Cotton Report

While unfavorable weather prevailed during the week, it was not the chief reason for the slow movement of the cotton crop according to the USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service in Memphis. Most farmers are waiting for a killing frost which occurred in this area last season on Monday, Nov. 18. Rain, ranging from a fraction of an inch to two inches over the weekend, plus heavy fog each morning this week has put farmers further behind in what is considered the latest harvesting season in a number of years.

K E Voelkel of the Memphis Cotton Classing Office stated that slightly over 3400 samples were classed during the week ending Friday, Oct 30, bringing the season's total to above 9400. This compared with nearly 23,000 samples classed last season as of the same date.

General Election

In the general election Tuesday, 383 votes were cast in the Hedley box. This compares with 496 votes cast in the first primary in May.

In the contested races, results were as follows:

- Johnson-Humphrey 270, Goldwater-Miller 83
- Yarborough 267, Bush 91
- Pool 291, Hayes 61, Johnson 2.
- Rogers 281, Price 84.

- Smith 298, Houston 51.
- Carr 309, Trice 54.

- Calvert 303, Calmes 50.
- James 302, Neumann 49.
- Langdon 309, Flanagan 58.
- Pope 306, Kennerly 59

Unopposed candidates received votes ranging from 325 for Ramsey to 348 for M. O. Weatherly, Justice of Peace

All three amendments carried here, No. 1 by 87 to 51, No. 2 by 91 to 37, and No 3 by 109 to 34.
