Jerry Wayne Bailey

Graveside services for Jerry Wayne Bailey, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Bailey of Plainview, were conducted there Friday by Robert Hawkins, minister of the Ninth and Columbia Street Church of Christ in Plainview. The infant passed away last Wednesday in an Amarillo hospital.

Besides the parents, the baby is survived by a sister, Beverly Ann, the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Davis of Amarillo, and two great-grandfathers, T. F. Hefner of Borger and E. E. Bailey of Hedley. The child was also a great-nephew of Loyd Bailey of Hedley.

P. T. Boston Dies

P. T. Boston, 62, owner of the Piggly Wiggly store in Shamrock since 1929, passed away in a hospital there early Sunday morning. Funeral services were held Monday from the First Baptist Church there by Rev. J. E. Byers. Burial was in the Shamrock cemetery with Richerson Funeral Home in charge.

Mr. Boston was born Aug. 16, 1894, in Whitesboro. He lived in Hedley for a number of years and was president of the First State Bank here before moving to Shamrock. He was a Mason and a Knight Templar and a member of the Shamrock Booster Club. He was a veteran of World War 1 and was a member of the Shamrock Legion Post.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, Paul T. Boston of Colorado City and Charles D. Boston of Houston, three brothers, U. J. and Louis Boston of Amarillo and Jerry Boston of Pampa, a sister, Mrs. Otto Myers of Childress, and four grandchildren.

Card of Thanks

I want to express my thanks to each of you for the many cards and gifts we received this Christmas.

Friendship is a little closer, and brotherly love means a little more than it did before.

May the Lord bless you through the new year.

Again I say thank you for the merry Christmas.

The J. S. Tiptons

Those visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hoggard over the holiday week were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Watson and son Johnnie, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Spray and baby Charlene Lynn, all of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Jett B. Hoggard and daughter Jeanie of Plainview, Mrs. Gene Brown and daughter Gloria of Altus, Okla., Miss Deloris Messer of McKnight, Jimmie Ray Hoggard and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. To Receive Award

Jan. 10 at the regular meeting of the Hedley Lions Club, Mack Sims will be presented with the Lions Club award for being one of the outstanding conservation farmers over a period of years in the Donley County Soil Conservation District. One of the District Supervisors will present the award to Mr. Sims.

In an effort to promote more interest in wildlife in the District, an interesting and interesting film on wildlife, entitled "Bob White Thru The Year" will be shown as a part of the program.

Methodist Church

Attendance was almost normal on Sunday morning and at least average that evening. A number of visitors were in the congregation.

Next Sunday we will have Sunday School and the two worship services at the usual hours. It usually won't cost as much to go to church as it does to stay at home, in a real sense. On that evening the commission on membership and evangelism is to meet the usual place a half-hour before church. James Glasscock gave us some incentive for renewal of evangelism with his meditation last Sunday evening on Psa. 19, based on a shorter talk given at M Y F.

Jan. 9 at Memphis those interested in adult educational work in the church are to meet and hear some one who attended a recent convocation in Ft. Worth. The next three Wednesday evenings will be devoted to a church-wide mission school, on rural work. That will bring us down to February, the month of hearts. Who has yours?

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Franklin during the Christmas holidays were Mrs. Franklin's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Kent Bellah of Saint Jo, and her nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Regal and children of Amarillo.

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my sincere thanks to all my friends for the many cards, visits and letters I received while I was ill. I appreciated them all very much.

May God bless every one of you.

Cousins Party

Our cousins met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Spalding Saturday night, Dec. 22. What with 22 cousins present and a bountiful buffet type (helpy-selfy) dinner, followed by many games and topped off with a Christmas tree and exchange of gifts, we had a wonderful time.

The cousins are grandchildren of Mrs. J. S. Beach of Hedley. Our 1957 Christmas party will be in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill West of Groom, Texas. We always look forward to and plan all year for our cousins party.

The Spalding's house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and the highlight of the decorations was a beautiful table center made by Mrs. James Evans. Thanks so much, Opal

IT DOESN'T ALWAYS
 PAY TO BE BRAVE...

Adults too often will put on a show of courage with a "cold," rather than retire and rest—and call the Doctor. Pneumonia sometimes attacks such stalwarts.

Do not try to be brave with a "cold," however simple. Follow the well-established guidance—rest, eat a well-balanced diet, and drink plenty of water and fruit juices. If symptoms persist, call your Doctor promptly, while there is still time for treatment of the current illness and prevention of possible hazardous complications. If medicines are indicated, we will be happy to render the best in Pharmaceutical service in filling your Doctor's prescriptions.
