Ex-Senior Banquet

One hundred and two signed the register at the Ex-Senior banquet last Saturday evening and enjoyed a fine program and good meal of turkey and dressing, etc.

During the business session Lionel Blankenship was elected president, Winfield Mosley vice pres., and John Nash secretary.

Charles Neal Johnson was toast master. After the invocation by J. S. Hins, Earl Tollett gave the welcome and Mrs. Myrtella Deahi the response. Adell Myers gave the president's message and Lionel Blankenship read a talk made by Mrs. Davenport to the class of '27 when they graduated. The reading of this talk is an annual custom.

After the meal was completed the group went to the auditorium where they were entertained by a good program directed by Miss Myrtle Reeves.

Legion Auxiliary

The regular meeting of the Legion Auxilliary will be held at 7:30 PM, Dec. 6. All members are urged to be present and to bring prospective members along.

Basketball News

The Hedley Owls and Owlettes played the Wellington Rockets and Rockettes last Saturday.

In the girls game the Owlets gained a slight 4 point edge in the 1st quarter, but they lost it, and the half time score was tied 11 to 11. Then the Rockettes shifted into high and at the end of the next quarter led by 13 points. The Owlets gained a point during the final quarter making the final score a sad 27 to 39. The Rockettes are a hard team to beat, and to quote Coach Martin, "One of those girls had the finest 'touch' for a ball of almost any girl I've ever seen." Judy Wynn took high point honors with a hard fought 12 points. She was followed by Sims with 10, Sanders 3, and Hinds 1. Houdashell rounded out the forwards. The guards, who made Wellington fight for their points were McPherson, Linda and Sandra Davis, Carter, Alexander, and Sanders, who played both positions.

The boys on both teams fought hard for an 11 to 11 tie in the first quarter. Then the Rockets started to work hard and made the half time score 25 to 31. The Owls worked hard during the second half and at one time they were only 1 point behind, but they lost to the Rockets 49 to 53. Bill Reeves received high point honors with 25 points. Also keeping the Rockets busy were Bailey with 13, McCarty 6, Owens 4, and Waddell 1.

The Hedley Owls and Owlettes played Lakeview Tuesday.

The Owlets opened the game with a tight 11 to 13, Lakeview's favor, for the first quarter. The Owlets then were gradually beaten down by Lakeview. Halftime score was 17 to 22 and final score was 29 to 51. Judy Wynn took high point honors with 14 points. Also scoring were McKee 6, Sims 4, Houdashell 2, and L. Davis 1.

The Owls won a smashing victory from Lakeview 72 to 25. Merle Owens popped the net for 16 points and high point honors. Butler and Reeves each made 13, Bailey 12, McCarty 10, B. Owens and Waddell 4 each.

Mrs. Christine Larsen, and Lindy and Lana Edling of Houston, and Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Swinney, Norma and Susan visited in the J. M. Baker home last weekend

Harvest Festival

The Harvest Festival sponsored by the PTA at the school Friday night was well attended. The evening's fun was climaxed by the coronation ceremony in which Glenda Hansard, the Senior's candidate, was crowned Queen of the Harvest Festival, and Patsy Alexander, seventh grade candidate was crowned Grade School Princess. An entertaining program of songs and readings, participated in by members of the various grades, followed the coronation ceremony.

The classes of the school cleared a total of $580.00 with their booths, etc., of which the PTA will receive ten percent. The PTA also cleared $44.00 on their food booth.

The PTA wishes to express their sincere appreciation to each person who had a part in helping to make the Harvest Festival the success it was. Especially do they wish to thank the teachers who had charge of the coronation ceremony and program, and the decoration of the stage.
