By Bill Ellis

SOME PEOPLE ARE WONDERING if the Carter administration's reaction to the current situation in Afghanistan is not merely so much election-year fallerol.

The rhetoric sounds good. We'll admit that even in this space a few weeks back, we supported the threatened Olympic boycott as a means of protesting to the Russians.

It's always good politics for our national leaders to take on the Russians. Nothing makes better headlines.

But some have questioned the logic of our reaction to the Afghanistan situation, especially when viewed in light of our participation in Korea and Vietnam, both of which were very unpopular military involvements for the United States.

Is it not possible that Afghanistan could turn out to be the next Vietnam? And would our fearless leaders risk the lives of thousands of our young citizens, just to get re-elected? It is the thought of many that they are doing just that.

You'll recall that prior to last November, when the Iranian hostage situation developed, that President Carter's popularity was among the lowest ever for a president. Most people weren't about to give him their vote for re-election, and his opponents couldn't wait for the primaries.

But suddenly there was the Iranian situation, which demands a certain amount of national pride, and suddenly Carter's popularity has received a tremendous boost. It is virtually un-American to say anything against the president during a period of crisis.

This over-reaction, though, as it has been termed by some, could get our country into another trouble-spot. And some experts say that Russia is simply doing what one would expect them to do, especially in light of some of the United States' actions, including befriending China, Russia's enemy.

The trade embargo has hurt America, especially its farmers, far worse than it may ever hurt the Soviet Union. And an Olympic boycott could prove to be a devious tactic, besides perhaps sabotaging the modern Olympics' future.

Military "containment" achieved very little for the free world in Korea and Vietnam. In fact, Vietnam was probably the biggest military disaster our nation has ever known. We would hope that our leaders, in particular the Carter administration, will not stoop so low as to value their political careers so highly that they would create another Korea or Vietnam.

Economic experts have said that nothing picks up the economy more than war, which places demands on all of our resources. But we would hope that our leaders can come up with a program which will be a little more sensible.

THIS IS FROM Bill Southard, Clovis, by way of Billy Whitecotton:

"He drinks Columbian coffee out of a French cup while eating Danish pastry while sitting on his English furniture after coming home in his German car after watching an Italian movie, then gets mad and picks up his Japanese-made ballpoint pen and writes a nasty letter to his Congressman demanding they put a stop to the gold flow out of this country."

A college student had been pestering his father for a new car. On a visit to the campus, the parent pointed out that most of the cars in the parking lot were quite old.

"But dad," the youth protested, "those cars belong to the faculty."

Claim Fraud Cited In F.B. Shakeup

The manager of the Parmer County Farm Bureau agency, Milton Evans, and his three salesmen, Larry Kennedy, James Williams and Jay Claborn, have been removed from their position due to irregularities involving filing of claims, it was learned this week.

Charles Scruggs, district sales manager for Farm Bureau, said some claims had been filed which were not legitimate. "Farm Bureau felt it was desirable to withdraw the contracts of the men, due to the circumstances," Scruggs said.

Evans, who served as agency manager for Parmer County Farm Bureau for ten years, denied knowledge of the fraudulent claims. "The company felt, however, that it was my responsibility that this

Clayton Is Honored At Area Fetes

A nice crowd turned out here Monday to meet Speaker of the House Bill Clayton at a coffee in his honor at the First State Bank.

Among those attending were members of the Bovina High School senior class.

Clayton was also honored at an appreciation dinner Monday evening in Friona, which drew a crowd of 200.

Clayton told the crowd that he "was not going to slow up" in his efforts to clear his name of recent bribery charges. "They've run into a country boy, and he's going to give 'em a good country fight," said the Springlake resident.

Clayton gave a strongly patriotic speech, on the occasion of the legislated Washington's Birthday. He spoke of the progress that has been made in the district in the 17 years since his election.

"I like to feel like I have helped with this progress, and can tell you that you have helped me grow, as well," he said.

"Sometimes the burden is hard to bear. Sometimes it's unbelievable. But I'm optimistic. I have confidence that right will win out. As long as you're with us, we're going to win," he told the gathering.

Growers To Elect Rep.

Cotton growers in Parmer County will meet March 7 to elect a businessman director to the Plains Cotton Growers board. The meeting will be held at the Friona State Bank Community Room, starting at 7:30 p.m.

The term of Wade Wright is expiring.

Clarence Monroe, chairman of the board of directors for the Parmer County Farm Bureau, could not be contacted for a reaction on the events, but had indicated to another news source that the Farm Bureau board had decided to "make no comment to the press" on the incident.

Scruggs said that it was his understanding that no legal action would be taken regarding the incident, against any of those involved. He said that a new agency manager would be selected, through his office and with the approval of the Parmer County Farm Bureau board, but that there was nothing to announce at this time.

According to the Amarillo district official, the action was taken after an internal investigation by the local board, and its recommendation.

REC Slates Annual Meet

Three positions expire on the Bovina Independent School District's Board of Trustees. As of noon Tuesday, there were no applicants for these positions.

Three terms expire for city councilman and mayor also. One applicant has filed for re-election as of date. Dale Gober has filed for re-election. Bedford Caldwell and Larry Webb's terms are also expiring.

Winners Are Chosen In Livestock Show

Prizes of cash, ribbons and trophies were given to the local FFA and 4-H Club members, Tuesday night, February 12, at the 25th Annual Bovina Junior Livestock Show, at the school's agriculture barn here.

The event was sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and Lions Club. Cash awards were given to each entry, starting downward from $15 to the first place winner; second, $12.50; third, $10; fourth, $7.50; fifth, $5; sixth, $2.50; seventh down received $2.

Trophies were given to the champion of each breed, including five breeds of lambs and eight breeds of swine.

Grand and reserve champion steer, swine, and lambs also earned awards, with a trophy also given to the outstanding showman in each division.

Judging the steer show was Jerry Franklin of Melrose, N.M., former ag teacher now in the hog business for himself, which began approximately at 3:30 p.m. There were eight animals in two classes.

The lamb show got underway immediately following the steer judging. Ross Caviness of Causey, N.M., sheep breeder, judged the 67 lambs in five classes.

The swine judging was also the task of Jerry Franklin, which got underway after the judging of the lambs. There were 120 barrows in seven classes and 13 breeding gilts in mixed classes.

FFA and 4-H members participated as their respective supervisors assisted the members in unveiling their show animals. Many of the 208 animals in the Bovina Show were slated for entry in the Parmer County Junior Livestock Show at Friona last Thursday through Saturday, February 14, 15 and 16.

This year as in the past, a pee-wee class of youngsters ages 4-9 took part in showing the lambs of some of the older boys and girls. Each participant received a blue ribbon.

Trophies and ribbons were presented by Denise Read and Tammy Dow, Chapter sweetheart and plowgirl.

Doug Roming achieved the grand champion steer title while Donna Beth Lide took the reserve grand champion award.

champion in the barrow division while Matt Howell exhibited the reserve grand champion.

More photos of the local show; and county results in next week's Blade.

Showmanship awards were given to Charles Johnson, steer; Tim Garner, lamb; and Scott Johnson, swine. Receiving reserve showmanship ribbons were Jon Riddle, lamb; Laura Widner and Jody Watts for barrows.

The show's program made a special thanks to the following people for their assistance:

Bovina Lions Club and Bovina Chamber of Commerce for again sponsoring our show. They provided the trophies, ribbons and prize money to help the students here at Bovina. Without their continued support and interest of the young people of our community, an undertaking such as this would not be possible.

Commissioners Have Routine Meeting

Mostly routine matters occupied the regular meeting of the Parmer County Commissioners on Monday, February 11 in Farwell.

Commissioners voted to approve the contract with Tago Industries of Hereford for the renovation of the Law Enforcement Center. Cost of the work is expected to be in the neighborhood of $36,000.

Judge Porter Roberts said that Chief Deputy Bill Morgan has been working with Joe Slater, inspector for the Texas Commission on Jail Standards, to bring the Parmer County facility to the point where it can attain a rating of "certified jail," which would make it one of the few in the state so rated.

"As soon as we receive some items which have been ordered, Slater will come back for a followup, and hopefully, our jail will make the elite group," Roberts said.

The general liability insurance policy for county employees, covering them while driving, was approved, at a cost of $11,000.

The four volunteer fire departments in the county were paid

A special thanks goes to our announcers: Kenneth Gauntt and Bob Owen; Houston Bartlett, our official weigher and especially to the men who judged our show: Ross Caviness, lambs and Jerry Franklin, barrows, gilts and steers.

Thanks to Glenden Sudderth for hauling and donating the sand for the show and to Miss Garrison and the FFA girls for providing the concession stand.

A very sincere thanks to Janie Sudderth, for again typing and assembling the programs, to Virgie Cary, Yvonne Stevenson and Steve Sherrill, for writing the checks and keeping the placings, to Denise Read and Tammy Dow, for presenting the ribbons and trophies, plus a big thank you to all the others who helped with this year's show.

Winners in Bovina's show were as follows:

their annual subsidies of $2500 each, which partially compensates them for their rural calls during the year.

The court voted to pay an ambulance fee for a county child who is a foster child, and was taken by ambulance from Dimmitt to Amarillo.

Judge Roberts and commissioner Ernest Anthony of Precinct 1 reported on the 22nd annual County Judges and Commissioners' conference, which they attended last week at College Station.

The conference, sponsored by the Agricultural Extension Service of Texas A&M University, was well-attended. "We felt it was well worth our time," Roberts said.

School Out Friday For Spring Break

Bovina Schools will turn out Friday, February 22 at 2:30 p.m. for spring break. Students will return to school March 3, at the regular time.

Grain Reserve Program Changes

Following the January 7 suspension of grain shipments to the Soviet Union, changes were made in the Farmer-owned Grain Reserve. These changes affect entry, loan rates, storage payments and release and call levels.

For Grain Entering The Reserve After January 7, 1980

Only good quality corn, wheat, grain sorghum, and oats produced on participating farms is eligible.

1979 national average loan rates per bushel are: corn-$2.10; wheat-$2.50; barley-$1.71; oats-$1.08; and sorghum-$3.57 per hundredweight.

Interest is waived for the second and third years of the three-year reserve loan agreement. In addition, the first year interest will be waived for the first 512 million bushels of corn to enter the reserve.

Annual payments for storage per bushel are now 20 cents for oats and 26½ cents for other grain.

The release levels (when the producer may repay the reserve loan and sell the grain without penalty) for grains entering the reserve after January 7, 1980 are:

| Commodity | Percent of loan | Price per bu. |
|-----------|-----------------|---------------|
| corn      | 125             | $2.63        |
| wheat     | 150             | $3.75        |
| sorghum   | 125             | $4.46 (cwt)  |
| barley    | 125             | $2.14        |
| oats      | 125             | $1.35        |

The call levels (when a producer has 90 days-30 days under agreements made prior to January 7, 1980-to repay the reserve loan or forfeit the grain to CCC) for grains entering after January 7, 1980, are:

Highway Sets

Work On "60"

Bids for the resurfacing of some 25 miles of US Highway 60 in Parmer County are scheduled to be received in February by the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

The work will be accomplished in sections along US 60 from the New Mexico state line northeastward to Friona.

Lubbock District Engineer George Wall said Rhea Bradley of Littlefield is the department's engineer supervising the project.

| Commodity | Percent of loan | Price per bu. |
|-----------|-----------------|---------------|
| corn      | 145             | $3.05        |
| wheat     | 185             | $4.63        |
| sorghum   | 145             | $5.18 (cwt)  |
| barley    | 145             | $2.48        |
| oats      | 145             | $1.57        |

For Grain Under The Reserve Agreement Prior To January 7, 1980

Farmers may: (1) elect to leave grain under the existing agreement or (2) visit the local ASCS office and execute a new reserve agreement under the new rules.

The new storage payments of 20 cents per bushel for oats and 26½ cents per bushel for other grains also apply to grain left under old agreements (except for agreements approved prior to February 9, 1978).

An additional loan disbursement, based on increased loan rates, may be obtained for 1979 crop grain.

Release and call rules remain the same and release and call levels are:

| Release Levels |                 |               |
|----------------|-----------------|---------------|
| Commodity      | Percent of loan | Price per bu. |
| corn           | 125             | $2.63        |
| wheat          | 140             | $3.50        |
| sorghum        | 125             | $4.46 (cwt)  |
| barley         | 125             | $2.14        |
| oats           | 125             | $1.35        |

| Call Levels |                 |               |
|-------------|-----------------|---------------|
| Commodity   | Percent of loan | Price per bu. |
| corn        | 140             | $2.94        |
| wheat       | 175             | $4.38        |
| sorghum     | 140             | $5.00 (cwt)  |
| barley      | 140             | $2.39        |
| oats        | 140             | $1.51        |

In addition to higher storage payments and higher loan advances for 1979 crop grain indicated above, a new agreement would also mean new release and call level rules and an extended storage period.

One year's interest charges must be paid by the producer. But those interest charges paid under old agreements are credited toward this requirement. However, for corn entering the reserve between October 22, 1979 and January 7, 1980, first year interest accruing after January 7, 1980 will be waived, providing new agreements are made prior to March 31, 1980.

Producers with grain eligible for the reserve or already under agreement are encouraged to see their county ASCS officials and determine how the current grain reserve options and benefits apply to them.

Nazareth Farmer Wins State Show

Vincent Braddock of Nazareth, Texas, recently was named first place winner in the Alfalfa Class of the 1979 State Hay Show at Lufkin, Texas. Braddock operates a dairy farm near Nazareth.

Barley Crop Sets Record

Barley production in Texas established a record yield in 1979, with Parmer County leading the state in production, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown has announced.

Parmer County led all other counties in barley production with a yield of 330,000 bushels from 4,400 harvested acres, Brown said.

Barley production statewide totaled 2,300,000 bushels, more than doubling last year's total of 1,080,000 bushels. Harvested bushels per acre also registered a dramatic gain, Brown said. In 1978, the average yield per acre was 27 bushels, compared to a 70 per cent increase of 46 bushels in 1979.

Approximately 100,000 acres of barley were planted in the state last season, Brown said, but only "half of that was harvested due to the severe winter that damaged many barley crops."

County Office To Be Closed

The Parmer County office of the Farmers Home Administration will be closed three days from February 19 to February 21 to permit the employees to attend a multi-district FmHA meeting at Lubbock.

Billy R. Boling, FmHA county supervisor, said the office will reopen for regular business at 9 a.m., February 22.

County Supervisor Billy R. Boling said that FmHA, as the rural credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, attracts private capital to rural areas as well as makes direct loans to farmers, homeowners and small towns.

Bovina Girl Lands Role In College Play

Miss Alicia Gail Spring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Spring, Bovina, will perform the role of "Jane" in the Cottey College Touring Theatre production of "The Third Age."

Students in the touring theatre group are from Cottey College, Nevada, Mo., a two-year liberal arts college for women owned and supported by the PEO, an organization of 207,000 women devoted to giving women an opportunity for higher education.

The Touring Theatre group will perform in several high schools in the Missouri R-8 District during the college's spring break, March 10-12. The production will be directed by Alfred Fenske, who teaches drama at Cottey.

"The Third Age" is a story of dramatic reversal and contrast in Cottey has a student body of 350 young women from 41 states, Canada and a number of foreign countries. The student-faculty ratio of ten students for every faculty member is one of the best of the country. It enables the college to hold small classes and offer the benefit of a close relationship between faculty and students. The Touring Theatre is

Mustangs Are Second In District

The hot scoring Mustangs led the Farwell Steers by a large margin throughout their first game of the District 3-A tourney. Leading 20-6 in the first quarter the Mustangs were victorious by 10 points when the final buzzer sounded.

The Mustangs met the Vega Longhorns in the finals Friday night. The Ponies played well and were leaders most of the way; first quarter by one point, 14-13; halftime 29-22; third quarter, 37-34; Vega tied the game up with 44 seconds left on the clock. The Longhorns took advantage of a turnover by the Ponies and scored two points in the last eleven seconds. The Ponies were unable to come back.

Coach Lebby reports the Mustangs made improvement with every game and did a fine job all season. They ended the season with a 13-13 record and are second in district.

S-E Downs Fillies, 52-51 In Finale

The Fillies met Springlake-Earth in the first game of the District 3-A tournament in Hereford Thursday night.

It was a heartbreaker for the Fillies as they led throughout the game. First quarter ended with Fillies 18-13. At halftime they led by seven points and the third quarter score narrowed to one point. With 1:18 left on the clock, Linda Shelby's field goal tied the game 49-49. Springlake-Earth went into a stall taking a last shot at the buzzer which was no good.

In overtime, the Fillies' Linda Shelby managed to get the ball through the goal one time and S.E. got off one shot to tie the game at 51-51. Again S.E. went into a stall and Miss Shelby fouled with seven seconds left to play. S.E. made one free shot to win. The Fillies ended the season in third place in district.

Forty-Five Students To Attend Houston Show

Forty-five FFA members from Bovina will be participating in the 1980 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo, February 20-March 2. With more than 27,000 expected livestock entries, the Houston Show will once again be the largest in the world.

Those entering the show from Bovina were: Ronnie Ward, Charlie Trimble, Joe Pat Wright, Joe Black, Kenny Carrell, Michael Forrester, Dale Gilbreath, Daryl Hawkins, Brad

Also, Marty McCowan, Boyd Pipes, Lou Pipes, Mike Nance, John Stanberry, Jon Lin Riddle, Rene Tamez, Mark Teague, Bret Whitten, Laura Widner, Donna Beth Lide, Doug Roming, Sam Spring, Robert Morgan and Kevin Hughes.

For junior exhibitors throughout the state, the Houston Show is the culmination of a year's hard work of preparing their animals for the toughest of show ring competition. It is hard work that often pays off: open show and junior exhibitors will vie for more than a half a million dollars in prize monies and premium auction prices above market value.

From a spectator's point of view, the young exhibitors are center-stage in a two-week extravaganza that begins when Houston, the fastest growing city in the nation, takes a step backwards in time and brings a bit of western heritage to its busy streets.

Horses, buckboards and stage-coaches take to the concrete and businessmen don western hats and boots to welcome the largest civic event in the history of this bustling oil and space flight capital.

More than 6,000 trailriders journeying as far as 386 miles will join city officials and bands as the annual rodeo parade winds through the canyons of downtown streets at 9:15 a.m. on Friday, February 22.

Following the parade, the action moves farther out Main Street to the Astrodome and the adjoining Livestock Exposition Facilities where the rodeo opens with a matinee performance in the Astrodome at 2 p.m.

Urged To OK Plan

There's been a lot of talk about the Beferendum being a government program that cattlemen should turn down. Fact is, cattlemen had better recognize the realities of government and its involvement with agriculture and quit being naive. Like it or not, the U.S. Federal Government now sets meat import quotas, inspects your product, regulates the use of animal pharmaceuticals and even taxes you for income you make on the cattle you produce. Cattlemen and the beef industry are already caught up in the government tangle.

Passage of the Beferendum would at least give cattlemen some clout as they bump heads with government-funded consumer groups, government-funded anti-beef nutrition groups, and others who threaten our industry.

Whether you think the Beferendum is government or not doesn't really matter. The important thing is to recognize that cattlemen don't have enough force now to influence factors that affect them. It's important that they take advantage of this opportunity to put some power behind their punch.

Challenge Of The Bible

Read Psalm 119:1-11; Romans 12:1-3

How shall a young man steer an honest course? By holding to thy word. --Psalm 119:9 (NEB)

A LITTLE girl unknowingly expressed the challenge of the Bible when she said to her sister: "I tell you, the Bible does not end in Timothy; it ends in Revolutions."

In current society, where the great urge is for change, the Bible shows the way to constructive change. It does not tear down personality, destroy character, nor remove respect for property rights as many modern revolutionists would do. Instead, it provides a plumb line by which society, and individuals within society, may measure the rightness or wrongness of their actions and attitudes.

The manner of living has changed greatly through the centuries, but the Bible tells us that it is the quality of life within which is the true measure of worth. Paul aptly expressed this idea in his letter to the Romans: "Let God re-mould your minds from within, so that you may prove in practice that the plan of God for you is good... and moves towards the goal of true maturity."

PRAYER: Our Father, give to us this day Thy loving counsel and instruction through Thy Holy Word. Help us to open our lives to Thee for cleansing and our hearts for filling with the spirit of love. Amen.

S. Steelman, D. Johnston Exchange Wedding Vows

Sharon Denise Steelman and Don Johnston, Jr. were united in marriage December 21 at the First Baptist Church of Bovina, with the Rev. Jerry Rockwell presiding.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Steelman of Bovina, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Johnston of Artesia, New Mexico.

The ceremony was performed at the altar with a trellis of greenery accented by three baskets of rose and ivory silk flowers and two candelabras with ivory candles decorated with greenery.

Irma Jo Englant presented traditional wedding music at the organ. Isaiah Mejia accompanied Mona Bryant at the piano, as she sang "There Is Love" and "The Wedding Song."

As the bride was presented in marriage by her father, she wore a formal length gown with a long train. The bodice of the gown was covered with rose designed lace and seed pearls, featuring a Queen Anne neckline with long puffed sleeves trimmed with rose lace at the wrists. The long flowing skirt was also trimmed with rose designed lace. The knee length veil was edged with rose lace and fell from a headpiece of the same rose designed lace.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of roses in rose and ivory colors.

Carrying out bridal tradition, she wore pennies in her shoe minted in the year of the birth of the bride and groom for something old. Her bridal attire was new. She borrowed a necklace from her mother and wore the traditional blue garter.

Tamara Read was the matron of honor. Janie Clements served as the bridesmaid. They wore floor length ivory dresses designed with a panel of rose colored velvet down the center front. The neckline was edged with lace with long puffed sleeves. They carried long stemmed rose colored silk lilies.

Flower girl, Leah Steelman, sister of the bride, wore a floor length rose colored dress with an ivory lace yolk and long sleeves. She carried an ivory lace basket filled with silk roses in the wedding colors of rose and ivory.

The groom wore an ivory tuxedo with silk lapels. He wore an ivory rose boutonniere of rose colored carnations and greenery.

Will Crockett of Hope, N.M., brother-in-law of the groom, was the best man. Groomsman was Jeffrey Steelman, brother of the bride. They wore rose tuxedos with silk lapels. Their boutonnieres were ivory silk flowers trimmed with greenery.

Ushers were Joe Steelman and Tommy Hutto, both cousins of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a floor length brown and white dress with a pleated skirt for her daughter's wedding. It was accented with a pearl necklace, and she wore a corsage of ivory and rose colored silk roses with greenery.

The groom's mother wore an aqua colored floor length dress with a corsage of rose colored silk roses.

The reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church.

The bride's bouquet served as the centerpiece for the reception table, which was covered with an ivory lace tablecloth. The three-tiered wedding cake was served by Patricia Ethridge of Amarillo, and the punch was served by La Toya Hutto, cousin of the bride. Clara Koelzer passed out rice bags.

For a wedding trip to Lubbock, the bride wore a knee length teal blue dress with ivory trim.

The couple will make their home at 1002 Second Street in Bovina.

The bride is a senior at Bovina High School and the bridegroom graduated from Artesia High School and has attended Pepperdine University and E.N.M.U. and is now employed at the John Deere Company in Friona.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Johnston

By Scooter Russell

IT HAS BEEN a busy week for residents of the Bovina area. The young members of FFA and 4-H have had two stock shows, their own local show, and the county show, in the past week, and a big bunch are gone this week to the Houston Livestock Show.

We got our weekly Saturday snow, which has all of the farmers smiling from ear to ear. They don't even seem to mind getting stuck in the mud once

NEWS FROM AROUND TOWN...

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patterson are home after spending a week in Abilene. The Pattersons were babysitting with their grandchildren, Cara and Russell McDaniel, while the parents, Cynthia and Dr. James McDaniel, attended a medical convention in Atlanta.

Jack tells us that he even managed to get in some quail hunting while he was there, and a little bass fishing. He brought home some quail, but said it was still just a little too cold for the fishing to be good.

Leslie and Rose McCain traveled to Nazareth last Saturday night, to watch their son, Butch, play basketball. Butch, an announcer on KGNC Radio, plays with the Pro-News All-Star team, who were playing Nazareth that night.

Rose said that the Pro-News team lost their game, but Butch seemed to enjoy it.

Funeral services were pending at the Blade's press time this week for Mrs. Leland Murray of Seymour. Mrs. Murray was the mother of Mrs. Walter Cox of Bovina.

Our sympathies to Mrs. Cox in the loss of her mother.

Kelly Jamerson and his son, Lance of Midland, visited in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jamerson, over the weekend.

Earnesteen and Henry Minter had company over the weekend, daughter, Sandy came home and went skiing, she came back and left for school Monday. Also, Earnesteen's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Killough, from Hereford, visited with them Sunday.

Merle Morgan left last Wednesday to spend a few days with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris, in Stinnett. She came back Sunday. While she was gone, Randy and Ginger, their son and daughter-in-law of Dimmitt spent Sunday with Buster Ricky Morgan also spent last Wednesday with his parents.

The Senior Citizens will meet at the Spot, February 27, for their luncheon at 11:30 a.m. Everyone come and join the fun. There will be games after lunch.

Mike and Lisa Spears spent the weekend in Ruidoso, New Mexico skiing. They also took Sandi Sides with them. Lisa said they had lots of fun and there were lots of skiers there.

Maesie Flynn and her sister, Mrs. Bruce Parr of Friona, have been to Quartzsite, Arizona. This town holds a gem and mineral show the first Thursday of February each year. Quartzsite is a small desert town of 1200 and during the days of Quartzsite's "Pow Wow," over 750,000 people are there from every state of the union, and overseas and around 30,000 trailers and campers searching for bargains in rocks, gems, jewelry and crystals.

The Parmer County ladies enjoyed watching craftsmen facet gems, shape and polish jewels, making inlaid jewelry as well as cast silver and gold items right on the spot.

For rock hounds, it's wonderful, Maesie says. Before returning home they spent some time in Lake Havasu City, Arizona, home of the historic London Bridge, and other attractions.

LIFESAVER.

Whether you're lost in a strange neighborhood, or just going to be late for dinner, a telephone booth is a welcome sight. That's why it's important that we keep them in working order. In my job, I do more than collect the change from the coin box. I also make sure that the instrument is working correctly. If it needs minor repairs I do them on the spot. That way, we make sure that you get a working phone when you need it! That's one reason I'm proud to be one of the people General Telephone is talking about when they say "We keep you talking."

plant 'em both

This hybrid's record for consistency has made it one of the most popular hybrids on the High Plains. In 77 comparisons over the last four years against competitive hybrids, 3184 has shown an average yield of 183.7 bu./A. with a yield advantage of 14.3 bu./A. over competitors. Bred with outstanding drought tolerance, 3184 can adjust ear size and kernel depth to match growing conditions. And strong stalks keep 3184 standing straight for speedy harvest. It's just what High Plains farmers need in a dependable, high-yielding corn hybrid. And its maturity makes it a good companion for 3183.

Push this one for highest yields! In 43 comparisons on the High Plains in 1979, this hybrid averaged 192.1 bu./A. A sampling of yields from 1979 includes 216 bu./A. for Sheldon Rapp at Hooker, Oklahoma . . . 210.4 bu./A. for Larry Kemp of Muleshoe . . . and 196.7 bu./A. for Doyle Underwood at Dimmitt, Texas. 3183 has demonstrated very good standability and ear retention in this area. Excellent drought tolerance helps 3183 maintain outstanding consistency year after year. And it has been especially impressive on gray soils. Plant 3183 along with 3184. Spread genetic risks and get top performance, too.
