The Hedley City Council at last Thursday night's regular council meeting refused the rate increase requested by General Telephone Co.

Mrs. Beulah E. Barley

Funeral services for Mrs. Beulah E. Barley, 65, who passed away in an Amarillo nursing home, were held Friday in Calvary Baptist Church at Childress by Rev H T Harris pastor. Burial was in a Childress cemetery.

Mrs. Barley was a native of Tennessee and had lived in Childress since 1922.

She was a sister of Lindsey Canada of Hedley.

Pink and Blue Shower

Mrs. Jeannle Martize was honored with a pink and blue shower last Thursday evening in the home of Mrs Flossie Wood. The honoree was presented a corsage of baby rattles.

Refreshments of pink punch, coffee, tea and miniature sandwiches were served from a table laid with a white cloth and featuring a centerpiece of a miniature

Revival Meeting

Hedley Baptist Church is planning for a revival that will start the 10th of September, and go through the 17th.

Bro Jim Green of Portales, N. Mex., will be the Evangelist, and Bro. Al Jorden of Vernon, Texas, will be our Music Director.

The Hedley Baptist Church and pastor ask you to pray that we have a revival that will be a blessing to our town and each of our churches and that the Lord's name be glorified.

bassinnet surrounded by pink flowers.

The honoree received a large number of nice gifts.

Hostesses for the affair were Mesdames Eloise Spalding, Jackie Stafford, Martha Hill, Dorothy Brinson, Flossie Wood, Dorothy Bogue, Hazel Hill and Allee Aleman.

Hill-Williams

Miss Terry Lynn Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawnie Williams of Amarillo, and Tommy Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hill of Hedley, were united in marriage Saturday evening in the Trinity Lutheran Church, Interstate 40 West, in Amarillo.

The pastor, Rev. R. G. Friedrichs, officiated in a setting of lavender mums, white daisy poms, and candelabra.

The bride wore a floor length dress of bridal satin, meri-mist overlay with lace and pearl trim, and a headdress of net edged with white lace roses. She carried a bouquet of white pompom mums, white daisies and white roses.

Maid of honor was Kim Williams, sister of the bride, who wore a floor length dress of lavender dotted swiss with white daisy trim. Flower girl was Kathie Jones of Garden City, Kansas, cousin of the bride, who wore a floor length dress of lavender dotted swiss with daisy trim. She carried a lace basket with lavender mum petals.

Best man was Gary Alexander of Memphis. Ushers were Chuck Hill of Hedley and Larry Williams of Wichita, Kansas.

The mother of the bride wore a turquoise street length dress, and the mother of the groom wore a navy blue knit street length dress with white accessories.

Organist Mike Lacewell of Borger played the traditional wedding march and accompanied Mrs. Gary Jones as she sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "Wedding Prayer."

Mrs. Larry Williams was at the guest book.

A reception followed the wedding. Mrs. Bill Hill and Mrs. Ronnie Hill served.

For going away the bride chose a purple street length dress with white accessories.

After a short wedding trip the couple are at home in Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Alexander of Lompoc, Calif., visited the Ross Springers last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollie Byers and Jackla returned last Thursday night from a trip to Tucson, Ariz.

Rev. B. Gene Grace and sons Robert and Timmy of Waco visited here briefly Friday.

Receives Bronze Star

Tommy Hill received the Bronze Star in July. The accompanying citation reads in part:

By order of the President, the Bronze Star Medal is presented to Spec 4 Thomas W Hill, U S Army, who distinguished himself by outstanding meritorious service in connection with military operations against a hostile force in the Republic of Vietnam. During the period 18 August 1970 to 23 May 1971 he consistently manifested professionalism and initiative in obtaining outstanding results.

Tommy has also received the Combat Infantry Badge and two Purple Hearts.

Donald A. Kyle

Funeral services for Donald A. Kyle, 25, who passed away Thursday in an Amarillo hospital, were held Saturday morning in the San Jacinto Church of Christ in Amarillo.

Mr. Kyle was a nephew of Mrs. Radell Latimer of Hedley.

Mr. and Mrs. Latimer attended the funeral services.

School News

Registration for the top six grades will be Friday evening, Aug. 11, and classes will begin Aug. 14.

Beginners this year should be sure and get their required shots.

School Lunches

Some information has been received on a new policy for free and reduced price lunches at Hedley school.

The amount a family can earn has been increased this year, and all patrons of the community should check with the school to determine their eligibility.

Visiting in the A. B. Spalding home over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Doug Lowe, Charles and David of Columbia, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mathews, Angela and Randy, and Mrs. Sara Messer, Deanna and Darrell of Clayton, N. Mex.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wiggins and Phillip returned last Thursday from a vacation trip to Creede, Colo.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

NUMBER 11 ON THE BALLOT (HJR 95)
 General Election November 7, 1972

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article IV, Section 17 of the Texas Constitution, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 17. If, during the vacancy in the office of Governor, the Lieutenant Governor should die, resign, refuse to serve, or be removed from office, or be unable to serve; or if he shall be impeached or absent from the State, the President of the Senate, for the time being, shall, in like manner, administer the Government until he shall be superseded by a Governor or Lieutenant Governor. During the time the Lieutenant Governor administers the Government, as Governor, he shall receive in like manner the same compensation which the Governor would have received had he been employed in the duties of his office, and no more. The President, for the time being, of the Senate, shall, during the time he administers the Government, receive in like manner the same compensation, which the Governor would have received had he been employed in the duties of his office."

Sec. 2. That Article III of the Texas Constitution, be amended to add a new Section 24a to read as follows:

"Section 24a. The Lieutenant Governor, while he acts as President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall each receive from the public treasury an annual salary of $22,500."

Sec. 3. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on November 7, 1972, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment to provide a salary of $22,500 for the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker of the House of Representatives."

NUMBER 6 ON THE BALLOT (SJR 7)
 General Election November 7, 1972

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article VIII, Section 1-b, of the Texas Constitution, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 1-b. (a) Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) of the assessed taxable value of all residence homesteads as now defined by law shall be exempt from all taxation for all State purposes.

"(b) From and after January 1, 1973, the governing body of any county, city, town, school district, or other political subdivision of the State may exempt by its own action not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) of the assessed value of residence homesteads of persons sixty-five (65) years of age or older from all ad valorem taxes thereafter levied by the political subdivision. As an alternative, upon receipt of a petition signed by twenty percent (20%) of the voters who voted in the last preceding election held by the political subdivision, the governing body of the subdivision shall call an election to determine by majority vote whether an amount not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) as provided in the petition, of the assessed value of residence homesteads of persons sixty-five (65) years of age or over shall be exempt from ad valorem taxes thereafter levied by the political subdivision. Where any ad valorem tax has theretofore been pledged for the payment of any debt, the taxing officers of the political subdivision shall have authority to continue to levy and collect the tax against the homestead property at the same rate as the tax so pledged until the debt is discharged, if the cessation of the levy would impair the obligation of the contract by which the debt was created."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1972, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment providing that the various political subdivisions of the State may exempt not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) of the value of residence homesteads of all persons sixty-five (65) years of age or older from ad valorem taxes under certain conditions."

Storm Warning

Since the tornado season is with us again, it is time to remind everyone of the signals sounded by the fire siren. One blast of the siren indicates a fire, two blasts are to call the department together, and three blasts indicate a storm.

Three blasts do not necessarily indicate that a tornado has been sighted, but they do mean that everyone should watch the clouds and take whatever action seems to be necessary.

NUMBER 3 ON THE BALLOT (HJR 41)
General Election November 7, 1972

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article XVI, Section 61, of the Texas Constitution, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 61. All district officers in the State of Texas and all county officers in counties having a population of twenty thousand (20,000) or more, according to the then last preceding Federal Census, shall be compensated on a salary basis. In all counties in this State, the Commissioners Courts shall be authorized to determine whether precinct officers shall be compensated on a fee basis or on a salary basis, with the exception that it shall be mandatory upon the Commissioners Courts, to compensate all justices of the peace, constables, deputy constables and precinct law enforcement officers on a salary basis beginning January 1, 1973; and in counties having a population of less than twenty thousand (20,000), according to the then last preceding Federal Census, the Commissioners Courts shall also have the authority to determine whether county officers shall be compensated on a fee basis or on a salary basis, with the exception that it shall be mandatory upon the Commissioners Courts to compensate all sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, county law enforcement officers including sheriffs who also perform the duties of assessor and collector of taxes, and their deputies, on a salary basis beginning January 1, 1949.

"All fees earned by district, county and precinct officers shall be paid into the county treasury where earned for the account of the proper fund, provided that fees incurred by the State, county and any municipality, or in case where a pauper's oath is filed, shall be paid into the county treasury when collected and provided that where any officer is compensated wholly on a fee basis such fees may be retained by such officer or paid into the treasury of the county as the Commissioners Court may direct. All Notaries Public, county surveyors and public weighers shall continue to be compensated on a fee basis."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1972, at which election the ballot shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment to require the commissioners court in all counties of the state to compensate all justices of the peace on a salary basis."

NUMBER 5 ON THE BALLOT (HJR 35)
General Election November 7, 1972

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 2, Article VIII, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 2. (a) All occupation taxes shall be equal and uniform upon the same class of subjects within the limits of the authority levying the tax; but the legislature may, by general laws, exempt from taxation public property used for public purposes; actual places of religious worship, also any property owned by a church or by a strictly religious society for the exclusive use as a dwelling place for the ministry of such church or religious society, and which yields no revenue whatever to such church or religious society; provided that such exemption shall not extend to more property than is reasonably necessary for a dwelling place and in no event more than one acre of land; places of burial not held for private or corporate profit; all buildings used exclusively and owned by persons or associations of persons for school purposes and the necessary furniture of all schools and property used exclusively and reasonably necessary in conducting any association engaged in promoting the religious, educational and physical development of boys, girls, young men or young women operating under a State or National organization of like character; also the endowment funds of such institutions of learning and religion not used with a view to profit; and when the same are invested in bonds or mortgages, or in land or other property which has been and shall hereafter be bought in by such institutions under foreclosure sales made to satisfy or protect such bonds or mortgages, that such exemption of such land and property shall continue only for two years after the purchase of the same at such sale by such institutions and no longer, and institutions of purely public charity; and all laws exempting property from taxation other than the property mentioned in this Section shall be null and void.

"(b) The Legislature may, by general law, exempt property owned by a disabled veteran or by the surviving spouse and surviving minor children of a disabled veteran. A disabled veteran is a veteran of the armed services of the United States who is classified as disabled by the Veterans' Administration or by a successor to that agency; or the military service in which he served. A veteran who is certified as having a disability of less than 10 percent is not entitled to an exemption. A veteran having a disability rating of not less than 10 percent nor more than 30 percent may be granted an exemption from taxation for property valued at up to $1,500. A veteran having a disability rating of more than 30 percent but not more than 50 percent may be granted an exemption from taxation for property valued at up to $2,000. A veteran having a disability rating of more than 50 percent but not more than 70 percent may be granted an exemption from taxation for property valued at up to $2,500. A veteran who has a disability rating of more than 70 percent, or a veteran who has a disability rating of not less than 10 percent and has attained the age of 65, or a disabled veteran whose disability consists of the loss or loss of use of one or more limbs, total blindness in one or both eyes, or paraplegia, may be granted an exemption from taxation for property valued at up to $3,000. The spouse and children of any member of the United States Armed Forces who loses his life while on active duty will be granted an exemption from taxation for property valued at up to $2,500. A deceased disabled veteran's surviving spouse and children may be granted an exemption which in the aggregate is equal to the exemption to which the decedent was entitled at the time he died."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1972, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment allowing certain tax exemptions to disabled veterans, their surviving spouses and surviving minor children, and the surviving spouses and surviving minor children of members of the armed forces who lose their life while on active duty."

NUMBER 10 ON THE BALLOT (HJR 68)
General Election November 7, 1972

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article XVII, Section 1, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 1. The Legislature, at any regular session, or at any special session when the matter is included within the purposes for which the session is convened, may propose amendments revising the Constitution, to be voted upon by the qualified electors for statewide offices and propositions, as defined in the Constitution and statutes of this State. The date of the elections shall be specified by the Legislature. The proposal for submission must be approved by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each House, entered by year and days on the journals.

"A brief explanatory statement of the nature of a proposed amendment, together with the date of the election and the wording of the proposition as it is to appear on the ballot, shall be published twice in each newspaper in the State which meets requirements set by the Legislature for the publication of official notices of officers and departments of the state government. The explanatory statement shall be prepared by the Secretary of State and shall be approved by the Attorney General. The Secretary of State shall send a full and complete copy of the proposed amendment or amendments to each county clerk who shall post the same in a public place in the courthouse at least 30 days prior to the election on said amendment. The first notice shall be published not more than 60 days nor less than 50 days before the date of the election, and the second notice shall be published on the same day in the succeeding week. The Legislature shall fix the standards for the rate of charge for the publication, which may not be higher than the newspaper's published national rate for advertising per column inch.

"The election shall be held in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Legislature, and the returning officer in each county shall make returns to the Secretary of State of the number of legal votes cast at the election for and against each amendment. If it appears from the returns that a majority of the votes cast have been cast in favor of an amendment, it shall become a part of this Constitution, and proclamation thereof shall be made by the Governor."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1972, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment revising provisions on the time and method of proposing amendments to the state constitution and the time and method of publishing notice of proposed amendments."
