Emergency Loans

The United States Department of Agriculture has announced the designation of 24 Texas counties as an area where the Farmer's Home Administration may make emergency loans. These loans are available to eligible farmers and ranchers through June 30, 1971.

The counties involved are: Armstrong, Briscoe, Carson, Childress, Collingsworth, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Donlev, Gray, Hall, Hansford, Hartley, Hemphill, Hutchinson, Lipscomb, Ochiltree, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Roberts, Sherman, Swisher and Wheeler.

This designation is based on the damage resulting from the severe drought this spring and summer. Also certain counties suffered from hail and wind storms and the tornadoes. Thousands of farmers and ranchers have suffered losses and the lack of feed and pasture is affecting livestock producers. The farmers and ranchers can apply for loans at their local FHA county office.

Card of Thanks

To the true hearts and gentle people of my home community and vicinity: I am not gifted to speech making so let me give these inadequate words to express my appreciation to you. The 19th Cotton Festival is now listed as history. I want you to know I sincerely appreciate all your co-operation helping make the old settlers program, the success it was to all of us

May I really thank you who have meant so much in helping me all these years. I more or less have felt adopted to this community by your kind welcome of reception rather than a pioneer, yet it has been a part of me. May you forgive the mistakes wherein I have failed. You who have not experienced a "Lone Wolf" life may not fully realize all you have meant to me for over 3 years. Especially may I thank those who have prepared food, baked cakes and pies and invited me to visit them in their homes also for the get-together parties I am grateful. May God bless you for it all. This community will remain the bright spot in my life for many
