Scouts Visit Oklahoma

Twenty-five Scouts and Explorers under direction of Scoutmaster Clifford Johnson and Advisor Bob Harris traveled via bus and car to famous Craterville, Oklahoma last Sunday for a full day of outdoor activities. Robert Bailey drove the activity bus round trip and R. M. Saunders and Ed Boliver acted as assistant leaders. The units visited the beautiful Holy City, site of the annual Easter services, photographed wild buffalo herds, lunched at Medicine Park, and spent the afternoon among the amusements at Craterville Park.

The trip was another of a series planned for the combined units in an effort to create new interest in Scouting here in Hedley. Both Scouts and Explorers wished to express their appreciation to Supt. J. S. Hinds for the use of the bus, and especially to Bob Bailey for driving the long trip.

Boy Scouts meet each Monday night at 7:30 in the American Legion Hall and Explorers meet each Wednesday night at 7:30 in the Movie Den. Any boy 14 or older may join the Explorers and is invited to visit the meetings.

The next scheduled trip for Explorers is an overnight camp at Palo Duro Canyon probably the last week end of this month.

Hurshell Ellis

The following appeared in a Hemet, Calif. paper:

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Ellis, who live on Stetson Ave. here, last week learned from the war department that their son, AOAN Hurshell James Ellis, had been killed in the crash of a navy patrol bomber on the mountains of Okinawa.

The 21-year-old youth was a tail gunner on the plane, which is classified by the navy as V2P Neptune. Ten other crew members were on the plane, which crashed January 31 while on a routine flight.

All were killed instantly, according to a letter received by Mr. and Mrs. Ellis from their son's commanding officer

AOAN Ellis entered the navy

Public Schools Week

Whereas Hon. Allan Shivers, Governor of Texas, has designated the week of March 1 to 7 as Public Schools Week; and

Whereas Hedley Lodge No. 991, A. F. & A. M., is sponsoring the local observance of this week; and Recognizing the public school system as one of the basic institutions supporting our American ideals and way of life;

I, as Mayor of the City of Hedley, urge that every citizen visit our schools during the week of March 1-7 and become better acquainted with the work of our schools.

Mike Thornberry, Mayor

Boys Win At Pampa

The Hedley FFA boys won 3rd place Monday at the Top O' Texas livestock judging at Pampa. Forty-two teams were entered. The Hedley team was composed of Jack Moreman, Johnny Brumley and Jack Quisenberry, and they were accompanied by Doyle Messer. The team took 1st place in lamb judging and Jack Moreman was 3rd high point man in lambs.

This speaks well for the Hedley team to cop a 1st place when so many teams were entered.

CORRECTION--MORE OR LESS

The gremlins appeared to be busy this week, making an error in the City Drug Store ad which turned Cashmere Bouquet Soap into Cashmere Bouquet Soup, but whether soap or soup, it's still a bargain at 7¢.

Anyway, the only soup around the City Drug is the soup you'll be in if you argue with Mr. Thornberry.

Mr. and Mrs. Troy Brown of Memphis announce the arrival of a fine 9 lb. daughter Thursday, Feb. 12, named Teresa Gail.

W. C. Plunk Dies

William Crawford Plunk, a resident of Hedley for over 30 years, passed away last Friday in a Plainview hospital.

Funeral services were held Sunday morning from the First Baptist Church here by Rev. O. L. Jones and Rev. W. M. Culwell. Burial was in East View Memorial Park at Vernon under direction of Murphy-Spicer Funeral Home of Clarendon.

Pallbearers were Hobart Moffitt, Fred Bourland, Alva Simmons, Chester Walker, Roy Peggram and Tom Wilson.

Mr. Plunk was 70 years of age and had been prominent in this community since 1922, when he moved here from Collingsworth County. He was a member of the Baptist Church and of the Woodmen of the World lodge.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Josie Plunk of Hedley; three daughters, Miss Edith Plunk of Denver, Mrs. Emma Noland of Hereford and Mrs. Josie Chesser of Sunray; four sons, Roe and Joel of Midland, Olon of Hedley, and Clay of Los Angeles; a brother, M. E. Plunk of Bethel Springs, Tenn.; a half-brother, Avon Walker of Kansas City, Mo.; and ten grandchildren.

LIONS ROAR

The attendance at the Lions Club meeting this last Thursday was very good. Still it could improve. Maybe with a few more distinguished visitors such as Milton "Buff" Morris, District Governor for 2TL, it will. Lion Morris made a very fine speech on the "History of Lionism" and then gave a report on the progress that is being made on the Texas Home for Crippled Children. This is a project that is under the sponsorship of the Lions Clubs of Texas.

Miss Myrtle Reeves should be complimented on the excellent program she presented. It is rumored that she had every bit of two hours notice to prepare it. Included on the program were Bro. W. M. Culwell, Carolyn Reeves, Mary Ann Brumley, Noriene Gibson, Letha Moss, and Miss Reeves.

Next regular meeting night is on Feb. 26, and Lion M. D. Shaw is in charge of the program. Let's come out and boost our attendance up closer to the 100% mark

Sweetheart Banquet

The members of the Senior Class of '53 and the high school faculty were guests of the ladies of the Baptist WMU at a Sweetheart Banquet at the church last Wednesday evening, Feb. 11. The guests assembled in the main auditorium of the church and after all had arrived they were invited into the Fellowship Hall with decorations featuring the Valentine season. The long table, laid with white cloths and centered with miniature white fence entwined with ivy vines, with small sweetheart dolls on either side of the fence, was most attractive. Red candles were placed along the length of the table, and were lighted for the dinner. A vase of red carnations at either end added to the beauty of the table, as well as the Valentine place cards and programs and Valentine corsages. Other decorations in the hall made the room very colorful.

Rev. O. L. Jones, master of ceremonies, introduced each number of the program in a very entertaining manner. The Welcome of the evening was extended to the guests by Mrs. J. R. Carlton, president of WMU. This was responded to by Bobby Jones, member of the Senior Class. J. M. Baker gave the Invocation. A unique number of the evening was the backward look at the Class of '53. Various stages of the Senior's school days were portrayed as Mrs. Johnnie Everett played "School Days." Sandra Saunders and Jimmy Hill entered showing the first days of school. They were followed by Linda Davis and Johnny Nash featuring the last year of grade school. The junior high days were brought to mind by the entrance of Rubye Harris and Sam Sanders. Then in a most fitting manner the Senior Class of '53 were introduced.

The Sweetheart Queen of the evening had been chosen earlier, as each guest drew a silver slipper on arrival. The slipper belonging to the queen was drawn by Mrs. J. M. Baker. While Jake Arthur of Clarendon sang "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" with Mrs. Johnnie Everett at the piano, Larry Jones placed the silver crown on Mrs. Baker's head, making her Queen of the Sweetheart Banquet. A Senior quartette, Carolyn Reeves, Letha Moss, Bobby Jones and Jack Quisenberry sang two numbers. The speaker of the evening was Jake Arthur, educational director of the First Baptist Church of Clarendon, who brought a very inspirational message.

A colorful and tasteful menu, prepared by ladies of the church, was served which consisted of creamed chicken on toast, new po-

Mrs. John Nash and Mrs. Chester Hill were hostesses to the W. M. U. Monday afternoon, Feb. 16, in the home of Mrs. John Nash. Our mission program for the month was given under the leadership of Mrs. J. M. Baker. The program opened with a hymn followed by prayer. The devotional was given by the leader. The topic for discussion for the afternoon was the study of the Mormon people, with several phases of their work and beliefs considered. The program closed with the singing of a hymn and a prayer. A short business session was held, after which lovely refreshments were served by the hostesses. Nineteen ladies were present.

The Workers Conference of this association met with the Goldston Baptist Church Tuesday with ten member from the local church attending. An interesting program on Evangelism was enjoyed during the day.
