with us again, it is time to remind everyone of the signals sounded by the fire siren. One blast of the siren indicates a fire, two blasts are to call the department together, and three blasts indicate a storm.

Three blasts do not necessarily indicate that a tornado has been sighted, but they do mean that everyone should watch the clouds and take whatever action seems to be necessary.

"My natural beauty usually attracts so much attention that drivers take their eyes off the road to stare at me and they run into telephone poles and fire hydrants.

It's a mess. But you Texans keep your minds on your driving. You don't give beauty more than a quick glance. You drive friendly."

Are you going to live longer than your money?

Maybe you're having a pretty good life now. Your credit is good, you've got a few nice clothes and a good dependable car. And if you're lucky, maybe you own your own home. But that's because you're working. What happens when you retire? You can't live on memories. It's still going to take money. Lots of money. Money that you should be saving now.

And one of the easiest ways to start putting away a few dollars for those retirement years is by joining the Payroll Savings Plan where you work and buying U.S. Savings Bonds.

That way every time you earn a little money for today, you save a little for tomorrow.

Then when the time finally comes to retire, you'll have something put away to retire to.

Now U.S. Bonds pay 9% interest when held to maturity of 6 years, 10 months at 4% the first year's interest is rolled in, added, or deducted. When needed they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

New higher interest rate on U.S. Savings Bonds.

Now U.S. Savings Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity. Here's how it works: The higher interest rate applies to all new Bonds purchased since December 1, 1973, raising their rate from 5 1/2% to 6% when held to maturity. And the maturity period on Series E Bonds is shorter, too. Now E Bonds mature in 5 years, with a first-year rate of 4 1/2%. Series H Bonds, with a 10-year maturity, will earn 5% the first year, 5.8% for the next four years, and 6 1/2% for the last five years. This gives you an average 6% yield over the 10-year period. It works for Bonds you now hold, too. There's no reason to redeem your older Bonds to buy new ones.

Their yield has improved, too. All outstanding E Bonds will receive a 1/2% increase in yield for each semiannual interest period beginning on or after December 1, 1973, payable upon redemption. This also applies to any Freedom Shares you may still hold. All outstanding H Bonds will receive a 1/2% yield increase for each semiannual interest period beginning on or after December 1, 1973. This is payable in the form of increased semiannual interest payments. It all works to your advantage. Now, more than ever, it makes sense to buy higher-paying U.S. Savings Bonds and hold them to maturity or beyond. Sign up now to buy Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work, or buy them where you bank. Take stock in America. It's in your interest.
