VOL. 45

HEDLEY, DONLEY COUNTY, TEXAS, SEPT. 23, 1955

NO. 47

Hedley P.-T. A.

Rep. Elbert Reeves of Matador gave a very informative discussion of School Problems and Legislation before an interested group of parents and patrons at the regular meeting of the PTA Monday evening. Mr. Reeves spoke especially of those problems confronting the small school district. He emphasized how important it is for parents to take an interest in their schools, and commended Parent-Teachers Association for its work.

Plans were made Monday night for the PTA to operate a Food Booth again this year at the Cotton Festival, and also to enter a float in the Festival Parade.

Policy Meeting

There will be a county wide policy development meeting at the Lelia Lake Gym Monday night, Sept. 26, at 7:30, sponsored by the Donley County Farm Bureau. The purpose of the meeting is to help improve our farm economy by a general discussion of issues that are of great importance to us as ranchers and farmers.

Stanley Garnett, Dist. 1 Director of Texas Farm Bureau, will be in charge of the meeting, and Odell Frazer, area representative will assist.

You will please bear in mind that this is to be an open meeting for the benefit of ranchers and farmers and not necessarily Farm Bureau members.

Booster Club

The Hedley Booster Club purchased the first Hedley bale of cotton from Homer Durham for 40¢ a pound. The bale weighed 472 lbs. and brought $188.80. The bale will be given away at the Cotton Festival.

Birthday Party

A group of neighbors and friends got together and surprised Miss Sallie Page on her 75th birthday last Friday afternoon. Miss Page received many nice gifts and cards which she appreciated very much.

It's a new grandson for Mrs. Roy Jewell, a 6½ lb. boy born Sept. 10 to Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Hopson of Hereford. He has been named Van Carroll.

Win at County Fair

The Hedley Garden Club made a fine showing at the county fair last week end. They took 35 arrangements, and brought back 10 blue ribbons, 8 red ones, and 5 white ones.

The FHA girls also did well, taking first place with their display.

In the swine show Berle Owens won a first place with his Light Duroc barrow.

LIONS ROAR

This week is Ladies Night at the Lions Den. Eating time is 8 PM with the Lelia Lake ladies feeding. A good out of town program has been arranged. Come and bring a guest. Cost is $1.00 per plate.

Next week there will be a directors meeting at the Lions Den. All Festival committeemen are urged to attend this meeting. A good attendance was at last week's meeting and lots of things were accomplished.

Methodist Men's Banquet

James Willson of Floydada is the guest speaker for the Methodist Men's Fellowship banquet to be held in their fellowship hall Wednesday, Sept. 28, at 7:30 PM. This is to be a father and son affair with emphasis on a happy time together with food, fellowship, singing, and a good talk by a successful young business man who plans to drive 200 miles in order to make this date.

Men who do not have sons above about 12 years are asked to find one for the evening and bring him as a personal guest. J. C. Hinds is the toastmaster arranging the program. Ross Springer is arranging for the food and arrangements. Henry Moore, Clifford Johnson, Dr. D. H. Cox, Ray Moreman, and Jack Brumley are the committee on attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Haire of Chillicothe, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haire of Louisville, Ky., Mrs. Mattie Thompson of Los Angeles, and Mrs. George Haire and son are cousins Mr.

Cotton Festival

The time has been set for the Novelty and Pet parade to be held at 11 AM Friday morning of the Cotton Festival and the Grand Parade at 1:30 PM Saturday. The committee would like to have as many floats as possible in the parade this year as bands are expected and more floats will be needed to space the bands. Frank Murray, Woodrow Farris, and Jap Shaw have been named on the float committee.

The National Cotton Council of America is shipping a four season Cotton wardrobe valued at $400 to be used in promoting the Festival and in an all cotton style show. There will be twenty-five all cotton garments designed by the leading designers of America.

With the outside interests pledging their aid, if the locals do their bit, this year's Festival should be our biggest and best.

To Wed In October

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Grimsley of Hedley, Texas, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Lavonia Mae Swinney, to Frank Skidmore of Pampa, Texas. They plan to be married about Oct. 19, 1955.

CPO and Mrs. Robert Pickett have been visiting here from Long Beach, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Tucker of Estelline visited here Sunday.

Magazine Sales

The 7th, 8th, and 9th grades of the Hedley Schools are promoting the sale of magazines in our community, which will be profitable to the students as well as to the Athletic Club. The Athletic Club undertook this sponsorship to raise money for the purpose of having better equipment in the field of sports offered by the Hedley Schools.

Here is the way the system works: the sale of the Saturday Evening Post, Ladies Home Journal, Better Farming, and Holiday gives the Athletic Club one half the selling price. On all other magazines the club gets 30 percent.

The students receive credit for many different sorts for

Queen Contest

SANDRA YOUREE, 1954 QUEEN

Queen Sandra Youree will reign over Cotton Festival activities until she crowns her successor at the Cornation Ceremonies Friday night of the Festival, which will be October 21st.

Any unmarried girl attending either Quail, Lelia Lake or Hedley high schools is eligible to be a contestant to succeed to the throne of Queen Sandra. All contestants are asked to be at the Hedley Theatre Monday night, Sept. 26, to appear on stage between shows. Evening dress is preferred.

According to the Queen committee of Clifford Johnson, C. H. Reid, and J. M. Baker, this year's contest will be conducted somewhat differently from those in the past in order to give each contestant an equal chance.

To you Dear Friends,
Thank you for the beautiful flowers, the precious cards, hankies and most of all thank you for your prayers. All of these expressions of love made my illness much easier to bear. May you have such expressions of love shown you in your time of illness is my prayer.
