NO. 38

Couch-Christian

Miss Diane Christian of Vera and Robert H. Couch of Hedley were united in marriage on Saturday evening, July 8, at the Methodist Church in Vera. Rev. David Binkley of Seymour performed the ceremony in a setting of tropical greenery and white candles in spiral candelabra.

The traditional wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Crow, and Doris Hardin of Vera sang "I Love You Truly," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her brother, Calvin Christian of Seymour, the bride wore a full length dress of white Chantilly lace with train, full length sleeves, a fitted bodice with V neckline and a full skirt. Her shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a white coronet accented with seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of white orchids atop a white Bible.

Maid of honor was Miss Judy Bonner of Ft. Worth, who wore a blue street length scalloped organdy with blue accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jack Bentley of Fort Worth, sister of the bride, who wore a white street length scalloped organdy with white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias, and Mrs. Calvin Christian of Seymour, sister-in-law of the bride, who wore a pink street length scalloped organdy with pink accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. Flower girls were Pamela Patterson of Arlington, Cindy Christian of Seymour and Lesley Kay Smith of Fort Worth. Best man was Tommy Loftin of Graham. Ushers and candlelighters were Morris Christian, Leonard Mullins, and Dickie Joe Hefner.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Christian, wore a street length dress of blue lace with blue accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother, Mrs. Couch, wore a suit of cerise silk with harmonizing accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. In the receiving line were the bride and groom, Mrs. Luther Christian, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Couch, Miss Judy Bonner, Mrs. Jack Bentley and Mrs. Calvin Christian. Miss Martha Kay Walker of Kermit presided at the register. Mrs. David

Orval W. Tate

Funeral services were held Thursday of last week in the First Methodist Church here for Orval Winfred Tate, 41, who was killed Tuesday in an airplane crash near Portales, N. Mex. The services were conducted by Rev. C. C. Lamb. Burial was in Rowe cemetery here under direction of Spicer Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were O. F. Messer, Dr. D. H. Cox, Bill Clay, Chester Walker, Clifford Johnson and Hobart Moffitt.

Mr. Tate was born at Hedley Oct. 30, 1919. He was a veteran of World War II and was a member of the Baptist Church. He moved to Portales in 1946 and was employed as a mechanic at the Riding Motor Co. there.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tate of Hedley; one daughter, Mrs. Nell Marie Cox of Portales; and one sister, Mrs. Juanell Carson of Borger.

Mack Shaw of Flagstaff, Ariz., visited here last Wednesday and Thursday. He had come to see his brother, Archie Shaw, who was ill in a Borger hospital. We understand that he has since been moved to the VA hospital in Amarillo.

R. H. Alexander and family and Mr. and Mrs. Benny Lesley of Denton visited here last week.

Patterson of Arlington poured punch, and Mrs. Joe Smith served the beautiful three tiered white wedding cake.

For going away the bride chose a navy blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Couch is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Christian of Vera. She is a graduate of Vera High School and has been attending North Texas State College at Denton. Mr. Couch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Couch of Hedley. He is a graduate of Hedley High School and received his degree in June from North Texas State.

The couple are making their home in Hedley for the summer before Mr. Couch goes to his fall teaching assignment.

Hedleyans attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Couch, Ernest Johnson, Dickie Joe Hefner and Leonard Mullins.

Saunders-Clendennen

Miss Judy Saunders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Saunders of Hedley, and Doyle Clendennen, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clendennen, also of Hedley, were united in marriage Saturday evening, July 8, at the First Baptist Church in Hedley. Rev. J. S. Tipton of Carter, Okla., former Hedley pastor, performed the double ring ceremony in a setting of pink and white gladiolas, greenery, and pink candles, carrying out the bride's chosen colors of pink and white.

Miss Carolyn Stephens furnished the traditional wedding music, and Miss Sue Alexander sang "Because."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length wedding dress of white silk organza over taffeta. The fitted bodice featured a sweetheart neckline and three quarter length sleeves of French illusion lace, which continued to a point at the waistline. Her elbow length veil of illusion fell from a white tiara of orange blossoms accented with seed pearls. For something old and borrowed she carried a handkerchief belonging to her great-grandmother Lide, for something new her dress, and for something blue her garter completed the tradition. Her bridal bouquet was of white carnations with satin streamers bearing miniature flowers.

Maid of honor was Miss Sandra Saunders, sister of the bride, who wore a dress of pink silk with pink accessories, and a corsage of pink and white carnations. The bride's mother, Mrs. Saunders, wore a dress of white silk with orchid accent, white accessories, and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother, Mrs. Clendennen, wore a white linen sheath dress with blue embroidery, white accessories and a blue carnation corsage. Merle Owens, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Ushers included Jerry Finchum, Loyd Dean Messer, Danny Davis, and Billy Wiggins.

General Telephone Company of the Southwest has announced that effective July 15, 1961, their Clarendon business office is being closed and Hedley accounts are being moved to the Memphis business office. R. L. Brewer, District Manager, advised that the change was necessary due to the rising cost of operations. Brewer stated that, in an effort to economize, a number of larger companies are finding it necessary to centralize collection of accounts.

For their convenience in mailing payments to the Memphis business office Hedley customers will continue to receive a postage-paid business reply envelope with each monthly telephone bill.

Customers desiring information concerning their bill, or wishing to order additional telephone service, should continue to follow instructions in the current directory and inquiries will be directed to the Memphis business office.

Brewer also announced that Mrs. Ardath White, present cashier in the Clarendon business office, is transferring to the Memphis business office and will continue to handle Hedley accounts.
