

Bull Town Bulletins

By Bill Ellis

THOSE OF US WHO HAVE been diagnosed as having high cholesterol counts, high blood pressure, and high waist lines have learned the hard way about nutritional values and fat content of certain foods (or at least our chief cooks have), and we have taken measures to try to help our bodies reach "threescore and ten," or retirement age, or whatever age-level we as individuals set for ourselves.

What really gripes the poop out of Ye Editor is the fact that I've never smoked or drank, and those are the two habits that doctors mention on your first visit, that you definitely need to cut out.

I've not done either one, and yet I find myself with a less than Grecian physique, and certain parts are beginning to wear out much earlier than I had intended them to. What would have happened if I had chain-smoked, been a booze-guzzler, etc. I suppose this column would have been written this week by some other writer.

It makes you wonder, with my track record, why you'd want to bother with cutting out your eggs and bacon, most good meat dishes, all of your favorite dairy products, etc. But hopefully, if it will help you gain a year or two on "staying alive," then perhaps it's worth it.

If you haven't checked product labels to find out an item's ingredients, you really ought to do so occasionally. It might make you wonder why you're putting certain things into your body!

Having been on a non-caffeine diet for the past two or three years, we've pretty well got the drink situation figured out. At least we thought we had. One of the soft drinks we have gravitated to is the Minute Maid orange soda, which comes in cans, or from fountains, such as at some Allsup's stores.

This orange drink has become a substitute for Ye Editor's coffee. It has worked pretty well, is completely caffeine free and tastes good.

However, we found out this week that all orange sodas aren't made from the same recipe. While visiting an Amarillo hospital, we couldn't find our Minute Maid can, but a vending machine had a Sunkist orange, and we thought this should be close enough.

While guzzling the last drink, my good eye settled on the ingredient list on the side of the can. Imagine my surprise when caffeine was listed on this particular brand! Why does an orange drink need caffeine?? It also contained ester of wood resin, and upon checking my Minute Maid can, it also contains the resin. What does my body need with resin?? And is it possibly worse for me than the caffeine?

The Minute Maid also contains a couple of ingredients known as "Red 40" and "Yellow 6," and we have no earthly idea what these are. We'll probably be warned in the near future that one of these, or both, may have caused cancer in laboratory mice. (Has anyone ever checked the hereditary situation with these lab mice??)

Another check of the label revealed that there is no mention whatsoever of orange juice or concentrate in this product, although it is masquerading as orange soda. You'd think they would have at least swished the mixture around in a vat that at one time contained orange juice, but apparently not.

Pick up almost any can of Campbell's soup and scan the label, and you'll find among the not-so-appetizing list "monosodium glutamate." If you have seen any of the news-magazine type shows in the last year or so, you should recognize this ingredient as the worst possible for you, particularly if you need to limit your sodium intake.

When making soup at the plant they add the MSG by the vat-full. It is termed a "flavor enhancer."

New cans of soup are appearing on your grocer's shelves, without the MSG, but as luck would have it, these cans without the bad ingredient cost more than the ones with it. Our number 1 son was a math major, and even he can't help us with this equation.

Food Flies As Train Derails Near Bovina

Once again, Parmer County became the host of a Santa Fe Railway mishap when a train derailed approximately five miles northeast of Bovina around 5:15 a.m. on Friday, June 17.

Unlike the rash of railroad accidents in the area last year, there were no injuries reported with the latest derailment, and the train was not hauling any hazardous materials, according to Linda Gustis, a Santa Fe Railway spokeswoman.

The train left Richmond, California and was enroute to Streator, Illinois, before the accident left potatoes, carrots, canned goods, wine and ketchup scattered across the area known as Parmerton Hill. According to Wayne Beighle, public information officer of Amarillo's Department of Public Safety, "It was like a big Caesar salad all mixed up in the bar ditch."

The pileup involved two of the four engines and 22 of the original 53 cars. "Eighteen of the cars were just stacked on top of one another. So it took a little while to clean everything up," Gustis said.

Friena Police Chief John Taylor, who visited the site early last Friday, agreed that the area was a bit untidy: "There were cars ripped open, and cans and vegetables were scattered around."

In spite of the damage, most of the mess was cleared away and the track functional by midafternoon on Friday.

The tracks and one lane of U.S. Highway 60 were closed temporarily due to the accident.

The cause of the incident was still under investigation at press time, and the specific cause had not been determined.

The Texas Department of Public Health condemned all the damaged food.

Accident Takes Life Of Pleasant Hill Youth

By Karla Dial
Clovis News-Journal

Pleasant Hill farmer James Burford spent Father's Day in Lubbock, standing by his son's hospital bed.

Seventeen-year-old Adam Burford accidentally was shot in the head with a .22-caliber pistol Friday night while playing with his brother and a friend, neighbors said. He apparently tripped and fell while holding the gun, which fired.

A University Medical center spokesperson had said Sunday that Burford was "very critical" with chances of survival "almost nil."

Burford died at 8:45 a.m. Monday, June 20, a hospital spokesperson said.

According to a Curry County Sheriff's Department report, Burford was shooting rabbits in a pit behind his home with two other boys at the time of the accident. Burford was transported to Plains Medical/Clovis, but was airlifted to University Medical Center in Lubbock.

Burford was involved in Future Farmers of America for three years at Texico High School. He was vice president of his chapter as well as president of the Curry County 4-H Council this past year, and played football for the Wolverines.

Fireworks Are Planned

The Bovina Chamber of Commerce is planning a July 4th celebration beginning at 8 p.m. on Monday, July 4 at the Bovina High School Football Field.

The Chamber of Commerce will be selling soft drinks and homemade ice cream.

To complete the evening of Independence Day, there will be a fireworks display put on by the Bovina Fire Department.

Playnights Begin Soon

The Friena Riding Club will start the summer Playnights, Saturday, July 9 at 7 p.m. These Playnights will be held at the Friena Club Arena west of town.

The Playnights will run six weeks. There will be five events--barrel race, flag race, poles, stakes, and rings with three age groups: 9 and under, 10-14 and 15-18.

Last year, there were contestants from Broadview, New Mexico; Muleshoe and Hereford, as well as the Parmer County communities.

There is no entry fee for contestants.

He would have been a senior this fall.

The tragedy struck at a critical time for members of the Burford family, who have farmed in the Pleasant Hill area for more than 40 years. While James, his wife Robin, and children Lindsay, 14, and Ross, 11, stood watch at Adam's bedside, 25 of their friends and neighbors dropped their plans for the day to harvest 300 acres of the Burfords' wheat crop.

"You see those clouds?" asked close neighbor Nancy Barnes, pointing upward. "In 10 or 15 minutes they could turn into a hailstorm and wipe everything out."

The harvesters pooled their equipment and efforts to gather the grain in a single day, using a total of six combines, two grain carts and several trucks to finish the job--about $1 million worth of equipment in all. Many of the workers neglected their own harvests, which were equally susceptible to the possible storms, to help the Burfords.

"There's a lot of us that need to be cutting our own stuff, but we just cut loose to do this," Justin Barnes, 24, said, adding that more people showed up to help than were necessary to run the equipment.

The project was launched Saturday night when Jerry Martin and Ted Richardson first heard about the shooting. Richardson, who works with the Pleasant Hill Fire Department, said he learned of the shooting when he heard the ambulance dispatch. The next day, he said, he called everyone he could think of who had equipment to help harvest the wheat.

"We don't have any skills as far as doctoring," he said, "but we have the equipment and figured we could do this to kind of take the stress off of them."

Working from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., the harvesters brought in 558,340 pounds of wheat Sunday, a spokesperson for Sherley Grain Co. at Pleasant Hill said.

Leon Kelley, who has farmed near the Burfords for years, was on hand for Sunday's harvest.

"We can do this and they won't have to worry about this stuff out here," he said, sighing. "They've got plenty to worry about in Lubbock."

Blood Bank Takes Local Donations

The Coffee Memorial Blood Center will be in Bovina at the Ambulance Center on Monday, June 27 from 4:30-6:30 p.m.

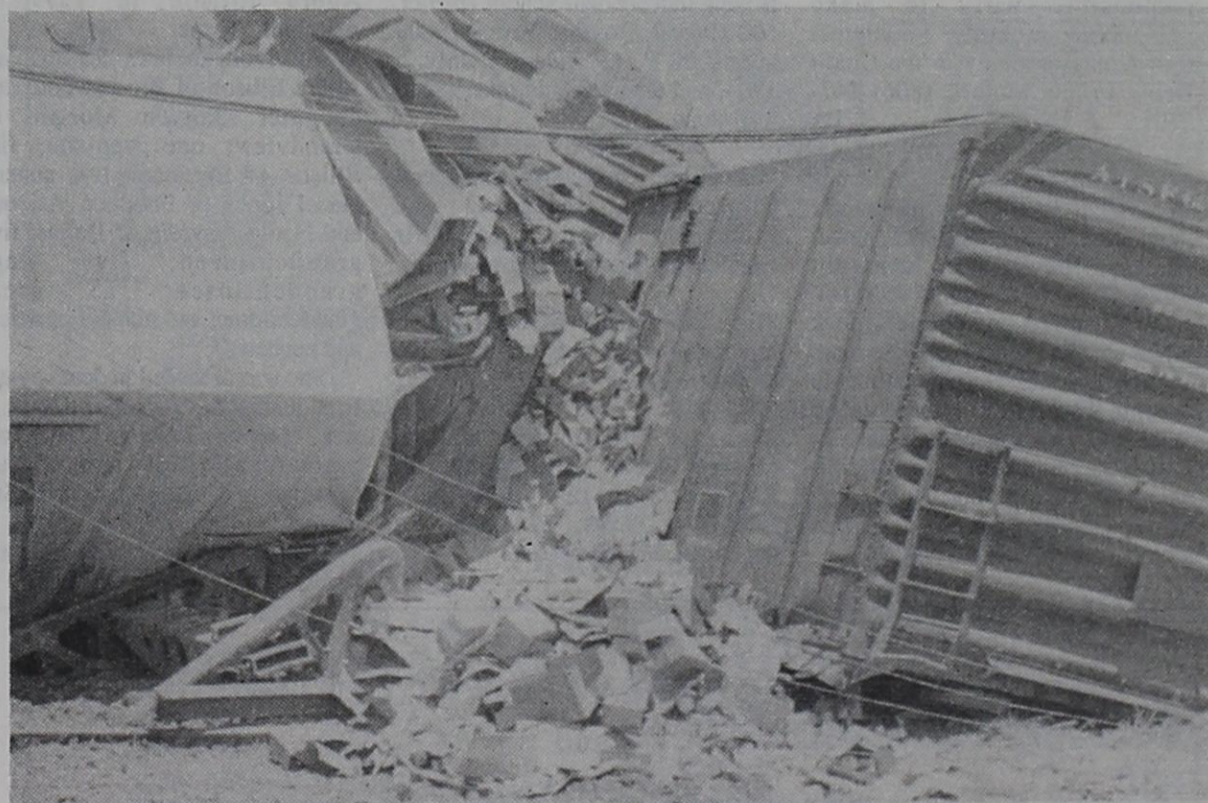

Blood donations are needed. They have a summer storage and would like to encourage everyone possible to come by and donate the "gift of life."

TRAIN DERAILMENT....These are scenes from the derailment on the Santa Fe Railway tracks between Friena and Bovina early last Friday morning. Two engines and 22 cars derailed, but there were no injuries to the Santa Fe employees manning the train. (Photos by Lisa McLellan)

ACCIDENT SCENE...Potatoes were on top, inside, underneath and all around the Santa Fe derailment site on Friday, June 17, northeast of Bovina. The food products spilled in the wreckage were condemned by the Texas Department of Public Health.

STEEL ACCORDIAN...Eighteen boxcars were crumpled and scattered, spilling out their contents following a railway accident last week. No injuries were reported as a result of the accident. One lane of U.S. Hwy. 60, in addition to the tracks, was closed temporarily.

Wheat Harvest Underway

Wheat harvest has gotten underway in the Bovina area, and a better than average yield is anticipated.

"The irrigated crop is doing much better than we expected. The rains came at just the right time to help the yield," said Harry Johnson of Sherley Grain Co.

Dryland wheat will possibly see crops from "not worth cutting" to fairly decent. One example of a good yield was a field belonging to Kenneth Johnson, which yielded 34 bushels to the acre on a 62-acre patch.

"That was an exceptional field of dryland wheat," Johnson said.

Kenneth Johnson had the first load of wheat in Bovina for 1994, when he brought an 11,440-pound load to Sherley Grain on June 13.

Don Teague delivered the first load to Sherley Grain's Pleasant Hill location on June 14, a 32,560-pound load.

Sherley Grain awards $50 checks to the farmers harvesting the first loads of grain each season.

Some farmers had the bad luck of losing their wheat crops with harvest just around the corner. From three to four sections were hailed out in last month's storm between Bovina and Hub.

Scooter's Scoops

By Scooter Russell

Much more rain is needed but we did receive twenty-nine hundredths of an inch since last week's paper....Wheat harvest is underway, even though it isn't as good as we always want it to be. Harry at the elevator said farmers were about forty per cent through cutting and so far the price was a little better than last year. He also said this is one of those years that it's hard to guess but he thought that the best irrigated wheat is yet to be harvested. Perhaps this weekend or the beginning of next week will end wheat harvest in most parts.

Scott Rundell, 15 year old son of Kim Rundell of Bovina and Nancy Orman of Clovis, is an accomplished golfer. He was one of the top finishers in each flight in the Sun Country PGA Section Junior Golf Tournament played Tuesday of last week at Colonial Park Country Club. Within the respective age brackets, Scott Rundell shot the lone state tournament qualifying score, which was 74.2.

His mom was telling me he played in the City Championship in Clovis over the weekend and scored sixth overall. Top score was 141 and he scored 149. Scott's grandparents are Ed and Alta Hutto of Clovis and former residents. Scott was fifteen years old this week. Sounds like he could have a bright future ahead of him in golf.

Herman Estes of Coleman is back in the hospital. His daughter

Suezy Smith is with him. Suezy and Billy were in Coleman but Billy came home.

Jack and Ona Patterson's daughter, Sandy, has been in Bovina visiting with her parents and attended church with them on Sunday. Sandy lives in Amarillo.

Frances Willard went to Lubbock and kept grandkids for a few days. They are Taylor, 2 and twins, Zachary and Bryce who are nine months old. The children's parents are Karl and Beverly Willard. They went to Dallas for a few days and celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary. Accompanying Frances were her other two grandsons, Josh and Jeremy Willard of Bovina. They all had a good time together.

Joe Looney enjoyed a visit from her grandson, Kraton, who lives in Ft. Worth and came through this area. He is a trucker.

Pat Kunselman had a good Father's Day with all of his children with him in Bovina. His son, Rick came from El Paso, where he's been working but his home is in Killeen. Vicki and family came from Flagg and son Arty and family came from Spearman.

Arlene McCallum went to Ceta Canyon near Happy and worked with the mentally retarded adults at the Methodist Camp for five days. She said they spent the time with cookouts, dances, arts and crafts, hiking, and had a worship trail where they acted out scriptures. One day they hiked to Ceta Glen which is a Presbyterian camp and they hosted an ice cream treat for the group of eighty people. Arlene has been going to the camp each summer for the past fifteen years, with the exception of last year.

The graduating class of 1974 will soon be having their class reunion on July 2 and at that time they will have a picnic for the entire family and a dinner at the Clovis Country Club for adults that night. They need to know if you can come so give them a call. Nancy Orman can be reached at the Citizen's Bank, 505-769-1911 or Heidi Corn Taylor at Amarillo 354-8955. All ex-students are welcome to come or anyone interested in seeing the group.

Esther Steelman and Gilda Garner have enjoyed having their

Bovinan's Relatives Rites Held

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Aubra Ellison, 82, of Brownwood on Tuesday, June 21, 1994 at Davis-Morris Funeral Home Chapel in Abilene with Rev. Wayne Horton officiating.

Burial and graveside services were at Cedar Hill Cemetery in Abilene under the direction of Davis-Morris Funeral Home.

Mrs. Ellison passed away on Sunday, June 19, 1994 at 5:36 p.m. at Brownwood Regional Medical Center.

Ellison was born on September 7, 1911 in Snyder, Texas. She lived 17 years in Brownwood. She was a retired school teacher and a Church of Christ. She married Aubra Ellison in 1977 at Arlington, Texas.

Survivors include her husband Aubra Ellison of Brownwood; one daughter, Janyce Morgan of Grandview; one step-son, Jim Ellison of Brenham; two sisters, Hazel Jones of Phoenix, Arizona and Neola Fonder of Dallas; five grandchildren; five step-grandchildren; 13 great grandchildren; and number of neices and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her first husband, Vernon Lobban, a son Vernon Lobban, Jr., two brothers, Carroll and Martin Eastman and a step-daughter, Sue Rogers.

She was the late Buck Ellison's sister-in-law.

Happy Homemaker

By JUNE FLOYD

By JUNE FLOYD
Happy homemakers do a lot of interesting things besides cook and most of them have several recipes for inedible concoctions, which they rely on when they want to amuse their small children or grandchildren.

When children are small it seems they are very anxious to "help out" regardless of what project an adult is working on. This interest can lead to many pleasurable hours spent with pre-school agers.

This week we are printing some of my favorites, which have been collected down through the years. Of course, there are some ingredients, like turpentine and kerosene, which were staple farm home items when I was younger and when my children were growing up that may be hard to come by now.

SECRET INK

Dip pen into the juice of a lemon and write your message. To make it appear, heat the paper slowly over a hot light bulb. (In today's world, finding a writing pen might present a major problem. However in my pre-school days, finding a light bulb would have been more difficult. When my children were small, we had both.)

FLOUR PASTE

- 1 cup boiling water
- 1 tablespoon powdered alum
- 2 cups flour
- 2 cups cold water
- 1 teaspoon oil of cloves

Add powdered alum to boiling water. Mix flour and cold water until smooth and pour mixture gradually into boiling alum water. Cook until mixture has bluish color, stirring constantly. Remove from fire. Add oil of cloves and stir well. Keep in air tight jars. Thin with water when needed. (Oil of cloves is available at most drug stores now, but in the twenties, rural families kept a good supply for relief from toothache.)

SOAP SNOW

Put equal parts of liquid starch and soap flakes--not detergent or granulated soap--in large bowl. Whip, preferably with electric beater, until stiff as beaten egg whites. Apply with brush or fingers.

SALT AND FLOUR CLAY

Merely mix equal parts of flour and salt with enough water to make stiff dough. Add food coloring to the mixture or paint projects with tempera.

This mixture may be kept in a tightly closed container from one visit from the grandchildren to the next without refrigeration.

DETERGENT-STARCH MODELING

- 2 cups detergent
- 1 cup liquid starch

Food coloring

Mix all ingredients together and beat until the consistency of cake frosting. If it is too dry, add a little water. This mixture is well suited for applying to paper plates, tin cans and bottles or as a mortar-like substance for embedding stones, beads or sequins.

FINGER PAINTS

- 3 tablespoons sugar
- 1/2 cup cornstarch
- 2 cups cold water
- Food coloring or poster paint

Combine ingredients in saucepan and place over low flame. Stir constantly until mixture thickens to consistency of the white of an egg.

Divide mixture into several portions and add different colors to each.

STAMP PAD LEAF IMPRINTS

Lay a leaf with the vein side down on a stamp pad. Place a piece of newspaper over the leaf and rub firmly and evenly. Lift leaf and place on a piece of plain white paper. Cover with a clean piece of newspaper and rub again being careful not to let the leaf slip. Let dry before touching. For a multi-color effect, rub part of the leaf on a red stamp pad and part of it on a stamp pad of another color.

GLYCERIN-SOAP BUBBLES

For more durable bubble blowing, mix together and let cool: 2 tablespoons detergent--not soap 1 cup hot water 1 tablespoon glycerin

Food coloring

Bovinan's Mother Is Buried

Services for Clio Phillips Jolly, 88, of Plainview were held on Wednesday, June 22 in Lemons Funeral Home Memorial Chapel with the Rev. Jeff Taylor, pastor of St. Matthews United Methodist Church in Lubbock, officiating. The Rev. Steve Venable, pastor of Bovina First United Methodist Church, assisted.

Burial took place in Plainview memorial Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Jolly died Monday, June 20, 1994, in Prairie Acres Nursing Home in Friona.

She was born on February 25, 1906, in Cookville. She married J. Jolly on May 21, 1927, in Plainview. He died on April 21, 1985. She graduated from Thalia High School and attended West Texas Normal College in Canyon. She taught school in Halfway, Olton, Running Water and Snyder. The couple moved in 1977 to Plainview, where she was a member of First United Methodist Church, Hooten-Dean Sunday School Class and United Methodist Women. She was a member of the Snyder Home Demonstration Club, Women's Club, Women's Forum, XYZ Club and Senior Citizens. She moved to Friona in 1993.

Survivors include a daughter, Charlene Grissom of Bovina; a sister, Della White of Albuquerque, New Mexico; four grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

The family suggests memorials to Plainview First United Methodist Church, Cal Farley's Boys Ranch, Girlstown or to a favorite charity.

Child Safety Seminar Set

Summertime is a prime time for accidents. A majority of accidents happen to children while school is out for the summer.

Emergency rooms report a sharp increase in the number of child emergencies handled during the summer season. This seminar will help young parents know how to prevent accidents and how to best handle emergencies when they happen.

A child health and safety seminar will be held in the Friona State Bank Community Room on Tuesday, June 28 from 7-9 p.m. This seminar is free to the public.

The seminar is sponsored by the Parmer County Extension Home Economics Committee. Topics covered will include: Child Proofing Your Home, First Aid For Children and Surviving While Mom's Away.

Call the Parmer County Extension office at 481-3619 by Friday, June 24 to reserve your seat at the seminar.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

SIMON CALLED PETER!

PETROS, OR PETER, IS THE GREEK TRANSLATION OF THE ARAMAIC "CEPHAS" (A STONE, OR ROCK). THIS IS THE NAME WHICH JESUS OF NAZARETH BESTOWED UPON SIMON ON HIS FIRST MEETING (JOHN 1:42). THE PROPHETIC MEANING OF THIS NAME WAS AFTERWARDS RECOGNIZED BY THE OTHER APOSTLES (MATT. 16:18,19). SIMON, OR PETER, WAS THE SON OF A MAN NAMED JONA (MATT. 16:17), A HUMBLE FISHERMAN, WHO FOLLOWED HIS TRADE ON THE SEA OF GALILEE. PETER, WITH ANDREW, HIS BROTHER, FOLLOWED IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF THEIR FATHER AND THEY ALL HAD A PARTNERSHIP IN A FISHING BOAT WITH THE SONS OF ZEBEDEE, JAMES AND JOHN, AND ZEBEDEE, HIMSELF. AT THE TIME OF HIS FIRST MEETING WITH JESUS, PETER WAS A NATIVE OF BETHSAIDA, LATER, HE LIVED WITH HIS FAMILY IN CAPERNAUM. IT IS INTERESTING TO NOTE THAT JESUS PICKED MEN OF A HUMBLE STATION IN LIFE TO BE HIS FOLLOWERS AND DISCIPLES. IN FACT, IT IS RECORDED IN THE ACTS (ACTS 4:13) THAT PETER AND JOHN WERE "...UNLEARNED AND IGNORANT MEN..." YET THEY COULD SWAY CROWDS WITH THEIR RHETORIC, LOGIC, AND COMPLETE UNDERSTANDING OF SUBJECTS THAT ONLY EDUCATED MEN WERE SUPPOSED TO HAVE! OF COURSE, THE FACT THAT THEY GAINED THEIR LEARNING AT THE FEET OF JESUS, SERVED TO GUIDE THEM AS THEY CONFRONTED HOSTILE PRIESTS, OR WITLESS LISTENERS, TO THEIR TRUTHS! FROM THE FIRST, PETER'S ARDOR, HIS COURAGE AND VIGOR MARKED HIM AS THE ULTIMATE LEADER OF THE DISCIPLES! AND CERTAINLY, DURING THE EARLY YEARS OF LEADERSHIP IN THE CHURCH, PETER WELL JUSTIFIED HIS NAME, "THE ROCK," WHICH JESUS HAD GIVEN HIM!

In a candlelight ceremony at Calvary Baptist Church at 2 p.m. Saturday, June 4, Heather Smith became the bride of Jeff Schueler, both of Friona.

Parents of the couple are Doris Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schueler.

The double ring vows were read by Rev. Vergil Ichtertz, pastor of the church, before an altar bedecked with peonies and ivy. A heart shaped candleabra entwined with peonies and tulle bows on either side of the altar and a unity candle in the center back completed the decorations. Family pews were marked with hot pink, mauve and teal green bows.

Wedding music was provided by Juanelle Jordan, organist.

The soloist, Glenna Holt, cousin of the bride, sang George Strait's "I Cross My Heart." This was followed by the Firehouse rendition of "When I Look Into Your Eyes."

As the bride was escorted to the altar and presented in marriage by her uncle, Ira Holt, she wore a formal length wedding gown of white bridal satin, alencon lace and net. It was designed with a lace covered fitted bodice, which ended in points in the front and back and was re-embroidered with pearls and sequins. A bouffant satin bow marked the back waistline.

The pleated skirt fell to a cathedral length train, which was enhanced with lace appliques re-embroidered with sequins and pearls. The long fitted sleeves were pleated at the top and ended in points over her hands. Her tulle shoulder length veil was attached to a circlet of flowers sprinkled with pearls and sequins.

She carried a bouquet of white miniature rose interspersed with ivy and stephanotis and tied with love knots.

Misty Baxter was the maid of honor. Other attendants were Jo Osborn, sister of the groom, and Alicia Smith, sister of the bride.

They wore identically designed tea length dresses of floral polished cotton designed with pleated skirts, fitted bodices which ended in points and were enhanced with self fabric bows in the back.

They carried bouquets of hot pink roses and white rosebuds tied with hot pink, mauve and teal green satin ribbons.

Carrie Ferguson of Amarillo, daughter of Gary and Christy Ferguson and cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. The candlelighter was Christy Holt of Muleshoe. They wore dresses designed similar to the ones won by the other bridal attendants.

The ring bearer was Brian Stover of Lubbock, son of Brad and Carrie Stover and nephew of the groom.

John Schlenker of Canyon, cousin of the groom, was the best man. Groomsmen were Glen Schueler and Mike Schueler of Edmond, Oklahoma, brothers of the groom.

Guests were seated by Robert Osborn of Friona and Brad Stover of Lubbock, brothers-in-law of the groom.

Guests were registered by Amy Taylor of Friona.

Special guests were Mrs. Ella Stehr of Hereford, grandmother of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. V.M. Ferguson of Friona, grandparents of the bride.

Other out-of-town guests included Amy Kelley of Edmond, Oklahoma; Ron and Susan Embers of Hutchinson, Kansas; Sarah Schueler of Winchester, Texas; and Mary Treinen of Bovina.

Also, Gary, Mary and Jared Schueler of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. Kent Ferguson of Burleson, Texas.

A reception followed the ceremony. The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of spring flowers. The wedding cake, which was created by Mrs. Kenneth Ferguson of Burleson, Texas, aunt of the bride, was served with nuts, mints, punch and coffee by Carrie Stover of Lubbock, sister of the groom, Jennifer and Melody Lamb. Others in the houseparty included Sue Fiel, Mary Ford and Debbie Carlton.

For a wedding trip to Red River, New Mexico, the bride wore a floral jump suit and sandals.

Mrs. Schueler is a 1994 graduate of Friona High School. Her husband, a 1992 graduate of Friona High School, is serving in the United States Army and is stationed at Fort Hood.

The couple is at home in Killeen, Texas.

REHEARSAL DINNER
Herbert and Cecelia Schueler, parents of the groom, hosted the rehearsal dinner, Friday, June 3 in the Fellowship Hall of Calvary Baptist Church. K-Bob's of Hereford catered the meal consisting of brisket, baked potatoes, green beans, garden salad, rolls and peach and cherry cobbler. The tables were decorated with white geraniums with teal bows.

What impression will you leave on our environment?

The first step in learning how to protect our environment is to learn to appreciate what we have.

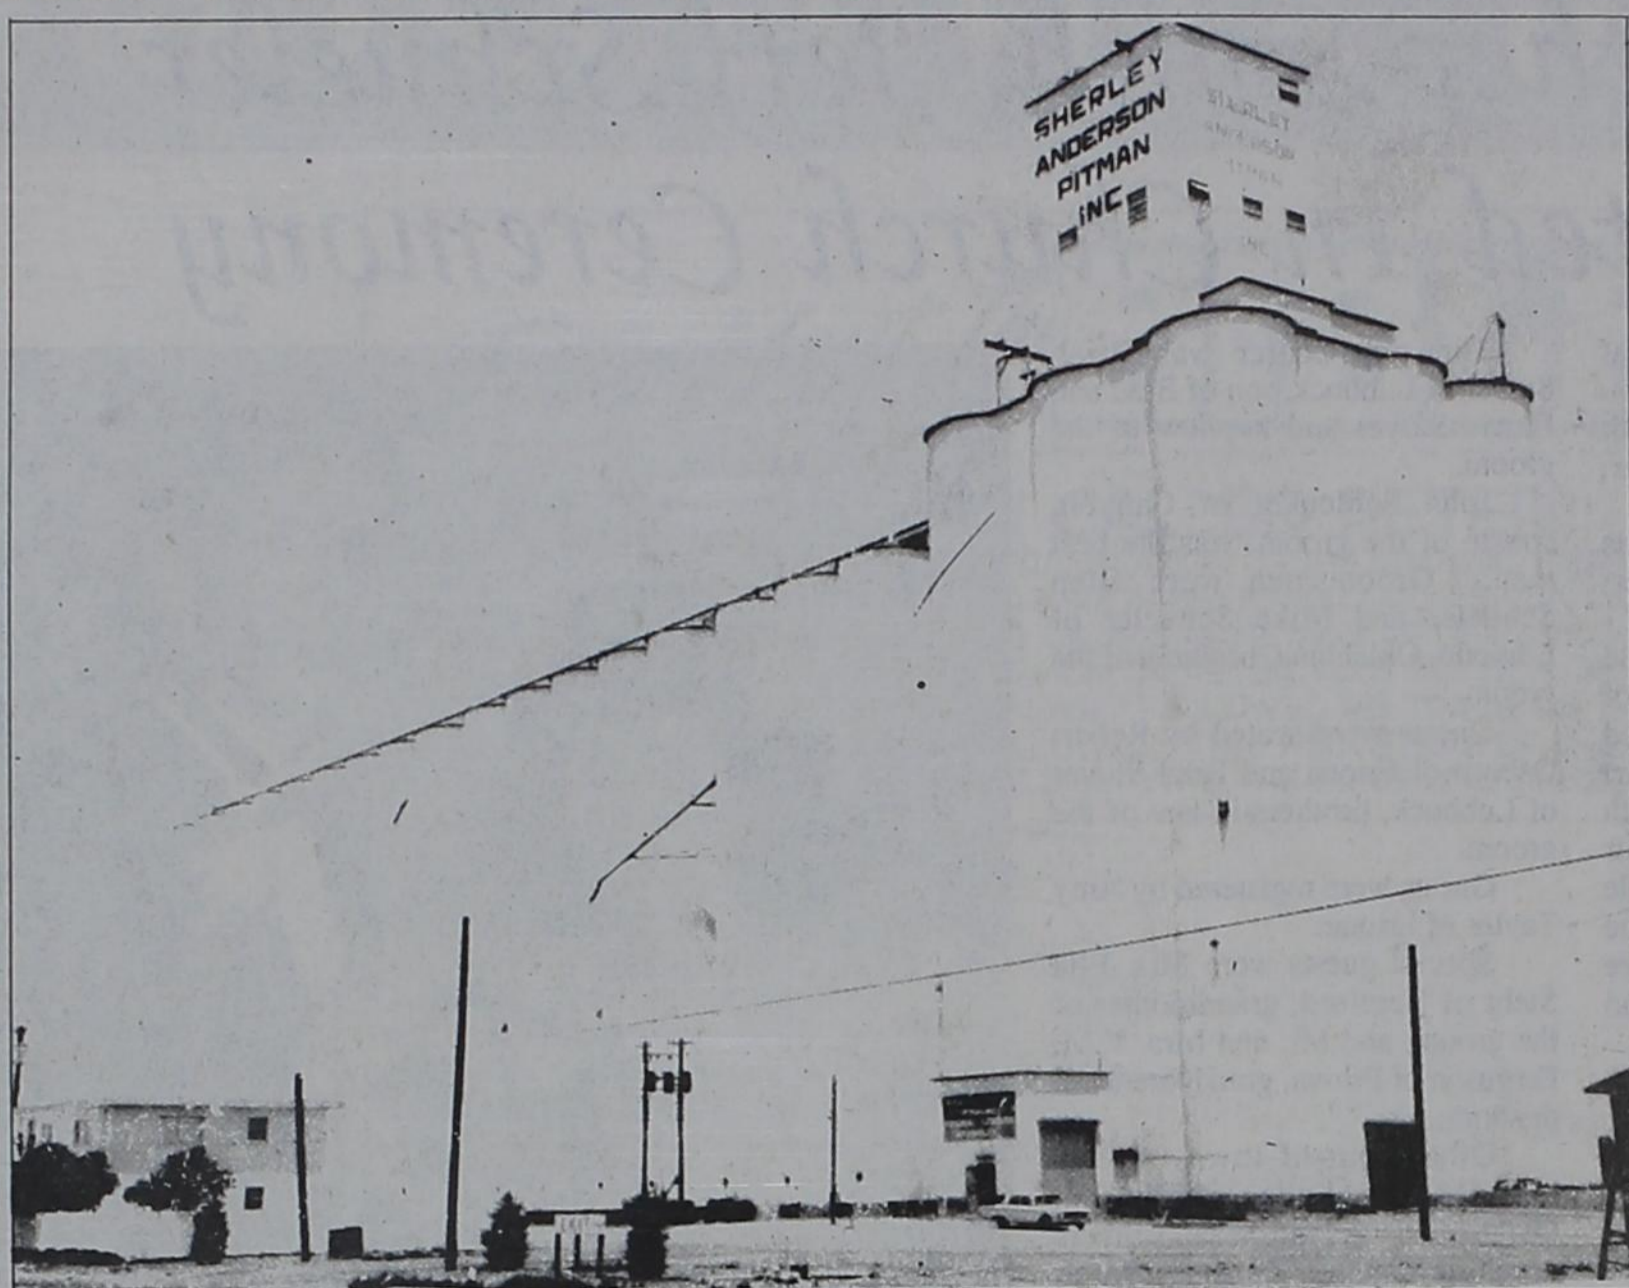

Take a close look at the environment around you. It's very special and it takes special attention and care to keep it that way.

That's why we chose to power our plants with low sulphur coal and natural gas. You, too, can help preserve our environment and natural resources by cleaning up litter, recycling when possible and by making Smart Energy Choices.

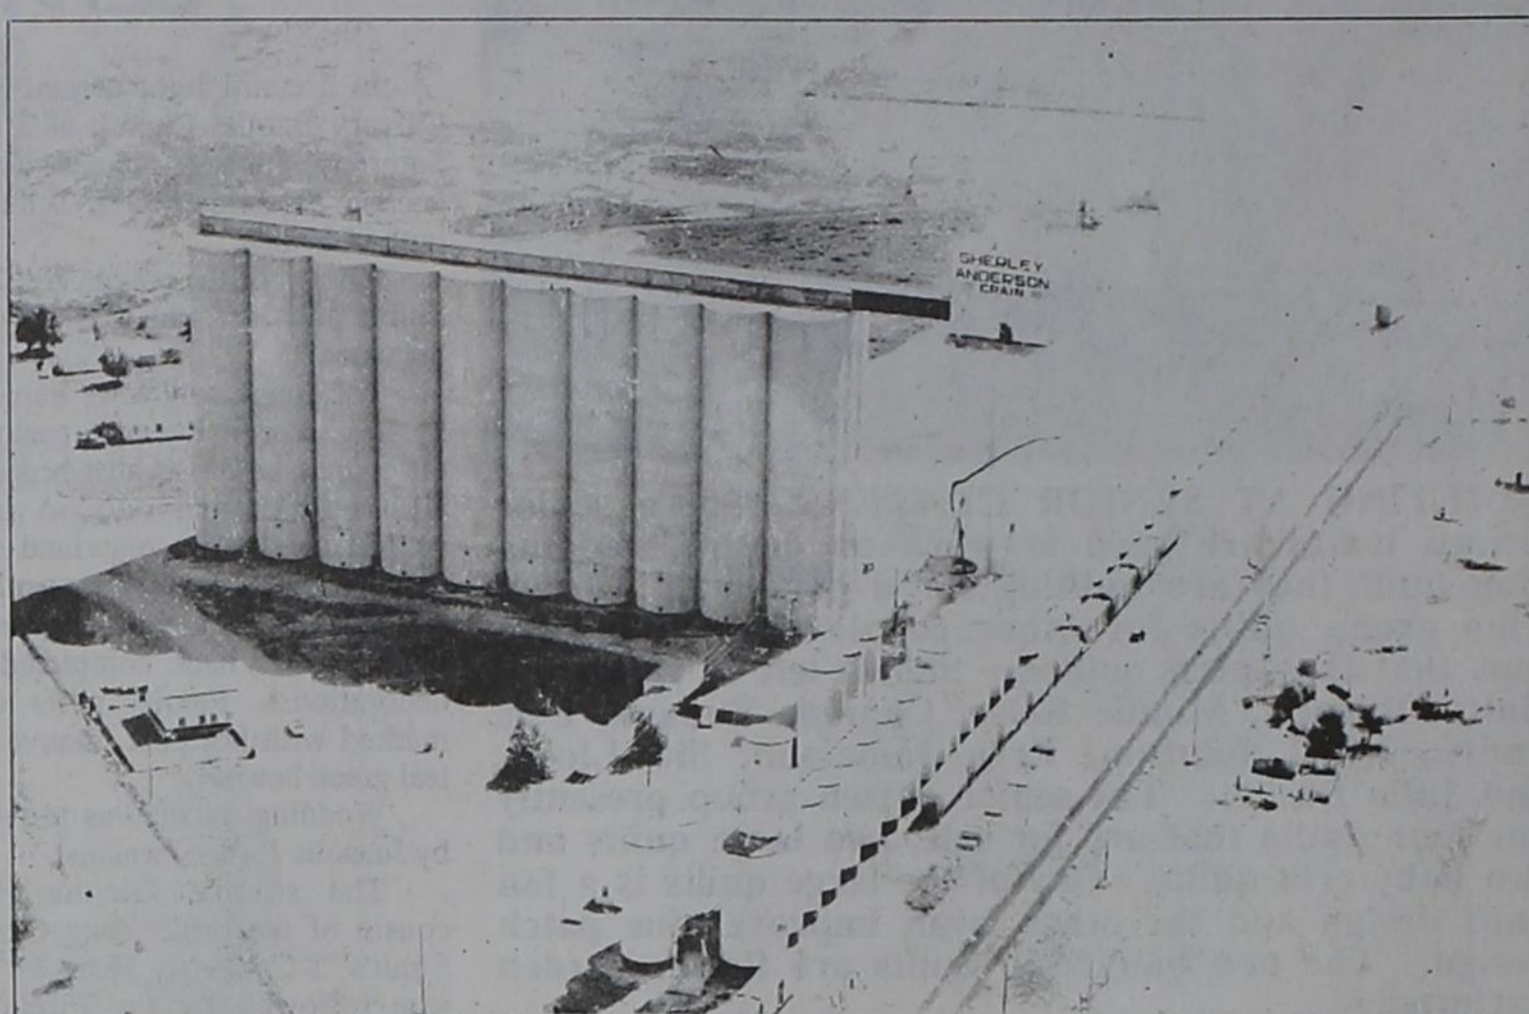

Consider energy efficiency when purchasing a new electric appliance. Weatherize your home. Conserve energy where you can. And never forget where you live. The impression you leave will be a lasting one.
