

"MY TURN"

By Carol Ellis

THIS COLUMN is written especially for all those stary-eyed young lovers who will be getting married this summer.

Love means never having to laugh at your partner's jokes unless they are funny! Of course, good communication between two people is what makes for long and happy marriages, but after a certain length of time, communication takes on a little different aspect than what you might think.

For instance, a few days ago I asked the good old boy who lives with me over on Maple Street, "How come you don't whisper sweet nothings in my ear any more?" Whereupon he leaned over and whispered to me, "Zero, double naught, nil, zilch and not anything!"

Now, that's not so bad after 31 years of marriage because by that time you will have begun to understand the underlying meaning behind what your spouse has spoken.

If he says, "Do you want me to go out to the garden and pick you a couple of fresh tomatoes, Hon?" what he means is that he would like for you to find a stopping point to that project you are working on and "get out in that kitchen and rattle those pots and pans" because he's getting hungry.

If he says, "I'm going to get up in the attic and check out those vents in the air ducts," it means that he is taking on a really big project so he won't have to go with you to your cultural function this evening because (1) he won't be finished with the air ducts in time to get ready to go, OR, (2) he will be finished with the air ducts but too tired to go anywhere.

If he says, "Where is the screwdriver?" what he means is "Will you go and find the screwdriver and bring it here to me?"

When he says "★&?%!!!" it means that he has hurt himself and you'd better go check on his condition, but stop off at the bathroom first to gather up the band-aids, antiseptic ointment and aspirin.

If he says "Does this striped tie go with this tweed jacket?" it means that he is planning to go with you to your cultural function, but you'd better go dig in his closet and pick out what he is going to wear.

When he fixes himself his big Coke glass and takes the whole plate of cookies out to the coffee table, it means that he is planning to spend the entire afternoon watching a long boring sporting event on the telly, so you might as well forget about getting any of those "honey do's" accomplished today.

If he brings you coffee in bed each morning it means...well, actions speak louder than words, so you figure out what it means.

A week or so ago, one of the questions on the Family Feud TV game show was "What are seven things that women do which drive men crazy?" Their survey gave these answers in order: 1) Spends too much money, 2) Meal problems, 3) Nags him about chores, 4) Disagrees with him, 5) Criticizes him, 6) Flirts with other guys, 7) Yells at him. Notice that four of the seven answers had to do with communication in one form or another.

Grandma and Grandpa Ellis were married for 55 years. Grandpa was a man of few words, but he talked very well and had a perfectly nice pleasing voice with which he could communicate with others. But he would sit in his recliner in the living room and mumble something that sounded like "Ungh-a-mnbnph-ah!"

While those of us sitting near to him would be trying to figure out what he had said, Grandma would come trotting in from the kitchen with a glass of ice water, which was what he had asked for. Now that, my dear young couples, is true communication in its purest form.

Joy Noble, Jimmy Rhodes United In Church Ceremony

Joy Lynn Noble and Jimmy Dale Rhodes were united in marriage on Saturday, April 1 in the First Baptist Church, Alva, Oklahoma. Dr. Ron Argo performed the 2 p.m. ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Noble of Capron, Oklahoma and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gaylon Rhodes of Abilene, Texas.

The church was decorated with lavender pew bows and candleabras. Bouquets of white gladiolas, daisies, carnations and button mums in assorted spring colors decorated the altar. Both baskets and candleabras were accented with lavender bows.

Pianist, JoDell Northup of New Raymer, Colorado, accompanied vocalist, Terry Good, brother-in-law of the bride. Before the wedding, vocal selections included "Longer," "Flesh of My Flesh," "One Hand, One Heart," "The Call," and "My Only Love." Organist, Charla Parker, played Wagner's traditional "Wedding March" for the processional. She accompanied the vocalist as he sang "Follow Me," "Whither Thou Goest" and "Thy Will Be Done" during the wedding ceremony.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a floor length gown of white taffeta, which featured a high collar of lace with lace trim. The sheer yoke of re-embroidered organza decorated with iridescent sequins and seed pearls, joined the fitted bodice trimmed with embroidered braid along the shaped yoke, and along the seam lines and waistline. The above-the-elbow puffed sleeves were trimmed with ruffles of taffeta and lace completed with a ribbon bow. Lace ruffles encircled the skirt and formed a ruffle semi-cathedral length train. A ribbon bow accented the top of the a-line of lace ruffles in the front and back.

She wore a small brimmed hat trimmed with seed pearls and sequins with a fingertip length veil of illusion net. She carried a handkerchief that belonged to her great-great-grandmother and a cascading bouquet of pink roses, yellow and white daisies, hot pink and light pink carnations, and purple statice. A diamond drop, a gift from the groom, completed her outfit.

Serving her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Susan Good of Oklahoma City. The bridal attendant was Mrs. Karen Daily of Taloga, Oklahoma.

They wore identical lavender tea length dresses of taffeta, trimmed in lace. The v-necked dresses featured puffed sleeves, coordinating with the bride's gown. They carried bouquets of spring flowers similar to the bride's.

Flower girls were Cassidy Seal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Seal of Taloga, and Amanda Good, niece of the bride. They wore dresses similar to the bridal attendants. They carried lined wicker baskets filled with flower petals.

The groom wore a silver-grey tuxedo with tails and an ascot tie. His boutonniere was a mix of spring flowers.

The groom's father, Gaylon Rhodes, served as best man. Curtis McDaniel of Newcastle, Oklahoma was the groomsman.

The male attendants and the bride's father were attired in identical silver-grey tuxedos with matching bow ties and cummerbuns.

Ring bearers were Kason Oakes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Oakes of Taloga, Oklahoma and Justin Heinrich, nephew of the groom. They also wore silver-grey tuxedos.

The candles were lit by Terry Driscoll of Amarillo and Glen Daniel of Irving, Texas. Ushers were Larry Noble of Tulsa, Oklahoma, brother of the bride, and Darryl Heinrich of Slaton, Texas, brother-in-law of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a mauve chiffon street length dress and a corsage of spring flowers. The groom's mother wore a printed chiffon street length dress in the bride's colors. She also wore a corsage of spring flowers.

Mrs. Maybrian Rhodes of Friona, grandmother of the groom, was a special guest.

The bride's family hosted the reception in the Fellowship Hall immediately following the ceremony.

The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with icing teardrops, green leaves and white roses. The cake top was heart-shaped with a spray of pink flowers. Fresh flowers in spring colors adorned the individual layers.

Servers were Mrs. Karen Armbruster of Burlington, Oklahoma, Lynda Latta of Gage, Oklahoma, Recia Poulson of Woodward, Oklahoma, and Carol Noble of Tulsa, Oklahoma, sister-in-law of the bride. Also assisting were Edith Meyers and Barbara Gordon of Alva, Oklahoma.

The groom's cake was a German Chocolate cake made by Mrs. Judy Rhodes of Friona, aunt of the groom. Mrs. Pam Heinrich and Mendy Rhodes, sisters of the groom, served the cake.

The guest book and gift table were attended by Mrs. Cynthia Nighswonger and Loret Randles, both of Alva and Deb Lanning of Johnson, Kansas. Wedding coordinator was Mrs. Janie Harris of Alva.

For going away, Mrs. Rhodes chose a navy blue and white polka dot dress with a large white collar. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Following a honeymoon cruise to the Bahamas, the couple will

Scooter's Scoops

Graduation is over and summer has arrived for the kiddos. The seniors can pick up their pictures here at the office and we also have extra copies of the senior issue.

Funeral services were held last week for Velma Lide, who died after a lengthy illness. She will be missed by her family and friends. Our sympathies to her only son, Edwin, her husband, Wiley, and grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Dorothy Ellison was surprised with a birthday party in her honor on Saturday at the Senior Citizen's building with 81 guests present for the meal catered by K-Bob's in Clovis. Understand they had a wonderful day. Dorothy's three daughters were there, also, her two brothers and members of both Dorothy's and Buck's family.

Cliff Leake's brother, Wallace, 82, was vacationing in the Philippines when he became ill and died there. Burial was in the Philippines. He was survived by his wife, Remy. Our sympathies to Cliff. This was his only living brother and now Cliff is the only one left in his family.

Enjoyed visiting with Donna Beth Draper, daughter of the Edwin Lides. She was in Bovina for her grandmother's funeral. Donna Beth works for the Naval Ordnance Missile Test Station at White Sands Missile Range in New Mexico. Her husband, Bill, is a SSgt. and left last week for Kunsan, Korea where he will serve for a year. The couple has two daughters, April, seven, and Angela, three.

Lucy Thomas has been very ill and was in intensive care three days at a Plainview hospital suffering from pneumonia. She is now at the Heritage Home Nursing Home in Plainview, Room 119, and the address is 2510 W. 24th, Plainview, Texas 79072, if you want to send a card.

Lester and Flossie Rhinehart have returned from Glenrock, Wyoming where they attended their grandson's graduation exercises. He is Vance Malone and his parents are Sandra of Glenrock, Wyoming and Bob Malone of Portland, Oregon. Vance will be living with his dad and going to college there next year. On the way to Wyoming, the Rhineharts stopped in Woodland Park, Colorado and spent the night with Flossie's brother, Cecil and Jessie Sisk. Said the Sisks are getting along real well.

Printes and Carolyn Pruitt have had company visiting. Printes's sister, Millie and Tom McGril, came from Roseberg, Oregon, for a few days and Carolyn's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Radford, came from Plains, Kansas. The Radfords came for their granddaughter, April Draper, who will be spending a month with them in Kansas.

Rick Kunselman of Kileen, Texas was in Bovina over the weekend visiting with his parents, Pat and Pat Kunselman. He flew in Friday and drove back on Sunday evening. We all enjoyed visiting with Rick.

Scott and Sherry Richards are parents of a baby boy, David Isaac, born April 22. Scott lived in Bovina for a few years and his parents are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Richards of Carlsbad, N.M. Scott is now attending Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, Kentucky. This is the couple's first child.

Tom Rhodes underwent surgery for a hip replacement a few weeks ago. We understand both Tom and his wife, Nannie, are at St. Mary's Rehab Center in Lubbock. We were unable to contact the family, but you may want to check on them.

F.O. and Hattie Turner are both patients at the Clovis High Plains Hospital. Our thoughts are with them and their families.

Susie Pruitt was hospitalized but is now back at Prairie Acres in Friona.

Stan Miller was released from the hospital following his accident when a horse threw him and then kicked him in the face. He was home a few days then had to go back to the hospital. He had an infection to set up and had to have further treatment. He is now back home.

Mary Evelyn Steelman and her family enjoyed a big family reunion at Lake Tanglewood's Club House Sunday. About 75 people attended the Smith family reunion.

Bud Venable's grandparents and great-grandmother were in Bovina for his high school graduation. Roy and Dolores Stone came from Plano and Mrs. McElwaney came from Amarillo.

Bobby and Irma Jo Englant's daughter and her family were visiting from Kansas. Carissa and Don Caillolet and children came from Ulysses, Kansas. They came Saturday and left Monday.

Gene Scott went back to High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo Monday of last week for more treatments and was released Sunday. His wife, Edna, said the reports have been good.

If you saw the picture and article on Keith Knight in Sunday's Clovis News Journal, you'll have to admit it is a sharp picture and they caught him in the act of "working" in his restaurant on Highway 60 and that's good. Also, some of the information was "good" and some of it was not what you would call "good" or even correct.

Now, Keith is the mayor of Bovina, but he will be the first to tell you that he does not "run" the city as indicated in the headlines.

In another paragraph, it stated that Knight would like to see the Bovina Blade and the Clovis News Journal at the city council meetings. He said he could care less if the Clovis News Journal was at the city council meetings.

When asked about the things he liked most about Bovina, it was stated in the News Journal that, "It was because it was close to Clovis." This is only a small part of what Keith said and what he said was, "It is a small town, and I like small towns. It has a lot of good people and the people get along. It has excellent schools and churches and it is close to Clovis."

...and some people think Bovina Blade makes all the mistakes!

Little Blake Clements, grandson of the Jimmie Clements, is a student at a Lubbock school and was given three awards last week. They were for perfect attendance two years, outstanding effort, and the library award for reading 25 more books than required.

Funeral services were held for Pat O'Hair, 82, in Amarillo. He was Fred's brother and suffered a heart attack. He was kept on the life support a short time and lived three days after he was taken off. Our sympathies to the family.

Ann Lee Englant has returned home recently from visiting in Houston over Mother's Day with her three sons, Gary, Glen and Mike. She said they had a good time visiting, eating out and sightseeing.

Rose McCain drove to Oklahoma City and enjoyed spending Mother's Day with her sons and daughter-in-law, Ben, Butch and Bette. They had a good time eating out and being on the boys' TV show.

Shower Is Set June 3

Hostesses are Skeet Caldwell, Irene Gober, Vicki Milloy, Clara Gober and April Gober.

Bridal selections are at Hughes True-Value in Farwell, Kirkpatrick's in Bovina and Triangle in Clovis.

50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY...Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Donaldson will be celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary, June 11 from 2-4 p.m. with a reception in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church of Farwell. The reception will be hosted by their children, Jolene Decker of Guymon, Oklahoma; Dorris White and Roy Donaldson of Farwell; Larry Donaldson of Wolforth; and Zelda Ellison of Lockney. The former Dorothy Harman and Donaldson were married June 7, 1939 in Clovis. The couple also has ten grandchildren and one great-grandchild. They request no gifts, only your presence. All friends and relatives of the couple are invited to attend the reception.

the following varieties for ghost acres in the Texas-Oklahoma Panhandle.

- T-E 35 Red, medium early with maximum drought resistance for dryland. Short, uniform, excellent standability. Good yield potential for maturity.
- T-E EMPIRE Medium maturing Biotype E resistant, hetero yellow recommended for dryland or limited irrigation. Slightly shorter than T-E Y-101-R with comparable head exertion.
- T-E Y-60 Yellow-white cross, extremely droughty. Medium maturing with good seedling vigor and emergence. High yields under favorable conditions. Not recommended for full irrigation and intensive farming practices due to above average height under these conditions.
