VOL XIII, NO. 21

WHITTLIN'

By DOLPH MOTEN

There's extra good news in a story in this Issue of The Blade. State Representative Bill Clayton brought the news release for said story by this week, pointing out that he'd like to do away with Daylight Saving Time.

Whether he can accomplish his goal remains to be seen. But we greatly appreciate his efforts in attempting to get the DST changed even if he can't get it done. He has hopes, of course, or he wouldn't be trying.

The personable Clayton, who advocated the DST idea back in the beginning, has changed his opinion and wants to do something about it.

He said back before the DST bill was passed, he got but little expressions of opinion from people and those were willing to try the change. After the change went into effect, though, the expressions were loud, long and against!

Personally, we don't have anything against the saving of daylight time for those people who are in a position to take advantage of it. And those people are those who work eight hours a day; say from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m.

But why can't they go to work at 7 and get off at 4 if they want extra daylight after they get their workday put in? Why burden the rest of us with their problem?

The work Rep. Clayton is doing on the state level is appreciated by this department and we herewith offer a verbal tip of the hat and a congratulatory handshake to him.

People in elected government positions, from the President of the United States to city councils in Bovina and elsewhere, are seeking ways to increase taxes sufficiently to provide for the needs of the people.

On the local level, something can be done about bringing about an almost painless tax increase which, we think, could be of great benefit to Bovina and other cities in the state.

The state legislature has made it permissible for cities to vote a sales tax on themselves. This tax is called the one per cent city sales tax and is applicable only to those items which are now taxed by the state. In other words, groceries, farm machinery, cigarettes, etc. would continue to be eliminated from this tax.

The one per cent is handled through the state along with the two per cent state sales tax with the city's portion being returned back to the individual city by the state comptroller.

This could be a tremendous tax relief for Texas cities. While it might not, and probably wouldn't, reduce the present property tax, it would keep this tax from increasing down through the years bringing about still greater burdens on property owners.

The sales tax, and we don't necessarily agree, has been called the "fairest tax of all."

Bovina's present property tax brings in something over $20,000 annually. According to estimates of sales here, the city tax would bring in something like $12,000 to $15,000 yearly. That money could be put to great use, in our way of thinking, to make a better city, one that all residents could be more proud of.

This is money that we'll have to eventually pay, anyway, people who are in a position to know believe, and the disadvantages to individual businesses which collect the one per cent aren't nearly enough to offset the advantages that the extra tax money can produce for them. As of last week, 22 cities in Texas had voted the tax increase on themselves while one had turned down the proposal. Lubbock, for instance, recently approved it. Electra is the only town to vote it down.

Progressive towns which can "afford" good streets, water systems, police and fire departments are in a much greater position to attract business than are those which are conservative to the point of moving

IT'S THAT TIME AGAIN -- Joan Carson, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Carson, had a hard time deciding which turkey she'd like for Thanksgiving Day dinner while visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Garth, who raised the flock on their farm near Oklahoma Lane. Several of the turkeys met the chopping block this week in preparation for annual observance Thursday.

Thanksgiving Holiday Here This Week

Students in Bovina Schools will enjoy a two-day vacation from classes Thursday and Friday, while business institutions and offices in Bovina will be closed Thursday for Thanksgiving.

Classes will be dismissed at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday for the holidays, according to Gary Cox, high school principal. Students took their six-weeks test this week, but report cards will not be handed them until next week.

Business will proceed as usual Friday and Saturday in Bovina and classes will resume at school on Monday morning.

While students are away from school during Christmas holidays from Dec. 22 to Jan. 2, offices in Bovina are expected to be closed for two days. Christmas is on Monday and offices will be closed on both Dec. 25 and Tuesday, the 26th.

Clayton Backs Standard Time

State Representative Bill Clayton of Springlake has revealed he is asking Governor John Connally, in a letter this week, to include a bill to exempt Texas from Daylight Saving Time in the upcoming special session of the Legislature.

Clayton stated that people of Texas, after having tried Daylight Saving Time for one year, disapprove of the advanced time.

A poll taken shows a general disapproval all across the state. In addition, several polls taken in this area of Texas indicates a great majority of the people here do not like Daylight Saving Time, Clayton points out.

He said that he feels Texans have given Daylight Saving Time a fair trial, but after receiving an expression from the people in his legislative district by polls, along with personal contact, that he would support any action to exempt Texas from the time change in the future.

This Week's Blade Issue Out Early

Post office and business institutions will be closed here on Thursday in observance of Thanksgiving Day and mail on routes will not be delivered.

This week's issue of The Blade is being published a day early so that subscribers on the local route may receive their copy on Wednesday.

Pheasant Season Gets Underway December 1

Pheasant season opens here Friday, Dec. 1, continuing through Thursday, Dec. 7, with prospects ripe for the best season held here, according to Jack Patterson, president of Parmer County Game Management Association.

There are more pheasants this year than ever before, Patterson has announced. The longest tail feather contest will again be staged in Bovina. Three prizes will be awarded in the event.

First prize is 100 pounds of hybrid milo seed furnished by Hartzog Seed Farms; second is $10 in merchandise at Bovina Dry Goods; and third is $5 in cash or trade at Parmer County Farm Supply.

Contest headquarters is Parmer County Farm Supply located on Highway 60 east of Bovina. Deadline for entering a tail feather in the contest is noon Saturday, Dec. 9. Limit this year is two per day, roosters only, with four in possession.

Pheasant season in Parmer County is expected to attract numerous hunters from over the Panhandle, as well as county residents. All are eligible to enter the contest.

Winner of the event in 1966 was Rodney Murphy, at that time a sophomore student in Bovina High School. A. E. Crump is the contest

No Decision Made --

Clinic Bids Opened For Building Here

Bids from three contractors were opened here Friday for the proposed Bovina Medical Clinic before members of the building committee, temporary executive committee and James W. Depperman of Sears-Roebuck Foundation.

A contract, however, was not let since details must first be worked out, Bob Estes, secretary, said. Two contractors who had received plans and specifications on the building did not submit bids.

However, all bids submitted were within the range that the Bovina Clinic Fund can afford, Estes continued. Various phases of the details must be worked out before a decision can be reached for letting a contract.

The committees were expected to meet early this week, but whether or not a decision would be made was not known Monday.

Depperman, who represented Sears-Roebuck Foundation, re-

Telephone Man To Live Here

Kenneth Howard of Denton will begin work here Tuesday of next week as combination man-in-charge of Bovina for General Telephone Company, according to R. B. Porter, plant supervisor of Littlefield.

Howard and his wife, Helen, moved to 302 Eighth Street in Bovina Monday.

He has been associated with General Telephone Company for about seven years, Porter said, and will be the representative in Bovina.

However, Porter stated that those having telephone trouble should continue to call the business office in Littlefield. The office there will contact Howard, who will be close at hand to make necessary repairs, installations, etc.

Howard is moving to Bovina to provide better service for customers of General Telephone Company, Porter stated. The company hopes that quicker service will now be available to those in this area.

General Telephone becomes the second utility to station a man here this year. Dan Koelzer recently moved here to represent Pioneer Natural Gas Co.

Southwestern Public Service Co. has indicated it will follow suit by summer of 1968.

Prompt Delivery Rules Announced

Postmaster Gene Ezell today urged the citizens of Bovina, to be sure to use the correct address on their letters and packages going to servicemen overseas to avoid serious delays in delivery.

Postmaster Ezell reported that millions of letters and packages going overseas have been delayed because they were insufficiently addressed. He said that one of the biggest problems has been failure of persons to include the very important five digit APO or FPO number in the military address. Mail not containing this number is incorrectly addressed.

He said that last year more than nine million pieces of mail were delayed in delivery. Of this number, 3,5 million pieces fall-ed to include the complete five digit APO or FPO number in the address. This improperly addressed mail had to be sent to a military locator directory where time-consuming searches were made to determine the proper addresses.

"As the Christmas mail volume going overseas is expected to increase up to 30 per cent or over four million pounds above last year, every precaution should be taken by friends and relatives of servicemen to address their letters and packages properly to assure rapid delivery to its destination," Postmaster Ezell said.

There are four essential elements to an overseas military address. They are:

1. The serviceman's identity-grade, full name, and service number.
2. His military unit - complete.
3. Gateway post office-New York, San Francisco or Seattle.
4. APO or FPO - a 5 digit number.

When any of these elements is missing, the letter or package will be delayed in delivery.

F'Ball Contest Race Tightens In Stretch

The race for the grand prize, an expense paid trip for two to the Cotton Bowl game in the Bovina Businesses Football Contest, continues to become closer. Leroy Lance crept one point closer to Mrs. Bobby Cumpston, who has set the pace this year since its beginning.

With two weeks left in the contest Mrs. Cumpston stands at 82, and Lance is a close 81. She at one time held a six point lead, ahead of all contenders.

Winner in this week's contest is Don Reeve of Friona, who picked eight winners. He will receive the $5 first place money.

Second place of $3 went to Norma Lusk and third winner of $1 was Tuck Monk. Both also named eight winners and took their second and third places via the tie-breaker.

Mrs. Cumpston picked six winners this week, while Lance named seven correctly. In the event the two, or any others, should be tied at the end of the contest, the grand champion will be selected on the tiebreaker scores for the entire 13 weeks.

Only three, the winners, picked eight correct this week, while 21 correctly named seven, including Lance, Kirk McFarland of Farwell, Erick Perkins of Kermit, Mrs. Albert Johnson of Farwell, Terry Carpenter of Clovis, Nola Read, Truck Lusk, Wess Smith, Joyce Read, Al Kerby, Lou Nuttall, Lloyd turned to Chicago with orders to secure case work, interior panels and doors and hardware for the new building. This was given the go-ahead signal since such purchases usually require about two months.

He told Bovina committees Friday that the Foundation is already at work trying to locate a doctor for Bovina and will continue to work hand-in-hand with the doctor committee here.

Bovina citizens have donated and pledged $43,000 for building a medical clinic and securing a doctor for the town. The amount was received through projects of Bovina Woman's Study Club, Lions Club, Roping Club, and others and through drives held here during the summer and fall.

The goal was $50,000, but those involved felt that the project could get underway with the amount on hand and pledged.

Bovina Jaycees, two or three years ago, conducted a survey of the town to determine that the greatest need here is a doctor and clinic. The Bovina Woman's Study Club adopted the project as its major concern and spearheaded the campaign.

Since that time, various organizations have helped in many ways.

Last fall the Study Club conducted a survey in conjunction with Sears-Roebuck Foundation to determine if Bovina would qualify for assistance under its program. After the survey was favorable, definite Bovina's city council hasn't officially considered calling an election concerning the city sales tax, as far as we know. However, we would like to see to see the council study the advantages . . . and disadvantages . . . and get the opinions of business people and customers in regard to it.

This could be the answer to the city's financial problems which are coming up in the months and years to come. We think it's a good deal. What do you think?

Our problems will, we'll admit, seem smaller after the

The win will give the Southwest Conference championship outright to the deserving Aggies.

Dick Horn, Bovina Mustang quarterback, was named a member of the All-District 3-B first team and Ramey Brandon, end, and James Stevens, guard, were selected for second team positions in a meeting of district officials Monday night at Hart.

Hampered, oddly enough, by pretty weather, Bovina Lions Club members sold $657 worth of brooms, mops and other merchandise during the annual broom sale which was conducted Friday.

Evelyn Joyce Steelman, a student at West Texas State College, Canyon, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Steelman, Bovina, began practicing teaching in the local school on Monday.

Four straight days of sunshine—a record—has sent area farmers scurrying to the fields this week, as they anxiously push into what they hope will be a big harvest movement.

A few short generations ago, sheep were the scourge of the range, and Parmer County, in the giant XIT ranch then, probably has a natural, though unconscious, resistance to the woolly animals, enough though the plow has put the cow to rout.

But, encouraged by depressed prices for other livestock, and lower prices for cash crops, sheep are trickling back a few at a time into the Parmer County area.

"Willie's Weekend," a three-act comedy, will be presented Friday evening by the Junior Class.

Warren Morton, superintendent of Bovina Schools, announced Monday that preparations are being made to spend approximately $1000 on new books for the school library.

Bovina's Mustangs put a cap on the poor, yet spectacular-in-spots, 1957 football season here Friday night as they took a 7-5 penetration loss from the Whitharral Panthers. The score, which wasn't important after the final gun sounded, was 25-25.

Paula Howard, sophomore, was named Plow Girl.

Bovina Mustangs wrapped up an otherwise successful season in drab blanket of defeat Saturday night.

Groom Tigers took measure of District 2-B champion Ponies, 12-6, in bi-district game unreeled in Buffalo Bowl at Canyon in sub-freezing temperature.

Nine members of Bovina Mustangs 2-B champion football team earned berths on all-district offensive and defensive units. Five received honorable mention.

Grain sorghum harvest in Parmer County has been seriously hampered by the continuing rain and snow during the past three weeks but yields are the "best ever" according to reports from county elevators.

Erith Hawkins bounced back into first place last week in the race for the grand prize in Bovina Businesses Cotton Bowl Football Contest.

Mrs. J. W. Wright hosted a dinner party for members of 39ers Birthday Club and their honoree, Mrs. Jesse Walling, Thursday evening at City Drug.

Mrs. Buck Ellison presented a program on Wildlife Conservation to members of Bovina Woman's Study Club Monday afternoon at the club house.

Bovina Mustang football squadmen and their dates will be honored with a banquet Monday night in the school cafeteria. Guest speaker will be a coach from the staff of Eastern New Mexico University.

Seven Mustangs will don the maroon and white football togs of Bovina High School for the last time Friday night when the Ponies meet the Whitharral Panthers here in the final game of the season.

The graduating seniors are Terry Adams, Dick Horn, Jerry Burnett, Dickie Steelman, James Stevens, Danny Morton and Mike O'Hair.

The sun is shining down on Parmer County area farms and clouds show every indication of dispersing, ending another soggy and cold spell that has plagued farmers all fall long.

Ten members of Bovina Woman's Study Club went to Clovis Thursday evening for a special program. Meeting at the club house, they went to Clovis for a Mexican supper and later were guests of a florist in that city.

12 Injured --

13 Accidents During Month

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 13 accidents on rural highways in Parmer County during the month of October, according to Sergeant W. E. Wells, Highway Patrol Supervisor of the area.

These crashes resulted in 12 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $8,320.00.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first ten months of 1967 shows a total of 103 accidents resulting in five persons killed, 56 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $70,631.00.

The sergeant said, "The last two days of October have proved that winter is here. Your vehicle needs winterizing. Get the jump on bad weather by having your vehicle safety inspected by an authorized garage to help assure safe mechanical performance in the months ahead. Then check to see that antifreeze has been installed in your radiator; also, snow tires or tire chains and ice scrapers are handy, for 'today's inspection is tomorrow's protection'."

The Sergeant suggested ways to "winterize your driving" during icy and slippery conditions.

- (1) Slow down and leave more space between cars.
- (2) Keep windows clear -- turn on lights to help others.
- (3) Drive extra slow on turns, intersections, and crest of hills.
- (4) When braking, pump to avoid locking wheels in skid.

Apple Saucery
by Betty Crocker

Appetizing, versatile applesauce should be part of your bag of tricks for easy, interesting meals. Applesauce can add tang to breakfast... chilled on cereal or waffles... hot with breakfast sausage. A dish of applesauce can substitute for salad at lunch or dinner, is ideal for filling a small vacuum bottle in a lunch box.

Applesauce desserts are almost endless... applesauce puddings, cookies, cakes, even molded applesauce-gelatin desserts. A favorite applesauce cake, easy to put together, is this one. Try it on the family tonight. Then remember it for the next time you entertain at a "coffee."

APPLESAUCE VELVET CRUMB CAKE
1 1/2 cups Bisquick
3/4 cup brown sugar (packed)
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon allspice
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
3 tablespoons shortening
1 egg
1/2 cup unsweetened applesauce
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/3 cup milk

Topping (below)
Heat oven to 350°. Grease and flour square pan, 8x8x2 inches. In large mixer bowl, stir together dry ingredients. Add shortening, egg, applesauce and vanilla. Beat on low speed 1/2 minute, scraping side and bottom of bowl frequently. Beat 1 minute on medium speed. Stir in milk gradually.

Beat 1/2 minute longer. Pour into prepared pan. Bake 35 to 40 minutes. Serve warm with Topping. 9 servings.

Topping: In chilled bowl, beat 1 1/2 cups whipping cream until stiff. Fold in 2 teaspoons cinnamon, 1/4 cup chopped nuts and 2 teaspoons sugar. Colorful, tasty trick with applesauce for children: Sprinkle the dish of applesauce with red cinnamon candies. And here's another saucy treat.

CRANBERRY APPLESAUCE
2 cups fresh cranberries
2 cups sliced apples
3/4 cup water
1 cup sugar

Combine cranberries, apples and water; cook until fruit is soft. Put through a colander or strainer; stir in sugar and cook until sugar is dissolved. If desired, sprinkle with grated orange peel.

Scoopin' Around

By Pat Jacobs

On our desk is a copy of the May 22, 1946 "Yucca," the Bovina School newspaper of that "age."

Judy Fillpot came across the edition and brought it by. Needless to say, the "Yucca" contains much vital information.

For instance we see where Mrs. Margaret Caldwell was holding her spring recital. On the program were Leon Ware playing "Two Butterflies" and Clare Derrick "Red Balloons," among others.

The senior class was graduating 11 members including William R. Alverson, Ted E. Brock, W. D. Eberling, Ercy A. Hampton, Ray L. Hart, Ruby Pearl Johnston, Sam I. Johnston, Jeraldine Niece, Dorothy J. Rhodes, John W. Tabor and Macie K. Watson.

The eighth grade was also planning graduation. For the occasion, a play titled, "Alex the Great," was being rehearsed.

That year, which saw the end of World War II, also saw juniors looking forward to summer vacations. Robert Read had his eye on Canada, while future brother-in-law, Howard Ellison, thought he might enjoy a trip after harvest.

The Bovina girls varsity basketball team was not called the "Fillies." It was the Feminine Mustangs. In a three-year review of the team, the Feminine Mustangs of 1944 were not very successful, the "Yucca" says, partly because the team didn't have a coach.

The team won 12 out of 17 games in 1945 after Superintendent W. O. Cherry took over the coaching duties. Mildred Wines was captain of the team and Betty Moorman was co-captain.

The Femines won 14 and lost 9 the next year, 1946, when coaches were John R. Sheets and R. W. Standefer, who split the season after Sheets moved to Oklahoma.

Receiving letters were Sara Marie Venable, Loyce Trimble, Betty Moorman, Nancy Lou Williams, Pearl Johnston, Letha Bridges, Mary Alice Englund and Louise Moody.

The school paper was complete, down to its gossip column, which seemed to be mainly concerned with why so many students were going to Clovis to find dates.

Other news said that Gene Hawkins had been elected president of the Student Body; Harold Hawkins was home from boot camp; there would be no public skating next week end; that Janean Ellison was president of the eighth grade class; and that there would be no school Monday since teachers had decided to check all papers Friday and hand out cards the same day.

The "Yucca" staff that year was composed of the late Charles Ross as editor; Martha Williams, assistant editor; the late D. C. Looney, typist; and Mrs. Hoffer, sponsor.

Know The Truth
By Lavern Stewart

PRAY TO WHOM? Should we address our prayers to the "saints?" In the first place, the term "saint" as used in the Bible is not applied to men who have died and been "canonized," but rather to living members of the church, II Corinthians 1:2.

Christians pray "to" God "through" Christ. Notice Luke 11:2, "When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven..." Read also John 15:16, "That whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name he may give it to you." No fact could be more plainly stated than is set forth in I Timothy 2:5, THAT JESUS IS THE ONLY MEDIATOR. Men cannot bypass Jesus in approaching the Father. It is unscriptural to pray through Mary, through angels, or through dead men.

The dead could not mediate for us, including Mary, because their earthly existence and connections are over. Consider, Ecclesiastes 9:5, 6, "For the living know that they shall die; but the dead know not anything, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten. Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion forever in any thing that is done under the sun." In the Lazarus and rich man illustration in Luke 16, Jesus shows living men can receive no help from dead men.

Jesus was previously with the Father in heaven, but so that He might become our Mediator He came to earth (Phil. 2:7-11) and became equally related to man and God. Friends, let us reject the doctrines, commandments, and traditions of men and believe the Bible, notice Mark 7:7, I would like to study with you in your home. Will you call me for an appointment?

"Now for my Thanksgiving Day prayer . . . 'the world is in a horrible mess, Dear Lord, but thank Thee it isn't even WORSE' . . .!"

Thanksgiving

O Lord, Thou hast given so much . . . Give one thing more—a grateful heart. —GEORGE HERBERT

THE COMMON CONCEPTION of Thanksgiving Day in the United States is that it originated as a festival of praise to God for the abundance of good things he had bestowed upon the first settlers of Plymouth Colony. Quite to the contrary, there was no great abundance. The Pilgrims seemingly had little of material goods for which to be thankful.

Here they were on the inhospitable shores of a strange land, separated from their homeland by miles of ocean. Their houses offered poor shelter from the merciless winds and cruel cold. Their food supply was inadequate. They couldn't catch enough fish, their agricultural methods were unproductive, and trade with the Indians faltered because of the plague. That first winter half their number died, and the rest lived in general misery.

Yet they assembled to thank God for what they did have. They counted as a blessing their freedom from religious persecution. They appreciated the friendly Indians who helped them in understanding the secrets of wilderness living and agriculture. They were grateful for their faith in God. They were thankful to be alive, with hope for the future.

For many years thereafter Pilgrim parents placed five kernels of corn at each dinner plate at Thanksgiving time, as a reminder of the time food was so scarce in the Plymouth Colony that each person was given an allotment of five grains of corn each day to keep alive.

We who have inherited this great land bow our heads in humble gratitude and lift our hearts in joyful praise to God from whom all blessings flow.

On The Farm In Parmer County

By RONNY McNUTT
County Agent

PHEASANT SEASON TO OPEN

You hunters need to get your guns oiled up for the pheasant season which will be open December 1-7 in Parmer County.

Bag limit is two cocks per day and possession limit is four.

County Wildlife Sub-Committee and County Game Association met in October and decided to continue the "Pheasant Tail Feather Contest" again this year. Members of this sub-committee are: Jack Patterson, chairman, Arlin Hartzog, Bud Crump, Melvin Sachs, Gary Brown and C. L. Lillard.

The three longest feathers turned in to each designated measuring headquarters in Friona, Bovina and Farwell will receive awards. Awards are $15 for first place, $10 for second and $5 for third place in each of the towns.

In addition to local awards, a plaque will be given by the County Game Association to the person turning in the longest tail feather in the county. Measuring headquarters in Farwell will be at Farwell Hardware. Contact Bud Crump in Bovina concerning headquarters in this area, and contact Gary Brown or C. L. Lillard concerning headquarters in the Friona area.

Residents of Parmer County do not need hunting license to hunt pheasant in this county. However, out-of-county persons must have a hunting license. Cost of license is $3.15. Make sure that you have permission to hunt on a person's land before the season opens.

COUNTY BRUCELLOSIS RECERTIFICATION

According to Claude Johnson with the State Animal Health Commission, Parmer County cattle owners may not have to get their cattle up for Brucellosis recertification testing in the near future.

Johnson indicated the "Market Cattle Testing Program" or as it is sometimes known "Back Tagging Program" will take the place of on-premise testing for this year.

The MCT program provides brucellosis tests at auction markets and packing plants at no extra cost or handling for the producer.

Under present regulations, if during a three year period 15 per cent of the cattle in a county is back tagged and found negative to test of blood drawn at slaughter houses, on-premise testing is not required to maintain that county's modified-certified brucellosis status.

Also, during this three year period, if an individual rancher has 15 per cent of his herd back tagged and tested and found negative to test of blood obtained at the slaughter house, he would not have to have his cattle re-tested on the ranch even though it became necessary to test other herds in the county for recertification.

Soybean Demonstration Results:

A.E. Redwine, came by the office this past week and gave me the yields on his soybean variety and fertilizer demonstration. The demonstration was located 1 mile south and 1 mile east of the Oklahoma Lane Community Center.

Listed below is agronomic data concerning the demonstration. This is a sandy loam soil and this plot was planted to soybeans in 1966. The test was planted May 20 at a rate of 75 lbs. per acre. It was irrigated 3 times and also received a treflan application and was hoed once. The fertilizer test was fertilized according to soil test recommendation.

Below are the results on these tests:

Variety Test
Hinn - 27.7 bushels/acre
Hill - 30.7 bushels/acre
Lee-25.1 bushels/acre
Patterson-26.8 bushels/acre
The Patterson was harvested October 2nd, and the other varieties were harvested October 25.

Fertilizer Test
0-0-0 yielded 27.7 bushels/acre
30-0-0 yielded 27.7 bushels/acre
0-40-0 yielded 28.5 bushels/acre
30-40-0 yielded 29.4 bushels/acre

Figuring 8 cents a pound cost for nitrogen and 10 cents a pound cost for phosphorus, fertilizer did not pay for itself this year under the above conditions. Under different circumstances, for example soybeans following grain sorghum, or cotton, fertilizer might have caused an increase above cost.

PROPER HARVESTING ESSENTIAL FOR QUALITY COTTON

With so much emphasis at present on the production of quality cotton, farmers in Parmer County should examine closely their harvesting operations.

Listed below are key factors for a proper harvest:

1. Lint moisture should be down to about eight per cent. This point is reached when the relative humidity in the field is 60 per cent or below. Moisture can also be checked by collecting a few locks of cotton and squeezing them together in the palm of the hand. If the cotton balls up, it is too moist. If it fluffs out, it is dry enough for harvesting.
2. Strippers should be checked carefully to assure that they

IMPROVED PASTURES -- The switchgrass pasture on the Tom Caldwell farm is being established with assistance from the Great Plains Conservation Program. This is only one practice being used by Parmer County farmers through the program as conservation measures for soil and water.

else's. You run your farm or ranch different from anyone else because your land and its problems are different from others.

are properly adjusted and green boll separators should be operating efficiently.

3. Seed cotton should not be stored on trailers if the moisture level is above 12 per cent. Seed quality will also be reduced drastically if stored with a high amount of trash.
4. Seed cotton should be grouped or separated when any difference in quality is suspected. Grouping should be based on variety, irrigation or dryland, disease or insect damage, hail damage, lint moisture and planting date.

TOP AUTHORITIES TO CONDUCT FERTILIZER SHORT COURSE

Some of the top authorities in the field of education and research will discuss soil fertility and fertilizers at a Fertilizer Dealers Short Course to be conducted on the South Plains during November and December.

Information on fertilizer needs for the area and pertinent fertilizer research findings will be presented.

Featured speakers at the short course include Dr. Eugene A. Coleman, associate professor of agronomy, Texas Technological College; Dr. Arthur Onken, assistant professor of soils and fertility at the South Plains Research and Extension Center; and John Box and Jim Valentine, agronomist and area soil chemist, respectively, with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Coleman will discuss nitrogen's role in crop production while Onken's presentation will center around phosphorus response and the reactions of phosphate materials in West Texas soils.

Information on soil-plant-water relationships as they affect production and response from fertilizer will be provided by Box.

Valentine's comments will concern how to diagnose nutrient deficiencies and a rundown of the secondary and micronutrient situation.

Schedule for the series of two meetings is as follows for interested persons in the Parmer County area: Dimmitt, High School Cafeteria, November 13, 27.

Initial meetings at each location will begin at 7:30 p.m. with the second meeting starting at 6:30 p.m.

All fertilizer dealers, agency personnel, County Program Building Committee members, producers and other interested individuals are encouraged to attend the short course at the nearest location.

Registration fee is $5, and will be collected at the first meeting. The fee includes a notebook of the proceedings and a dinner at the final meeting.

HAY DUMPED -- Hay was scattered alongside Third Street near the Santa Fe railroad tracks Thursday when the truck on which it was being hauled lost its brakes while attempting to negotiate a U-turn. No apparent damage was done, except to the bales of hay.

1967 Crops --

Commerical, Farm Reseal Loan Program Announced

By Prentice L. Mills, ASCS

Wheat, corn, sorghum, soybeans, oats, and barley from the 1967 crops which are under price-support loans in commercial storage, will be eligible for loan extensions (reseal) before the respective crop loans mature in the spring and summer of 1968.

Farm storage loan extensions will also be available, subject to the approval of the State ASC Committee. Decisions on resealing of current crops are normally made near the end of the marketing year. This early announcement will permit better advance planning by farmers and should strengthen prices.

All farmers who are eligible for price support on 1967 crops will be eligible for reseal in commercial storage or farm storage if approved for the State. Storage costs accruing during the reseal period will be paid by CCC. These payments will be made to farmers who provide farm storage or who prepay warehouse storage charges for the extended period. If warehouse charges are not prepaid, CCC will make these payments for the extended period direct to the storing warehouseman. Payments by CCC to the warehouseman will not relieve producers of their obligation for warehouse charges which accrued during the initial loan period.

Cost sharing for the entire job - ranging from 50 to 80 per cent of the cost - is earmarked when the agreement is signed. Cost sharing is paid as the producer completes each step of his plan.

Several farmers and ranchers in the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District are carrying out their plans with assistance from the Great Plains Conservation Program. On farms, landowners are planting irrigated pastures, installing concrete irrigation pipelines, leveling land, and constructing waterways for protection from flood water.

One of the most recent Great Plains Plans developed is on W. M. Pool farm located nine miles South and one East of Bovina. Pool plans to install underground irrigation pipeline and construct about 8,000 feet of parallel terraces to conserve water and reduce erosion.

For further information regarding the Great Plains Conservation Program, contact the Soil Conservation Service or one of the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District Supervisors.

Because the overwhelming grain surpluses from prior years have been eliminated by our acreage diversion programs since 1961, many grain elevators now have adequate storage space available.

The State ASC committee determines whether an on-farm reseal program will be conducted in its state.

The commercial reseal program will be available to eligible producers in all areas. Producers may redeem reseal commodities at any time and dispose of such commodities as desired.

Under the 1967-crop reseal program, price-support loans on stored commodities will be extended beyond the 1968 maturity dates until called. CCC retains the option to call resale loans at any time the stocks are needed.

Storage rates on the 1967 crops now eligible for reseal loan extensions will be announced later and will be available at State and County ASCS offices. Farm storage charges paid by CCC will be comparable to that paid under the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement for CCC stocks and stocks under commercial reseal.
