LIONS ROAR

This Thursday night is ladies night. Come, bring the lady and other guests. If you can't make it by 7 p.m., come anyway. It will probably be 30 minutes late starting, always is. Lions Harold White and Allen Estlack have the program.

The reason the ladies night banquet is being held on the 4th Thursday is that the chili supper is scheduled for Friday night, Jan. 30. This will be at the school cafeteria. The basketball games with Samnorwood are that night. Lion Vergil McPherson has been appointed chief chili cook.

Dist Governor Ed Flood has suggested the Lions Club divide into two sides and see which side can add the most members to the club during the January-February membership contest. Special awards will be presented for obtaining new, reinstated or transfer members. Dist 2T1 now leads the state in new clubs, new members and new Leo members. Let's keep it that way.
