Two new school busses have arrived to assist in transporting Hedley students, and were put in service this week.

During the cotton picking holidays, other improvements in the schools included refinishing the blackboards and the gym floor and walls, and dividing the study hall.

Supt. Hinds had an enviable reputation at Jayton for his work in school improvement, and he is continuing the same fine work here in Hedley.

Booster Club Meeting

The Hedley Booster Club met Tuesday at noon. A committee was appointed to draw up details on a Trades Day for Hedley. When the plans are completed they will be submitted to the local merchants to see if they want a Trades Day.

Clifford Johnson was appointed as a delegate to go to Austin this week end to attend the hearing before the State Water Board on the proposed dam site on the Salt Fork of Red River north of Hedley.

For next Tuesday's meeting the Club wants to organize a planning board, who will plan activities for the benefit of the community.

P.-T. A. Carnival To Be Held Nov. 20

The Hedley PTA will sponsor the annual school carnival on Friday, Nov. 20.

The PTA will operate a food booth, and various concessions will be operated by the different grades.

This is the event which raises money for the PTA to help the school, as well as letting each grade make a little money for incidental expenses, and lets everyone have a chance to help and enjoy himself at the same time.

Plan now to attend the carnival, have an evening of good entertainment and help your school.

Each class is choosing a princess and escort, to be announced later.

Will Neely of Parnell passed away Tuesday, Oct. 27, at 6 PM in a Memphis hospital after a brief illness at the age of 77 years.

He was born in Summerset, Kentucky Dec. 28, 1875. He married Elizabeth Canada in 1900. Mr. Neely, a retired railroad worker and farmer, worked about 20 years for the Ft. Worth and Denver Railroad before buying a farm at Parnell. There he lived until his death.

1919 Study Club

The 1919 Study Club met in the home of Mrs Elvia and Margaret Davenport Tuesday evening, Oct. 27. The program was built about American ideals which is the central theme for the year. Mrs Ruby Glass presented the year books. The roll call, the Freedoms, drew some interesting material, notable among the various responses being the one given by Mrs. Frances Hinds. She gave President Eisenhower's "seven freedoms" with their parallel in the Twenty-third Psalm, a beautiful and inspirational response.

The principal paper for the evening was given by Mrs. Mary Harris. Her subject was "The Tapestry of Our American Heritage." Mrs Harris handled her subject very ably, presenting the various elements of American principles as so many colored threads woven into the pattern of American life. The paper was interesting, informative, and poetic.

The Club Collect given with members standing concluded the program. Mrs. Lula Johnson was leader for the evening. After the program the members and guests were ushered into the dining room where the table was beautifully laid with lace cloth and silver service. The centerpiece was a crystal vase filled with white carnations, the club flower, flanked by green and white candles in crystal candelabra. Refreshments consisted of lime sherbet, white cake, green and white mints, and coffee. Mrs. N. A. Hightower, a guest for the evening, poured coffee and Mrs Scales served the cake.

Present were Mesdames Myrtella Deahl, Pauline Moffitt, Omie Simmons, Lulu Johnson, Mabel Jones, Ruby Glass, Byrda Watt, Beth Moore, Biffie Grace Moreman, Ethel Kendall, Essie Mae Scales, Miss Myrtle Hall, Mrs. Mary Harris, two guests, Mrs. N. A. Hightower Memphis, and Mrs. Frances Hinds, and the hostesses, Mrs. Elvia and Margaret Davenport.
