DID HE TAKE HIS OWN LIFE?

Dead Japanese Found Near Amarillo, Believed to Have Come From
This City.

Special to the Times.
Amarillo, Tex., Feb. 4.—The body of an unidentified Japanese man was found on the Denver tracks near this city this morning with his skull crushed. With the body was found a package bearing the name of a Wichita Falls firm and $4.00 in money.
The man was neatly dressed.

The dead man is believed to be Tom Schigashi, formerly a porter at the Wichita hotel in this city. Shagashi had been sick for several weeks and yesterday was sent to Denver to take treatment from a Japanese doctor. A ticket was bought for him to Textline,
where Shagashi would buy a ticket into Denver. The people at the hotel believe that Shagashi committed suicide, believing that he was no longer able to work, for it is a common practice among the Japanese to take their own lives when they are no longer able to earn a livelihood.

Shagashi is spoken of at the hotel
as a splendid worker, and it was only because he wanted to go to a Japanese doctor in Denver that the manager of the hotel consented to his leaving.

Arenas on board the Chilean cruiser, Chaca Buco, to extend a welcome to the Chilean ports. The Chilean government placed its coal supply at Punta Arenas at the disposal of the battleships, but fortunately it had not been found necessary to use it.

JOHN W. FIELD DEAD

ESTEEMED CITIZEN ANSWERED
SUMMONS FROM SPIRIT WORLD
MONDAY EVENING.

FATAL ILLNESS SHORT

Was Taken Sick While With Surveying Party—Brought Home and Succumbed to Typhoid-Pneumonia.

"John Field is dead." This simple message was repeated from friend to friend in Wichita Falls last night and in every voice there was a note of deep sorrow, which, better than words, expressed the high esteem in which Mr.
Field was held, both as a citizen and as a friend by the people of Wichita Falls.

The summons from across the river came to Mr. Field at 6:45 p. m. Monday, following a short illness. While his friends and family realized his critical condition, they could not but hope until the last that his splendid useful life would be spared and the announcement of his death was a shock
for which none could be prepared.

While with a surveying party for the Wichita Falls and Southern railroad, for which he was chief engineer, in the Young county coal fields, in the vicinity of True, some miles south of Olney, Mr. Field, who had not been well for some time, became so ill with what was then thought to be only an attack of the grip that he was compelled to give up his work and return to this city, where he arrived on the evening of January 25th, a very sick man.

He was taken to the home of his son-in-law, M. J. Scovell, at 820 Indiana avenue. At that time his condition had become critical and a complication of pneumonia and typhoid fever had developed. In the days that followed between that time and his death, the best of medical attendance and nursing was given the patient and at times he appeared to improve. Sunday he took a turn for the worse and Monday sank into a semi-comatose condition, from which he never rallied, and at the close of the day, after his vital energies had been exhausted,
his spirit answered the last call.

John Walker Field was born in Booneville, Cooper county, Missouri, August 17, 1853. He was educated at Washington and Lee University, where he was a member of the Chi Phi fraternity.

On January 15th, 1880, he was married to Miss Gillie Russell Daniel, a Virginia girl, who, with three daughters, Mrs. M. G. Scovell, Gillie and Sazie Field, survive his death. A sister, Mrs. Fannie Gerard, of Dallas, was at his bedside when death came.

Mr. Field first came to Texas about thirty years ago to take employment with the engineering department of the Texas and Pacific. Later he was an engineer on the survey for the Fort Worth and Denver. It was while with the latter company, that he first saw Wichita Falls and later he came here to make his home, about twenty-six years ago. He established himself here as a civil engineer and soon became recognized as one of the leading men of his profession in Texas. Various enterprises in engineering work in which Mr. Field was engaged have changed the residence of the family to other sections of the Southwest and into Mexico at various times, but after his work was finished they al-

O. E. McNew of the Wichita Falls city schools shows that on February 4th there were 952 pupils

Last year on February 8th the total enrollment was 787, of whom 746 were whites and 41 were nerollment this year over last year is 165.

SIDEWALKS ORDERED

CITY COUNCIL PASSES ORDER
FOR MORE CEMENT SIDE-WALKS.

At its meeting last night the city council ordered the construction of more sidewalks as follows: On both sides of Ninth street from Burnett to Denver avenue. On both sides of Austin avenue from Seventh to Eighth street; on both sides of Travis avenue from Tenth to Seventeenth street.
On both sides of Sixteenth street
from Burnett to Lamar avenue.

The secretary was instructed to notify Mrs. L. N. Johnson, a non-resident, to build a sidewalk in front of her property on Tenth street at once.
An ordinance was ordered drawn up to prohibit persons from driving over the fire hose while laid in or across the streets.

GWINN'S SALARY REDUCED

City Marshal Loses Raise in Pay Recently Voted By City Dads.

Several small refunds were made in occupation and poll taxes where it was shown that errors had been made.
A petition signed by a number of citizens presented by John Prang, asking for a crossing over the railroad tracks on Twelfth street was referred to the streets and alleys committee, which was authorized to act in the matter.

Upon a motion the salary of Marshal Gwinn, which had been raised from $50 to $65 per month was reduced to $50 again. This action was taken because it was shown that the fees from the marshal's office gave that officer what the council considered ample compensation.

Trustee Appointed.

Messrs. R. E. Huff, Judge Scurry, and S. Y. Ferguson returned last night from Fort Worth, where they had been to attend a meeting of the creditors of Ferguson & Tankersley, doing a general mercantile business in this city and Comanche, Okla., and which firms recently met with financial troubles and closed their doors.

As a result of this meeting W. B. Paddock, referee in bankruptcy, has appointed Judge Edgar Scurry of this city as trustee of the stock of goods.

When seen by a Times reporter, Judge Scurry gave it as his opinion that the two firms would soon adjust matters with creditors, and be able to open up again.

Quality Cheapness

When a customer has once been educated to quality, he will seldom seek a store that appeals merely to the desire to save pennies. There are communities where quality arguments would have no weight, but many more could be educated toward quality if the right arguments were used.

Quality arguments are sometimes slow trade builders, but they build exceedingly strong—bargain goods are only a bargain to those who cannot afford the best, but there is generally a hole in a bargain.

If you simply want BARGAIN COFFEE, pay the cheap price, and get it. If you want absolute purity and perfect flavor—the kind that brings you back for more, PAY MORE AND GET MORE.

QUALITY has been behind every business that has built up a solid reputation.

A FRENCH HERCULES.

Marvelous Strength of the Father of Alexandre Dumas.

My father was twenty-four at the time of enlisting and as handsome a young fellow as could be found anywhere.

His free colonial life had developed his strength and prowess to an extraordinary degree. He was a veritable American horse lad, a cowboy. His skill with gun and pistol was the envy of St. Georges and Junot, and his muscular strength became a proverb in the army. More than once he amused himself in the riding school by passing under a beam, grasping it with his arms and lifting his horse between his legs. I have seen him do it, and I recollect my childish amusement when I saw him carry two men standing upon his bent knee and hop across the room with these two men on him. I saw him once in a rage take a branch of considerable toughness in both his hands and break it between them by turning one hand to the right and the other to the left.

A few years later the gallant hussar was a brigadier general and performing feats of valor which earned him the title of "the Horatius Cocles of the Tyrol." Best of all we like the son's description of Horatius' astounding of Mont Cenis:

The climbers reached the plateau. Although it was a dark night, the long line of soldiers, clothed in blue uniforms, could have been perceived outlined against the snow from the fort. But my father had foreseen this contingency; each man had a cotton cap and a shirt rolled up in his knapsack. This was the ordinary dress my father adopted at night when he hunted chamois.

They reached the foot of the pinnacles without having roused a single challenge. The men began climbing the pinnacles as soon as they reached them; but, thanks to my father's herculean strength, he thought of a better and quieter way—namely, to take each man by the seat of his trousers and the collar of his coat and throw him over the pinnacles. The snow would break the fall and also deaden the noise. Surprised out of their sleep and seeing the French soldiers in their midst without knowing how they had come there, the Piedmontese hardly offered any resistance. — From "My Memoirs," by Alexandre Dumas, Translated by E. M. Waller.

MARRIED SIXTY-FIVE YEARS, DIE TOGETHER.

Special to the Times.

Fort Worth, Tex., Feb. 4.—K. K. Leggett, aged 89 years and his wife, 84, were laid to rest at Keller, Tarrant county, Monday, having died but one day apart, after nearly sixty-five years of married life. They probably were the oldest married couple in the county.

The death of Mrs. Leggett bore out a remarkable prediction when she made.

Sunday a week ago Mrs. Leggett, who was taken in the first stages of illness, talked to the members of her family and said: "Next Sunday I am going home. I hope that my husband will go before me and that we will be buried in the same grave. I do not want the funerals held on Sunday."

Mr. Leggett was then also ill with the same disease as his wife, an attack of grip. On account of their extreme age neither was able to resist the disease.

As his wife had wished, Mr. Leggett died before her, the end coming at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Leggett lived until 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

In March this old couple would have celebrated their sixty-fifth wedding anniversary. They had been living in Tarrant county about two years and made their home with their daughter, Mrs. Leamaster, two miles south of Keller.

A GOOD CAMPAIGN DOCUMENT.

It would be interesting to know the secret thoughts of the republican leaders with respect to the president's message. It is easy to see that they don't like it, because of its challenge to the men and interests who are expected to furnish the campaign fund, but they dare not say anything. The people of the country, however, are taking notice, and they are not going to remain loyal to the republican party if congress fails to show in a substantial way a sympathy with the reforms so earnestly demanded by the president. And if the majority undertakes to enact these reforms, the "interests" will not stand for "fat frying" next summer.

Mr. Roosevelt is clearly within his rights when he indignantly disclaims responsibility for the panic, and he is well within the facts when he attributes the trouble to overcapitalization and overspeculation in fictitious securities. It is perfectly absurd to say that a denunciation of corrupt practices in business destroys prosperity, for it does not. The truth of the matter is, the business depression which the country has recently suffered is due entirely to the acts which the president has denounced, and instead of remaining silent for fear of injuring speculative values, it is best to deal with wrongdoing so as to prevent injury to real values.

The country is certain to have a repetition of business depression so long as all the evils of overcapitalization and gambling in stocks are permitted. It requires entirely too large a proportion of the money of the country to finance the speculation in New York, and we have seen that speculation and gambling reach a tremendous volume without regard to the conditions that obtain throughout the country. The legitimate business of the country must be protected against the speculators, otherwise panics will come with increasing frequency.

The democrats can make no mistake by standing for the removal of the fruitful causes of business depression. The people have no sympathy with the cry that reforms should be deferred because attacks upon wrongdoing hurt values. The president has done a great service to the democratic party by so staunchly advocating the very principles upon which it will appeal to the country. His message will be one of the very best campaign documents of the year, and it will make votes for Bryan if the party leaders in congress will only force the hands of the majority and compel them to either take action or to refuse to follow Mr. Roosevelt.

Of course, Mr. Roosevelt is positive that his message will greatly aid his friend Taft, and it will in the contest for delegates, but the people are going to understand before the election that they need not hope for the reforms advocated by Mr. Roosevelt unless the government is entrusted to a party strongly committed to the enactment of reforms. Mr. Taft could not accomplish them with a republican congress, but Mr. Bryan can accomplish them with a democratic congress, and it is this fact that makes the Roosevelt message a first class democratic campaign document.—Houston Post.

COUNTY COURT CASES

LARGE NUMBER OF LIQUOR LAW VIOLATION CASES ON THE DOCKET.

COURT SESSION DELAYED

Trial of Cases in County Court Will Not Be Taken Up Until District Court Adjourns.

The February term of the county court was opened yesterday, but on account of the criminal court still being in session, the trial of any of the cases except where pleas of guilty are made, was delayed until the district court is concluded.

A large number of cases where minor offenses are charged are on the docket in the county court this term. A majority of these cases are against Wichita Falls saloon keepers and their bartenders for selling liquor to minors. These cases are the result of indictments returned by the grand jury. They were originally entered upon the docket of the district court, but were later transferred to the county court.

For Selling Liquor to Minors.

The cases where selling liquor to a minor is the charge are as follows: Dick Wheeler, three cases; Ed. Bradley, C. E. Cash, Harry Hart, C. R. Little, Turner Williams, Jolley Jones, Albert Hendricks, John Prang, J. C. Karnes, Billy Keys, two cases; J. W. Rolling, M. S. Skinner, and Will Bauknight.

Theft Cases.

James Hendricks, Kelly Lewis, and Dick Wade are on the docket charged with theft and a charge of pistol toting also appears against Hendricks.

For Giving Liquor to a Minor.

Mark Honaker will have to answer to a charge of giving liquor to a minor.

Aggravated Assault.

A charge of aggravated assault appears against H. C. Barrett. This charge grows out of a drubbing given a drunken Mexican while Barrett was doing police duty.

For Gaming.

Ed. Waggoner, Walter Wright, Nelse Anderson, O. Clark and M. N. Stovall are charged with gaming.

Destructive Fire at Bowie.

Bowie, Tex., Feb. 4.—Fire was discovered shortly before five o'clock Saturday morning in the rear end of J. C. Jiles grocery store at this place. An alarm was turned in and the fire boys responded promptly and soon extinguished it. The stock was badly damaged from smoke and water. The stock was valued at $2,000 and is probably damaged to three-fourth of its invoice value. Insurance adjusters are looked for today.

From the indications the fire started from the electric wires where they went through the wooden casing of a door in the brick partition between the grocery and a saddle shop. The fire had evidently been burning slowly for several hours as all the windows in the grocery were smoked so that the fire could not be seen through them but was seen through the glass door of the harness shop after it had burned through the partition door.

A tank of "Standard Oil" stood demurely in the hottest of the fire and allowed the wood casing to be half burned from the tank but persistently refused to catch fire itself.

The stock of the harness shop was damaged by water.

The residence of George Tomlinson, city scavenger, was burned to the ground at a late hour Friday evening. The building was small and though a total loss, is not a heavy loss from a financial standpoint.

It is quietly rumored that a North bound Denver passenger was wrecked near Decatur yesterday, 5 coaches going into the ditch. The Pullman and chair car were hauled back to Fort Worth and they, with other Denver trains yesterday, were routed over the Rock Island from Fort Worth to Bowie.

Regular route service has been restored today, and trains are going through on time.

CANADA'S DEPOSIT GUARANTY.

Bank Depositors in Dominion Are Protected by System of Mutual Insurance.

The lawmakers of Washington, D. C. and the financial experts who have been devoting much time and speech to proposed reforms in our banking system, the creation of a central bank, the protection of funds of depositors, and other related questions may find a lesson in the recent closing of the Sovereign bank of Canada and the disposition of its business without the creation of a ripple upon the surface of financial, commercial or industrial affairs of the Dominion.

The Sovereign Bank ranked among the ten big financial institutions of Canada. It had branches in sixty-six towns and cities, and carried something like $30,000,000 in deposits. When its management decided to place the bank in liquidation, the banking association of the Dominion took over the Sovereign, arranged for the disposition of its affairs, and business went on the next morning as though nothing had happened. While the shareholders of the defunct concern may lose considerable, depositors need not know that the bank has failed. They are put to no inconvenience except that of going to another bank, which has charge of old accounts of the Sovereign. This is due solely to the system of mutual protection and insurance that exists among Canadian banks. The Government has no part in it, except a supervisory control of the investment of the funds raised on joint account.

In this country the closing of the doors of seventy-six banks, big or little on one day, would probably precipitate a panic and would certainly mean destruction of assets and loss by depositors. The Canadian incident argues the need of co-operation among banks, the necessity for mutual protection of the general banking interests. It furnishes evidence also that the remedy lies as much with the banks as with the lawmakers.—Omaha Bee.

THAW VERY EXCITABLE.

Visited at Asylum By Lunacy Officers Yesterday.

By Associated Press. Albany, N. Y., Feb. 4.—Dr. Allen Ferris, president of the State lunacy commission, who visited Harry K. Thaw yesterday at Mattewan, said today that Thaw appeared very nervous and excitable, but on such short notice it would be impossible to come to any conclusion as to his permanent mental condition.

Tonight's performance is the last show that will be given in the Olympic, the building having been rented for other purposes.
