Santa Claus Letter

Dear Santa,

I hope you can come to my house on Christmas. The items I want for Christmas are a bicycle, a doll that does everything like a real baby, and a football. I hope you can read my writing because I am in the fourth grade. I am 9 years old and my brother is 3 years old.

I am going to write a letter for my brother. His name is Ricky Don Springer. He is not in school yet but he will be in two years. Here is what he wants: a set of drums, a toy guitar with strings and keys, a fire truck and a police car.

Bring as many of the list of toys as you can. I hope your reindeer don't get sick when the breezes are blowing. Santa Claus please don't get sick. Be careful when you unpack. I will try to be good and so will my brother.

With love,

LaMoss Springer and
Ricky Springer

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Shields were here from Amarillo last week end.

There's a future in it for someone.

Your son's education for instance. But by the time he's ready for college his education may well cost a small fortune. The kind you just don't have lying around under a bed. That's just the reason why your government has a great thing going. A U.S. Savings Bond. In themselves they're not a quick buck. They won't make you that fortune overnight. But in the long run they do pay off. Darn well at that. And at a guaranteed rate. Starting a savings plan is easy. You can join a Payroll Savings Plan where you work. Or get into a Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank. Then watch someone's future grow. Like your son's.
