Eastview Looks To September Completion

WHITTLIN'
By DOLPH MOTEN

Weatherman Willie Williams' critics are giving him a bad time because he said early last month that we wouldn't get any rain at night in July, Sur-nuf, we had a few showers during that month and some of them came, possibly, after dark.

Friday night's rain, though, which measured about an inch here, didn't start falling until around midnight or after--and after midnight it was no longer July but August and, as far as we know, Willie didn't say anything about when the August rains would come.

It's like Willie so immodestly says, "Wonder how these little towns that don't have a good weatherman like me get along?"

The men's slow-pitch softball league here involves a non-contact sport and therefore isn't dangerous. Nobody is apt to get hurt in a little Mickey Mouse game like that.

Could be, but don't try to make Leon Grissom and/or Dean Stanberry believe things like that.

They both have injured ankles as a result of softball action, Grissom is or has been on crutches and lost a week or more of work while he kept the injured leg propped up in the air in hopes of making it heal faster or at least not to get any worse faster.

Stanberry was on crutches for awhile at least, but we noticed this week he abandoned the crutches in favor of a distinct limp and no shoe in the foot below the injured ankle. He said the ankle didn't hurt any worse to hobble around on it than it did to use the crutches. He didn't say it didn't hurt; he said it didn't hurt any worse.

Stanberry turned and sprained his ankle while making a speedy trip from home to first base--he didn't come into contact with anyone else to bring on the injury.

Grissom got hurt while making a putout at third base as the runner plowed into his leg. He knew then he was hurt but kept playing and finished the game. It was the next day or so that he decided he was hurt worst than he had first hoped and sought medical attention for the injury.

Possibly there have been other injuries, but those two are the worst we know about.

Too, the league isn't over yet. It runs through Thursday (tomorrow) night.

Pulled muscles are more common among softball players than sprains and are, fortunately, less serious, as a rule. Those pulled muscles are a result of a lack of conditioning for the strain involved, we'd guess.

It's strange about that softball league.

It was designed, of course, just so that some nice people could have some good, clean, outdoor fun. That didn't last but a year or two, though, until some of the participants started trying to win. We don't understand that, needless to say. Shucks, in an eight-team league, there's going to be a lot more losers than there are winners even if you have co- or tri-champions.

Another ballpark, across the street from the present one, would be a fine addition to the recreational facilities of this community. The present field is overcrowded during the early summer when the boys baseball program is in action and we don't now have a league for girls or women. One of the reasons that we don't have a ball program for girls is, we'd guess, because of the lack of a place to play.

We don't know that the land, which is privately owned, is available, but probably it is since it's now vacant. The present field is free of indebtedness and probably funds could be made available to light, fence and prepare the additional field if enough people in the community were interested in doing so.

Incidentally, the street on the east side of the present field is included in the current paving program. This should help the dust problem in years to come. It might create an additional traffic problem, however, unless the street is kept closed

Rain Totals Inch

The new month of August got off to an impressive start moisturewise in the area.

Rain early Saturday morning, August 1, totaled from half an inch to an inch and a half across this section of Parmer County. In Bovina, the total rainfall measured was 1.06. The moisture seemed to be lighter south and east of town.

The rain fell slowly and was considered highly beneficial for crops, which are now in a crucial stage from a moisture standpoint.

The Friday night rain added to the moisture total which is considered better than usual after a dry Spring.

More rain is predicted for this week.

Hub Accident Injures Three

An Oklahoma woman was critically injured in an automobile-truck collision Wednesday of last week about 12:20 p.m. at the highway intersection at Hub.

Two other people in the car were less seriously injured. Driver of the grain truck, Mary Rodgers LaCome, escaped injury.

Still in critical condition this week in an Amarillo hospital is Mrs. Alma Ford of Lawton, Okla. She was a passenger in a '66 model sedan driven by her husband, Ralph L. Ford of Lawton, Okla. Ford suffered a broken arm in the accident. Another passenger, Mrs. Willa Faye Stanford of Tipton, Okla. was also seriously injured.

STREET IMPROVEMENT --- Grader work was started last week on Bovina's newest paving project. Curbs and gutters are scheduled to be poured in the next few days with the paving to follow shortly thereafter. This view is in the town's new Eastview Addition where some four blocks of the street improvement work is being done. A portion of the 17 houses in the Addition are at left.

Work Underway --

Eliminate 3 Blocks From Paving Project

The Fords and Mrs. Stanford were traveling west on Highway 86 and evidently failed to see the stop sign at the intersection, according to Highway Patrolman Mike Greer, one of the investigating officers.

The grain truck was going north on FM Road 214. The car struck the truck near the right rear wheels, according to Greer.

The Fords and Mrs. Stanford are relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bradshaw and were on their way here to attend a family reunion.

The Hub intersection has been the scene of numerous automobile accidents during the past several years.

Three blocks on Halsell Street have been eliminated from the current paving program by Bovina's city council, according to Mrs. Mary Ruth Martin, city secretary.

The blocks which were taken out of the proposed program extended from Avenue C to North Street on Halsell. The action was taken after six property owners in that area petitioned the council to leave the area out of the street improvement program.

The blocks in question has been made a part of the paving program following a July 2 protest meeting in regard to the paving.

The project got underway last week as grading of the streets to be paved was begun. A curb and gutter crew was scheduled to be here the first part of the week to begin that part of the work. Contractor for the project is Jake Diel of Muleshoe and Hereford.

The elimination of the three blocks on Halsell leaves a total of nine blocks still in the program.

Three-Day Celebration --

Bull Town Days '70 Scheduled Next Week

The stage is set and final details are being attended to for Bovina's seventh annual community celebration, Bull Town Days 1970, which is scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 13-14-15 --- one week from now.

Everything is on schedule for the celebration, which has been highly successful during its six-year history, according to Dolph Moten, general chairman of this year's event.

Young Farmers chapter members hauled mesquite wood last week from the Eastern Panhandle for the barbecue fire on which the choice beef will be cooked for the free Friday supper which is a highlight of the celebration. The meat will be cooked Thursday night by a crew headed by Mutt Graham and R. L. Hoplingardner. The barbecue pits will be located at Bovina Gin Co.

The Bull Town Days carnival is scheduled to arrive in town Monday for a week-long run. It will be set up at the baseball field and the carnival activity is slated to begin Monday night and continue through Saturday night. Lions Club members will handle ticket sales for rides at the carnival.

Bull Town Days shave permits went on sale last week at a cost of $2 each. Purchase of a permit allows male members of the community to freely walk the town's streets without the threat of being placed in the LTD jail which will be set up on Main Street. Darrel Read is in charge of shave permit sales. Proceeds from the permits will be used to pay general expenses of the three-day celebration.

Planning and rehearsals are continuing for the Variety Show, which will be staged Thursday night at 8:30.

Under the direction of Mrs. Mike Barraza, the show is expected to play to a packed house in the school auditorium.

Admission is $1 per family. Winners in Thursday's cow calling and LTD Queen will be announced at intermission.

Eight girls have so far entered the competition for Bull Town Days Queen.

The contest will be judged at 7 p.m. in the roping arena on Thursday.

The winner and two runners-up will be announced at intermission of the variety show.

The celebration officially begins Thursday with jackpot roping at 1 p.m. in the roping arena.

The men's and women's cow calling contests will be later, at 6 p.m., with the beard growing contest judged at 8:30.

Parmer Countians Involved --

Car, Pickup Collide On 60

Four Parmer Countians were involved in a two-vehicle accident late Friday afternoon at the intersection of Highways 60 and 86 west of Bovina.

All four apparently escaped serious injury.

A '67 Chevrolet pickup driven by Rev. A. C. Hardin, pastor of First Baptist Church of Bovina, collided with a 1970 Chevrolet coupe driven by Everett Christian of Farwell. Passengers in the Christian car were his son-in-law, John McFarland, and his grandson, Lonnie McFarland.

Christian and the McFarlands were taken to Parmer County Community Hospital in Friona for treatment by Claborn ambulance, but their injuries were not serious, according to Highway Patrolman Mike Greer, who assisted in the investigation.

Rev. Harden was driving on Highway 60 from Highway 86 at the time of the accident. The Christian car was going west on 60 when the pickup struck the left side of the car. After the collision, the automobile knocked down nearby highway signs.

Rev. Harden was uninjured.

ATTEND TWIRLING CAMP --- Bovina High School twirlers attending camp near Alpine this week are, kneeling, Nena Spicer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spicer, and Rhonda Rhodes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rhodes; standing, Patti Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mills, Gail Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dixon and Evanna Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Johnston, Mrs. Johnston accompanied the girls to the week-long twirling camp.

AMERICA GOES CAMPING

Checklist for Campers

An enjoyable camping experience can rest on such a simple point as remembering to bring needed essentials. For instance, it's quite easy to forget cooking and serving equipment and find yourself stranded with no way to make meals.

To avoid such unhappy experiences, make a list of all the essentials you'll need. One good idea is a small spice chest. Fit out a small box with the spices, condiments and seasonings you like to use—stressing that absolute necessity, salt.

Since you may not be able to buy fresh bread and other baked goods as often as you like, carry a prepared biscuit mix to keep on hand. Canned goods, of course, are definite necessities. For perishables, remember to list an ice chest and several bags of ice.

Bottles and can openers, different kinds of knives, matches and mixing bowls are elementary. If you're camping with a gas stove, you'll want to pack a baking sheet, pressure cooker and several skillet. A wire steak broiler is a good idea for over-the-coals cooking.

And don't forget clean-up. Pack several containers of your favorite detergents and cleansers. Several packages of Handi Wipes® all-purpose cloths, with 1001 uses, help here, too, with washing and dish drying. Best of all, these soft, absorbent cloths wash out to be used over and over again during your camping vacation.

Most of this equipment can be taken from home without any extra expense. And it's all worth remembering — and toting — for camp meals, homestyle.

Water Management Key To Top Crop

"A big challenge during the peak summer irrigation period is to manage available water to obtain maximum profit," says Leon New, area irrigation specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "Decisions that put available irrigation water where it will count the most are not always evident when the pressure is on to get water to spanning acres of thirsty crops."

New cites a study conducted in 1969 in discussing summer irrigation procedures. Jimmy Mabry who farms in the Hub Community in Parmer County and Ronny McNutt, former Parmer County agricultural agent, investigated the effectiveness of three irrigation management procedures on grain sorghum. In the study, a full season hybrid grown on Olton loam soil was irrigated three, four and five times. Each of the five irrigations were in alternate furrows.

"The pleasant surprise in the test was that the highest yield of 8,460 pounds per acre was harvested where five alternate furrow applications were made," explains New. "Of particular interest was whether or not the rows farthest from the water furrow on the double-rowed sorghum would receive adequate water. Apparently they did."

Mabry irrigated in alternate furrows at 9 to 12-day intervals beginning 34 days after planting. Less water, about two inches, was applied during a single irrigation, making the need for additional water slightly more frequent than where every row was irrigated. The irrigating rate was one and one-half to one and two-thirds times faster using alternate furrow irrigation, thus making it possible to water more acres when the crop needed moisture the most.

With three well-timed irrigations, the full season hybrid produced 8,350 pounds per acre. These irrigations in each furrow were on 21 and 26-day intervals that also began 34 days following planting on May 29. These irrigations were less frequent than normal practice. However, they supplied additional moisture for crop use during high water requirement growth stages and ideally supplemented early July and late August rainfall.

"This shows that timely irrigations can be combined with rainfall to get lots of mileage from irrigation water even during drier-than-normal summers," adds the specialist. Four irrigations in the study, again in each furrow, produced 8,290 pounds of grain per acre. The first irrigation was applied 27 days following planting, six days earlier than on the other two plots. There were fewer days between applications than with three irrigations. However, the crop did not utilize both July rainfall and irrigation water in grain production as well as that receiving three irrigations, points out New. The 60-pound yield difference indicates a lack of yield response from the greater quantity of water.

"Yield differences are more clearly compared by the irrigation water use efficiency of the three application procedures," New contends. "With three irrigations, water use efficiency was 994 pounds per acre-inch; with five alternate row irrigations, it was 890 pounds and with four, 829 pounds. All of these are high but also point out differences that can be handy water management tools. Pounds of grain produced per inch of irrigation water gives a good evaluation of the effectiveness of irrigation procedures and is a value worth knowing."

A similar irrigation study is being conducted on Mabry's farm this year.

WATER MANAGEMENT STUDY -- Looking over a field of grain sorghum in an irrigation study in Parmer County are Jimmy Mabry, left, who farms in the Hub Community, and Ronny McNutt, former Parmer County agricultural agent. The 1969 study highlighted efficient water management.

MRS. DENNIS ELLISON

Hawkins, Ellison Nuptials Read In July Ceremony

Miss Deborah Hawkins and Dennis Ellison exchanged marriage vows Thursday, July 30, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Laye of Lubbock, Tex. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hawkins of Bovina. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ellison of Lovelady, Tex. Howard Ellison, father of the groom, read the ceremony. The bride wore a two-piece knit suit in off-white with tangerine accessories. Mrs. Kenny Laye, sister of the bride, was matron of honor.

FACTS and FANCIES

Nowadays, some 4,200,000 babies are born each year in the United States, where child-bearing is presently more than 15 times as safe for the mother as it was only a generation ago!

If you lived in North Carolina, would you "dare" name your infant girl "Virginia"? In 1587 someone did! America's first child born of English parents, was, of course, Virginia Dare, first seeing the light of day in North Carolina. Virginia as a name, however, has nothing to do with the state called the "Mother of Presidents," but is the feminine of "Virginius"—name of an old Roman clan!

Babies perceive more than meets the eye! In six months a baby can be aware that parents are indoctrinated to that five o'clock feeding! Dr. Benjamin Spock's suggestion for gradual changing an infant's "uncivilized" waking habits, is to set the alarm five minutes later each morning until blissfully you can sleep to the working man's seven a.m. rising!

Locketts on charms are very good. All these things are appropriate with the old time gingham and the flower sprinkled frocks so smart for young women today.

Teen Treats by Betty Crocker

Today let's cook up some fun for the fun-loving teenagers — the really truly snack-happy crowd. Since ice cream rates high with teens, keep the freezer filled with whopping up chocolate sodas and banana splits on the spur of the moment. And remember instant snacks like Whistles and Bugles for dunking into cream cheese and chili-cheese dips at coke time. And for a teentime picnic on the patio — here are recipes for Super Sloppy Joes and Milk Chocolate Brownies. So easy, the teens can do them themselves. As any teenager will tell you — Mom, that's half the fun of snacking.

SUPER SLOPPY JOES
2 cups New Bisquick
3/4 cup milk
1/4 cup salad dressing or mayonnaise
1 can (15 1/2 ounces) barbecue sauce and beef
Paprika

Heat oven to 400°. Grease square pan, 8x8x2 inches. Mix Bisquick and milk with fork to soft dough. Blend in mayonnaise. Spread half the mixture in prepared pan. Cover with beef mixture. Drop remaining dough by spoonfuls over top; spread with fork. Sprinkle with paprika. Bake 35 minutes. 8 servings.

Menu: Super Sloppy Joes, pickle sticks, soft drinks, brownies.

MILK CHOCOLATE BROWNIES
1 package (6 ounces) semi-sweet chocolate pieces
1 can (15 ounces) sweetened condensed milk
2 tablespoons salad oil
1 cup chopped nuts
2 cups New Bisquick

Heat oven to 375°. Grease oblong pan, 13x9x2 inches. In small saucepan, melt chocolate over low heat. In large bowl, combine milk, salad oil and nuts; stir in chocolate and New Bisquick. Spread in prepared pan. Bake about 20 minutes. Cool slightly. Cut into 1 1/2-inch squares. Makes 4 dozen.

Brownies à la Mode . . . another teenage rage: Top brownies with scoops of ice cream and ladle on the chocolate sauce. Garnish with maraschino cherry. The perfect ending for an evening of movies or records.

Strawns Return From Alaskan Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Norvell Strawn and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hammock from Lubbock returned recently from a 26-day trip to parts of Canada and Alaska. First stop on the trip was a two-day visit to the Calgary Stampede. From Calgary they traveled the Alcan Highway through Canada to Anchorage, Alaska. Seward was the next stop. The vacationers got in one day of salmon fishing. Mrs. Strawn reports they caught several silver salmon in the 10-pound range.

From Seward, they traveled to Haines and rode the inland Malastina Ferry back to Seattle. The trip took four days.

The Strawns and Hammocks returned to Bovina July 29.

At Home In Parmer County

By Janice Miller
County HD Agent

The District 4-H Dress Reue was Tuesday, August 4, at the Villa Inn in Amarillo. Parmer County was represented by four members. Coy Jamerson, Friona, served as an escort at the annual event. Deborah Harding competed in the senior division of the Reue. Penny Norton represented the 9-11 year age group and Lee Ann Williams represented the 12-13 year age group. All of the girls are from Farwell.

Strange Origins Of Some Common Words

"CURFEW" — We hear this word a lot today, though it still has an old-fashioned flavor about it. It started in the Middle Ages, when peasants were required to cover their fires before nightfall. The signal for this was the ringing of the "cover-fire" bell. French for this is "couvre-feu." The 11th Century Normans took the word to England as "curfew" — the bell warning citizens it was time to be safely home.

"ASSASSIN" — Back in the 11th century, a secret Muslim society gained power by terrorizing others through ritual murders. To gain the nerve for their horrible deeds, they used the drug hashish, a stronger cousin of marijuana. Arabs called the murderous group "hashshashin" — which in English became "assassin."

MRS. EDWARD ISAAC

"Contrary to belief, Arabic food isn't highly spiced. We do cook with lots of clarified butter and olive oil," said Mrs. Edward (Helen) Isaac as she handed over some of her family's favorite recipes. "Syrian food uses lamb in many of their dishes, but we've learned to substitute beef in most of them."

Helen was born and reared in Corpus Christi. She was graduated from high school there and attended Del Mar College.

Edward was born in Detroit, Michigan, but moved to Jordan at the age of two. He was drafted and served in the United States Army during World War II. After the war, he moved to Pittsburg.

"Edward visited an uncle in Corpus Christi on fishing trips every summer and that's where I met him," Helen says. They were married in 1956.

Shortly after their marriage, the Isaacs moved to Lubbock and opened a dry goods store. They moved to Bovina in 1961 after deciding they would prefer a smaller town.

The Isaacs are parents of three children; Tina, 13, in the eighth grade in Bovina Schools; George 11, in the sixth grade; and Edward, 9, in the fourth grade.

"I really enjoy reading but my whole life seems to be centered around the store (Bovina Dry Goods) right now. I don't have much time for anything else." However, Helen enjoys cooking favorite Syrian dishes for family gatherings, which are held frequently.

The Isaacs are members of Bovina United Methodist Church where Helen has been active in church work.

Mrs. Isaac says she doesn't cook by recipe very much, but she has simplified some of the recipes she uses often. Items such as the cracked wheat and pine nuts may be obtained from the gourmet section of many grocery stores.

CABBAGE ROLLS
1 c. rice, long grain
1 lb. ground lamb (or chill grind beef)
1 head cabbage
1/4 t. salt
1/4 t. pepper
1 can tomato sauce

Core cabbage. Cook in small amount of water until leaves are tender. Wash rice. Mix with ground lamb or beef. Add salt, pepper and allspice. Put 1 T. meat mixture on each cabbage leaf. Roll loosely to allow for rice and meat to expand. Place in two quart saucepan. Pour can of tomato sauce, 1 1/2 cans water and melted butter over cabbage rolls. Bring to a boil. Lower heat and simmer for 30-35 minutes.

Meat and rice mixture can also be cooked in the same manner using grape leaves as substitutes for cabbage leaves. It can also be used to stuff small, whole zucchini squash, and prepared in the same manner as the cabbage rolls.

4 stalks celery
1 head Romaine or Iceberg lettuce

Mix wheat mixture with vegetables lightly but thoroughly. Pour mixture of 1/2 cup olive oil and 1/4 cup lemon juice over vegetables. Salt to taste. Toss salad lightly and serve over lettuce wedges.

Church Chuckles by CARTWRIGHT

"Silliest thing happened at the zoo. This tiger poked his paw through the cage, and I automatically shook hands!"

"That Your Joy Might Be Full"
These things have I spoken unto you, that My joy might remain in you and that your joy might be full. John 15:11

Jesus wants us all to live happily through our lifetime. Deep joy is our lot in Christ. Jesus had just finished speaking a parable, a story with a spiritual meaning. He had compared Himself to a vine and the believers to the branches, thus implying the oneness of believers with their Savior by sincere faith in Him as their God and Savior.

We rejoice and are very happy that we are indeed the branches connected to Jesus, the Vine, by a living faith in Him. We are one with Christ when we believe that He laid down His life for us on Calvary, and when it is our heart's conviction that He atoned for our sins.

What Jesus says through this story of the Vine and the branches about our relationship with Him should make us feel very happy and bring grateful joy to our hearts. In our relationship to Jesus, there is only joy and happiness despite our trials and tribulations. For the branches of the Vine there is only joy. It is sin that causes pain, sorrow, and grief. In Jesus there is forgiveness, and it always produces joy. In our joy there is strength, as Nehemiah said: "The joy of the Lord is your strength." And Paul: "I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation."

Clements Loses Two, Still Leads --

Upsets Highlight Softball Action

The name of Bovina's slow-pitch softball league could appropriately be changed to the upset loop.

Of 12 games played during the past week of action, six of them were won by the underdog.

In spite of the upsets and the fact that they've lost two of their last four games, the Clements Clouters were still on top of the league standings through Monday night play. The Clements team has a 10-3 record with only one game remaining on its schedule.

Clements was beaten by Russell's Rascals in an extra-inning game Friday night, 4-3, and dropped a Monday night encounter, also in extra innings, to McCormick's Mean Men, 10-6.

Russell and McCormick are now tied for second place with 9-4 marks and must depend on Clements to lose its final game for either of them to get a share of the league title. Clements final game is with the Roarin' Lions Thursday night. A win Thursday by Clements assures that team of the loop championship.

Hottest team in the league during the past week has been Shepherd's Soldiers. They picked up four wins in six nights without a loss. Shepherd defeated Russell, Koelzer's Kops, the Lions and McCormick in the past week. The Soldiers had a poor, 2-7 mark when they started their winning streak, however, and even with their impressive showing of late are still down among the also-rans in the eight-team league with a 6-7 mark.

Barring cancellations because of weather, the league will be concluded Thursday night with each team having played 14 games.

The following standings include games played through Monday night:

Team	W	L	Pct.
Clements	10	3	.769
McCormick	9	4	.692

Russell	9	4	.692
Lions	6	6	.500
Shepherd	6	7	.461
Koelzer	5	7	.416
Hammonds	4	8	.333
Alonzo	1	11	.083

LAST WEEK'S RESULTS:

Tuesday, July 28 --- Shepherd 13, McCormick 1; Clements 11, Alonzo 1;

Wednesday, July 29 --- Clements 10, Hammonds 9; Koelzer 6, Russell 5;

Thursday, July 30 --- McCormick 9, Alonzo 8; Shepherd 12, Lions 11;

Friday, July 31 --- Russell 4, Clements 3; Shepherd 14, Koelzer 2;

Saturday, August 1 --- Lions 19, Alonzo 6; McCormick 7, Hammonds 0 (forfeit);

Monday, August 3 --- Shepherd 8, Russell 7; McCormick 10, Clements 6.

THIS WEEK'S SCHEDULE:

Wednesday, August 5 --- Russell vs. McCormick and Alonzo vs. Shepherd;

Thursday, August 6 --- Hammonds vs. Koelzer and Lions vs. Clements.

THREE GENERATIONS ON ONE BALL TEAM --- Three generations of one family played softball in the slow-pitch league here Saturday night as members of the same team. There are, and have been, several father-son combinations participating in the league at the same time, but this is the first time for three generations to take part. At left is Jesse Walling, Ted Walling of Hereford is in center and Haydon Walling, of Fair Oaks, California, grandson of Jesse and nephew of Ted, is at right. The three played for the Lions in a winning effort. They batted first, second and third at the beginning of the game and Haydon got the only basehit.

On The Farm In Parmer County

By R. MACK HEALD
County Agent

Throughout Parmer County two weeks ago an outbreak of maize dwarf mosaic virus occurred in grain sorghum. Outbreaks were also reported in Bailey, Castro and Deaf Smith Counties. Although not new to the Panhandle-South Plains MDMV has not been this widespread over the entire grain sorghum producing area before.

As you have seen, the symptoms vary from chlorotic mottle of light and dark green areas intermingled to a red leaf symptom under certain conditions. The type of symptoms will depend on the variety of the sorghum, the stage of infection and certain environmental conditions. The red leaf symptom usually appears when temperatures are cool for a period below 75 to 85 degrees F. Plants growing under the same conditions and not infected do not show the red leaf symptoms. Malformed heads, small seed and varying degrees of sterility are symptoms associated with disease development.

Several grass type plants, including Johnsongrass and Quack grass, are susceptible to the virus. The grasses are perennial and carry the virus through the winter. Virus particles become distributed throughout all parts of the plant except the seed. Greenbugs and corn leaf aphids feed on the grasses before transferring to the milo plants. They carry the virus in their mouthparts and transmit it to the milo. The amount of infection that develops within a given sorghum field depends upon the extent of occurrence of overwintering host plants in or around the field and population level of aphids.

Prevention of MDMV infections can best be accomplished by eradication of perennial host grasses such as Johnsongrass, in fields or near fields where sorghum is to be grown. It has been observed that losses are much greater where infected Johnsongrass is present in the sorghum field. The keys for control of the virus are sorghum variety selection, insect control and Johnsongrass control. For more information, contact the county extension office.
