MAN PLUNGES TO AN AWFUL DEATH

HARVEY WATTERSON, SON OF HENRY WATTERSON FALLS 150 FEET FROM WINDOW.

WAS A YOUNG LAWYER

Accident Happened While He Was Closing His Office Window. No Eye Witnesses.

New York, Nov. 11.—Harvey W. Watterson, a lawyer and young son of Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, plunged to his death from the nineteenth floor of his office building at 37 Wall street late this afternoon. His body shot downward 150 feet and landed upon the roof of a ten-story building adjoining. Almost every bone was broken and the head crushed. Death was practically instantaneous.

While there were no eye witnesses to the tragedy, it was entirely accidental. Mr. Watterson's hat and overcoat were on his closed desk. Presumably he had attempted to lower the window and either stumbling over the radiator, which was in front of the low sill, or losing his footing in some manner unknown pitched forward and down to death on the roof below.

Mr. Watterson was 30 years old and married. He was a junior member of the law firm of Wing, Russell & Watterson.

Shortly before 4 o'clock, after having discussed a case with a clerk in the office, Mr. Watterson remarked that he was going home, and passed from the library through the office of F. B. Baggs, the managing clerk, into his private office, the door of which closed and locked automatically as he entered. Baggs was the last person to see the young lawyer alive.

A few minutes later the superintendent of the building rushed in and informed Thomas Wing, senior member of the firm, that he believed Mr. Watterson had fallen from the window and they looked down from the window on the roof below.

The body was removed to the Watterson home after the coroner had declared death was due entirely to accident. A peculiar feature of the case was Mr. Watterson's watch and cigarette case in one pocket and a pipe in another pocket were not damaged by the fall.

Mrs. Watterson was prostrated when informed of her husband's tragic death. Mr. Wing said Watterson had been a member of the firm about three years, two years after he graduated from the Columbia University law school. He was sure, he said, that death was accidental since Watterson had no troubles. The firm's business is in good condition, Mr. Wing said, and deceased had been very successful.

Watterson was born and reared in Louisville. When about 21 years old he came to New York and entered the Columbia University law school. During the time he was a student there, he taught in a night school.

Shortly after becoming a member of the Wing, Russell & Watterson law firm he ran for Assembly on the Tammany ticket in an upper West Side district, but the district was strongly republican and he was defeated.

THE WOMAN IS YET ALIVE

Though Why She Was Not Killed Instantly Seems a Miracle—Literally Cut to Pieces.

Special to the Times.
Taylor, Tex., Nov. 12.—Tom Adamack, a Bohemian farmer, was arrested here today, charged with fatally wounding his wife. Adamack is in jail here. The woman was horribly slashed and stabbed fourteen times with a long knife. Her right ear was cut off, and her neck was cut, barely missing the jugular vein. A deep gash was inflicted over her left eye, and all the fingers on her right hand were merely severed and hanging by the skin. Her left hand was pierced through, her jaw split and she was stabbed in the back twice. That she was not killed almost instantly is considered miraculous.

MORE RAILROADS NEEDED.

Wichita Falls needs two more railroads to put her far in the lead as a distributing point for Northwest Texas. One is the line to Oklahoma City and the other is a line extending westward toward Lubbock and Roswell, New Mexico. The latter line would traverse a rich and rapidly developing territory, which has no railroad to carry its commerce.

Wichita Falls is the logical connecting point for a railway which would tap this territory and if such a road were built this city would become the commercial center and the distributing point for a territory not surpassed in extent or in fertility by any in Texas.

CITY HALL AND SEWER BONDS HAVE BEEN SOLD.

Pair of Handsome Five-Year-Old Blacks are Bought for the New Fire Wagon.

From Monday's Daily.
At a called meeting of the city council this morning a resolution authorizing the sale to R. E. Huff of $6,000 of the additional sewer bonds and $2,500 of the additional city hall bonds, was passed.

This purchase, together with the bonds recently sold to the council for theinking fund, cleans up the entire issue for the city hall and the sewers and insures the immediate completion of both of those undertakings.

In addition to authorizing the sale of the city hall bonds the council purchased a team of handsome five-year-old black horses from C. P. Williams of Byers to be used in the fire department. This team will weigh about 2700 pounds and the horses are a little better than sixteen hands high. As soon as the fire department's headquarters are installed in the new city hall building the horses will be trained and should make as fine a fire team as is owned by any city in the State.

HOLD WARM SESSION.

Northwest Texas Methodist Conference Votes to Divide Its Territory.

Special to the Times.
Waco, Tex., Nov. 12.—The Northwest Texas Methodist conference had a warm session here today over the resolution by H. A. Boaz of Fort Worth relative to changing the boundary line of the conference. Horace Bishop of Corsicana offered a substitute to divide the Northwest Texas conference into two districts next year, regardless of other conferences in the State. Bishop's motion prevailed, after an animated debate.

BREAKS RECORD.

One and a Half Million Dollars Cash Business for October.

The Wichita Mill and Elevator Company of this city broke its own record for October for the amount of business transacted in a single month and their books show that for the month of October the concern transacted $1,523,418.26 worth of business. This is perhaps the largest amount of business transacted by any similar concern in the State.

This mill has not shut down for a single day except for repairs, since it was built and its products are always in demand, which accounts for the constant increase in business.

This institution gives steady employment to a large number of men in Wichita Falls, and is the means of placing in circulation a large amount of money in this city, which would not be true if we had no mill and were forced to buy mill products manufactured in other towns.

ABILENE WANTS NEW RAILROAD

W. D. Hanady a special correspondent of the San Antonio Express, in a write up of Abilene and the surrounding country recently had the following to say concerning a proposed new railroad connecting Abilene with San Antonio:

The people of Abilene and tributary territory are anxious to secure a direct railroad connecting with San Antonio. A study of the situation will show, it is claimed, that the most magnificent undeveloped region of Texas lies between here and San Antonio and by building a railroad through, it would bring untold benefits to the two terminal towns and the intermediate section. The fact has been overlooked by the business men and citizens generally of San Antonio, it is claimed here, that Abilene is only about 175 miles from that city in a direct line, while Fort Worth is distant 160 with a direct line of railroad connecting Abilene with San Antonio, a big part of the trade which now goes to Fort Worth would be diverted to San Antonio. Aside from this, there is an enormous area of country south of here which would naturally give all of its trade to San Antonio by reason of its proximity and other advantages possessed by that city. Now settlers are pouring into the territory which such a railroad would traverse and a paying traffic would be assured from the very start, it is claimed. It is pointed out that the Abilene and Northern Railroad, from Stamford, passes through a territory very similar to that which lies between here and San Antonio, and that the latter road is already doing a heavy business. So well satisfied are the owners of the Abilene and Northern that they have just taken definite steps to extend the line from Abilene to Ballinger, where connection will be made with the San Angelo branch of the Santa Fe.

It has been suggested by business men of Abilene who have looked into the feasibility and practicability of building a railroad between this place and San Antonio that the people of the latter city should take hold of the project. It is assured that full cooperation will be given the movement by Abilene citizens and the land owners and the settlers of the intermediate territory. The cost of building the road would be nominal, it is claimed. The topography of the country to be traversed involves no engineering problems or heavy construction work.

By the most direct existing railroad route, it is more than 400 miles from Abilene to San Antonio. So remote is the latter city generally regarded that it is seldom visited by people of this section. No business whatever goes from Abilene to San Antonio. The material interests of the two sections are much the same, it is conceded and it should not be hard to get together on the project.

There are a number of good towns on the route of the proposed road, and it is thought that they would all give their support to the enterprise. Not only would it from a direct route from Abilene to San Antonio, but it would be a completing link between a new north and south line through the western part of the state, in connection with the Abilene & Northern and Wichita Valley roads. There are some of the arguments that are being made on behalf of the project by men who are interested in seeing it placed on foot and carried to completion.

The Indiana legislature is slightly democratic on joint ballot, and there is talk of sending John W. Kern to the United States senate.

THROWN INTO GREAT CONFUSION

COTTON CONFERENCE AT MEMPHIS CAME NEAR BREAKING UP IN ROW.

NIGHT RIDERS DEFENDED

By the Delegate From Mississippi is the Cause of the Disturbance.

By Associated Press.
Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 12.—A fiery speech in denunciation of night riding and an equally fiery speech in their defense, threw the Cotton Conference into great disorder early today and almost terminated the day's session before the program had fairly begun.

Delegate Walter Clark of Clarkdale, Mississippi, precipitated the trouble, when, in speaking of night riders, he bitterly denounced them and called them "curs" and "men who shoot people in the back." This brought Delegate A. C. Roane of North Carolina to his feet, who defended night riders, claiming whatever they did was with the best motives. During the height of the confusion, Delegate Sisson of Mississippi moved to adjourn sine die, but President Jordan refused to entertain the motion. Quiet was finally restored and the program was resumed.

So far as is known, the president has not made any recent expression on the subject, but it is said that with Taft as president he will not feel the same hesitancy about entering the senate as he would if some one else were in the White House.

Wichita County Sunday School Work.

From Monday's Daily. Some of the officers of the Wichita County Sunday School Association have been busy attempting to divide county into precincts, including all Sunday schools in the county in the commissioners' precinct in which it happens to be.

Mr. George Keiper and Mr. J. M. Bland went to Iowa Park Sunday afternoon to assist Mr. C. E. Carter, county president of Precinct No. 2, and Mr. H. O. Young, secretary, in the organization of that precinct. These gentlemen report a good meeting, and the organization of the precinct was perfected with the election of additional officers, as follows: Mrs. J. A. Putman of the Denny school, superintendent of missions; Mrs. O. C. Robertson of Iowa Park, superintendent house to house visitation; Mr. T. E. Hale of Iowa Park, superintendent adult bible class; Mrs. C. Birk of Iowa Park, superintendent home department; Mrs. A. D. Butcher of Iowa Park, superintendent elementary department.

The Sunday school workers, in connection with the county association, anticipate, if possible, visiting every school in the county and attempting some aggressive work during the coming year, and the meeting at Iowa Park on Sunday afternoon shows that an effort is being made to this end.

The Fort Worth Telegram yesterday in its Board of Trade notes said: "W. B. Harrison Wednesday handed in the name of F. H. Lysaght, a great big wholesale jobber of Wichita Falls, to be a member of the Board of Trade. It is conjectured that behind this is that Mr. Lysaght will move to this city. It is known that he has about disposed of his heaviest interests in Wichita Falls and there is every ground for the statement that he will not only be a resident of Fort Worth, but that he will also embark in business here, the exact nature of which cannot be told at this time. The fact that he has joined the Board of Trade shows that he will come to Fort Worth a full-fledged city builder."

Our Proposed Interstate Fair.
The action of the Chamber of Commerce the other evening in endorsing the movement for the incorporation of an interstate fair, association for the holding of an annual fair in Wichita Falls and the appointment of a committee composed of J. B. Marlow, S. T. Scalling, W. F. Jourdan, M. J. Gardner and R. M. Moore to ascertain the sentiment of the business men, property owners and particularly the owners of large land holdings, stock breeders and farmers of the tributary territory, has been commended locally in hearty terms. It is accepted by all that the natural location of this city with its railway facilities and rich surrounding country capable of much development, added thereto the territory north of the river in the Big Pasture, offers a decided opportunity to hold a permanent fair association, which would do more to develop the surrounding country and advertise this section than any other one medium or resource. The nearest fairs of any consequence are Dallas, Oklahoma City, Amarillo and Abilene. Wichita Falls occupies an enviable central location between them all and has an independent territory within a radius of at least fifty miles, which would guarantee success from the start, lay the foundation for a constantly increasing equipment and attaining prominence as one of the big fairs of the State. It would develop the agricultural, stock and dairy interests of this section, and means increased business for Wichita Falls, increased value of farming lands, increased popularity for breeders of fine cattle, horses and swine, and increased prominence for Wichita Falls in both Oklahoma and Texas.
The committee wishes it generally known that the sentiment of the farmers, ranch owners and stock breeders is vital to the success of this movement and take this means of requesting that farmers, stock raisers and land owners make their individual opinion known by communicating with the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, stating if they will support the movement in the way of stock subscriptions. Early communications by mail are desired, both from the people who would be willing to subscribe for stock and the farmers and stock raisers who would take an interest in competing with an exhibit of products, stock or otherwise. It is contended that the breeders and farmers are interested to an equal extent with Wichita Falls and that unless their co-operation is forthcoming the plan is apt to lack the impetus to push it to completion.

A race track would be an essential feature, in fact is one of the most profitable departments connected with any fair.

An important feature to be taken into consideration is the prompt action necessary to promote a first class fair on a permanent basis and the desirability of placing the premium lists in the hands of farmers before planting time. Premiums for agricultural products, grains and live stock would be of a nature to encourage the liveliest interest on the part of farmers and stock raisers to plant, care and feed, as the case may be, to insure a good chance of winning money and blue ribbons. This friendly rivalry and the knowledge gained through a study for the best results has done more to develop agricultural districts than even the practical methods introduced by experimental stations.

The matter is now up to Wichita Falls and tributary territory for consideration and prompt action.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says that the entire State democratic ticket in Ohio seems to have been elected, although the republicans are still claiming the election of a part of their ticket.

The congressional election returns received up to date indicate that the next house will be composed of 175 democrats and 216 republicans, giving the republicans a majority of 41. This is a gain of nine members to the democrats.

It is now certain that the democrats of Indiana will have a majority of the newly elected legislature which is to elect a senator, and John W. Kern, defeated candidate for vice president on the democratic ticket, is a candidate for the position.

The republican party is now discharging its campaign obligations to the Standard Oil company. Today's dispatches say that the government's petition for a rehearing in the case in which the Standard Oil company of Indiana was fined $29,240,000 by Judge Landis of Chicago, has been denied by the court of appeals. The whole matter will now doubtless be dropped, or perhaps, to make some sort of a show, the defendants may agree to pay a fine of 29 cents instead of $29,993,000.

Fall Gardening.
Editor Times:—Seeing the excellent report of Mr. Cox's fall garden, I wish to give my experience in gardening. I have made this year four crops on the same piece of ground. As this statement is made, by what some call "a buggy farmer," it may be doubted (as they only hit the ground in high places), but I think I can prove it. I have an extra lot 70x150 feet. I deecided to plant it in orchard and also in garden. About half I planted in Triumph potatoes, and balance in onions, cabbage, tomatoes, etc. Notwithstanding the fall in April almost ruined my garden, it came out and did well. The tomatoes continued to bear all the season. When I laid by the potatoes, I planted black eyed peas between the rows. By the time I dug the potatoes, the peas had covered the ground and made fine crop. After gathering the peas I plowed the land and sowed turnips and radishes. Besides a fair stand of turnips and radishes, there came up volunteer a good stand of potatoes. We are now having plenty of nice, new Triumph potatoes, as well as turnips and radishes from the same ground which made the two crops of potatoes, one crop of peas, and one of turnips and radishes. I wish to state that the early Triumph potato is the best I ever raised. A few years ago in Clay county I made three crops from one planting—a spring and a fall crop one year, and then there was so many potatoes left in the ground that did not freeze out and they came up next spring thick and made a better and earlier crop than those planted. It is almost impossible to make a failure on the Triumph potato.

WEATHER REPORTS ARE FAVORABLE TO THE COTTON CROP.

Favorable Weather Maturing the Late Crop and Yield is Exceeding Expectations.

From Monday's Daily.

The light frosts at night and the warm sunshiny days make conditions ideal for the maturing of the cotton, and the fields are now white with the fleecy staple and cotton pickers are in great demand.

Many fields which a few weeks ago indicated only light yields are now turning-out crops of more than half a bale to the acre.

Both gins here are having all they can do to keep ahead with their work and if the weather continues favorable it is believed that between five and six thousand bales will be ginned here this season.

At the Farmers Union gin up to Saturday night 1080 bales had been ginned. At the Wigham gin something over 800 bales had been turned out.

ON A SLOW TRAIN IN BIG PASTURE

WICHITA EXCURSIONISTS SPEND MUCH OF THE DAY AT STATION OF "DEAD STOP."

THEY MAKE BEST OF IT

However, and Good Humor and Jokes Made the Situation Easier to Endure.

From Saturday's Daily.

Between sixty-five and seventy Wichita full of spirit (not plural), and anticipation of a day's outing with the natives along the Northwestern line to Frederick left on the Business Men's Excursion yesterday morning promptly at 7:30, the conductor having a hunch that he would not be so prompt in returning and that he had better make good at the only opportunity he could see.

The party occupied seats in a band coach made especially for the excursion, some riding on the observation end of it and others on top of a box car, there being several cars of freight and then some.

Burk Burnett was the first stop and last chance, so due justice was done to this enterprising and growing community. During a stay of one hour at Devol, in which the train crew took strenuous exercise with commodities shipped from the Falls, the members of the party went up town and inspected the coming metropolis of the Big Pasture. This town is new, even to a Federal building, which covers 24 square feet of an acre. A new bank started there four weeks ago, having deposits to date of $19,000. There being only twenty-five people in the town it is apparent that their pro rata deposits exceed even the record of Wichita Falls. This town also claims to ship more agricultural products than any station on the Northwestern line, except Frederick. Another feature is their sanitary hotel methods. Every morning after the transients leave their downy beds of new mown hay in the open air hotel, the proprietor burns the beds (and perhaps a number of unwelcome guests) and provides a fresh supply for the next man. A real hotel is being erected, however, minus the fire treatment.

Grandfield was arrived at and captured by the excursionists. A committee of three Grandfield citizens met the train and accompanied the party from Devol and gave them the high sign to pass among the late Kellians and Eschitians. More evidences of quarter section farming, lots of business and keen eyes and close companionship with anyone carrying a grip was manifested here.

Harrison was visited after some hours of riding, waiting and walking. There must have been some interesting business condition needing investigation there, as Messrs. J. W. Pond and F. H. Gohlke did not hear the departing whistle and had to sprint some hundred yards to catch the train. Mr. Pond showing early proclivities of sidling the beams as he swung on a box car with the ease of a trained master of the ties, but being out of practice, he lost his hat.

Frederick, a real little city with a lump of prosperity attached to it, was royal in its entertainment. A band of music and conveyances were at the depot to meet the excursion at 1 o'clock but as the train did not arrive until after 3 the crowd dispersed to assemble again with the conveyances, minus the band. The excursionists were parceled out to the restaurant and given a good meal and then driven over the city. After extending the Frederick business men an invitation to visit Wichita Falls and be given a good time, the trip home was begun on the "fast freight" at 5 o'clock.

Dead Horse station was dedicated at 8:30 p. m. on the outskirts of Grandfield, a horse having accommodated the crowd by dying on the side of the track to furnish pasture for the argonauts. After a while the train arrived at Dead Stop and it is surmised that a number of the party think this station was passed several times. The august members of the Chamber of Com-

MORSE GETS 15 YEARS IN PRISON

NEW YORK FINANCIER CONVICTED OF MISAPPROPRIATION OF FUNDS IS SENTENCED.

CURTIS ALSO CONVICTED

But Sentence in His Case Was Suspended by Judge Hough—Morse Will Go to Atlanta.

New York, Nov. 6.—Charles W. Morse was sentenced to fifteen years imprisonment by Judge Hough in the United States circuit court today. Sentence on Curtis was suspended.

The sentence of Morse is based on the verdict of guilty in the indictment for misapplication of the funds of the National Bank of North America and making false entries in the books of that bank. It is understood that if Morse goes to prison he will be confined in the Federal prison at Atlanta, Georgia.

Ten days stay of execution of sentence upon Morse was granted by Judge Hough and it is understood that notice of appeal will be filed tomorrow.

Morse is under parole and is under the custody of Marshal Henkle pending any action that may be taken during the ten days stay granted by the court.

Morse were then seen going through corn fields to reach Grandfield, where chicken dumplin (all dumplings) was served.

Considerable hilarity was infused by Vic Stampff, who secured some $100 worth of good advertising with two bits worth of bad bread. Alex Kahn got his ticket's worth by finding a customer who had bought trousers too short and another who owed him for a pair of shoes.

A court was organized by the Marlow in the smoking compartment and various offenses punished. Vic Stampff was fined the cigars, lemonade and cookies at the Chamber of Commerce monthly membership meeting next Tuesday night for selling bread with evidences of being made out of cement. He tried to escape judgment by claiming the cement was first class material.

C. L. Fontaine was arrested on a charge of working the train crew over 16 hours on one shift, but won his defense by claiming the crew had rested four hours at the way station. Another charge of exceeding the speed limit was preferred against him, as President Bean was compelled to make a run after the train when it left Devol and came very near catching it. Evidence proved, however, that the train did not make over 43 miles an hour, which was a close shave on the part of the railway in being fined. Mr. Fontaine squared himself by buying a bushel of apples of sundry colors, sizes, varieties and qualities, those not eating being the best pleased.

One station agent mistaking Mr. Bauch for Mr. Fonville, the official time inspector of the Northwestern, asked the former if his clock was all right. Mr. Bauch, not wishing to offend the gentleman by having any doubts, said he believed it was, whereupon the agent told him to inspect it and see. "Fix it," echoed Mr. Bauch, astonished; "I mmit der harness business."

But good things can't last forever and the first semi-annual excursion to Frederick came to an end, arriving here at 11:00 p. m., many of the party making toward Wylie Wyatt's excavation in the hopes of the five-story building being completed during their sojourn from the city.

Inquiries From Many States.

For the ten days ending Nov. 3rd, inquiries for literature and information on farm lands were received by Secretary Gohlke from the following States amounting to fifty-one in number: Oklahoma 6, Kansas 3, Colorado 2, Missouri 1, Nebraska 6, Louisiana 3, Alabama 1, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Washington and Maine, 1 each. These inquiries are beginning to result from general advertising more than from paid space, as paid space has been gradually cut down from the middle of September and news items substituted. The latter is the best possible advertising and the longer the work is continued the greater are results from an equal amount of labor. In addition to the above inquiries a good number of requests for literature and information on business and other lines are received. A bulletin of the farm inquiries is sent to the real estate firms who are members of the Chamber of Commerce.

Today an inquiry was received from Alberta, Canada, and another from Sonora, Mexico.

A mimeograph letter has been prepared by the secretary and is being given to farmers calling at the office for cotton prize coupons requesting that letters be prepared to their local newspapers in the town from which our settlers emigrated from. The letter is as follows:
Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce, Wichita Falls, Tex., Nov. 4, 1908.
Dear Sir—Will you co-operate with the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce by writing a statement of your experience along farming lines in this section, giving particulars about the products you raise, how you like the climate and country and general conditions in the Wichita Falls country? We want this letter for the purpose of making a typewritten copy to send to the local newspaper in the town you formerly lived in, so as to secure more publicity for this section. I will add to each letter to the effect that the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce is taking an active interest in the upbuilding of the surrounding country and stands ready to send literature and information to parties wishing same. It is a self-evident fact that every land owner is benefited by the influx of new settlers and that it is within their power to assist very materially in our advertising campaign. The post-office address of the writer is requested, so that the inquirers can write direct if they wish to, or the recipient can turn the inquiries over to the secretary for answer and literature. The following are a few things which should be covered in the letter:

Name of town emigrated from.
Name of local newspaper there.
How long been farming here, crops grown and how you like the climate and country.
What you think of present opportunities for new-comers along farming lines and anything else you wish to say.
Note: Sign name and postoffice address and bring to Chamber of Commerce for forwarding copy. Yours truly,
F. H. GOHLKE, Sec'y.
