MAKES FINE BRICK

Have you seen those brick and tile samples at Bean & Stone's real estate office? Aren't they beauties, and bet-oll call on the question whether the ter than anything you have ever seen shipped into Wichita Falls?

These brick and tile, samples were made at Bucyrus and Dayton, Ohio, from clay dug from a tract adjoining the city, where there are acres and acres of this kind of clay, a supply large enough to furnish-all the brick used in Texas. A number of sacks of this clay dug from various depths were shipped to eastern kilns some time ago to be burned and all of the clay has, produced brick and tile of a superior quality Local parties, with Mr. Stanniforth practical brick manufacturer of Gainesville, have taken an option on a tract of land near the city, and now that the clay has produced as fine a quality of brick and tife as could be wished for, it is believed that the organization of a company to put in a big brick plant will be speedily perfected and work begun on the plant at erable numbers in the lelds of older, an early date.

It is proposed to expend not less than $50,000 in the plant, which will be one of the largest of its kind in September 58

Corners of Eighth Street and Ohio and Indiana Avenues Are Sites for

New Structures.

The contract for the erection of what is to be known as the Kemp & Kell building is to be awarded this week and the construction work will commence at once. This will be a 50x100 foot two-story brick structure, to be constructed on the southeast corner of Ohio avenue and Eighth street (the old opera house site), and is to have a plate glass front and side. The upper story will be occupied with the offices of the Wichita Falls and Northwestern and the Wichita Falls and Southern rallway companies. The ground floor will be for rent or lease.

Mrs. Bateman and R. M. Moore, who own the two lots on the southwest corner of Indiana avenue and Eigath street, have agreed to have a two or three-story brick structure constructed on the lots and a Fort Worth architect is now drawing up plans for the structure. It is said that the third story, if it is to be added, will be occupied by some lodge, probably the Elks.

These two handsome structures will add greatly to the appearance of the business portion of Wichita Falls and bring the owners handsome returns on the money invested.

The cost of the buildings and improvements now in course of construc-tion or to be made in the immediate future reaches nearly $200,000.

State Presidents of Farmers' Associations Consider Action.

Little Rock, Ark., April 3.—The quarterly meeting of the presidents of State organizations of the Farmers' Educational and Co-Operative Association opened this morning in the supreme court chamber of the State capitol. The presidents remained in session the entire day, considering the question of financing farmers over the country who are holding cotton. No definite action was taken other than to decide that the cotton should be held until a general price of 15c is se-cured for it, if it takes five or ten years to secure that figure.

Reports were made from various sections of the country at yesterday's meeting to the effect that banks were second time in six weeks a bomb has meeting to the effect that banks were been exploded by the "black hands" at willing to finance the union farmers in their present movement to hold cot ton for 15c. Today was spent almost entirely in considering matters concerning the inner workings of the union, which were not given out for publication. Practically no definite action was taken, as the work was being mapped out ready for Saturday's session.

It will be remembered that in March, 1907, the democrats in the senate killed the ship subsidy bill, which had passed the house by republican votes. Senator Carmack of Tennessee led in the filibuster which resulted in the defeat of this iniquitous measure. Now the republican senate has passed a ship subsidy bill and the measure goes to the house. It seems that the republican party has ample time to pass measures demanded by the financiers, such as the Aldrich bill, and measures demanded by the subsidy grabbers, such as the shipping bill. But when the people demand tariff revision and other important reforms they are expected to be satisfied with the assurance that if they will again trust the republican party with power they may have such tariff revision as "friends of the tariff" think the people are entitled to-after the presidential election.

some, though the coast is bleak and the winter snows are deep. She lives n Godthaab, the capital of the colony  of south Greenland. The white women spend many of the summer hours on the hills or in the gardens.

The writer says that life is not irk simple, jolly and industrious.

"My garden," she writes, "from the Greenland point of view, is a great success. A broad walk divides it into two parts. On one side beets, radishes, cabbages and some other vegetables grow lustily and mature even in the short summer.

"On the other is a beautiful grass plot, sprinkled with dandellions and daisies, and in a corner is a little hothouse in which we bring a few European flowers and strawberries to perfection. Near the entrance are garden chairs and a little table, and often, in the afternoon, all the white women in the colony sit here with their needles, enjoying their tea and the boquets of roses and gilly flowers which the hothouses provides.'

The Danish mothers and their children are often seen on fine summer days climbing the hills behind the settlement, some with their sewing, others with books, while a tea kettle and a basket of fresh baked cake are carried by the young Eskimos. In sunny places, protected from the wind, the pienie-party enjois the glorious view of the blue sea, and the entertainment is varied by visits from the village goats, imported from Europe genera-tions ago and thriving in their new home.

The single street of Godthaab, says the New York Sun, is lined with houses and bears the name of Lange Linie, in memory of the famous promenade of that name in Copenhagen. It is a noisy street in summer, for it' is the center of the happy out-of-door life of he people and the playground of the children, both Greenlanders and European.

The little felks recognize no racial distinction. They are all playmates torether; and in fact, there is a large European admixture in all the Eski-

You cannot accomplish much in a business way without the services of a bank, and when it comes to a question of whether or not you should have some bank connections, there is only one answer: Any business will derive some benefit from a bank's service.

The service that a bank gives to its customers places within their reach every advantage to carry on financial matters easily. I Many persons are timid about opening a bank account because they think their knowledge of banking is limited, or perhaps they consider their amount too small.

To any such person, we wish to say that the opening of a bank account is very easy; we explain all details and make it simple for you. We also encourage any who have small sums to open an account.

from one settlement to another with the mail. The Eskimos are just as interesting as we are, for all can read and write and are eager for the news from their friends in the northern colonies. Only a few old women standing in their doors or sitting on the flat roofs have no part in the general excitement.

"But the stir and bustle are greatest if an oar is fixed upright like a mast in the boat. This means that the boat is from one of the southern settlements, where a vessel from Den-mark has arrived, and the Eskimo postmen are trusted with letters from our dear ones in the home land, as the ship is unloading a part of her cargo and will not arrive for several days. The governor of the colony opens the post bag and its contents are for days the chief topic of con-versation." A different aspect Godthaab wears in the winter months. Even in South Greenland there is a long period when the moon and stars are the only illumination and there is just enough light to make the settlement look dimly shost like, nearly buried, as it is, in the deep snow

Some of the Eskimos give all their time to shoveling the snow out of Lange Linie, so that there may be one place to promenade between the dwellings, the school house, the kirk, the store and the meathouses, where supplies of frozen flesh and birds are kept

The path is wide and walled in on either side by snow piles. But even in this gloomy season the white women wrapped in furs, have their walks and picnics.

There is zest in the air and in fine weather the women enjoy a scramble among the frozen hills and valleys; and if fresh snow lies deep and soft they wear snowshoes. It is a busy time for the Eskimos, for their main business is to look out for the comfort of Denmark's agents in Greenland. They bake, brew, forge, sweep and clean.

It is far better to boost for your town, county and State than to be everlastingly fighting the battles of this or that candidate for political honors. If one is to believe half the leading candidates of the opposing factions are saying of each other, there would not be much honor to the democratic party of Texas in delegating either to represent it in the national convention.

In a letter under date of St. Paul, Minn. March 27th, and addressed to the publisher of the Swedish American Post of Minneapolis, Governor Johnson announces his candidacy for the democratic nomination for the presidency In this letter Mr. Johnson said: "Matters have progressed so far, however, that it seems to me that I should at least say, in answer to your interroga-tion, that if the democratic party of the nation believe me to be more available than any other man, and felt that by my nomination I could contribute any service to the party and to the nation, I should be happy to be the recipient of the honor which has been paid me by the people of Minnesota, and if the democratic party of the State desires to present my name to the next national convention, I am sure I would have no objection; but even if Minnesota were the only State to declare for me at that time, I should still feel that the distinction was one of the greatest which could come to me."

Mandalay Sauce The New Relish

Several years ago an English arm officer found a recipe in the far East for making a cold meat relish. He liked it so well that he brought it back and sold it to the Heinz Co.

They are now manufacturing it under the name of Mandalay Sauce. It is composed of the choicest fruits, vegetables and spices of foreign and domestic origion. very skillfully blended.

It gives a wonderful zest to hot or cold meats, fish. game; soups and gravies. It is a great appetizer and improves by at least 50 per cent all dishes in which it is used.

Per bottle 35c.

Taft's Opponents Making Hard Fight and Secretary Hasn't a Cinch On the Nomination.

Washington, April 2.—While Secretary Taft continues to enjoy a long lead in the race for delegates to the Republican national convention, those opposed to him have by no means abandoned hope of preventing his nomination. Frank Hitchcock, the Taft manager, claims 552 delegates pledged and in prospect for his delegate. This would land the secretary on the first ballot, as 491 votes will nominate.

The opposition discredit Hitchcock's calculations and charge the Taft manager with trying to capture the nomination by bluster and bogus claims. To this end the Taft people planned the early assembling of conventions in states favorable to the war secretary. From now on, say the representatives of the opposition, the Taft forces must fight for what they get, and they predict that within the next thirty days the band wagon will dorp back.

So far 254 delegates have been elected. Of these, 146 that are uncontested have been inisructed for Taft and sixteen that are for him have been contested. There are twenty-two other contested delegates claimed by the anti-Taft men. There are twenty-four uninstructed delegates and some of these are Taft men, as in Virginia, where Taft men were selected but not instructed.

In opposition the ranks Indiana has instructed twenty-six delegates for Fairbanks and Illinois twenty for Can-The big vote of New York for non. Hughes and Pennsylvania for Knox are soon to be added. Most of the New England states are expected to resist Taft instructions. It is claimed that in addition with the votes now aligned the field and the favorite son states it will be necessary to secure but 140 votes more to control the convention. In response to the statement that there are many second choice Taft votes in the favorite son States, it is claimed that there are corresponding soft spots in the Taft column.

Mr. Blaine's Request.

Years ago, just two weeks after Grover Cleveland had been inaugurated president for the first time, Jas. G Blaine, his defeated opponent, went to the White House and into the Cleveland presence. became known afterward that Mr. Blaine told Mr. Cleveland that he came to ask a favor, only one favor of the administration. Then the defated one told the president that he hoped sincerely that a certain man in Maine, a democrat, would not be given the office that it was known he craved. Mr. Blaine told Mr. Cleveland that

Mr. Blaine told Mr. Cleveland that the campaign of the summer and fail previous had been a campaign o. personal abuse and mud-slinging in which neither party chief had a part and which both discountenanced. The Maine man who Mr. Blaine wished to have denied the office that he sought was the man who in a large part was responsible for certain stories concerning the early personal life of Blaine, which, even had they been true, should never have seen print. Mr. Cleveland's answer to Mr. Blaine on that occasion was never known in its exact form, but this much is known, the Maine mud slinger asked for his of

LOADED AT ARCHER CITY

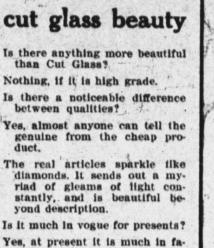

Two Train Loads a Day Being Moved Over the Wichita Falls and Southern Rallway.

One of the largest movements of cattle ever known in this section of the country is now under way and during the next week the Wichita Falls and Southern will haul nearly three hundred carloads of steers from Archer City. Of these 60 cars will be loaded with cattle from the "66" ranch, owned by L. F. Wilson and the remainder will come from the Club ranch and are owned by Mr. Courtney and E. B. Carver.

The cattle are bein ghauled out of Archer City at the rate of two train loads a day and at this rate about a week will be required to complete the shipment.

At this place the loaded cars will be turned over to the Katy and will be hauled to a point on the Fort Smith and Western railroad in Oklahoma, where the cattle will be placed on pasture.

Leave your watch at home. Depend upon the sun and your appetite to mark the flight of time. You'll be surprised how long and restful a day will seem under these circumstances. You might stick a fishing line in one pocket, a small can of worms in another and a sandwich in every other pocket. The more pockets for sandwiches the better.. The fis hin the creek will not be quite as big as the ones you caught while you were working so hard on your midsummer vacation last year, but they will give you a lot more fun. Cut a willow pole and don't call to mind the fact that there are such things as steel rods and multiplying reels. Just imagine that you are playing hookey from school again, and wonder what you will do with the fish. When you played hookey for sure and caught a big mess of fish you didn't dare take them home. Gee, don't you wish you could do that all over again?

Denison, Tex., April 3 .- The Missonri, Kansas & Texas railway shops which closed down March 20 resumed work this morning full handed.

Those of us who studied the Sunday school lesson of last week learned (if we did not know it before) that the apostle John lived to the riperage of 98 years and died a natural death, while all the others were put to death in the prime of life. John wrote more than any of the apostles, with a single exception; he contended just as earnestly for the faith and doubtless did as much to advance the Master's kingdom as any of the chosen representatives, yet he was the only one that escaped death at the hands of the peo-The secret of this is not hard to ple. find. John was a modest man-so modest that he would not even write his own name; he was a meek man, not a quarreler, not a street "argufier" and did not feel it his duty to lick every man that differed from him. He was the favorite of his Master, and doubtless, the favorite of his associates. He did a noble work and was favored by his Lord with a long life and a vision of the world to come. There is a lesson in this for all of us-a moral that everyone can see and should heed.-Honey Grove Signal.
