Patterson-Shaw

Impressive marriage services in the First Methodist Church Sunday evening united Miss Wanda Lee Shaw of Hedley and Pat Patterson of Meadow. The pastor, Rev. W. M. Culwell, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with ferns and greenery. The couple stood under an arch flanked by candelabra and baskets of white 'mums.

Given in marriage by her father, Jasper Shaw, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white embroidered organdy with matching mittens. Her veil of illusion cascaded to fingertip length from a seed pearl Juliet cap. She carried a white Bible topped with white orchids, and carried out the traditional 'something borrowed, something blue, and a lucky sixpence in her shoe.'

Mrs. Kenneth Taylor of El Paso, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of beige embroidered organdy with a small matching hat, and carried a nosegay of red rosebuds. Candle lighters were Mrs. B. G. Phillips of Amarillo and Mrs. Buck Birdwell of Lubbock. They wore ballerina length dresses of blue organdy and yellow corsages. Mrs. Jasper Shaw, mother of the bride, wore a blue sheer dress and a corsage of yellow carnations. Mrs. Mary Patterson of Stamford, mother of the groom wore a tan sheer dress and a corsage of white carnations.

Best man for the groom was Gene Tyre of Snyder. Ushers were Jerald Sims, Don Reeves, Kenneth Taylor and Scott Lamberson.

Miss Mary Alice Hunsucker provided the nuptial selections at the piano, and Miss Anna Bell Bailey sang "I Love You Truly" and "Always."

Out of town guests included Mrs. Mary Patterson of Stamford, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Emerson of Boise City, Okla., Mrs. Ross Adamson and Tula Jean of Wolf-forth, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Birdwell of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Graham of Memphis, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crawford of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Preston of Abernathy and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Taylor of El Paso.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Jasper Shaw home. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Shaw and the bride and groom. Miss Harriet Nichols

Mrs. J. H. Mann Dies

Funeral services for Mrs. Myrtle Mann, who passed away Sunday after a lengthy illness, were held Monday from the Church of Christ here by Minister S. W. Sanders. Burial was in the Clarendon cemetery with Murphy-Spicer Funeral Home in charge.

Pallbearers were Charlie Johnson, Woodroe Farris, Joe Kennedy, Conley DeBord, Clyde Gilbreth and Vernie Wade.

Mrs. Mann was born Oct. 24, 1881 in Cooke County, Texas and came to the Hedley area in 1908. Her husband, J. H. Mann, preceded her in death Oct. 29, 1947.

She is survived by five sons, Gilbert, Henry, Gordon and Luther of Clarendon and Hubert of Hedley, two daughters, Mrs. Clara Mae Baggett of Hedley and Mrs. Hal Riley of Amarillo, 17 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Also surviving are three sisters, Mrs. Ellis Johnson of Whitesboro, Mrs. Jessie Hargesheimer of Estelline and Mrs. Eva Phelps of Clarendon, and four brothers, A. L., Harvey, G. C. and Wesley Williams, all of Whitesboro.

R. F. Newman of Phillips, Mrs. Virgil Threet of Roswell and Mrs. L. A. Tucker of Estelline visited in the R. E. Newman home this week.

of Amarillo presided at the register, and Mrs. Kenneth Taylor of El Paso directed the guests to the dining room.

The table, covered with a white linen tablecloth, bore a beautiful centerpiece of white carnations flanked by silver candelabra with white tapers. The lovely all white wedding cake, carrying a miniature bride and groom in the center, was under an arch resting on a large mirror.

Cake and punch were served to the guests by Miss Jean Lowe of Amarillo, Miss Janice Lamberson of Hedley, Mrs. B. G. Phillips of Amarillo, and Mrs. Buck Birdwell of Lubbock.

The wedding gifts were displayed by Miss Carolyn Reeves.

A rehearsal dinner was given by Mrs. Leon Reeves and Mrs. Harrison Hall in the home of the bride's parents Saturday night.

They served a lovely dinner to the entire wedding party and and house guests of the Shaws, also Miss Marjorie Harlan of Clarendon and Miss Myrtle Reeves.

Bain-Beard

In an impressive ceremony Saturday afternoon, June 27, Mrs. Billie Beard and Keith Bain were united in marriage in the fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church.

Rev. O. L. Jones, pastor read the double ring ceremony before an arch covered with huckleberry behind which was a sunburst arrangement of Commadore fern. The setting was flanked with candelabra holding cathedral tapers behind beauty baskets of white gladioli with white caladium plants at the base to complete the setting.

Mrs. Beryl West, sister of the groom played a medley of wedding music before the ceremony.

The couple's attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Basil Smith, sister and brother-in-law of the groom and little Connie Beard.

Mrs. Smith wore a navy blue dress with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow gladioli. Little Connie was dressed in pink.

The bride wore a silver grey dress, a navy blue picture hat and her corsage was white carnations.

After a trip to points in Colorado the couple will be at home in Dumas.

Koeninger, and Jack Brumley.

Mr. and Mrs. Buford Hinds and Marjorie Ann of Abilene spent Saturday night and Sunday in the Frank Kendall home.

Improvements

Despite the drouth, Hedley firms are continuing to make improvements. The Moreman Grocery and Locker has installed three new Zero self-server display cases which contain all their fresh vegetables and fruits and other perishables, and which makes an extremely attractive display. They have also added a new frozen foods case and plan to enlarge their line.

The Wilson Drug building has a new straight glass front and decorative small awning. The City Shoe Shop building is also undergoing treatment of a similar nature.

Evidently the Security State is not the only firm which has faith in the community.

Hedley Wins 19-9

This past Sunday Hedley defeated White Deer by a very one-sided score of 19 to 9. White Deer had only counted one run until the last inning when they counted 8 tallies. Big gun for Hedley was Bonnie Mooring with 4 hits in 5 official times at bat. Winning pitcher was B. Hutchinson. Losing pitcher was Wells. This was Hutchinson's first appearance on the mound for Hedley and he did a very nice job, striking out 10 batsmen and allowing only 5 hits.

Results of other games played in the Caprock League were Groom 4, Claude 2; Canyon 10, Air Base 5; and Clarendon won over Panhandle but we did not find out the score.

This next Sunday the All-Star Game of the Caprock League will be played at Groom. The South half composed of players from Hedley, Clarendon, Claude and Canyon will go against the North half composed of players from Groom, White Deer, Panhandle and the Air Base.
