J. J. Terry

Ward-Hill

Miss Carole Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Junior Hill, and Leon Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ward, were united in marriage last Saturday evening in the First Baptist Church.

Rev. J. J. Terry performed the double ring ceremony in a setting of a fifteen tiered candelabra with greenery flanked by two seven tiered candelabra with baskets of white and orchid glads. White bows were on the parents' pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress with an empire style bodice of lace over satin with lace puff sleeves and a line skirt of silk organza with matching lace on the bottom of the skirt. Her veil fell from a pearl headpiece to make a long train. Her bouquet was of white and orchid carnations with a white orchid center.

Matron of honor was Neva Hill Lewis, cousin of the bride. Bridesmaids were Janie Hill, cousin of the bride and Gail Hill, sister-in-law of the bride. All wore dresses matching the bride's of orchid silk organza, short length, with long full sleeves with white lace around the bodice, with white accessories. They carried bouquets of white carnation with an orchid carnation center, with white streamers.

Best man was Ricky Ward, and groomsmen were Wayne Ward and Glenn Ward. Ushers were Dale Ward and Johnny Hill. Jeff Hill was candle lighter.

The bride's mother wore a dress of mint green with white accessories, and the groom's mother wore a dress of light blue with white accessories.

Organist was Letha Springer, who furnished the traditional nuptial selections and accompanied soloist Gary Brogdon as he sang "We've Only Just Begun," and "Whither Thou Goest."

A reception followed the ceremony. Sherrie Hill registered the guests, and Shirley Nivens and Cindy Saunders served. The reception table was laid with white lace over orchid and bore a silver punch bowl with crystal and silver appointments. It featured a beautiful three tiered wedding cake topped with a bride and groom of orchid and white colors, a stairway of candles on the cake flanked by three bridesmaids in orchid dresses.

The registration table was laid

Miss Cindy Saunders was at the register. Mrs. Gail Hill served punch, from a table which carried out the honoree's chosen colors of orchid and white. A feature of the table was a beautiful floral centerpiece in orchid color.

The honoree received a large number of lovely and useful gifts.

Storm Warning

Since the tornado season is with us again, it is time to remind everyone of the signals sounded by the fire siren. One blast of the siren indicates a fire, two blasts are to call the department together, and three blasts indicate a storm.

Three blasts do not necessarily indicate that a tornado has been sighted, but they do mean that everyone should watch the clouds and take whatever action seems to be necessary.
