Giles Picnic

The second revival of the old Giles picnic was again a big success last Thursday on the banks of Buck Creek. Over 200 attended the affair and reported a fine reunion and a great feed at noon, with far more food than those present could eat. Flip Breedlove barbecued the meat, and everyone in this area knows that Flip's name on a barbecue is a guarantee of the best. The beef was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Houston of the Caprock Angus Farm.

Bob Ayers was MC for the event, and all enjoyed a fine program of music and singing, also a talk in the afternoon by State Representative Will Ehrle. Mrs. Virginia Rogers was re-elected president of the group, Lowell Houston vice president, and Mrs. Lowell Houston secretary.

Among the highlights of the picnic, those coming the longest distance to attend were Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Thaxton of El Monte, Calif., and Mrs. Laverne O'Bannon and children of Monterey Park, Calif. Two old ball players who played on the Giles team 51 years ago were present, Charlie Shaw and Fred Watt. Mrs. E. M. Glass, daughter of pioneer residents Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Watt, is probably the longest resident who is still living at Giles. However, A. E. Ranson Jr. is probably the only person who has lived at Giles all his life. He still lives on the same place first settled by his grandfather, Sir Thomas Ranson, who came over from Ireland.

Those visiting in the home of Mrs. J. A. Lemmon last week and attending the Giles Picnic were Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Thaxton of El Monte, Calif., Mrs. Laverne O'Bannon and children of Monterey Park, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. V. F. James, Little Rock, Ark., Brian and Mike Guinle, Memphis, Tenn., Claude Thaxton, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thaxton and sons Billy and Al of Denver, Colo., Wince Thaxton of Cortez, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. Otis Alexander of Wichita Falls, Mrs. Emmett Thompson of Quanah, Mrs. J. P. Alexander and Mrs. Elton Johnston of McLean, Mrs. Dale Johnston and son of Pampa, Mrs. Betty West and girls of Groom, and R. A. Lemmon of Memphis.

This was the first time the Thaxton brothers and sister had been together for 35 years.

Fire Dept. Meeting

The Fire Dept. held regular drill night Monday night. Since the weather prevented outside drill some lessons on the theory of fire fighting were reviewed, also several laws on fire apparatus.

We also thank Mrs. O'Neill Weatherly and Mrs. Frank Murray for the delicious cake and cookies.

The public please take notice: among the laws discussed we were reminded that the following are prohibited by law: parking within 15 feet of a fire hydrant, following a fire truck closer than 500 feet, parking in the same block with a fire and running over a fire hose, even if it is a private driveway.

George H. McMinn

Funeral services for George H. McMinn, 40, killed Saturday when he attempted to move a telephone booth from the flood-threatened railroad bridge near Estelline, were held Monday in the First Baptist Church in Estelline. Rev. Joe Allison, pastor, officiated. Burial was in the Childress cemetery.

Legionnaires from the local post taking part in the military service were Booker Shaw, Dee Franklin, Obe Holland, Roy McKee, Malcolm Glass, J. L. Chesser, L. E. Blankenship, Jesse Beach, Buck Jones, Wayne Latimer, Troy Guy, Don Reeves, L. D. Moore, and Charlie Foster. Don Cox served as bugler.

McMinn, a Ft. Worth and Denver Railroad section worker, is survived by his wife, a son, James, his mother, Mrs. May McMinn of Childress; a brother, Cecil McMinn of Childress, and four sisters, Mrs. Marie Lester of Ardmore, Okla., Mrs. Paul Butler of Amarillo, Mrs. Ima Timmons of Paducah, and Miss Ruthie McMinn of Childress.

Visits Here

G. C. Hilton of Springdale, Ark., was a visitor here last Sunday. His parents lived in the Rowe community 50 years ago. He was inquiring about the family of Ueue Silas Adamson, the Beaty family and others.

He visited the cemetery, where he had a brother buried. He was on his way to California on business. While here he left a nice contribution to the cemetery fund.

Entertains

As a token of appreciation to the many friends who remembered Nancy at graduation time, she and her mother, Mrs. C. R. Hunsucker, were hostesses at a social hour in their home Friday afternoon, May 31, from 4 to 5 o'clock. The guests were greeted by the two hostesses and registered by Judy Wynn. In the room where the gifts were on display were Kathleen Spalding, Jean Sanders, and Lina Jenkins.

The beauty of the home was added to by silver containers of pink rosebuds and carnations and tall burning pink tapers. Piano selections were played by Susan Cox during the social period in the house.

After the gifts were viewed guests were invited out to the spacious patio and back yard. A picnic table laid with a red linen cloth and centered with a tray of cookies and sided by a large wheelbarrow with iced cakes presented a very picturesque picture. Drinks were served by Mrs. A. T. Simmons. Recorded music was furnished by Don Cox and Billy Wiggins.

A large number of guests enjoyed the occasion.
