Crisler-Churchwell Vows Exchanged

Miss Lucretia Lorene Churchwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Churchwell of Plainview, and Lanny Royce Crisler son of Mr. and Mrs. Royce L. Crisler of Lubbock, were united in marriage on Saturday evening, July 8, in the First Methodist Church Chapel at Plainview. Dr. Marshall Rhew performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. J. W. King Jr., organist, furnished appropriate nuptial selections.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length formal gown of pure white Majesty cloth which was designed and made by Suzanne Wall of Lubbock in a princess line. The scoop neckline, brief sleeves and hemline were outlined with satin braiding. Tiny self buttons and satin braiding enhanced the front of the gown. The chapel train edged with satin braiding, buttoned on at the shoulders. The headpiece was a matching Dior bow accented with tiny self buttons holding a ballerina length veil of bridal illusion. She carried Phalaenopsis orchids and yellow sweetheart roses accented with sprigs of English ivy atop a rainbow Bible, a gift from Miss Mary Anne Kunz. For the traditional something old, she wore a petticoat of her grandmother's, the late Mrs. Perry V. Garoutte; borrowed, pearl necklaces and earrings belonging to her aunt, Mrs. Lee Parker of Dallas; blue, a garter made by the bride for the wedding of Mrs. Marvin F. Marshall; sixpence, brought by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Benie D. Ewing, when she lived in Bermuda.

Maid of honor was Sharon Cannon of Lockney. Bridesmaids were Suzanne Churchwell of Plainview, sister of the bride, Donna Jane Quebe of Plainview, Mrs. Marvin F. Marshall of Lubbock and Paula Cherry of Amarillo, cousin of the groom. The attendants wore identical full length dresses of sky blue peau de soie styled in a princess line. Brief sleeves and a scoop neckline accented the style of their gowns. Their headpieces were matching Dior bows. They wore short white kid gloves and a single strand of pearls. They carried cascades of yellow gladiolas and yellow roses accented with sprigs of English ivy.

Larry Crisler of Plainview, brother of the groom, was best man, and groomsmen were James Garner and Richard Bolton of Lubbock and Duane Ritter and Richard Clark of Plainview.

Jay Churchwell of Plainview, brother of the bride, served as candle lighter. Ushers were Wayne Covey, Don Houchin and Keith Hawkins of Plainview.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlor. Presiding at the register was Mrs. Herbert Castleberry, the bride's aunt.

At the bride's table were Mrs. B. H. Quebe, Mrs. Vincent Brittain, Mrs. E. O. Hawkins, Mrs. Benie D. Ewing, aunt of the bride, and Misses Beverly Churchwell and Missy Churchwell, cousins of the bride. The table was laid with a white net cloth and centered with silver and crystal Epergne filled with yellow and white roses. The cake was on one end and the punch bowl on the other.

At the groom's table were Mrs. C. L. Crisler of Amarillo, cousin of the groom, Mrs. Troy Brown of Vernon, aunt of the groom, Beth Kells of Texas City, Suzanne Wall of Lubbock, and Karen Gray of Albuquerque N. Mex. The table was laid with an ecru linen cloth centered with silver hurricane lamps and bronze and yellow mums and bearing a silver coffee service.

After the reception the couple left for a trip to points of interest in Texas and New Mexico. For traveling the bride chose an off-white coat and dress. The dress was princess line, sleeveless, and the coat was a long sleeve mandarin coat with Chinese frog closing.

The groom was a 1964 graduate of Plainview High School. He attended West Texas State and Texas Tech and is now with the 572nd Heavy Equipment and Maintenance Co., stationed in Heilbronn, Germany.

The bride is a 1965 graduate of Plainview High School and attended Texas Tech as a home ec major. She served the Grand Assembly of Texas as a Grand Representative during 1965-1966.
