pearson published a series of columns and broadcasts beginning last February, which pointed to the manner in which prison inmates, dope addicts and even high-school children were tearing the benzedrine-treated paper from the inhalers and using it as a cheap dope. Simultaneously, Rep. Grant introduced a bill banning the inhalers.

Final result came when manufacturers stopped the sale of benzedrine inhalers. Instead they will sell benzedrex, a new inhaler containing a non-stimulating compound.

Diplomats Worried

One thing the Senate investigating subcommittee is likely to avoid in its probe of Messrs. Vaughan and Maragon is the part they may have played in influencing the Truman doctrine for Greece.

IT seems inconceivable that an ex-Greek federal narcotics agent from Kansas City should have had anything to do with U. S. foreign relations. Yet it happens that members of the Greek embassy in Washington are now as jittery as sunflowers in a Kansas cyclone for fear their relations with John Maragon will be probed by the senate.

Every administration has its hangers-on, who love to bask in the limelight of the White House. But no administration since Warren Harding's day has had the benefit of such a weird and apparently influential character as General Vaughan's so-called "Greek adviser," John Maragon.

Maragon's Record

District of Columbia's police records show that Maragon once pled guilty of transporting liquor (7/17/20), was three times arrested for disorderly conduct but never prosecuted, and once got into a brawl in the locker room of the Washington Senators where some of the ball players threatened to beat him up.

Maragon also got into a fist fight with Don Watson, chief of the state department's transportation section at the United Nations convention at San Francisco; was fired by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad; got into a street scuffle with Brig. Gen. Wm. L. Lee in Rome, Italy; was found to be distributing anti-Semitic literature at the Democratic convention in Philadelphia last year; and was questioned in the death of police detective Arthur Scrivner in 1926, one of Washington's most mysterious homicide cases. Maragon established an alibi and later married the girl whom Scrivner was scheduled to marry one day after his death.

Yet, on top of all this, the amazing Maragon turned up at the White House 30 minutes after President Roosevelt died to console President Truman, accompanied the Roosevelt funeral train to Hyde Park; showed up at the Stalin-Churchill conference in Potsdam, was the proud possessor of a White House pass, flabbergasted the admirals by accompanying Truman on the presidential destroyer during the Navy Day fleet review in New York, sat next to the President's box with General Vaughan during the Army-Navy game, and even had a private compartment on the special train that carried the President to the game.

Maragon's influence with his old friend, Harry Truman, has been on the wane since first exposed in this column two years ago. But his influence with Harry Vaughan appears just as strong as ever. When Maragon wants to see the president's military aide, he goes to the east wing of the White House.

Truman Doctrine

Maragon's influence was near its zenith in the winter of 1947 when the famous Truman doctrine for aid to Greece was formulated.

That the amazing Maragon directly inspired Greek policy is doubtful. That he and Vaughan influenced it indirectly is more than probable.

The Truman doctrine for Greece, it will be recalled, was announced in March, 1947, shortly after Jimmie Byrnes retired as secretary of state. One of the things Gen. Vaughan constantly needed Truman about was that Byrnes was too much his own boss, that people talked on the "Byrnes policy," not the "Truman policy," and that Truman should get more credit for directing foreign affairs.

That doctrine, which has now cost us a billion dollars, was precipitated when the British notified they were pulling out of Greece.

SCHOOL age is a wonderful period... when life is an unending voyage of discovery. But a dangerous age, because young eyes must keep up with inquisitive young minds, and three-fourths of all a child learns must come to him through his eyes!

Many children do their lessons reluctantly partly because of the difficulty of trying to study under poor lights. See that your children study under properly placed, glareless, shadowless light... use bulbs of the proper size... ask West Texas Utilities Lighting Advisors for advice on better light for better sight.

Kidneys Must Work Well-

For You To Feel Well

24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly. Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling. Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.

TESTED MEAT RECIPES

ROAST LOIN OF PORK

Have backbone loosened from ribs so that carving will be easy. Season with salt and pepper and place with the fat side up, bones down, in an open roasting pan. Make an incision and insert a meat thermometer so that the center of the bulb reaches the center of the fleshiest part of the meat. Put the roast in a moderate oven (325° F.) and cook without covering and without adding water. It will be done when the meat thermometer registers 185° F. Allow about 40 min. per lb. for roasting. Make a gravy from part of the drippings and season it with sage. Serves 3 to the pound.

Recommendations for Home Freezing for 1949

Recommended by the Committee on Food Preservation of the Texas State Nutrition Council

I. Uniformity of Freezing procedures: Distribution of uniformly dependable information on freezing based on the latest research findings will help to get better quality frozen food. To this end, it is recommended that the heads of all agencies encourage coordinated program between education groups, locker managers and distributors of homefreezing equipment.

II. Recommendations for home freezing:

A. Procedure prior to freezing:
1. High quality raw fruits and raw vegetables of suitable varieties quickly and properly processed give assurance of good quality if used in a reasonable length of time. Only fresh poultry, meat and fish of high quality should be frozen.

Prepared raw mixtures and cooked foods may be frozen also. They have a future but too little work on them has been done to make specific recommendations at present.

2. Preparation: Prepare foods properly to retain fresh flavor and texture. Not enough is known about freezing to recommend official guides to home freezing, but suggested references on procedure of preparing food for freezing are as follows:

- a. Bulletins
 1. Preparation of Vegetables for Freezing," Texas Extension Service, C-257
 2. "Preparation of Fruits for Freezing," C-258
 3. "Chicken in the Freezer," U. S. D. A. AIS-74
 4. "Home Freezing of Fruits and Vegetables," U. S. D. A., AIS-48

b. Films

1. "Freezing Fruits and Vegetables," 16 mm., sound, in color, running time 18 minutes (Produced by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, 1946)

2. "Freezing Fruits and Vegetables at Home" 16 mm., sound, in color, running time 22 minutes. (Produced by Extension Service, Cornell University, 1946)

3. Packaging: air-tight, moisture-proof, vapor-proof packages are essential. Any practical package or container that will exclude air and is impervious to moisture will serve this purpose, such as aluminum foil, ployfilm, moisture-vapor-proof cellophane, glass freezer jars and freezer cartons treated with plastic or wax.

4. Labeling: The box number, name of the owner, the name of the product and the date frozen are important details for every label. It is also valuable to note the variety of vegetable or fruit, the kind of pack and any other special information on each package. A china pencil or crayola will help in labeling waxed cartons Hedley Homemaking Dept. Mrs. Edna Lee Brown
