Mrs. D. K. Hall

Funeral services for Mrs. D. K. (Dessie) Hall, 73, who passed away Sunday in an Amarillo hospital, were held Monday in the United Methodist Church at Panhandle. Burial was in the Clarendon cemetery.

Mrs. Hall was born in Paris and was a former Hedleyan. She had lived at Panhandle since 1944.

Survivors include her husband, D. K.; a daughter, Mrs. Vivian Cluck of Gruver; two sons, Emmett Hall of Amarillo and Truett Hall of Clarendon; four brothers, Emmett McFarling of Bowie, and Excel Curtis and Virgil McFarling, all of Lubbock; two sisters, Mrs. May Boston and Mrs. Geneva Chapman, both of Pampa; eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

On Honor Roll

Cheves-Lynn

The following appeared in last week's Jack County Herald:

Better than half a century ago they were sweethearts at the Vineyard school.

Roy B. Cheves lived in the area, Maude Franklin lived at nearby Willow Point and attended the Vineyard School.

"She was the first person to ride in my new buggy," Roy remembers.

But families move away, and soon the young couple separated, each going in a different direction. Eventually, each found another mate.

Roy Cheves and his family lived at Waxahachie. He is the father of a boy and a girl.

Maude Franklin and her family lived at Hedley, moving to California twenty years ago.

Eventually, each lost a mate through death. And Roy Cheves learned, a while back, that Maude was single out there in California.

Asked if that's when he started thinking of his old sweetheart again, Roy said, "I never did stop thinking of her—but that's when I got busy!"

Now Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Cheves are, perhaps, Jacksboro's newest newlyweds, and looking for a place of their own.

Basketball News

Hedley Owls defeated the visiting Lakeview Eagles 70 to 28 to up their district record to 6-0. There are only two more district games, Turkey and Quitaque, and both will be in the Owls gym this week.

Raymond Woodard led the scoring parade against the Eagles with 14 points. Four other Owls scored ten or more. The Eagles have a young and inexperienced team, freshmen and sophomores only. They have not won a district game this year.

Be sure to see the Owls and Panthers in the last district game, this Friday night in the Hedley gym.

Girls Basketball

The Hedley girls basketball team played several games over the past two weeks. On Jan. 18 the girls played Quitaque there and were defeated 49 to 42. Renee White was high for Hedley with 26 points.

On Jan. 21 the girls traveled to Estelline, and managed to defeat them 49 to 36. Renee White was again high with 32 points.

The girls next played Lakeview on Jan. 25. The Owls were able to upset the district leading Eagles by a score of 38 to 59. Renee White had another good night, scoring 25 points, and the guards came up with a fine outing.

This leaves the girls with 4 wins and 2 losses in district play.

LIONS ROAR

The Hedley-Lakeview road was the first project endorsed by the Hedley Lions Club for 1972. Now that the Hedley-McLean road is a state highway the plan is to extend the highway to Lakeview. The project will be through the community betterment committee. Boss Lion Louie Bogue and Lions Clifford Johnson and Vergil McPherson have made some progress, but will need help

Twenty Lions enjoyed a good meal and meeting last Thursday night. Newcomers Horace (Pete) Moore of the Texaco station and Harold (Hoss) Morris of the Potts ranch were present. Phillip Wiggins was a guest of his father, Lion W B Wiggins

Regular meeting Thursday night of next week will be at 7 p m. A good program is in the making, plus the always good supper. Try to get a meal like we have somewhere sometime for less than two or three bucks.

LEGION NEWS

Another hot supper will be served at the post meeting Tuesday night of the American Legion. The Hedley post showed 88 members at the closing of the books Feb 1st by both state and national. All former members of the Legion who have not paid their dues are considered delinquent by state and national as well as local. However they may reinstate by paying their 1972 dues

The race between Texas and Oklahoma has been a hotly contested one. Oklahoma has won the last 3 years but Texas has high hopes this year. The state commanders of Oklahoma and Texas will meet at Dodson Feb. 19, with a big celebration planned. Local Legionnaires and ladies are invited. The Texas commander may not lose his shirt this year.

The district convention will be held in Memphis March 10 and 11. New district officers for both Legion and Auxiliary will be elected, for a term of two years. Our post should give the Memphis post all the help we can in putting over this big event.
