"Everybody Does It"

When he was 8, he was permitted at a family council, presided over by Uncle George, on the surest means to shave points off the income tax return "It's O.K. son," his uncle said "Everybody does it."

Notice

People make the news and your newspaper is always interested in what you've done. Let us know if you have: Died, married, enlisted, graduated, been born, left town, been shot, struck oil, had triplets, been lynched, been robbed, been elected, had a fire, been arrested, found a still, been promoted, written a book, inherited a million, committed a murder, stuck up a bank, bought a home.

When he was 9, his mother took him to his first theater production. The box office man couldn't find any seats until his mother discovered an extra $2 in her purse. "It's O.K. son," she said. "Everybody does it."

When he was 12, he broke his glasses on the way to school. His Aunt Francine persuaded the insurance company that they had been stolen and they collected $27. "It's O.K. son," she said. "Everybody does it."

When he was 15, he made right guard on the high school football team. His coach showed him how to block and at the same time, grab the opposing end by the shirt so the official could not see it. "It's O.K. kid," the coach said. "Everybody does it."

When he was 19, he was approached by an upper classman who offered the test questions for $3. "It's O.K. kid," he said. "Everybody does it."

Johnny was caught and sent home in disgrace. "How could you do this to your mother and me?" his father asked. "You never learned anything like this at home. His aunt and uncle also were shocked."

If there's one thing that the adult world can't stand, it's a kid who cheats.

Somebody cared.

Be somebody.

Hunger hurts children most, in body and mind; kills from diseases a well-nourished child can withstand. When you join CARE's Food Crusade, your help goes to children first, in countries beset by hunger.

Every dollar sends a food package to do a multitude of good. You help feed millions of boys and girls every day at preschool centers and schools, so they can grow into healthy, educated, self-supporting adults. You provide meals at home in food-for-work projects to help parents build community resources. You rescue families in war and disaster areas, and help them rebuild their lives.

With your money, CARE delivers U.S. donations of farm abundance or buys other needed foods. Local governments share operating costs. $1 can help feed a child for 3 months...$10 serves lunch to 900 children...$100 sends over a ton of food. Mail your check.
