Try a Community Nest

NOW is the time for all good poultry N raisers to install community nests for better production and cleaner eggs! Installation of community nests in place of the small box type will decrease the number of dirty and broken eggs by 50 per cent.

A community nest, like the one shown, should have one square foot of nesting space for every five hens. Two nests of

There are several ways to use these mity nests, which are covered with long-lasting, peck-proof Masonite Presdwood. They may be placed against the wall where the sloping roof will prevent roosting on top. Two may be placed back to back anywhere in the poultry house. In that case, use a reel over the ridge to prevent roosting.

The nest illustrated is four feet long, but it may be made any length desired. If nests are more than eight feet long, however, a partition should separate them into four or five-foot sections, with an entrance for each.

Have community nests in the house when pullets begin to lay. They will use them more readily when beginning to lay than after forming a habit of laying For a free plan to construct this easily-made community nest, write Farm Service Bureau, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill., and ask for AFB-204.

it takes thousands

It's the same way in the natural gas business. Hundreds of wells in many gas fields are required to assure der ndable natural gas service for the militar installations, homes, stores and incustries obtaining their natural gas from the lines of our company.

New fields are being added to the United Gas system all the time—through exploration and drilling, or through the purchase of gas from the owners known reserves.

The constant aim of our company is to provide adequate supplies of got for the present and future needs of the area we serve.

THERE'S PLENTY FOR YOU AND INDUSTRY, TOO

We're

Pioneers Too! 1913 ---- 1951

From one pioneer to another-It i-s our sincere wish that this year's old settlers picnic may be the greatest ever held and that the old Timers of Donley County will thoroughly enjoy themselves on the occasion.
