The Hedley FFA boys made a nice showing in the County Stock Show at Clarendon Wednesday.

In the fine wool sheep division Bill Reeves won 1st, David Boliver won 5th and 8th, and Bobby Couch won 6th. In the medium wool group Bill Reeves won 1st and 2nd, and Blackie Johnson won 3rd and 4th. Bill Reeves showed both the grand champion and reserve champion sheep.

In the heavy steer class, Jimmy Waddell took 1st, Johnny Nash 2nd and V. C. Waddell 3rd. In the light steers Troy Harrison took 1st, Johnny Nash 2nd and Jimmy Waddell 3rd. Troy Harrison showed the grand champion and Jimmy Waddell the reserve champion.

In the swine show Corky Patterson had the grand champion and Rodney Seago the reserve champ on.

Owls Defeat Groom

Clicking for the Owls on the hardwood against Groom Tuesday were Allen Cope, Don Reeves, Joe Wood, Terry Bailey, Bill Reeves, and Benny Leeper.

The ball game was a goal to goal swap-out, which proved to be a thriller for everyone involved, including the terrifically yelling crowds from each side.

Every fan present saw the Hedley High School boys playing with the desire of good school spirit and there was certainly plenty enthusiasm wrapped up in every player and every play attempted.

Leading the score sheet, was Allen Cope who ducked 23 points and was also terrific on every rebound. Don Reeves followed Cope with 15, Bill Reeves ducked 12, Terry Bailey clicked for 4 and Joe Wood sank a long one for 2.

Don and Bill Reeves proved their ability by showing Groom that their Guards just weren't fast enough to keep up. One good fake from the brothers and the boys had the ball bouncing off the backboard into the net on some mighty fine driving lay-up shots.

The score by quarters saw the score tied 11 to 11 the first quarter, Groom ahead 23 to 19 the 2nd quarter, and Hedley led the last two quarters 33 to 31, and 56 to 41.

Owls Beat Wellington

The Owls clubbed Wellington last Friday with a fast finish in the 4th quarter to take the game by 21 points. The final score read 61 to 40.

The Owls just seemed floor-fast in the first 3 quarters and their shots just wouldn't split the net. The battle was really a close race up until the 3rd quarter when it seemed that the boys were determined to win by a margin instead of a close decision and this they did. The Owls poured 22 points into the wavering net in the 4th period while Wellington only ducked 3 foul shots.

High point honors for Hedley was Cope with 24, Bill Reeves 13, Don Reeves 12, Bevers hit for 10, and Bailey sank a field shot for 2.

Hedley was ahead the first quarter 13 to 12, Wellington the second 24 to 23. Hedley led the last two quarters 39 to 37, and 61 to 40.

Livestock Judging

The Hedley FFA Chapter entered a team in the Swine Judging held at Plainview Friday, Jan. 21. The members of the team were Richard Stotts, V. C. Waddell, John Jenknis, and Carroll Gilchrist. The Hedley team placed second and Carrol Gilchrist was third high point man in the entire contest.

Basketball News

The Owlets dropped their game to Wellington last Friday by 6 points losing 39 to 45.

Taking high point honors for the Owlets was Jean Sanders who drove in 12 points, closely followed by team-mate Jane White with 11 and Nancy Hunsucker was nipped and tucked with 10, Judy Wynn ducked 3, McPherson sank a long shot for 2 and Wanda Hansard split the net on a free throw to finish out the scoring sheet.

The Hedley Owlet squad consists of forwards: Jean Sanders, Jo Ann Bolid, Judy Wynn, Nancy Hunsucker, and Jane White; guards: Wanda Hansard, Faye Baker, Sandra Davis, Glenda Hansard, and Catolyn McPherson.

There were some mighty good ball games in the Hedley Gym Tuesday night. The Owlets bowed out to Groom by 8 points, the final score being 36 to 44.

Working the ball in nicely to the pivot girl was forwards, Jane White, Jean Sanders, Judy Wynn, and Jo Ann Bolin. All split time at front with Nancy Hunsucker sparking the team on pivot to take the high light with 16 points. Next in order came Jean Sanders who sank 10, Jo Ann Bolin and Jane White sank 4 apiece and Judy Wynn made 2.

The forwards really showed their determination, but giving the ball to the forwards were four outstanding guards who all split equal time on the court. They are Carolyn McPherson, Wanda Hansard, Sandra Davis and Glenda Hansard.

Mrs. Bill Jones, the former Carolyn Reeves, underwent an appendectomy in a Canyon hospital last Thursday.
