Death Notice

Mrs. Prayer Meeting Dies A Horrible Death

REV. O. L. JONES

Mrs. Prayer Meeting died recently at the First Neglected Church on Wordly Avenue. Born many years ago in the midst of great revivals, she was a strong, healthy child, fed largely on testimony and spiritual holiness, soon growing into worldwide prominence, and was one of the most influential members of the famous Church family.

For the past several years, Sister Prayer Meeting has been failing in health, gradually wasting away until rendered helpless by stiffening of knees, coldness of heart, inactivity and weakness of purpose and will power. At the last she was but a shadow of her former happy self. Her last whispered words were inquiries concerning marts of trade and places of worldly amusements. Her older brother, Class Meeting has been dead for many years.

Experts, including Dr. Works and Dr. Joiner, disagreed as to the cause of her fatal illness, administered large doses of organization, socials, contests, drives and religious education to no avail. A post mortem eschewed a deficiency of spiritual food coupled with lack of fasting, faith, heartfelt religion, shameless desertion, and non-support as contributing causes for her death.

Only a few were present at her rites, sobbing over memories of her past beauty and power. Carefully selected pallbearers who were urged to bear her remains tenderly away failed to appear. There were no flowers. Her favorite hymns, Amazing Grace and Rock of Ages were not sung. Miss Ima Modern rendered Beautiful Isle of Somewhere, but none had any idea where this fancied isle might be. The body rests in the beautiful cemetery of Bygone Glories, awaiting the summons from above.

In honor of her going, the church doors will be closed on Wednesday nights except on the third Wednesday of each month when the Ladies' Pink Lemonade Society serves refreshments to the members of the Men's Hardball Team. --Selected.

Would you be one in your church to vote to close the doors on Wednesday nights? You give that vote when you do not attend the Mid-

Hobo Day Saturday

The Hedley Chapter of Future Homemakers of America declares Saturday, March 13 as Hobo Day. All the members will be available to do odd jobs 'round town. We will mind your baby, clean the chicken house, wash your car, shine your shoes, give home permanents, clean your house or yard, wash windows, or any other job you might have.

This day is sponsored by the F H A group in order to send delegates to the State F H A meeting in Fort Worth in April.

If you have a job for these girls, please call Louise Baiiey, Jane Mosley, Wanda Hansard or Sandra Davis at the high school Friday. Tell them what the job is and the hour you want the "hobos" and we assure you a good job of work.

School Menu for Next Week

Monday: barbecued beef on bun, scalloped potatoes, English pea salad, apple pie, bread, milk.

Tuesday: macaroni and cheese loaf with eggs, buttered green beans, carrot sticks, fruited Jell-o, brownies, milk, bread.

Wednesday: pot roast of beef with carrots, green pepper, onions, and potatoes, spinach, peach upside down cake, corn bread, cocoa.

Thursday: baked beans, creamed corn, stewed tomatoes, fried apricot pies, bread, milk.

Friday: hamburger patties on bun with mustard, lettuce, tomato, pickle, and onions, potato chips cup cakes with fruit, orange juice or chocolate milk.

Indian Crafts Window

The Federated Clubs and Boy Scouts have arranged a very attractive window of Indian crafts at Moffitt Hardware, as a reminder of the 100th anniversary of the Alabama-Coushatti reservation near Livingston, Texas.

Pfc. and Mrs. Bobby Hemelstrand and son Darrell Wayne of Colorado Springs are visiting here.

Week Prayer Meeting in your church.

The plea goes out from the pastors of the churches in this community to you as church members, ATTEND PRAYER MEETING EVERY WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

Harris-Heckinger

In an impressive double ring ceremony, Martha Heckinger of El Paso and Bob Harris of Hedley were united in marriage at 7:30 PM Saturday, March 6. Rev. Nelson Wurgler performed the ceremony before the altar of St. Paul's Methodist Church at Las Cruces, N. Mex.

The bride was attractive in a ballerina length dress of champagne lace, filled in with appliques of ribbon in a flower motif over taffeta, with black accessories and a red rosebud corsage.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. John Bavousett of Fabens, who wore a grey tailored suit with black accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

The groom was attended by Ed Boliver as best man.

Others witnessing the ceremony included John Bavousett, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wills.

Following the wedding, the party returned to El Paso for a bridal supper at the Golden Bowl.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Honored

On Monday night, Mr. and Mrs. Harris were honored with an informal reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cherry. The home was tastefully decorated for the occasion.

Upon entering, the guests were presented to the bride, and were then registered by Mrs. Mike Thornberry.

The beautiful wedding cake was cut and served with punch to about fifty guests. Misses Wanda Hansard and Sandra Youree presided at the serving table. Rev. W. M. Culwell pronounced the blessing.

Misses Joan Youree and Jane Mosley played appropriate selections at the piano throughout the affair.

Red Cross Drive

March is Red Cross month. Hedley will have a drive, possibly next week. Anyone wishing to contribute should see Hobart Moffitt, local chairman.

Notice

If you have any used clothing for ages 3 months and up, especially boys, bring it to the West Texas Utilities and it will be distributed where it is badly needed.

Queen Contest

Out of town judges will judge the high school beauties in the annual Lions Club Queen contest at the Hedley Theatre March 26th. Any single girl in our school between the ages of 16 and 21 is invited to be in the contest.

The district winner will receive the following from the Amarillo firms: spring suit from Blackburn Brothers, shoes from White and Kirk, spring hat from Audie Clements of Kuykendalls, bag from Klines, blouse from Marizons, hose from the Accessory Shop, gloves from Town and Country Shop, and other awards.

Each local Queen will appear on T V before the District Queen contest Friday night, April 23rd.

Area FHA Meeting in Canyon

Twelve FHA girls and their sponsor, Mrs. Barbara Truitt, attended the Area I meeting in Canyon Saturday, March 6. Girls attending were Sandra Davis, Sandra and Joan Youree, Jane Mosley, Gracie Brown, Charlene Sargent, Wanda Lee Moore, Lawanda Penick, Peggy Mullins, Lanell Mendenhall, Marie Hill and Martha Jo Spalding.

The theme for the program was Family Living is Fun. The morning session consisted of a business meeting and address by Dr. James P. Cornette, President of WTSC; the afternoon session was composed of a talent show put on by the various chapters. The program closed with installation of new officers.

Sodalitas Club

The Sodalitas Club held their annual Texas Day program, March 4 in the Legion Hall with a tea honoring their mothers, mothers-in-law, and special guests.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Betty Morgan and Mrs. Geraldine Wiggins and then were registered by Mrs. Pat Day.

The table was lovely with a white linen tablecloth and the centerpiece consisted of a flower arrangement of blue and white carnations and a white plaque in the shape of the state of Texas with a Texas flag prevailing. The wafers were colored as little as Texas flags and blue and white mints were used. Mrs. Velva Gibson poured the tea and Mrs. Rexie Word and Mrs. Kathryn Latimer assisted at the table. Miss Thelma Moss and Mrs. Ida Lou Dickson entertained with lovely musical selections while the guests were arriving and being served.

The guests were welcomed by the president, Mrs. Velva Gibson.

Mrs. Sue Weatherly gave a wonderful book review on Charles Goodnight, which was enjoyed very much by everyone.

The following attended: Mesdames W. W. Wiggins, John Biard, Carroll Deahl, Ray Moreman, J. S. Hinds, H. Word, Leon Reeves, Jap Shaw, James, C. D. Whitaker, A. T. Simmons, Pat Day, Joan Martin, C. Bailey, Walter Johnson, Oneil Weatherly, R. A. Shaw, J. M. Dickson, Roy McKee, W. L. Stewart, Herman Word, Wayne Latimer, H. L. Morgan, W. M. Snelson, Arthell Gibson, Geneva Kilgore, W. B. Wiggins, and Misses Mattie Lou McKee and Thelma Moss.

Several who had planned to attend were unable to because of the weather conditions that night.

Informal Buffet

On last Friday Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Johnson and Ed Boliver accompanied Bob Harristo Fabens for his marriage to Martha Heckinger, which took place Saturday at Las Cruces.

Upon their arrival at the John Bavousett home in Fabens, a group of friends gathered and all enjoyed an informal buffet spread of cake, sandwiches, hors d'oeuvres and coffee.

The beautifully decorated table was centered by a pink heart flanked by pink carnations and carrying a ribbon in silver reading "Martha and Bob, March 6." The lovely cake was prepared by Lance Bavousett.

Present were Martha Heckinger, Bob Harris, Ed Boliver, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wills, Mr. and Mrs. James Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. James Lumpkins, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. John Bavousett.

Mrs. Buck Birdwell and small son of Lubbock visited here last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman McHan of Los Angeles visited in the home of the lady's brother, W. H. Jones, this week.

Public Schools Week

A large group of parents and school patrons were on hand last Friday night for the open house held at the school in observance of Public Schools Week.

A program of vocal numbers was presented by various school groups under the direction of Miss Thelma Moss and Mrs. Elvia Davenport. The speaker for the evening was Mr. Humphreys, an attorney from Amarillo, who was introduced by L. E. Blankenship of the Mosonic Lodge, sponsors of Public Schools Week. Mr. Humphreys made an inspiring talk reminding us of our responsibility to our children.

Following the program the various rooms were opened to the visitors and everyone was invited to view the school work on display. Refreshments of hot chocolate, orange juice and cookies were served in the lunchroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Taylor are visiting here from El Paso.
