Senior Trip

The Senior Class of 1954 left May 21 at 4:00 AM for Colorado Springs. The first day we had a picnic lunch at a park in Raton, New Mexico. We arrived in Colorado Springs at 4:30 PM, and went to the Coronado Courts where we stayed the remainder of our trip.

The first night we visited the famous Broadmoor Hotel with its swimming pools, lake and Ice Palace.

Saturday we visited the Canon City prison and after lunch went on the Royal Gorge, spanned by the highest suspension bridge in the world. Adjacent to the bridge we rode the incline railway extending from the top to the bottom of the gorge 1,053 feet below the bridge. We returned to Canon City via Sky-Line Drive.

Sunday we all attended the Trinity Methodist Church near our cabins. That night we went ice skating at the Ice Palace in the Broadmoor Hotel.

The next day we drove through the Garden of the Gods in '54 Fords, which we rented for the day. We drove on to the Cave of the Winds, and enjoyed seeing its many rock formations. We went through the Miracle House. There are only a few of these houses in the entire United States. In this house gravity trips at your heels and forces you to stand naturally at a 45 degree angle. After we ate we began our 22 mile journey up Pikes Peak. It took us about an

Our last day we visited the Cheyenne Mountain Zoo and the Alexander Film Co., the world's largest producer and distributor of short length film advertising for theatre screen and television. We were fortunate to be there when they were shooting a film advertisement.

Potts-Sanders

Miss Oretta Sanders became the bride of James Potts at 8 PM Saturday, May 29, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Mobley. Rev. O. L. Jones performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Potts of Hedley are the parents of the couple.

The scene of the wedding was in the living room. The mantle, beautifully decorated with pink and white flowers, intertwined through the canopy accented by bowls of pink and carnations flanked with baskets of fern, was the backdrop for the wedding party.

Music was provided by Miss Mary Nash, pianist, and Mrs. Ann Winegeart of Pampa, organist.

Candles were lighted by Miss Oretta Sanders, sister of the bride, and Miss Kathleen Spalding. Mrs. Joyce Woodard, sister of the bride, was attending matron of honor, and Miss Pat Pritchard, niece of the groom, was maid of honor.

The brides attendants wore street length pastel organdie frocks and corsages of white carnations.

Tomie Potts, nephew of the groom was best man.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a blue lace empire gown with ballerina length skirt and low neck embroidered with red pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a corsage of white gladiolas.

Mrs. Sanders, mother of the bride, wore a navy blue linen suit with navy and white accessories. Mrs. Potts, mother of the groom, wore an orchid nylon dress with white accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

The reception took place in the dining room of the Mobley home. The refreshment table was laid with a lace doily, centered with a bouquet of pink roses flanked by white tapers. Bridal figurines topped the three tiered wedding cake.

Mrs. Leon Reeves and Mrs. Winfred Doherty served the cake. Miss Mattie Lou McKee presided over the punch bowl, alternating with Miss Virginia Melton of Amarillo.

On a trip to New Mexico the bride will be at home, on the bench.

The bride wore away a white hat with matching hat. Her accessories were navy and white. Attending the wedding were the brides and relatives and relatives of the couple with a few close out of town guests were Tomie Potts, and Mr. and Mrs. Tucker and Mrs. Bob-

Sodalitas Club

The Sodalitas Club was entertained by Mrs. H. H. Hall, Thursday, May 20, with a "chicken in the rough" supper. The menu consisted of fried chicken and french fried potatoes, honey, hot rolls and butter and iced tea. The tables were attractive and the house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers. The invocation was given by Mrs. Sue Weatherly.

Mrs. Verda Hall then installed the following new officers in a beautiful candlelight ceremony: Mrs. Sue Weatherly, president; Mrs. Joy Stewart, vice president; Mrs. Dolores Ray, secretary; Mrs. Lavonia Swinney, treasurer; Mrs. Jo Ann Martin, reporter; Miss Thelma Moss, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Evelyn Messer, chaplain. The outgoing president, Mrs. Velva Gibson, presented all the outgoing officers with a beautiful corsage. Mrs. Gibson also presented Mrs. Hall with a little gift from the club to express our appreciation to her for the wonderful help she has been to us as our honorary member. Mrs. Geraldine Wiggins then presented Mrs. Gibson with a gift from the club as a token of our appreciation to her for being such a good president.

The vows for the double ring ceremony were spoken in the home of the groom's parents at 10:00 o'clock Saturday morning, May 29, by Jack Macky, minister of the Southside Church of Christ of Amarillo.
