Turkey Steak Demonstration

County Agent H. M. Breedlove announced this morning that a demonstration would be held on the twenty-fourth of January at the Veterans vocational building at Hedley on the making of turkey steaks. Five turkeys will be worked into steaks during the day. The Let C. E. Johnson, manager of exact time for the start of the the Hedley Telephone Co., write demonstration will be given next week in this newspaper and everyone is invited to attend. Mr. F. Z. Beanblossom, poultry specialist for the Texas A&M College Extension service will give the actual working of turkeys into steaks.

> Breedlove says that farmers in the Hedley community have requested the information as quite a few of them plan to market some of their turkeys in the form of prepared steaks. Mr. Beanblossom will have all necessary equipment with him and lecture on growing and feeding of turkeys in advance of the turkey steak demonstration. Turkey steaks are fast becoming a very important factor in the ma:keting of turkeys and give the local turkey producer a much higher price for his turkeys than selling them on foot.

> Don't forget the date of the demonstration and the exact time of the beginning of the demonstration will be given next week afte Mr. Beanblossom advises Breedlove on the hour of his arrival to Donley County. Everyone is invited who is growing turkeys now or interested in the growing of
