VOL. 61

HEDLEY, DONLEY COUNTY, TEXAS, OCT. 30, 1970

NO. 3

Amendments

Following is a brief sketch of the seven proposed amendments to be voted on Nov. 3:

No. 1 relates to the removal, retirement or censure of justices, judges, and justices of peace under prescribed circumstances.

No. 2 would allow the operation of open saloons.

No. 3 would provide a uniform method of assessment of ranch, farm and forest lands based upon the capability of such land to support the raising of livestock or to produce farm or forest crops.

No. 4 would reconstitute the State Building Commission as a three member appointive commission.

No. 5 authorizes any county on a vote of its qualified property tax paying voters to issue road bonds in an amount not to exceed one fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property in the county.

No. 6 increases the value of the homestead which is exempt from forced sale.

No. 7 authorizes the legislature to provide for consolidating government offices and functions and allowing political subdivisions to contract for performance of governmental functions in any county.

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my sincere thanks to all my friends for your cards and visits, also to all who helped while I was ill.

C. L. Taylor

Walter C. Stout

Funeral services for Walter C. Stout, 80, of Earth, who passed away Thursday after suffering a heart attack, were held Saturday in the First Baptist Church at Earth, by Rev. M. B. Baldwin and Rev. David Hartman. Burial was in the Earth cemetery.

A native of Montague County, Mr. Stout had lived at Earth for 40 years.

Survivors include his wife, Maude; three daughters, Mrs. Jack Handaway, Mrs. L. J. Welch and Mrs. Fred Welch, all of Earth; two sisters Mrs. Chloe Flippin of Hart and Mrs. Agnes Flippin of Quanah; eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

He was an uncle of Letha Youngblood of Hedley.

In Mediterranean

(FHTNC) USS Dahlgren Oct. 16—Navy Seaman Cecil D. Guthrie, husband of the former Miss Sharon L. Bain of Rt. 1, Hedley, Tex., is serving aboard the guided missile destroyer USS Dahlgren with the U. S. Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean Sea.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Estlack announce the arrival on Friday, Oct. 23 of a fine little son, weight 8 lbs. 5 oz., who has been named Roger Allen.

Mrs. E. C. Boliver returned Friday from a visit with her sister in Lubbock.

Two Fires

The Ed Floyd home south of town was seriously damaged by fire of undetermined origin Thursday morning. The fire had made good headway before it was discovered, but it was brought under control by good efforts of both the Hedley and Memphis fire departments, and practically all the furniture was carried out by the family and friends, and several Hedley school students. The entire house and contents which were not burned suffered much smoke damage.

Damage to the home was estimated at $12,000, besides damage to the furniture, most of which, it is hoped, can be put back in use.

The vacant house on Thomas Hill, owned by Jimmy Roden of Memphis burned to the ground last Tuesday night. Both the Hedley and Memphis fire departments responded to the call, but the house was completely involved before the fire was discovered. Origin of the fire was not determined.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our thanks to the Hedley Fire Dept., the Memphis Fire Dept., the school boys who helped at the fire, and everyone who has been so kind since our home burned.

We appreciated everything very much.

The E. L. Floyd family

To the Voters of Donley County

I am sorry I could not see each one of you personally, and campaign with you individually, but my first obligation is to do the work and perform the duties of this office, and we certainly stay busy.

I have to the best of my ability, tried to perform the duties of County and District Clerk as you would have me do. The obligations in this office are tremendous and I believe my experience will better help me to serve the public.

I earnestly solicit each of your votes; and if elected in the General Election on Nov. 3, 1970, I will continue to run the office to the best of my ability. I believe the people in Donley County well understand that I enjoy helping

Glass-Blackmon

Mrs. Lovell Blackmon of Memphis was married to M. Glass of Hedley Friday, Oct. 23, at 11:30 a. m. in Hollis, Okla., by Minister Albert Trent in the Church of Christ there. They were accompanied by Mrs. Irene Frisbie and Mrs. Cordia Levi, cousins of the bride.

After a brief honeymoon Mrs. Glass will continue nursing at Hall County Hospital while Mr. Glass will maintain his farming interest near Giles.
