Moten Resigns; Boyd Is Editor

Change Will Be Next Week

Dolph Moten, who under the direction of W. H. Graham, Jr., veteran Parmer County newspaperman, founded this newspaper in June, 1955 and has served as editor-publisher since, has announced his resignation, effective February 5.

Leland Boyd, who has worked as news editor of The Friona Star since June of this year, has purchased Moten's interest in The Blade and will take over publishing duties February 6. Boyd will move here from Friona next week. Also included in his immediate plans is marriage. He and Miss Bonnah Brawley, Glen Rose, will be married in Glen Rose Friday, February 14. They will, of course, make their home in Bovina.

Boyd, 23, has a degree in agricultural journalism from Texas A&M College, as does Moten. Moten was graduated in June, '55 and Boyd two years later.

The news editor also attended Tarleton Agricultural College at Stephenville two years and is a graduate of Chilton High School.

Under Moten's tenure, the theme of The Blade has been "The Newspaper That Works for A Bigger, Better Bovina." Boyd says the idea will continue to be in effect and editorial columns will be aimed in that direction.

Mrs. Sally Whitesides who has served as The Blade's society editor since January, '57, will continue in that capacity.

In announcing his resignation this week, Moten failed to mention plans for the future. "I've still got one more Blade to put out," he said.

Boyd is scheduled to be here tomorrow (Thursday) and Friday to meet businessmen as well as other citizens.

One thing I like about show business is that people are judged on the basis of their ability, not because of their race color, or creed. And that's the way it should be in every walk of life. — Faye Emerson

Lodge Makes Plans For Public School Week In County

For the eighth year, Texas Public Schools Week will be observed in Parmer County in March. Cooperating in the sponsorship of this event to spotlight public schools is the Texas Grand Lodge of A. M. & F. M.

To emphasize the program locally, M. H. Sylvester of Friona, district deputy grand master of District No. 100, has appointed committeemen in the two Parmer County lodges.

They are J. E. Sherrill of Bovina for the Farwell Lodge, and John R. Cook for the Friona Lodge.

Sylvester indicates that other workers will be named to assist these committeemen in promoting Public Schools Week.

HOW ABOUT THAT?

The lead story in this issue sorta shakes me up when I think about it. However, it's there nonetheless and it's true, of course. I will try to make no more comment about what it says until next week. By then, I may be so tongue-tied I can't get anything said.

ADRIAN'S GOOD

Adrian's boys basketball team is good. Local fans got to witness an exhibition of just how good here Friday night. They raked the Mustangs, a pretty fair country ball club, 50-26.

How good they are . . . and how lucky they are . . . won't be determined, I feel safe in saying, until after district play is complete, and they advance into faster competition. They were bi-district champs last year and met defeat in the first game of the regional tournament.

They have some . . . I'm not sure how many . . . returns from that team. They've improved with age and experience and have basketball savvy and confidence that isn't an every year occurrence at anybody's school.

It's a pleasure to watch them in action. It would, of course, be a greater pleasure if the home team wasn't taking a beating in the process but that is as someone once said "the way the cookie crumbles."

The last team seen in Williford Gym that could compare with this year's Adrian aggregation was the Mustangs of 1955-56. Frankly I think the '56 Mustangs were a better team. And the locals possibly had still a better team the year before that.

But that's taking nothing from the Adrian boys. A team wouldn't have to be as good as the Mustangs of two years ago to be a very good ball club. Adrian's weakness if there is one, could possibly be a lack of reserve strength. They have speed, they have the basketball savvy and confidence mentioned above, they have the ability to make the ball go through the hoop when they throw it in that direction, they have capable ball handlers, they can operate the fast break or they can play ball control, depending on the situation, they are good rebounders, and they have enough height for a Class B club.

Bovina fans are good sports. They're not exactly in the habit of taking defeats like the one of Friday night, but they did and bragged on Adrian's team at the same time. That was admirable. Wouldn't it be great if the Mustangs could beat the defending district champion before the season is over?

DIDN'T HIRE HIM

Before I quit writing about sports again, I'll confess, admit, or something the Fightin' Texas Aggies didn't take my advice about hiring Jarrin' John Crow, their All-American halfback, to replace the departed "Bear" Bryant. However, their selection was, I think a good one.

As disappointing as last season was, feel sure it will be easy for the new man to show an improvement. I was ready to see Bryant make his exit after losing three straight games. There wasn't excuse one for that . . . especially that loss last November on the day most folks had turkey for dinner.

Junior Teams Take Trophies In Friona

Four Bovina teams participated in a junior tournament for Parmer County schools in Friona last week and came home with three trophies to show for their efforts. Also, a member of each team was named to the various all-tournament teams.

Freshman girls won second place. Junior high girls and freshman boys were each third place winners. Junior high boys finished out of the trophy class.

Members of the all-tournament teams were Brenda Jones, freshman girls; Don Cumpton, junior high boys; Jon Lynn Riddle, freshman boys; and Douise McCormick, junior high girls.

Fillies Slap Happy

The Bovina Fillies knocked Happy's Cowgirls from the ranks of the undefeated in District 3-B there Tuesday night, 44-41. In district play, each team had a 4-0 record before the game.

The Mustangs lost to the Cowboys, 45-35, in the sloppily-played nightcap.

The Fillies' win gave them a victory over each team in the league as first round play ended.

Janice Richards, with 25 points, was high scorer for the local girls. Joanie Ezell made 14 and Nancy Cumpton accounted for five.

The Fillies led at each period, 13-11, 30-18, and 38-29. Suffering an "off" night, the Mustangs fell behind early, but managed for a 20-20 tie at half-time after trailing 11-8 at the end of the first quarter.

It was in the third quarter that things got "out of hand" for the Bovina boys. They came back from the halftime rest "cold" and scored only two points. At the end of the quarter, they trailed, 37-22.

Dick Horn made 12 points, Jerry Burnett and Ramey Brandon seven each, Billy Burnam five, and Danny Morton and Jon Lynn Riddle two each.

ATTENDS MEETINGS

Mrs. Billie Sudderth attended two sub-district meetings of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church last week. Tuesday she and Mrs. Roul Barron went to Lazbud.

FRIDAY NIGHT—

Teams Split With Adrian

Bovina's girls and Adrian's boys took easy victories in Williford Gym Friday night as the two high schools met in their first District 3-B clashes of the season.

The Fillies won, 47-39, in a game that wasn't as close as the score indicated, and the Mustangs, who fell behind early and couldn't "get in the game" again against the flashy defending champions, lost, 26-50.

Joanie Ezell carried the scoring load for the Fillies as she pumped 20 points through the hoop. Janice Richards had 12, Nancy Cumpton eight, Joy Redden six, and Mildred Young

THREE OUT OF FOUR—Four Bovina basketball teams were entered in a tournament last week in Friona and three trophies were added to the school's collection. The freshman girls won second place and the junior high girls and the freshmen boys were each third place winners to account for the "hardware." The junior high boys were the only team to come home trophy-less. That's Charles Don Smith, girls' coach, looking over the most recent winnings. Out of nine chances this season, local teams have won eight trophies.

BAPTIST PASTOR—

Rev. Goodwin Resigns

Rev. Virgil Goodwin, who has served as pastor of First Baptist Church for the past four years, announced his resignation Sunday night. His plans for the future aren't complete but he will continue as a pastor.

Coming here from Gould, Okla.—where he was pastor for two years and four months—in February, 1954, Goodwin holds a bachelor of arts degree from Oklahoma Baptist University at Shawnee and a master of theology degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth.

During the time he was pastor here, a total of 237 people united with the membership of the church. Average Sunday School attendance has increased from 147 to 194. An annex to the church building has been completed and paid for and has been in use since June, 1954.

In the four years, a total of $83,000 was raised by the church for all purposes with $25,530 being given to missions.

A sparse, but interested, crowd was on hand Thursday night in the American Legion Hall to hear and see a film shown by Dr. Johnny H. Davis, head of crop research at Texas Research Foundation, experiment station at Halfway. The meeting was Bovina Lions Club-sponsored and the public was invited.

Warren Morton, Lions Club program chairman, served as master of ceremonies. Davis' talk followed a regular Lions Club meal and meeting in Bovina Restaurant.

W. L. "Preach" Edelman, a director of the foundation from Friona, spoke briefly at the beginning of the meeting and explained how the station was originated.

Undergoes Surgery In Plainview

Mrs. Joe Pinner was admitted to Plainview General Hospital Tuesday afternoon, January 21, and underwent major surgery Wednesday morning. Visiting her there Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Billy Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. Buck Ellison. Mrs. Ellison reported Monday morning that Mrs. Pinner was doing as well as could be expected. The family expects that she will be released the last of this week.

Anyone wishing to send cards or letters may address them to her, Room 215, Plainview General Hospital, Plainview.

Cake Sale Set

Mrs. Lady Armstrong has scheduled her annual cake, pie, and coffee sale to aid the March of Dimes for Saturday, Roy M. Crawford, community MOD chairman, has announced.

As it has in years past, the promotion will be held in Gaines Hardware and will last throughout the day. Mrs. Armstrong will be assisted by Mrs. Carl Rea and others.

Last year, the sale netted $182 for the drive.

A $1 donation to the March of Dimes will give the donor the right to drink coffee and eat cake and pie as many times during the day as he desires, Mrs. Armstrong says.

"We're glad to have this as a part of the MOD activities," Crawford says. "We're hoping a large number will enjoy the delicious refreshments and contribute to a good cause at the same time."

WITH PANCAKE SUPPER—

Study Club Nets $170 for Dimes

A pancake supper, to raise money for the March of Dimes, netted approximately $170 Friday evening. The supper was sponsored by Bovina Woman's Study Club and was held in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Buck Ellison, president of the local woman's civic organization, announced the results of the effort Monday morning. About 200 people were served, she reported.

The menu featured pancakes, bacon, coffee and hot chocolate and was prepared and served by members of the club. The supper, an annual project, raised about $140 last year.

Firms contributing foods and supplies for the fund-raising supper were J. T. Hammonds, eggs; Bovina Service Station and Grocery, sugar; Read's Grocery, salt, napkins and baking powder; General Mills, flour; and Worth Syrup Company, the syrup.

Bacon was contributed by Pinkney Packing Company, Combs' Grocery and Ronald Berggren, through Read's Grocery. Milk and cream were donated by Borden's and Campbell's Dairies and Plains Seal Dairy donated and served the hot chocolate. Wilson's Supermarket and Friona Piggy Wiggly contributed coffee. Oleomargarine was donated by Kimbells.

As president of the club, Mrs. Ellison expresses appreciation of the club and its members

FOR MAYOR'S OFFICE—

Sherrill Asks For Re-Election

J. E. Sherrill Jr., mayor of Bovina for the past two years, filed Monday night for re-election to a second term.

April 1 is the election date and Sherrill's present term expires at that time. He's the first to make arrangements to have his name placed on the election ballot.

City Secretary Henry Minter reported early this week that another individual had asked to file. However, at that time, filing forms were not available and the man agreed to return when they were ready. That happened Monday morning. The forms were prepared later that day.

"Any qualified voter is eligible to have his name placed on the ballot," Minter points out. Filing deadline is February 28.

To be a qualified voter in city elections, a citizen must have lived in the state one year, in the city six months and have a paid poll tax.

MONDAY NIGHT—

Fire Department Adds 4 Members

Bovina Volunteer Fire Department members elected new officers, discussed a membership campaign, and why there is a lack of interest in the fire department here in a special meeting to which the public was invited, Monday night in the American Legion Hall.

Four men became new members of the department at the meeting. They are Dub Mayhew, Charlie Gilbreath, Tommy Bonds, and Alvin Farrell.

Fire Chief Otho Hammonds was re-elected to that position. Herman Estes is assistant chief, Alfred Moody is secretary-treasurer, and Pat Kunselman was named assistant secretary-treasurer.

Bill Horton and Weldon Moody were named lieutenants. Bill Whitesides and Bob Englant will serve on the social committee for the next year.

A total of 22 attended with 18 of these being members. "The response from the public was poor," Hammonds says, "however, we're very glad to have the four new members and feel the meeting was anything but a failure, for that reason alone."

Teenagers Speak At Study Club Meeting Thursday

"Let the Teenagers Tell Us," was the theme of program Thursday afternoon when members of the Bovina Woman's Study Club met for their regular semi-monthly meeting in the club house.

Mrs. Buck Ellison, president, was in charge of the meeting and the afternoon was opened with the reading of the club collect. She also presided at a business meeting, in which plans to re-roof the club house were completed. The questions fell into five categories. Among those answered readily and candidly by the young people were "Why is there so much juvenile delinquency?" "Who or what is to blame for it?" and "What do you think can be done about the situation?"

On the subject of literature, the young people were asked such questions as "What do you think of the magazines on the stands today and available to youth?" "Do you approve of the risqué material available for young people to read?" and "Does literature have any effect on its readers?"

Questions on integration were answered by the youngsters, too. Some of these were "How do you feel about integration?" "Is the Supreme Court correct, in your estimation, in trying to enforce it?" Also, "What is your personal feeling toward colored people?" and "Do you oppose colored students in our schools?"

The entertainment of young people was also a subject for several questions, among them were "Do you approve of adult supervision of the entertainment of youth?" "Should there be planned entertainment for every hour of the day or does each need time for personal creative thinking?"

Two other questions asked of the panel members were "What is your opinion of the recent troubles in the schools of Clovis?" and "Do teenagers resent or approve of the unfavorable publicity given them in recent

Does God Answer Sinners' Prayers?

Most of the world today un- alienated. It is completely with- out authority from Jehovah for men to teach sinners that they should pray. Obedience is the way for sinners, not prayer.

An example of a sinner praying as Saul of Tarsus. Saul had seen the Lord Jesus and heard the words of His mouth and was taken into Damascus blind. The Bible tells us that he was praying and Ananias said, "And now why tarriest thou? Arise, and be baptized and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord" (Acts 22:16). Does this not strike you differently from what you so often hear today? The preacher didn't tell the sinner to "pray through" but to obey the Lord. In fact "three days and nights without water and bread" and in constant prayer did not avail Paul anything. Neither, my friends, will it avail anything today. Don't be deceived by the corruptible doctrines of men.

The Proverb writer states, "The Lord is far from the wicked; but he heareth the prayer of the righteous." Again Micah states "Then shall they cry unto the Lord, but he will not hear them; he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings."

Sinner friend, believe Christ to be the Son of God, repent of your sins and confess Christ as Lord before men. Complete your obedience by being IMMERSED INTO CHRIST. Arise from the watery grave of baptism with the sacrifice of prayer upon your lips knowing that God hears you. The Lord adds you to HIS CHURCH (Acts 2:47) which is His spiritual body and WHERE ALL SPIRITUAL BLESSINGS ARE. Be a Christian today.

Big Attendance At FB Meeting

A large attendance—more than 100 persons—was registered at the county-wide Farm Bureau meeting Tuesday night. Bureau officials were pleased with the turnout because the program was of an "all meat" variety with a minimum of entertainment. It was a policy discussion meeting in which the membership was encouraged to raise questions and discuss the organization's system for forming beliefs.

Starting off the evening was Cotton John Smith's presentation of the film, "The Seven Lean Years that Waxed Fat." Gilbert Kaltwasser, president of the county Farm Bureau, presided at the meeting that followed. State and national policy literature was handed out to the crowd and a discussion was made of several topics in agriculture.

On hand to lend information to the group were H. L. "Hub" King of Brownfield, district director, and C. H. DeVaney, state vice-president, who is from Coahoma.

The state veep gave high praise to county Bureau leaders, who have been influential on numerous occasions in helping shape the affairs of the organization on a state level.

The group discussion was started on the subject of grain sorghum. Price was the thing which seemed to interest most farmers, and prospects for next year's outlook were tossed about. Special legislation which might tie all feed grains together in a price support program based on relative feeding value was talked.

The discussion soon carried over into cotton, and both markets and price were factors leading the questions here. King pointed out that there is now a shortage of quality cotton and that the Farm Bureau is asking that allotment be increased this year to fill this need.

He made it clear, however, that he doesn't expect such action can be obtained for this year. He said the reasons are because cotton planting is already started in some parts of the country, and also that the "political" factor of the soil bank is against such action.

King said it would seem strange to legislators who, after voting a billion dollars to reduce cotton acreage through the soil bank, to come back and grant an increase in allotments.

«The High Plains Farm and Home»

DeVaney and King both agreed that, pricewise, things look good for cotton growers for the next two years, but that the long-term outlook is for shrinking markets and an allotment of 13½ million acres instead of 17½ million as soon as three years from now unless changes are made in the government farm program as relates to cotton.

Two phases brought up by Kaltwasser, those pertaining to wheat and the soil bank, drew little comment from the crowd. The Bureau officials termed "disappointing" the results of the present soil bank and said failure to adopt national FB recommendations was largely responsible.

Price supports was another subject with improved response. Kaltwasser commented at one point that he had noticed "in the local newspaper" (see last week's Farm and Home), where another farm organization had said "Farm Bureau is for 60 percent price supports. I just want to say that this is a bunch of baloney," Kaltwasser commented emphatically.

He went on to say that Farm Bureau has always approved the use of price supports for orderly marketing, but not for price fixing. "A lot of us are afraid—I am afraid—of what would happen without price supports," he said.

To show that price supports do not always mean more money to the farmer, however, he quoted figures that indicated that prices received by farmers on un-supported crops such as livestock, hogs, poultry and eggs, vegetables and others have averaged higher (on a parity scale) than "basic" commodities which are supported. "Whenever the government is big enough to give you everything you want, they're big enough to take it all away from you, too," he said.

Coffee and doughnuts followed the meeting.

Lazbuddie FU To Sponsor Supper

The Lazbuddie Farmers Union local will sponsor a chili and pie supper at the Lazbuddie school cafeteria Tuesday night, February 4. It will precede the basketball game with Vega at the school, and will start at 5:30 and continue through 7:15.

Proceeds will be used to send a delegate from the group to the national Farmers Union meeting in Washington next month. Tickets will be 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for children. The menu consists of chili, beans, pie, and a drink. The public is invited.

Union Members To Attend Meet

Former secretary of agriculture, Charley F. Brannan, now general counselor for the National Farmers Union in Denver, will address an all-group farm program development conference in Lubbock Friday, January 31, beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Alex Dickie, Jr., Denton, president of Texas Farmers Union, which originated the idea for the conference, says all producers of agriculture commodities and all farm organizations in the state will be invited to the conference.

Other sponsors include Grain Sorghum Producers, Plains Cotton Growers, Texas Wheat Growers, Texas Milk Producers Federation, Co-op Oil Mill, Producers Grain Co-op of Amarillo, and Cotton Marketing Co-op.

The primary purpose of the conference, Dickie said, will be to develop a comprehensive farm program that would have the backing of the producers of all agriculture commodities.

Attending from Parmer County will be several Farmers Union members. From Lazbuddie will be Wyle Bullock, T. O. Lesly, Freeman Davis, Clayton Graef, James Welch, Demp Foster, J. C. Redwine, and J. R. Harris. Others are expected to attend, also.

THE PARMER FARMER

by W. H. Graham Jr.

Onions are often responsible for tears, but more than usual were shed over their production last year, as most farmers of the High Plains found it difficult to market them profitably.

It's anybody's guess as to what conditions this year will be, but from early predictions, we'd venture to say that onions stand a good chance of bouncing back in 1958.

That is characteristic of many vegetables grown on an in-and-out acreage basis: first, a good year, then wham! the bottom dropped out. Two years ago onions were ringing the cash registers for the few farmers who tried them at $1,000 or better an acre.

Not so last year. Maybe they are due for another upswing. If they do make good this year, it'll simply mean another gyrating of that up-and-down pattern that has characterized them so long.

Incidentally, you might be interested to learn that Texas leads the nation in onion production, planting around 45,000 acres to the crop each year. Last year, onions grossed $15 million in the state.

Onions are big business in the lower Rio Grande Valley, where they are watered from the river. Around Laredo they occupy considerable acreage (well irrigation), and in the "winter garden" section southwest of San Antonio they are very popular (also well irrigation).

The principal area in which they are grown dryland is northeast Texas in Dallas, Collin, and Rockwall Counties. There, in the edge of the Blacklands, onions do well from time to time, but they washed out pretty badly last year, and before that, the drought had curtailed production drastically.

However, Northeast Texas is still a region to be reckoned with in onion growing. Here on the High Plains, farmers with lots of good land and plenty of comparatively cheap water have been watching such things as onion growing with considerable interest. And well they might, for when onions do good, they really raise the banker's eyebrows.

A few men are pioneering big-scale onion production in this area. You may recall the stories of J. T. Ford and sons, who had over 80 acres this past year.

Onions were first introduced to the United States just below the turn of the century, and, interestingly enough, the first commercial production was from the Laredo area, and the first sales were made in Milwaukee.

The seed originally came from the Canary Islands. Since then, plant research has produced better adapted onions for the Southwest and the crop has grown to one of major proportions.

And, as this is being written, it's snowing again! This is getting to be the damndest country. The old timers say this is nothing, we should have been here in 1908. Well, all we know is that downstate papers keep headlining these Panhandle snows, and most folks from central Texas and southward think of the High Plains as resembling a Montana plateau.

Moisture conditions for this time of year are the best they have been in a long, long time and prospects seem to be good for these conditions to hold good.

It looks as if we will get a late start on winter and early spring work, though, and after being so far behind on harvesting last year, farmers would just as soon get caught up on their work for a while.

Wyle Bullock says we erred when we reported the attendance at the Farmer's Union meeting in last week's Farm and Home. He says they had more than 100 seats and that wasn't enough.

The story estimated the crowd at 50. It was more like 150, says Wyle. This is one slip-up we can pass on to the printers. Leland Boyd, who wrote the story, did use the figure 150. It didn't come out that way in the paper, though.

Some other folks have been slipping up on figures. Among them is the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

Joe Jones told us of a story from the Lubbock paper a couple of weeks ago that showed the organization as estimating Parmer County cotton production at about 30,000 bales.

We sent them the F & H clipping that tallied ginnings to prove the county production at around 46,000 bales instead. They have notified us, "In our future information we will list Parmer County as producing 46,000 bales for 1957."

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

Work is being done this week on equipment and facilities for the new Oklahoma Lane Farm Supply, which is to be open for business soon—possibly by next week.

The firm, which will be owned by Wendol, Clarence, and Troy Christian and Harold Carpenter, and will be managed by Jimmie McGuire, will specialize in fertilizer. The owners are all local men.

They will have an 8,000-gallon anhydrous ammonia storage tank, and also will stock dry fertilizer. They are located adjacent the Oklahoma Lane Gin, about two miles north of the "O. L. Corner," and have offices with the gin.

Also, the company will have eight portable tanks and "at least" two pull-type applicators for rent to farmers. They handle the Dew Chemical line.

The men report they may branch out into other farm supplies in the future. They are the first retail-type store to locate in the Oklahoma Lane community.

The tallest shipment ever undertaken by a railroad stood 28 feet above the rails; longest single shipment was 183 feet long.

Will Land Breaking Pay this Year?

by FLOYD CRUME
A number of farmers have asked the question lately as to whether it would pay them to break their land this year with a breaking plow. The main facts that have prompted them to ask this question, as most of us know, are the high moisture condition of the soil and being late in being able to start the plowing operation. Nature has a better way of breaking down hardpans and

On the other hand, should we decide to plow the land with it as wet as it now is, we would not only lose the effects of nature but would place a hardpan at the plowed depth that would act just like a seal. We would decrease our water intake rate greatly in this way. Some farmers have expressed the fear that sorghum or corn residues will give trouble next spring at planting time and in cultivating. This should not give too much trouble for most farmers pull a large portion of the residue back to the surface when listing anyway. If you don't you are probably breaking too deep for these soils. It appears the best answer to the problem is to chisel the land two directions about six inches deep, apply your nitrogen fertilizer, and list. This should enable most farmers to make a needed cut in farm expenses, and keep yields high.

FOOD IN '58

Food supplies in the new year are expected to be large—almost as large as those of 1957, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. A strong demand for food from consumers also is expected next year, following the spending pattern that has marked recent high employment years.

Delegates Report On FB Conference

Gilbert Kaltwasser, Parmer County president, and Donald Christian, director from Bovina, attended a conference of county Farm Bureau presidents Monday and Tuesday, January 20-21, in Waco.

County presidents from 125 counties all over the state met to discuss methods of improving the organization on the county level and to set up standards for measuring achievements.

The county leaders were grouped into seven "task forces" to analyze the following phases of the county Farm Bureau: organizational structure and procedures, membership acquisition and maintenance, policy development and commodity program, policy execution and legislative program, service-to-members program, local projects and activities, and information and public relations.

Each of the seven categories was given a total valuation of 100 points for use in determining recognition awards for county Farm Bureaus each year. Heretofore these awards have been based only on membership accomplishments. Now, a county organization will have to "measure up" to high standards in all phases of Farm Bureau activity to be eligible for recognition awards.

The overall purpose of the conference was to strengthen the entire Farm Bureau organization on all levels by building more effective county Farm Bureaus.

Christian and Kaltwasser were also selected to sit on Texas Farm Bureau's Commodity Conference following the president's conference. Christian was a member of the field crops committee and Kaltwasser was on the water committee.

CLOTHING COSTS

Prices are heading upward on some clothing items in '58, according to extension clothing specialists. However, because of competition in the field, manufacturers and retailers are drifting away from across-the-board increases to pricing by item. Another hopeful note is the fact that this competition will produce a greater variety of clothing in the medium and better price lines. More than ever before, careful shopping will help to cut clothing costs.

Competition in a price field sets the level of quality you get. At a given price the product must include one or more such features as: style, fit and comfort, workmanship, strength and durability, resistance to shrinkage, color fastness; special features such as washability, crease resistance, etc. All this makes label information very important. Directions for care should be given and carefully followed by customers.

HUB COMMUNITY SALE—This aerial photo of the scene at the Hub Community Center Wednesday of last week shows the capacity of such a sale to attract a large crowd. Estimates say that 2,000 persons attended the sale.

Hub Community Sale Big Success

A whopping success is reported of the Hub community sale, staged Wednesday of last week at the community building.

Conservative guessers say that 2,000 persons attended the sale at one time or other during the day. All but a few of the sale items were disposed of, from an array of implements, household goods, and trucks.

Although a complete tabulation of the gross of the sale has not been figured, about $45,000 would be fairly close, according to a member of the Hub community association. This would net the association approximately $3,000 from the commissions which the auctioneers donated, the member said.

The Hub Home Demonstration Club fed about 500 of the 2,000 persons, ran out of food and refreshments, and turned many away, during the lunch hour of the sale.

Cars and pickups of persons who attended the sale lined both sides of the road for more than one-half mile.

salt. Then cover with boiling water and pressure about one hour at 10 pounds pressure. Store with other home canned foods and serve at any time you desire.

Since liver is one of our favorites, we would like very much to share our favorite recipe with you. It has been used so much the name has worn off, so for your recipe file it will just have to be filed under "Liver." Remove the skin from the edges of two pounds of sliced liver. Pierce the edges lightly with a fork to prevent curling while cooking. Season with salt and pepper.

Dip into flour and drop each piece into hot fat and fry quickly until browned. Then add 4 medium onions, chopped fine, tops of 4 green onions, a sprig of parsley, one tablespoon vinegar, and four tablespoons water.

Cover and cook slowly over a medium flame until onions are well cooked. Serve with creamed potatoes or other vegetables. This recipe will serve a family of six amply.

For a dessert that is different, try this recipe for an unusual pie.

BUTTERMILK PIE

1 cup sugar
¼ cup cornstarch
¼ teaspoon salt
2½ cups buttermilk
2 eggs, separated
½ cup chopped cooked prunes
1 nine inch baked pie shell

Combine sugar, cornstarch, spices, and salt in saucepan. Gradually stir in buttermilk and beaten egg yolks. Add prunes, and cook, stirring constantly until mixture thickens. Boil one minute. Pour into pie shell; chill well. Serve with topping of whipped cream or meringue of two egg whites (left from filling) and ¼ cup sugar.

It will not be very long now until fresh rhubarb will be in plentiful supply. For a very pretty salad which is sure to make a hit with every member of the family, use this recipe for Ruby Red Salad.

2 cups rhubarb—fresh or frozen
1/3 cup sugar
¾ cup water
2 tablespoons unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
2 cups frozen, sweetened sliced strawberries
1½ tablespoons lemon juice
8 pineapple slices, drained

Combine rhubarb, sugar, and water. Cook slowly until just tender. Soften gelatin in hot rhubarb mixture. Add strawberries and lemon juice; chill until slightly thickened in refrigerator. Pour into 1 quart mold. Chill until firm. Unmold on pineapple slices arranged on lettuce cups. Serves eight.

Carrot skins may be removed by dropping them in boiling water for five minutes. Then drop them in cold water and the skins will slip off.

When making congealed salad that calls for drained fruit, never throw the juice down the drain. Place it in a container in the refrigerator and use in punch.

If you have juice left from canned pickled fruits such as crab apples, pears and peaches, it may be used to baste smoked ham. The juice will give the baked ham a spicy flavor.

Read the following bit of advice somewhere. Don't know for sure whether it will work or not, but if it will, it is surely something all homemakers will be glad to learn.

To prevent paint odor, add one ounce of pure vanilla extract to a gallon of paint and stir well. The vanilla does not harm the color and can be added to any paint.

Evil comes of omission as well as commission.—M. Aurelius Antoninus give a demonstration on swine at the next meeting. Johnny Sprowls and Marshall Lee are going to give a demonstration on wiring a pump, at the February meeting.

Ketch-all

Korner

By Sally Whitesides

Some people live and learn—others just live. As for myself, I live first and incidentally learn as sort of an afterthought. Last week, for instance, I learned how to dye material a lovely shade of brown, with pure luck and a little daring.

It all happened after I had finished washing. It comes in spurts, but sometimes, I do get energetic enough to do more than just wash on wash day. Last week was one of those times, so I decided to dye a rug, curtains and bedspread for the back bedroom.

Being stranded at home without a car makes anyone improvise a great deal. Although the room to be matched is pink, I didn't have any pink dye on hand.

So, I started out with a package of red—which wasn't strong enough in the tub to give any color to that material. So I added a package of orange—and that made it a rather bilious shade. To counteract that, I went a package of purple—and two packages of yellow. Needless to say, there were dire misgivings in my heart as I dropped the material into the machine. But, joy of joys, the resulting color is a warm brown—that, incidentally, goes beautifully with the pink walls and green floor. My advice, though, is just don't try it. Even if you have the same blind luck as I did and get the color desired, the strain on the nerves as you drop the material into the machine just isn't worth it.

A mystery that has intrigued me for years is: How is it managed so that we always get the new gardening catalogues and magazines on the coldest day of the month? Last week, when the wind was whipping around the corners 90-to-nothing, what appears in the post office box but the loveliest of spring gardening catalogues. The effect, I'm sure, is always toward the positive. When we who love the gardens and see nothing but bare trees and drab grass, plans for a beautification project form in our minds.

While looking through one such catalogue, I found several variations of species that were unknown to me. One was the double gladiolus. Not only are they pictured to be "different" as well as lovely, but, they are hardy and have lots more petals per flower, and more flowers to the spike. One which caught my eye was the "Minnesota" which is quite tall and has a huge bloom—with a miniature floret in the center. The color, of course, is a deep red. I say, "of course," because red in a garden, no matter what the species of the flower, just does something to add beauty, in my estimation. On the gardening angle, may I beg a little? Last year, Mrs. Ike Quickele gave me two starts of wisteria, a climbing plant which I have dearly loved for years. But, because of a dog, a vacation and numerous hot days, both shoots died. If anyone is planning to trim his wisteria this year, if he'd give me a ring, I'd be more than happy to take some of the cuttings off his hands.

Several years ago, the late Mrs. Sally Potts told me that she fed her roses all year round—on tobacco. She said it made the bushes much hardier and the blooms were thicker and more vibrant in color. Have planned ever since to try it.

Another thing—it may have been a coincidence—but last year, the pink rose beside my back door bloomed more profusely than ever before—and I had been putting coffee grounds and tea leaves around the roots constantly.

Also, work used tea leaves into the soil around house plants. Don't really know whether it feeds them, but the mulch helps hold the moisture in the pot during both summer and winter. Careful, though, as too many and then too much water will mildew the soil and you are in trouble.
