HANGING TO A LIMB

LY RISERS AT CONROE DISCOVER DEAD BODY OF NEGRO PROWLER

TRUNG UP AT NIGHT

Coroner Returns Verdict that Deceased Came to His Death at Hands of Unknown Parties.

Conroe, Tex., Feb. 29.—On returning to their daily labors after a peaceful night's rest quite a number who had to pass near the jail discovered Charlie Scott, a negro man, dangling in the air, about ten feet from the ground with an inch rope around his neck and fastened over a limb of an elm tree. How he came there is unknown to the writer, but he was there and very dead.

Thursday night he was found prowling about a home when the man of the house was absent. A woman's scream brought help and the vulture was scared away, and last night the verdict was executed surely by cool-headed men. Everything is quiet here now, though there is some unrest evident among the colored population. Below is the coroner's verdict.

That the deceased, Charlie Scott, a young negro man, came to his death by being hung by the neck with a rope in the hands of unknown parties.

C. T. Darby, a justice of the peace and for Precinct No. 7, Montgomery county, Texas, do hereby certify that an inquest was held before me on the day mentioned, and that the proceedings in said inquest, as described above are correct. C. T. DARBY, Justice of the Peace Precinct No. 7, Montgomery county.

THREW ACID OVER HIM.

Man Who Shot and Killed Wealthy Los Angeles Widow Claims Self Defense.

Los Angeles, Feb. 29.—Mrs. Charles Noyes, wealthy widow was shot and killed at her home here late last night by W. P. McComas a mining engineer who had been friendly with her for several months. McComas contends that the woman dashed a cup full of sulphuric acid in his face and the shooting followed. His blistered face and hands and discolored hair seem to bear out his story. At the woman dashed acid over him.

FEBRUARY TWENTY-NINTH

Today is the twenty-ninth day of February and is the first time that the month has had 29 days since 1904. Leap years only have a February of 29 days. One theory of the name leap year is that Father Time, instead of passing over his accustomed ground, takes an extraordinary leap to the extent of a day more.
Persons born on February 29th have birthdays only once every four years. For instance a child born today will celebrate its first birthday in 1912, and its second birthday in 1916 and so on.

SHOT THROUGH HEAD.

Mother Finds Son's Dead Body Soon After He Returns From Railroad.

Gainesville, Feb. 28.—Fred Owens, a railroad man, killed himself this afternoon by shooting through the head. Owens came in off his run about 3 o'clock and went to the home of his mother, washed up, and after eating a light meal, complained of being tired and went to his room. In a few minutes his mother heard a shot fired, and went into her son's room, where she found him lying on the bed dead. The bullet entered at the right temple and came out just above the left ear. Deceased was about 24 years of age and no cause is given for the deed. He will be buried today under the auspices of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

First Train Out of Olney.

Tom Kemp came over from Olney yesterday on the first regular train run from that place over the Wichita Falls and Southern. It was a mixed train, and among the freight brought to this city was six cars of No. 2 wheat which had been bought by the Wichita Mill & Elevator Co. of this city. There were fifty or sixty passengers on the train also, all of whom came on to Wichita. Mr. Kemp says that within the next few days farmers in and around Olney will load twenty-five cars of wheat for shipment to this city. It all grades No. 2, and was sold at $1.00 per bushel, f. o. b. cars at Olney.

On next Saturday the Southern will run an excursion train out of Olney to this city at its own expense, and a big crowd is expected to take advantage of this occasion to visit Wichita Falls, the railroad and commercial center of Northwest Texas.

Later on an excursion from this city will be run to Olney.

The First Ball Game of the Season.

The Iowa Park and the Wichita Falls high school baseball teams are engaged in the first baseball contest of the season at the ball park this afternoon.

STATE MILITIA PREVENTS ATTACK

Kentwood, La., Feb. 29.—Kentwood today is under military rule, the state troops having arrived yesterday to prevent any attacks upon the Italians who are employed in the lumber camps and at the mills here. Open threats of violence had been made against the Italians and up to the time of the arrival of the troops there was imminent danger of an attack. The complaint against the Italians is that they had accepted a cut in their wages at the mills without the consent and against the wishes of the other workmen.

The Italian population here numbered about 200. Many of the foreigners fled from the camp yesterday and last night the number had been reduced more than half.

The troops are camped close to the mills and no attack is anticipated.

ANCHOR IS WEIGHED.

American Battleship Fleet Sets Sail From Callao.

Callao, Peru, Feb. 29.—The American fleet of battleships under command of Admiral Evans weighed anchor this morning and steamed out of the harbor in column formation heading north. The fleet was viewed outside the harbor by President Pardo of Peru.

RESTRAINING ORDER ISSUED.

Missouri Officials Enjoined From Quoting Insurance Companies.

Kansas City, Feb. 29.—Judge Stover of the U. S. Circuit Court today issued a temporary injunction restraining the Missouri State officials from ousting from this State the Prudential Insurance Company of New York, and the Equitable Assurance Society of New York.

BRYAN SAYS ISSUES ARE LARGELY MORAL

By Associated Press. Jackson, Feb. 29.—Mr. Bryan arrived this morning from Memphis accompanied by several members of the legislative reception committee and will deliver an address before a joint session of the legislature at the Century theatre this afternoon. Hundreds of prominent Democrats are here from all parts of the state to pay their respects to the Nebraskan.

Special to the Times.

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 29.—Five hundred banqueters heard William J. Bryan speak at a local hotel tonight. Mr. Bryan arrived early in the day and was besieged by friends and visitors. He spoke in the afternoon, and at 5 o'clock held a public reception which was attended by many citizens.

At the banquet Mr. Bryan was warmly received and his speech was given marked attention. The speaker said prospects for the coming campaign are very bright from a Democratic standpoint and are growing brighter every day. The issues, in a sense, he said, are moral ones, since all economic questions are, in the last analysis, moral problems. The most important step to be taken for the restoration of better business and industrial conditions, he said, is the building up again of confidence in the banks of the country. Mr. Bryan continued:

"I think the most important step to be taken is to re-assure the depositors in the banks, for until confidence is restored in these banks more or less money will be kept in hiding, and this money ought to be kept in circulation."

Mr. Bryan said he was always glad to visit the south, for the loyalty of its citizens to Democracy and himself was well known. He said he had enjoyed many things President Roosevelt had done. "In fact," said Mr. Bryan, "I have enjoyed some of his actions more than the Republicans. His recent message to Congress was applauded by the Democrats while many Republican leaders sought the cloak rooms to discuss it in the absence of newspaper reporters."

Mr. Bryan charged that Wall street had largely helped the Republican party to continue in power. He said the recent panic was largely due to Wall street, and "the fellows down there must have felt bad. I appreciate all that President Roosevelt has done in making many of my ideas successful. In New York they are 'cussin' him now even more than they formerly 'cussed' me."

Mr. Bryan said that never in the history of the country had any party been more thoroughly vindicated than had the Democratic party in the last ten years. The Republicans boasted ten years ago, he said that they would elect anybody to the high office of President, and now they are afraid they could elect nobody. Mr. Bryan strongly advocated States' rights, and discussed the trust question along his usual lines.

"Our platform at the next convention," he said, "will be outspoken for tariff reform, but if there is a Democrat in the whole country who thinks the Democratic party will surrender to the railroads, I desire to assure him there is one who will not."

The speaker advocated the appointment of a commission to investigate all railroads, and to see what they are worth and place the amount on which they should be permitted to collect their returns.

THREE MEN KILLED IN A QUARREL

PROHIBITION ISSUE

CAMPAIGN FOR STATE WIDE PROHIBITION LAUNCHED IN FORT WORTH TODAY.

ORGANIZATION IS MADE

Prohibition Question Will Be Submitted at the Democratic Primary, July 27th.

Special to the Times. Fort Worth, Feb. 29.—The campaign for state wide prohibition was launched today when 150 delegates from all parts of Texas met here and outlined their policies for the contest. The meeting was called to order by O. S. Lattimore of Fort Worth. J. Z. Miller of Belton was elected chairman, and H. C. Harris of Greenville, secretary. Committees were appointed to map out the work. It was decided to submit the prohibition question in the democratic primaries on July 25. The speakers declared that the drys will win by a hundred thousand majority in the state.

It is under the James bill which passed the last legislature that the prohibition Democrats propose their new plan. This law provides that upon a petition of 10 per cent of the voters at the last primary election the state Democratic executive committee shall include any issue presented, on the official ballot. Under the James law the prohibition Democrats plan petitions embracing the issue of state prohibition and conforming to it, and when presented to the Democratic executive committee the body has no alternative but to place the issue on the ballot for the primary of July 25.

Through this means the promoters hope to put the Democratic party in Texas in record as favoring state prohibition, and thus swing the party by platform demands created by the voter themselves to the support of legislative enactments designed to fly the dry banner over the entire state of Texas. The contest would thus be confined to the Democratic ranks and the instrument through which state prohibition is realized.

Merely getting the preference of the voters, however would not decide the question, and the right would revert to the legislature. But if the issue is pinned on the Democratic primary ballot of July 25 every candidate will be forced to declare himself and the prohibitionists will have the opportunity of picking men favorable to their cause and getting a majority of the next legislature, provided they develop sufficient voting strength.

MURDERED BY THIEVES.

Body of Ship Master Found On Water Front in New Orleans.

New Orleans, Feb. 29.—Captain Frank Kemble, of New York, master of the Southern Pacific passenger steamer, Antilles, was murdered here early today on the water front near his ship. The body was found with the pockets of his clothing turned inside out. The police attributed the crime to thieves.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hill of Petrolia are in the city visiting relatives.

BORN FEB. 29th, 1856, CELEBRATES 12th BIRTHDAY.

J. N. Porter, roadmaster for the Wichita Valley railroad is celebrating his twelfth birthday today. Mr. Porter is not as juvenile as one would think from the fact that his twelfth birthday was celebrated today. In fact Mr. Porter is a man of mature years having been born on Feb. 29th, 1856. He has had a birthday once every four years excepting in 1900, when Father Time on the calendar cheated him out of a birthday because the February that year did not have 29 days.

JOHNNY'S CAREER.

The Same That Was Started by the Cornell Widow.

Sheer nonsense rhymes and jokes without apparent reason or object are frequently used to fill the pages of the Cornell Widow. If anything more foolish than the "Man of Glegledorf" verse has ever been written, the Widow wishes to state that her bump of credulity was imported from Missouri and must be shown:

There was a man from Glegledorf
Who, to save his barber's fees,
Would wet his hair and let it freeze,
And when 'twas frozen break it off.

The Widow claims the credit of originating the nonsense rhymes which dealt with the cleverness and precocity of the bright little lad who carelessly slaughtered his mother, father and immediate relatives. These poems, if so they may be called, appeared in the Widow in October and November, 1900. The same year they were collected and published in pamphlet form under the name of "The Johnny Book." Johnny started his career by "an tragedy" as follows:

Johnny hung his little sister,
She was dead before they missed her.
Johnny's allus up t' tricks
Ain't he cute?—he's only six.

Next we find that—Johnny with his little ax
Dealt his brother orful wacks.
He don't care if mamma kicka.
Ain't he cute?—he's only six.

Later development of the little romp shows that—

John has gone from bad to worse.
New his father's in a hearse.
Smoked him with a load of bricks.
Ain't he cute?—he's only six.

And so on until finally—Johnny saw a buzzsaw buzz
Like a bike and thought it wuz.
Johnny's corpse is full of nicks.
Ain't he cute?—he's only six.

These verses terminated the Widow's connection with John, but papers all over the country took up his instructive and edifying career and pushed it to a finish. Still another verse which started in the Widow office and traveled all over this country and part of others was the bit of "Eb and Flo" doggerel. In this we discover that—

Flo was fond of Ebeneser—
Eb, for short, she called her beau.
Taak of "tides of love!" Great Caesar!
You should see 'em, Eb and Flo.

By itself this beautiful bit could hardly claim a place in a volume of great American poets, but when it traveled far and wide and received an extra verse at each resting place it became a pursuing nightmare. — From "Humorous College Journalism" in Bohemian Magazine.

Women the Greater Dreamers.

A Vienna doctor has published the following figures:
Thirteen men out of a hundred as against thirty-three women dream during their sleep. The number of men who dream frequently is 27 per cent; that of women is 45 per cent. As a general rule, it may be said that the weaker sex has twice as much tendency to dreaming as the opposite sex. The cerebral phenomenon under consideration is absolutely unknown to 9 per cent, and 14 per cent dream only very rarely.

It seems idle to add that the same doctor noted, what is perfectly well known, that almost all our dreams are suggested more or less directly by the incidents of the material life of every day.—Boston Advertiser.

Thrifty Paganini.

When Paganini was asked many years ago to play at Vauxhall Gardens he inquired how many persons the place would hold.

"That is impossible to say," said the manager. "It is a large, open space."

After some reflection the great violinist inquired, "How many will the large, open space contain when quite full?"

"Perhaps 20,000."

"Ah, 20,000 people! And you ask how much?"

"Four shillings each."

"Four shillings each! Twenty thousand at 4 shillings make 80,000; 80,000 shillings, £4,000. Well, I will play in one concert for £3,000, and you may have the other thousand."—St. Louis Republic.

Poles of the Earth.

The circle of the earth's daily rotation upon its axis being the greatest at the equator, the consequent greater action there of the centrifugal force during the period when the earth was a yielding mass produced a bulging out of the surface in the equatorial region, with a consequent flattening at the poles. Thus we have an oblate spheroid, with the length of the axis of the poles about twenty-six and a half miles less than the equatorial diameter.

A Literal Youth.

"Why, Johnny," said Mrs. Muggins, "what are you doing here at home? Is Willie's party over?"

"None," blubbered Johnny, "but the minute I got inside the house Willie's father told me to make myself at home, and I came."—Harper's Weekly.

Produce much, consume little, labor diligently, speak cautiously.—Chinese Proverb.

DAVIDSON AS DENVER DELEGATE

Senator Mayfield Favors Pitting Attorney General Against United States Senator Bailey.

Fort Worth, Tex., Feb. 27.—Senator E. B. Mayfield of Meridian was here this afternoon en route to Dallas to attend the Pan Helene banquet. Regarding the request for recognition of the executive committee action, he said:

"I really think that it is the same old story of the dying man grasping at the last straw. This proposition is hedged in and about by so many limitations, etc., as to give to Bailey's friends on the executive committee an excuse for accepting the same. I am sure the anti-Bailey people will gladly accept any proposition that will give the people of Texas an opportunity to pass upon his fitness to represent them in the National convention.

"Personally I favor an open fight in selecting our delegates and favor pitting Gen. Davidson against Senator Bailey as a delegate to the National convention, for I fell sure that all the good democrats of Texas who favor honesty in politics and a pure public service will rally to the standard of Gen. Davidson.

"You may rest assured that Bosque County will send a big delegation to the convention to be held in Waco March 7."

The National Feeders and Breeders Show at Fort Worth opens March 11th and holds one week. The average citizen does not know what this great show means. It means the bringing out of all that is best in the whole livestock world for the Southwest. It means that the farmer who once sets eye on the good cattle, horses, hogs, etc., will never be satisfied with scrubs. It means that fine stock for the Southwest will preach sermons on the improvement of farm conditions while the farmer works for their comfort and considers their well-being. Will a farmer provide good quarters for his hogs and horses and neglect the home comforts of his family? Not for long. Will a farmer feed his stock as they need to be fed and refuse to supply his hungry land with food for the coming crop? Not for long. One of these improvements call for the other. Great is the Feeders and Breeders Show. It is planned on the best of instructive principles and should be attended by thousands who desire to see the best that can be shown in the livestock world.—Farm and Ranch.

Grafters and grafting is growing more common as the world grows older. It is practiced by all classes. Often it happens that a worthy person is given the cold shoulder because he does not succeed in making the right kind of impression on the party he applies for assistance, but the smoothest "grafters" are those that are capable of putting up the most impressive talks. Occasionally the Times meets one of this kind, and only yesterday a fellow of good appearance—applied for work, was told to show up the following morning. On this promise of work he "panhandled" from 50 cents to a dollar from as many of the force as he could, including the manager, and that was the last seen of him. Doubtless, he makes this his business. He gives his name as Ragland, and displayed a Typographical Union card issued by the Fort Worth Union. If the Typographical Union throughout the country would handle such fellows as that, employing printers would soon learn to know that when a printer applied for work and displayed a union card, he could be relied upon.

Window Cleaning in College Course.
Dirty windows are a bane to the flat dweller, for her maid absolutely refuses to wash them, and of course the janitor is away on mild days. In such circumstances it is a lemonlike smile that will cross the features of the New York housekeeper when she hears of a new move in King's college, London. A course in domestic theory has been established there, and much time will be given to the ethics of scrubbing. Surely scrubbing should include windows. The first course will begin in next October. "Students who have been graduated in science should be able to condense this special course into one year," says the head master. "As far as I am aware, nothing of this new course of study has been attempted in Europe."

Extra Pay For Musical Sailors.
In future an allowance of 2 shillings a week will be paid in British ships in which a chaplain is allowed and in certain other vessels to any properly qualified member of the ship's company who plays the harmonium or any other suitable instrument and conducts the choir during divine service.

Wichita Daily Times

Published Daily Except Sunday.

—By—

The Times Publishing Company.
(Printers and Publishers.)

Published at Times Building, Indiana Avenue.

Ed Howard.....General Manager
B. D. Donnell.....City Editor.

Wichita Falls, Texas, Feb. 29th, 1908.

At the suggestion of Myles O'Reilly, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, is interviewing the merchants of the city relative to the observance of a monthly sales day in Wichita Falls. Nearly every merchant who has been seen so far is heartily in favor of appointing a certain day to be regularly set apart when farmers who have live stock, or products of any character could bring them in to an open market where buyers, sellers or traders could meet to their mutual advantage.

Denison has observed such a day for several years and the trades day has become one of the biggest attractions the town has.

Hundreds, even thousands of farmers and live stockmen are in Denison with their families on trade day, and much patronage which might go to other places has been diverted to Denison merchants. The Times believes that a monthly sales day would be a good thing to inaugurate in Wichita Falls and is ready to give the movement whatever aid it can.

The Times is authorized to announce as a candidate for the Legislature from this, the 105th district, Hon. G. E. Hamilton of Childress, Childress County. The Times in presenting Mr. Hamilton's name to the voters of this district, can say on what it deems good authority that he is a young lawyer of about eight years experience, and has developed considerable ability as such. He is also a Democrat, and his candidacy for the legislature is subject to the action of the party. Doubtless, before the campaign is over, Mr. Hamilton will visit Wichita County and tell the people here in his own way just what kind of Democrat he is, and also his views on other questions which are more than likely to come up for legislation at the next session of our state law making body. In the meantime the Times asks that the voters, withhold judgment until they can have an opportunity of hearing more about Mr. Hamilton, and the stand he proposes to take on important issues.

The fellow who boasts of money to burn is most generally the one who has it yet to earn. Sometimes they succeed in making their "bluff" go, but more often come to grief. The man who lives within his income, it matters not what that might be, is a safer proposition to tie to, and he will succeed in a long race.

On next Monday, the Daily Times, according to previous announcement, will add 300 names to its list of subscribers, who will receive the paper for a period of four months. These extra 300 subscriptions will be sent to parties residing on the rural routes running out of this city, with the compliments of the First National Bank, one of Wichita Falls oldest and most substantial institutions. At the end of the time paid for the subscriptions will be discontinued unless the parties thus complimented desire to have them renewed at their own expense.

When it comes to voting, the Times is right smart of a populist. Suppose the city council give the people of Wichita Falls a chance to vote on the latest proposition submitted to that body by the Water Works Company? This would be fair, and the result of such an election should be accepted in good faith by both the company and the people. "Let the voice of the people be heard" on this, as well as other matters concerning their welfare.

MR EATON'S ADDRESS

NORTH CAROLINA MAYOR TALKS ON THE FUNCTIONS OF BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS.

HAVE IMPORTANT PLACE

Aid the Laboring Man and Are Important Factors for Prosperity and Good.

By Associated Press.

New Orleans, Feb. 29.—At the annual convention of the National Building Association held here today, Mayor O. B. Eaton of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, was the principal speaker.

Mr. Eaton spoke in part as follows:

"Considering the scope and character of its work the Building and Loan Association is one of the greatest institutions the mind of man has ever devised or produced. Transcendent in its purposes, potent in its influence, wonderful in achievements, it stands next to the public school in power, in influence and importance. It is an institution closest to the people, most characteristic of the people and fullest of hope for the people. It is a great unit expressing itself, in the first place, in the product of human labor. A piece of money in an old stocking is no more than a leaf upon a tree. It is when the coin is taken out and used that it becomes of value, and the nature of the value depends upon the quality of the use.

The building and loan association collects the numberless little rills of capital which flow from labor and which would minister less effectively to human needs and converts them into visible and substantial wealth most needful to man. It is the poor man's bank in the highest sense. It receives and lends his money and then organizes and utilizes the full force and effect of his capital and makes it contribute its part to the wealth of the world and to the sustenance and welfare of the people.

It teaches the purchasing power of money; it increases a man's earning power and capacity for service; it teaches the great lesson of economy; it teaches him to accumulate something for his declining years; it teaches that some measure of self-denial is an invaluable condition and blessedness in human life; it teaches a man that in order to build up in the community he must own a home or in some way be tied in a business direction to the community in which he lives; it teaches that one of the roads to good citizenship lies in the ownership of homes and that in communities where this is secured society and individuals are having their highest development and the largest allotment of human happiness. It encourages industry it means progress. It means push, it means development, it means a steady movement to better things and more glorious achievements. It teaches a man to stand upright and self-respecting, working out his destiny in the sweat of his brow, loyal to his town and earnest in his allegiance wherever it rest.

A nation's greatness and power lies in her homes where the spirit of ownership reign and around whose altar liberty is enshrined in their own hearts. Home is the basis of society and good government.

There is nothing comparable in power, in influence and in importance in the development of citizenship as the spirit of home ownership among men, and for every dollar invested in the encouragement of this idea thousands of dollars will be saved by lessening crime and by building up a citizenship imbued with principles of life and duty who stand ready to fight our battles, win our victories and who are the great conservators of liberty.

If he who caused two blades of grass to grow where formerly grew but one is a benefactor to the race, how much greater benefactor must that organization be that builds homes where formerly there were none. Through the instrumentality of the Building and Loan Association millions of homes have been built where virtue resides in the warmth and purity of vestal fires and where contentment dwells like a perpetual summer. Around these homes linger all the dearest and sweetest associations of life, upon them hang the hopes of happiness of the nations of the earth and above them shines the ever blessed star that lights the pathway back to the paradise that was lost.

FRESH AIR SCHOOL.

Marked Success of First One Established in United States.

WINDOWS KEPT WIDE OPEN.

Nearly All of Twenty Pupils Studying at Providence Showed Signs of Tuberculosis or Had Consumptive Parents—Warm Cotton Bags For Legs.

While the thermometer hovered in the vicinity of zero a few days ago, twenty girls and boys, pupils of the first fresh air school in the United States, sat snugly and warmly wrapped in their cotton bags in the old Meeting street school at Providence, R. I. They apparently were as comfortable as the thousands of pupils in the other schools in the city despite the fact that the temperature maintained in the room was at no time above 45 degrees.

The public school authorities are enthusiastic over the success that the fresh air school has achieved in a few weeks' existence. At a meeting of the school board Superintendent Small reported that he was more than pleased with the outlook and expressed the opinion that the fresh air school will be one of the most beneficial public institutions Providence ever has had.

Already, he said, the children, living practically all day in the cool, fresh air, are beginning to show signs of improvement. Little faces that were sallow and pinched a few weeks ago have a healthy flush, and children who were too tired to play are beginning to show some interest in life. All of this, Mr. Small told the school board, is what the fresh air school has accomplished.

Mr. Small expects to see the day when at least three of his small pupils who are now suffering with consumption will have been cured.

The school was founded at the instigation of the League For the Suppression of Tuberculosis, and it is primar-ly intended not only to fight the spread of the white plague, but also to teach the children the value of fresh air as a health producer and destroyer of the germs of disease.

The school is under the direction of Mrs. Mary Appleton. The pupils were selected from children who were suffering with some disease which disqualified them from attending other public schools. Each was subjected to a physical examination by a physician before he or she was admitted. When their names were placed on the roll book, they became at once patients and pupils.

Ten children answered the roll on the first day, but before the week ended this number had been increased to twenty. Some of them have attended other schools, but others never had been within the walls of an institution of that kind. Many of the children showed signs of consumption; other have parents who have had that disease; others have tuberculosis of the bones. One has heart trouble.

A record of the condition of the children is taken from time to time, and such suggestions as the doctors may think necessary for the improvement of their health are carried out by the teachers.

The schoolroom is on the second floor of the building. The south side of the room, facing on Meeting street, is wide open to allow sunshine and fresh air to enter. Five swinging windows are caught up by means of a rope and pulleys and can be lowered in case of rain or snow. They are so adjusted that, while fresh air is always circulating through the room, there is at no time a draft.

The furniture in the room is of the same kind as is used in the other public school buildings. The room is heated by a big round stove in the center.

In order that as much protection as possible may be given the children they are allowed to wear their coats and hats while in the schoolroom.
Their legs are incased in warm cotton bags, which are drawn up as far as the waist and then tied. If the child feels cold notwithstanding this protection, the teacher gives him permission to sit by the stove. In case the feet get cold despite the bag, soapstone warmers are placed under them.

For the rest, the scholars are instructed in the studies that are taught in other public schools. The sessions are from 9 to 11:45 a. m. and from 12:45 to 3 p. m.

Can a filled case be told from a solid gold one?

An experienced person might detect a difference if he had them side by side.

The average person could not tell the difference?

No.

Then for all practical purposes a filled case watch is as good as a solid one?

Yes, because the works are really the watch.

What store is prepared to offer extra values in watches?

A. S. Fonville's Jewelry Store can interest any watch needer at any price he wants to pay, and interest him to his own advantage.

The Bowwow and the Burglar.
[Five Belgian police dogs are doing patrol duty in New York city.]

With each foot in a rubber soled boot,
Once a burglar went out after loot.
Drills and jimnies he juggled,
And a tomcat he hugged
'Neath the coat of his hand-me-down suit.

A police dog imported from Ghent
In pursuit of the bold burglar went,
And he gave a loud yelp,
'Meaning, "Here he is—help!"
Just as soon as his nose struck the scent.

Did the burglar get as limp as a rag
And resort to revolver and gag?
No. He merely hissed "Scat!"
To his big Thomas cat
And then coolly walked off with the swag.

When the roundsman rushed up in fierce glee
Not a trace of the thief could he see,
But the four legged "cop."
Near the burglarized shop,
Had the big Thomas cat up a tree!
