Old Settlers Picnic

The Donley County Pioneers met for their 22nd annual picnic at the Tate Grove on Aug. 21st.

Doyle Messer, the president, opened the day. Judge Jack Grey gave the Welcome address with R. E. Drennan giving the Response. Everyone received a blessing from the Invocation by Bro. Walter DeBord. The singing was beautiful with help from the high school girls, led by Bro. Culwell.

"Flip" Breedlove, master of ceremonies, kept the program going and held the business meeting. In the absence of Mrs. Mabel Bridges, Mrs. Wayne Lat mer acted as secretary.

New officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Slats DeBord, president; Woodroe Farris, vice president; and Mrs. L. D. Messer, secretary and treasurer.

The rest of the day was spent visiting and listening to good singing accompanied by Nancy Nash at the piano. Afterwards "Minnie Pearl" paid a visit with several comical selections. The string music, under the direction of Walter Johnson was very entertaining. Mrs. T. J. Cherry paid tribute to the Pioneers with some of her own compositions, which was very pretty.

After the group, led by Bro. Culwell, sang "God Be With You," accompanied by Mrs. Glass, every one said good-bye until next year.

The cool day was lovely and the noon meal was bountiful.

Cotton Queen Contest

Local high school girls who wish to compete in the contest for Cotton Festival Queen are urged to turn in their names to Supt. J. S. Hinds. The rules will be practically the same as last year. Any girl attending the high schools of Hedley, Quall, or Lelia Lake is eligible to enter.

The Queen contest committee urges all girls to enter in the next week, as sponsors will pick their entries and the voting will start September 9. The contest will close Saturday, September 26th, and the girl who gets the most votes will be crowned Cotton Festival Queen, the two receiving the next largest number of votes will be Royal Princesses and all the girls who enter will be classed as Cotton Festival Princesses.

Out Of Town Bankers Attend Open House

Over 700 people registered at the open house of the Security State Bank last Saturday. Among the guests were Wm. F. Schmidt of the Amarillo National Bank, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cowart of the American National Bank of Amarillo and Charles J. Harris and Henry Hickman of the First National Bank of Amarillo, Leroy Jeffries of the Continental National Bank of Ft. Worth, and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Garrard of the Ft. Worth National Bank, W. H. Leatherwood of the First National Bank of Dallas, Stanley Medcalfe of the Texas Bank and Trust Co. of Dallas, and Robert J. Downs and John Poulos of the Dallas National Bank, Oral Jones of the City National Bank of Wichita Falls, Temple Deaver and Ben Parks of the First National Bank of Memphis, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Smith, Bill Hays, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Whaley of the First State Bank of Memphis, Earl Hunter of the First National Bank of Wellington, John H. Head, W. W. Taylor and Ardith Butler of the First National Bank of Clarendon, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Swift, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Simmons and daughter, Van Kennedy and Mrs. Anna Moores of the Farmers State Bank of Clarendon, and Bill Miller and J. Roy Henry of Burroughs Adding Machine Co. of Childress.

Moreman Locker and City Drug Celebrate

The Moreman Grocery and Locker and the City Drug Store both observed their anniversaries last Saturday in a big way.

These two, added to the bank anniversary, brought to town an unusually large crowd which came early and stayed late.

About 700 registered at the Moreman Grocery, and space in the store remained scarce all day.

No figures were available on the number of banana splits sold by the City Drug, but it was enough to create a banana shortage.

All in all, the three celebrating firms and their visitors appeared to have a very enjoyable day.

Brick Stone and family of Amarillo visited here last week end.

G. T. Foster Dies

G. T. Foster, retired farmer and railroad man, passed away suddenly Tuesday in an Amarillo hospital after suffering a heart attack. He was there for the day visiting two of his sons, Milton E. Foster of 1804 No. Williams and H. M. Foster of 700 Birmingham.

Funeral services were held Thursday morning from the First Baptist Church here by Rev. O. L. Jones. Burial was in Rowe Cemetery with Murphy Spicer Funeral Home in charge.

Pallbearers were L. A. Stilwell, Walter Johnson, E. M. Glass, Hobart Moffitt, Oneill Weatherly and John Nash.

Honorary pallbearers included M. W. Mosley, R. L. Farris, C. E. Johnson, Horace Cooper, Bill Wiggins and J. G. Gardner Sr.

George Taylor Foster was born May 6, 1883 in Winston County, Miss. He was married to Miss Nettie Youngblood in 1906 in Mississippi. They moved to Donley County in 1923 and have made their home at Giles since that time. Mr. Foster was a member of the Baptist Church here.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Nettie Foster of Giles; four sons, Milton E. and H. M. of Amarillo, Charlie of Giles and J. D. of Hedley; two daughters, Mrs. R. R. Stotts of Giles and Mrs. H. R. Greer of Childress; three brothers, R. K. and John Foster of Paris and W. P. Foster of San Antonio; one sister, Mrs. Sallie Jayroe of Metropolis, Ill., and seven grandchildren.

Notice

Everyone who wishes to use the City Park for watermelon parties is welcome to do so, but is requested to clean up afterward and haul the rinds away.

The City Health Officer, Dr. D. H. Cox, asks the public to cooperate in this for sanitary purposes.

LIONS ROAR

The Lions Club is meeting at 7:00 o'clock this week on account of the revival meetings in town

Garden Club

The Garden Club members and their families will meet for their picnic Tuesday, Sept. 1 at 7:30 at the City Park.

Cotton Festival Committees Appointed

The following have been appointed to assist in making the 1953 Cotton Festival, to be held Oct. 9th and 10th, the best ever.

Exhibits: L. D. Messer, chairman, Otis Owens, A. T. Simmons, J. H. Koeninger, and M. D. Shaw assisting.

Pancake Fry: Ross Springer, chairman, E. M. Glass, Jack Brumley, J. L. Chesser and C. W. Vallance

Entertainment: Henry Moore, chairman, C. H. Reid, Ray Moreman, W. L. Mosley and W. C. Johnson.

Concessions: J. M. Baker, Doyle Messer, Herlie Moreman and W. H. Moffitt.

Parade: Dr. D. H. Cox, chairman, Mr. Whitaker, W. A. Pierce. These men will need lots of assistance and are at liberty to call on whomever they need to help.

Publicity: C. L. Johnson, chairman, Ed Boliver and Carl Morris.

Queen Contest: C. L. Johnson and Leon Reeves, who have an announcement in this week's Informer regarding the contest.

Cleanup: Explorer Scouts led by Bob Bailey and Frank Murray.

It will be necessary to appoint others from time to time on other tasks. In fact this is a job that will require every one to get the job done right.

Some 20 odd bands have been invited to participate in our grand parade. About 15 riding clubs also are being invited, as well as many other attractions. Every one approached so far has indicated they would be here. So Hedley, let's go.

Notice

Everyone is urged to come to a Park Working September 1 at 6 o'clock. Bring your hoe and rakes and also a basket lunch for supper.

Avery Page

Avery Page, brother of Mrs. R. E. Newman passed away Monday night at Abilene.

Mrs. C. W. Lisenbee and June visited here first of the week from Waco.

Garl Bain of Corpus Christi and Kenneth Bain of Monterrey, Calif. have been visiting relatives here.

Miss Murray Honored

Garden flowers made a beautiful and colorful setting for the bridal shower of Patricia Murray last Wednesday afternoon, August 19th, in the fellowship hall of the Baptist Church. The guests were received by Mrs. H. H. Hall and after greeting the bride-elect, her mother, Mrs. Murray and Mrs. Day, mother of the groom, they were registered by Mrs. Wallace Jouett and then directed to the tea table by Mrs. C. L. Harris.

The table was laid with a heavy lace-cut cloth and centered with bride and groom dolls which had been dressed by a Philippine couple with material from their wedding garments. The dolls together with the cloth were gifts to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Foster while he was in service. Cut flowers added to the beauty of the table. Soft music during the tea hour was furnished by Mrs. L. P. Trimble.

The program rendered in poetry was unique. The first number describing the honoree was given by Mrs. Quisenberry. Patricia was then presented with a corsage by Mrs. Moffitt. A poetical sketch of love and romance was read by Mrs. Davenport, which she herself had composed. Five of the choral club girls, Jane Mosley, Wanda Lee Moore, Jean Bailey, Norienne Gibson and Joan Youree, sang a few selections with Nancy Nash accompanying them at the piano.

Mrs. Foster, with the assistance of Mrs. Barney Johnson, presented the beautiful assortment of gifts. After the packages were opened Patricia in her own nice way expressed her thanks.

Baseball News

Hedley will play Groom here next Sunday at 3 P.M. This is the first of the second series of Cap Rock League championship games. Ed Mathis is expected to pitch for Hedley and Don Ritter for Groom. The last time these pitchers faced each other Mathis lost a 3 hitter at Groom by the score of 1 to 0.

Last Sunday Hedley defeated the Air Base 7 to 2. Mathis pitched a 4 hitter, good fielding plays were turned in by both sides and there were enough arguments to keep the fans interested. Fleming of Amarillo gave up 8 hits, Bonnie Mooring getting the most of them, a single and two long home runs in 4 times at bat.

Groom defeated Clarendon last Sunday 9 to 6 to earn the right to play in this series. Hedley will go to Groom Sunday week. The series is for the first two games out of three.

Senior Class Elects

The Senior Class met with their sponsor, Mrs. Truitt on Aug. 20 to select class officers. They are as follows: president, Noriene Gibson; vice president, Tommie Pritchard; secretary, Jean Bailey; treasurer, Wanda Lee Moore; reporters, Janice Lamberson and Joan Youree; sergeant at arms, Carolyn Morris. Room mothers are Mrs. Youree, Mrs. Bailey, and Mrs. Hansard. The class motto chosen was "cooperation," class colors are red and white, and the class flower is carnation (red or white).

Billy G. Tate, BT3, is home after spending 8 months of Korean duty. He has been aboard the aircraft carrier Philippine Sea for two years. Billy Gene and family will leave for San Francisco, Calif. next week where he will be stationed.
